The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

1 REjoyce not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from ‖Or, in, &c. [2] thy God; [3] thou hast loved a reward ‖ upon every corn-floor.

[1] q. d. Please not your selves, O ye of the ten Tribes, in thinking your Prosperity as lasting and secure, as other Nations hope their's will be, because your sin is greater, and punishment will be more certain, Amos 3. 2. ¶ [2] To whom thou hast plighted thy troth, (which other Nations have not done.) ¶ [3] And this thou didst in hope of plenty, and full Barns, as a reward of thy service of thy Idols, Jer. 44.-17.

‖Or, wine-fat. 2 The floor and the ‖ wine-press shall [4] not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in [5] her.

[4] Not afford 'em that plenty they expect. ¶ [5] This Land.

3 They shall [6] not dwell in the LORDs land;
*Dan. 1. 8. but [7] Ephraim shall [8] return to Egypt, and
* they shall [9] eat unclean things in Assyria.

[6] Continue in the Land of Judea. ¶ [7] Many of the ten Tribes. ¶ [8] See on ch. 8.-13. ¶ [9] Ezek. 4. 13. Be carried captive to Assyria, and shall there eat meats forbidden by the Law, (as their Heathen Masters do.)

Chap. 9.

4 [10] They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, [11] neither shall they be pleasing unto him; their sacrifices shall be [12] unto them as the [13] bread of mourners: all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their [14] bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

[10] And then they shall be deprived of the publick Ordinances, and not have liberty and opportunity to enjoy 'em. ¶ [11] Jer. 6.-20. Or if they would, or might offer Sacrifices there, yet they'd not be acceptable in that place. ¶ [12] As polluting and defiling. ¶ [13] Deut. 26. 14. ¶ [14] Meat-offerings and Sacrifices for their sins, shall not be permitted to be brought to the Temple.

5 [15] What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

[15] q. d. And whereas you were wont at certain times to meet and rejoice together before the Lord, when you are carried Captives into a strange Land under cruel oppressors, you'l have neither heart nor leave to keep such Festivals then.

6 For lo they are [16] gone, because of † de-

[16] Fled into forreign Countries to escape destruction in their own Land, ch. 8.-13. ¶ [17] Many shall betake themselves thither for shelter, and there shall live and die, and never return again to their own habitations. ¶ [18] While in the mean time those lovely mansions, which they had purchast with their mony, shall be overgrown with nettles and thistles, Isa. 32. 13. and 34. 13. Prov. 24. 31.

iniquity, and the great hatred.

[19] As near and sure as if already come. ¶ [20] Find then the truth of what has been threatned (though now they won't believe it.) ¶ [21] Then they'l find that those Prophets who lull'd 'em asleep with dreams of safety, did but play the fools. ¶ [22] Mich. 2. 11. And that he who pretends the Inspiration of the Spirit for what he saith, (Ezek. 13. 3.) is out of his Wits to talk at such a rate as he doth. ¶ [23] q. d. And all this shall come upon you by reason of the multitude of your sins, and particularly of the hatred of you towards God, and consequently of God towards you, and of one another among your selves.

8 [25] The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: [26] but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and [27] hatred ‖ in the ‖ Or, against. house of his God.

[25] q. d. Time was when there were some Prophets among you (Isa. 21. 11. and 62. 6. Ezek. 3. 17.) such as Elijah, Elisha and others, who kept close to the pure Worship of God; yea, and these false prophets whom you choose and make use of, as your Watchmen, pretend communion with the true God, and warrant and authority from him. ¶ [26] q. d. But the truth is, your Prophets now do but insnare men, both by their Doctrin and Example, and draw 'em into sin, and so into punishment. ¶ [27] Hateful to God; a fruit of his wrath where he permits 'em, and a cause of Wrath on those places whose Idolatry is committed by his means.

9 [28] They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will [29] remember their iniquity, he will [29] visit their sins.

(And as their Fathers did, so do they still, 1 King. 16. 31, &c.) ¶ [33] Forsook God and consecrated themselves (as the Nazarites did to the true God) to that shameful Idol, which will bring 'em to shame at last, Rom. 6. 21. ¶ [34] They multiplied their Idols according to their own lusts and fancies.

11 As for Ephraim, [35] their glory shall flie away like a bird; [36] from the birth, [36] and from the womb, [36] and from the conception.

[35] Their fruitfulness in People (according to the signification of their Name, Gen. 41. 52. and Jacob's Prophecy, Gen. 48. 19.) whereof they boast, shall depart from 'em on a sudden, Job 20.8. ¶ [36] Either they shall die as soon as born, or prove abortives, or not conceive at all.

12 [37] Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, [38] wo also to them when I depart from them.

JOEL.

The ARGUMENT.

JOEL declaring a general Judgment of Dearth and Famine, caused by an extream drought, and an innumerable multitude of Insects destroying the Fruits of the Earth, thereupon calls for Lamentation and Mourning, ch. 1. Then he exhorts to publick Repentance, and promises both Temporal and Spiritual Blessings thereon; especially in the days of the Messiah, ch. 2. Lastly he comforts 'em by shewing the Destruction of their Enemies, the removal of the Famine, together with a wonderful Plenty, not only of Temporal, but Spiritual Blessings under the Messiah, by the Conversion of the Jews to Christ, and Calling of the Gentiles. Probably he prophecied about the time that Hosea did.

CHAP. I.

1 Joel declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn. 14. He prescribeth a fast.

3197. THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 [1] Hear this, ye old men, and [1] give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land: [2] hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

[1] Psal. 28. 5. and 64. 9. ¶ [2] q. d. Did you ever see or hear of such a Desolation, as that made by those devouring Creatures, v. 4?

[3] Psal. 44. 1. 3 [3] Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

5 [4] Awake ye drunkards, and [4] weep, and howl all ye [5] drinkers of wine, because of the new wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

[4] q. d. You drunkards will be in the first place concern'd at the want of your beloved Liquors; and therefore be you sensible of this great Calamity coming upon you, and seek to prevent it by repentance. ¶ [5] Viz. To excess.

* So Prov. 30. 25, 26, 27. 6 For * a [6] nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion; and he hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

[6] Those Insects, vers. 4. See on chap. 2. 2.

† Heb. laid my fig-tree for a barking. 7 He hath laid my vine waste, and † barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and [7] cast it away, the branches thereof are made white.

[7] Made it so useless that it may be thrown away.

8 ¶ [8] Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the [9] husband of her youth.

[8] Bewail the ceasing of publick Ordinances and Worship, for want of Offerings and the Priest's Maintenance, Zeph. 3. 18. ¶ [9] Snatch'd away from her by an untimely death, after espousals before marriage.

* Verse 13. Chap. 2. 14. 9 * The meat-offering, and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests the LORDs ministers mourn.

‖ Lies untill'd. ‖ Or, ashamed. 10 The field is wasted, the land [10] mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is ‖ dried up, the oyl languisheth.

11 [11] Be ye ashamed, O ye husband-men: howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

[11] Viz. For your disappointment and loss of your crop; and search into the cause thereof, your sins, and repent of 'em.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth, the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: [12] because * [13] joy is withered away from the sons of men. * Jer. 48. 33.

[12] Or, Surely. ¶ [13] The fruits of the Earth (at which you were wont so much to rejoyce, Psal. 4. 7. Isa. 16. 10.)

13 Gird your [14] selves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for * the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God. * Verse 9.

[14] Viz. With Sackcloth, Jon. 3. 5, 6, 8. ¶ [15] 1 Cor. 9. 13.

‖ Or, day of restraint. 14 ¶ [16] Sanctifie ye a fast, [16] call a ‖ [17] solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD.

[16] Ch. 2. 15. Appoint and set apart a time to seek God by publick Fasting and Prayer for the diverting of his wrath, and removal of this Judgment. ¶ [17] Lev. 23. 36.

15 Alas for the day: for the day [18] of the LORD is at hand, and [19] as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

[18] V. 11. ch. 3. 14. Isa. 13. 6. Of his wrath and vengeance, and your destruction. ¶ [19] It is an irresistible destruction.

16 [20] Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, [21] joy and gladness from the house of our God?

[20] q. d. And a taste of this Judgment you have found already in the scarcity that is among you of all manner of Provision, both for common and holy uses. ¶ [21] Whereupon follows the ceasing of their Festivals, and Sacrifices of Praise, when they were wont to rejoyce together, Deut. 16. 11, 14, 15.

† Heb. grain. 17 The † seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts grone? the herds of cattel are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

* Chap. 2. 3. ‖ Or, habitations. [22] Extream heat and drought. 19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for * [22] the fire hath devoured the ‖ pastures of the wilderness, and the [22] flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

[21] Job 38. 41. Psal. 104. 21. & 147. 9. 20 The beasts of the field [23] cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and

Chap. 2. the [22] fire hath devoured the paſtures of the wilderneſs.

CHAP. II.

1 The terribleneſs of Gods judgments. 12 He exhorteth to repentance, 15 preſcribeth a faſt, 18 and promiſeth a bleſſing thereon.

3197. 1 BLow ye the ‖ trumpet in Zion, and [2] ſound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land [3] tremble: for the [4] day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

‖ Or, cornet.

[1] q. d. O ye Prieſts, call the people together for Faſting and Prayer, (*v.*15.) by blowing the Trumpet, Numb. 10. 3. ¶ [2] Give notice of the Enemies approach, that people may prepare for it, Numb. 10.7,9. ¶ [3] *Jer.*5.22. ¶ [4] See on ch. 1.15.

2 [5] A day of darkneſs and of gloomineſs, a day of clouds and of thick darkneſs, [6] as the morning ſpread upon the mountains: [7] a great people and a ſtrong, there hath [8] not been ever the like, neither ſhall be any more after it, even to the years † of many generations.

† Heb. of generation and generation.

[5] q. d. Theſe Creatures ſhall come in ſuch multitudes that they ſhall darken the very Air, and dim the light of the Sun, (*v.*10.) which ſhall create exceeding great trouble and perplexity in mens minds, Amos 5. 18. ¶ [6] And they ſhall ſwiftly overſpread the Land. ¶ [7] v. 11. ch. 1.6. The Army of Inſects, *v.*25. ¶ [8] Exod. 10.14.

3 [9] A fire devoureth before them, and [10] behind them a flame burneth: the land is as * the [11] garden of Eden before them, and behind them a deſolate wilderneſs, yea, and [12] nothing ſhall eſcape them.

* Gen.2.8. & 13.10.

[9] *Ch.*1.19. The havock and waſte they make wherever they come, is as if they carried a fire along with 'em before their faces, (as 'tis in the Hebrew.) ¶ [10] Where they have been, all is gone, as if a fire had been there. ¶ [11] Gen. 13. 10. *Zech.*7.14. ¶ [12] Viz. For the ſuſtenance of man or beaſt.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of [13] horſes, and as horſemen, ſo ſhall they run.

[13] *Rev.*9.7. In reſpect of their undaunted courage, ſo that nothing ſhall be able to make 'em deſiſt from their work, Job 39.19.&c.

5 Like the noiſe of [14] chariots on the tops of mountains ſhall they leap, like the noiſe of a [14] flame of fire that devoureth the ſtubble, as a [7] ſtrong people ſet in battel aray.

[14] *Rev.*9.-9. Dreadful and terrible to the Inhabitants, *v.*6.

6 Before their face the people ſhall be [15] much pained: [16] all faces ſhall gather † blackneſs.

[15] Stricken with terrour of their approach. ¶ [16] *Nah.*2.-10. Their terrour ſhall make them black in the face again, like perſons ready to be ſtrangled.

7 They ſhall run like mighty men, they ſhall climb the wall like men of war, and they ſhall [17] march every one on his ways, and they ſhall not break their ranks.

[17] Meet with no oppoſition to diſorder or divert 'em.

8 Neither ſhall one thruſt another, they ſhall walk every one in his path: and when they [18] fall upon the ‖ ſword, they ſhall [18] not be wounded.

‖ Or, dart.

[18] No danger ſhall be deſtructive to 'em.

9 They ſhall run to and fro in the city: they ſhall run upon the wall, they ſhall climb up upon the houſes: they ſhall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 [19] The earth ſhall quake before them, the [19] heavens ſhall tremble, the [20] ſun and the [20] moon ſhall be dark, and the [20] ſtars ſhall withdraw their ſhining;

[19] The Calamity ſhall be ſo great as if the Day of Judgment were at hand, which ſhall cauſe terrour and aſtoniſhment in all ſorts, both low and high, rich and poor, common people and grandees. ¶ [20] *v.*31. ch. 3.15. Iſa. 13.10. and 34.4. *Ezek.*32.7. The Lights of Heaven ſhall be darkned by their multitude, (*v.*2.) and their Influences made void by the deſtruction of whatſoever they produce; and the hearts of King, Queen, and Nobles be overwhelm'd with amazement, and their pomp and bravery ſhall ceaſe.

Chap. 2.

11 And the LORD ſhall [21] utter his voice before his army: for his [22] camp is very great: for [23] he is ſtrong that executeth his word, for [4] the day of the LORD is [24] great and very [25] terrible, and [26] who can abide it?

[21] Command and encourage 'em to do his work. ¶ [22] ch. 1.6. ¶ [23] It's God that puts ſtrength and ability into 'em to enable 'em to execute his command. ¶ [24] Jer. 30.7. Wherein great Judgments are executed on the greateſt ſinners. ¶ [25] Amos 5.18. *Zeph.*1.15. ¶ [26] *v.*6,10.

1 Gods judgments against the enemies of his people.
18 His blessing on the church.

[1] FOr behold, in those days and in that time when I shall [2] bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

[1] q. d. There shall be deliverance for my people (ch. 2.-32.) because their Enemies shall be destroy'd. ¶ [2] Free my people the Jews from that general dispersion which shall befal 'em after the pouring out of my Spirit, (ch. 2. 28.) for their enmity to the Gospel.

2 [3] I will also gather [4] all nations, and will bring them down into the [5] valley of Jehoshaphat, and will [6] plead with them there for my people, and for [7] my heritage Israel, whom they have [8] scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

[3] Tho' they gather themselves together for the destruction of the Church, yet God will turn it to their own destruction. ¶ [4] Viz. That are Enemies to my Church, and particularly to the Jews. ¶ [5] The place appointed for their overthrow and destruction, (like the valley of Berachah, where Jehoshaphat had such a notable Victory, 2 Chron. 20. 22.-26.) ¶ [6] Set my self against 'em, and punish 'em for the wrongs they did my people. ¶ [7] The Jews are God's people and heritage still, tho' now in a scatter'd condition for their sins, Rom. 8. 11, 28, 29. ¶ [8] v. 3, 6.

3 And they have [9] cast lots for my people, and have [10] given a boy for a harlot, and [10] sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

(which I take as done to my self, Acts 9.-4.) ¶ [12] You that are as great and close Adversaries to my Christian Church, as they were to the Jewish. ¶ [13] Do you think hereby to be even with my people for any wrong they have done you? ¶ [14] If this be your intent, I'll make you know that no less than your utter destruction can repair the damage you have done 'em.

5 Because ye have taken [15] my silver and [15] my gold, and have [16] carried into your temples [15] my goodly † pleasant things.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will [14] return your recompence upon your own head.

8 And I will [17] sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off; for the LORD hath spoken it.

[17] Give up into their power. Hereby is intimated the power that the Jews shall have in the Church of Christ, by converting the Gentiles; as Isa. 14. 2.

‖ Or, the LORD shall bring down.

[22] q. d. Tho' the Enemy muster all their Forces together, yet do thou, who art the Lord of Hosts, find out some fitting Instruments to oppose and subdue 'em.

12 [23] Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the [5] valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 * [24] Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe; come, [26] get ye down, for the press is full, the [27] fats overflow, for their wickedness is great.

16 The LORD also shall [33] rore out of [34] Zion, and [33] utter his voice from [34] Jerusalem, and the [35] heavens and the [35] earth shall shake; but the LORD will be the † hope of his people, and the strength of the children [36] of Israel.

[21] *Exod.*12.31, 51.

11 And I raised up of [22] your sons for prophets, and of your young men for [23] Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

[22] Your own flesh and blood, (whose affection to your welfare was unquestionable) to be your guides to eternal happiness. ¶ [23] To be living patterns and examples to you of a holy, temperate life.

12 But ye [24] gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, [25] Prophesie not.

[24] Intic'd 'em to transgress the Law, (Numb. 6.3.) and so to incur my displeasure. ¶ [25] *ch.*7.12,13. *Isa.*30.10. *Jer.*11. 21. *Mich.*2.6.

13 Behold, ‖ I am [26] pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

‖ Or, I will press your place as a cart full of sheaves presseth.

14 * Therefore the [27] flight shall perish from the swift, and the [28] strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver † himself.

[26] Mal.2.17. * Chap.9.1. &c. † Heb. his soul or life.

[27] Unavoidable Judgments shall overtake you, and no means of escape shall avail you. ¶ [28] The stoutest shall find his heart to faint and sink within him.

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow, and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself, neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is † couragious among the mighty, shall flee away [29] naked in that day, saith the LORD.

† Heb. strong of his heart.

[29] Stript of all his arms, and leaving his weapons behind him.

CHAP. III.

1 The necessity of Gods judgment against Israel. 9 The publication and causes of it.

HEar this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the [1] whole family which [2] I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

[1] The greatest part of 'em, viz. the ten Tribes. ¶ [2] (Which mercy should move you to obedience, but can be no protection in case of disobedience, *v.*2.)

2 You only have I [3] known of all the families of the earth: * [4] therefore I will † [5] punish you for all your iniquities.

* Rom.2.9. 1 Pet.4.17. † Heb. visit upon.

[3] Chosen and accepted to be my people, Deut. 7.6. and 10. 15. *Psal.*147. 19,20. ¶ [4] Luke 12. 47. Matth. 11. 20–24. ¶ [5] Viz. More severely.

3 [6] Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

[6] q. d. And tho' I have hitherto vouchsaf'd you my presence and favour, yet you can't in reason expect I should continue it any longer, since your practices are so contrary to my Precepts.

4 [7] Will a lion rore in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion † cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

[7] q. d. As Lions don't use to rore, (viz. in that terrible manner: for their roring after their prey before they have it (*Psal.*104.21.) is in a more doleful tone) but when they see their prey within their reach, (and then they rore to terrifie it;) so neither does God threaten but when there's good occasion for it; and when he does so, judgment will certainly and speedily follow (without repentance.)

5 [8] Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth where no gin is for him? [9] shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

[8] q. d. Don't think that the evils that do or may befal you, come by chance; No, 'tis by my special Providence (*v.*6.) for your sins, Matth. 10. 29. ¶ [9] q. d. Threatnings denounc'd shall not be forborn, and Judgments inflicted shall not be remov'd, till you are either reform'd or ruin'd by 'em.

6 [10] Shall

Chap. 3.

6 [10] Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not ‖ be afraid? * ſhall there be [11] evil in a city, ‖ and the LORD hath not [12] done it?

‖ Or, ran together. * Is. 45.7. ‖ Or, and ſhall not the LORD do ſomewhat?

[10] q. d. Since God by his Prophets denounces Judgment, and gives you warning of your danger approaching, it becomes you to uſe all good means, by Repentance and Reformation, to prevent it, (but you are ſtupid and ſenſleſs.) ¶ [11] Iſa. 42.24. See there. Viz. of puniſhment. ¶ [12] Who alone therefore is to be ſought unto in ſuch caſes.

7 Surely, the Lord GOD will do [13] nothing, but he [14] revealeth his ſecret unto his ſervants the prophets.

[13] Viz. In a way of Judgment againſt his Church and People. ¶ [14] Gen. 6.13. and 18.17. Pſal. 25.14. Prov. 3.32. John 15.15. He uſually diſcovers his counſel and purpoſe of inflicting Judgments on his people, to his Prophets, that they may warn the people of their danger, Ezek. 33.7. (which he has done: and therefore if you have not endeavour'd to prevent it, and evils do befal you, you may thank your ſelves for it.)

8 [15] The lion hath roared, who will not fear? * Acts 4.20. & 5.20,29. the Lord GOD hath [16] ſpoken, * who can but propheſie?

[15] q. d. And therefore ſince God has thus terribly threatned you, it becomes you to fear. See n. 10. ¶ [16] q. d. And in particular, God has reveal'd theſe things to me (how contemptible ſoever in your eyes) and therefore I muſt deliver 'em, (Ezek. 33.6. 1 Cor. 9.16.) and you ſhall do well to take heed thereto.

9 ¶ [17] Publiſh in the palaces at Aſhdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and [17] ſay, Aſſemble your ſelves upon the mountains of Samaria: and behold the [18] great tumults in the midſt thereof, and the ‖ [19] oppreſſed in the midſt thereof. 3210. ‖ Or, oppreſſions.

[17] q. d. Invite the neighbour Nations to come and obſerve what ſins the ten Tribes are guilty of, that they may be ſatisfied of the juſtice of my proceedings and dealings with 'em. ¶ [18] The ſeditious courſes that were rife among them of the ten Tribes under moſt of their Kings. ¶ [19] ch. 4.1. Multitudes of oppreſſed ones in thoſe times; when the Uſurpers took it to be their intereſt to cruſh all they feared or ſuſpected.

10 For they know not to do right, ſaith the LORD; who ſtore up [20] violence and ‖ [20] robbery in their palaces. ‖ Or, ſpoil.

[20] Zeph. 1.9. Goods gotten by injuſtice, (which is no better than theft.)

11 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord GOD, [21] An adverſary there ſhall be even round about the land; and he ſhall [22] bring down thy ſtrength from thee, and thy palaces ſhall be ſpoiled.

[21] The Aſſyrian ſhall invade 'em on every ſide. ¶ [22] Take thy ſtrong Cities, and ſlay thy valiant men.

12 Thus ſaith the LORD, As the ſhepherd † taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; [23] ſo ſhall the children of Iſrael be taken out that dwell in Samaria, in the corner of a bed, and ‖ in Damaſcus in a couch. † Heb. delivereth. ‖ Or, On the beds ſide.

[23] So there ſhall very few ſcape in this Judgment; only ſome of the poorer ſort, who ſhall lurk and hide themſelves in holes under or about beds, (moſt of 'em being either ſlain or carried into captivity.)

13 Hear [24] ye, and [25] teſtifie in the houſe of Jacob, ſaith the Lord GOD, the God of hoſts, [24] Prophets. ¶ [25] Make proclamation of it among thoſe of the ten Tribes, to move 'em to repentance.

14 That in the day that I ſhall ‖ viſit the tranſgreſſions of Iſrael upon him, I will alſo viſit the altars of Beth-el, and [26] the horns of the altar ſhall be cut off, and fall to the ground. ‖ Or, puniſh Iſrael for.

[26] Their idolatrous Altars ſhall be broken down, and demoliſh'd by the Aſſyrians, (as not agreeing with their own Idolatry and Superſtition.)

15 And I will ſmite the [27] winter-houſe with the ſummer-houſe, and the houſes [28] of ivory ſhall periſh, and the great houſes ſhall have an end, ſaith the LORD.

[27] Jer. 36.22. Judg. 3.20. Whatſoever was matter of pleaſure, delight, pomp or convenience to 'em. ¶ [28] 1 Kings 22.39. Adorn'd therewith.

CHAP. IV.

1 He reproveth Iſrael for oppreſſion, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleneſs.

HEar this word, ye * [1] kine of Baſhan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which [2] oppreſs the poor, which cruſh the needy, which ſay to their [3] maſters, [4] Bring, and let us drink. * Pſal. 22.12,

[1] Wealthy and potent Rulers and Judges (Ezek. 39.18.) in places of Authority in the Kingdom of Iſrael. ¶ [2] ch. 3.9. ¶ [3] They that have any command over theſe poor and needy. ¶ [4] Frame ſome pretence to bring 'em into our clutches, and we'll get ſomething out of 'em to make merry withal.

2 The Lord GOD hath [5] ſworn by his [6] holineſs, that lo, the days ſhall come upon you, that he will [7] take you away with [7] hooks, and your poſterity with [7] fiſh-hooks.

[5] Ch. 6.8. and 8.7. Jer. 51.14. Irreverſibly decreed. ¶ [6] (Which will not ſuffer him to endure ſuch injuſtice, Hab. 1.13.) ¶ [7] Jer. 16.16. Hab. 1.14, 15. Cauſe you to be carried into Captivity, and that as eaſily as men catch little fiſh.

3 And * ye ſhall [8] go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her, and ye [9] ſhall ‖ caſt them into the palace, ſaith the LORD. * Ezek. 12.5, 12. ‖ Or, caſt away the things of the palace.

[8] Seek to ſave your ſelves from the enemy by flight, at the next place you can find. ¶ [9] Or, Caſt away the things of the palace; i. e. Caſt away (for your eaſier flight) thoſe precious things you kept in your ſtately houſes.

4 ¶ [10] Come to [11] Beth-el and tranſgreſs, at [11] Gilgal multiply tranſgreſſion; and bring your ſacrifices [12] every morning, and your [13] tithes after † three years. † Heb. three years of days.

[10] q. d. Take your courſe, and go on with your idolatrous Will-worſhip, if you think fit, and ſee what you'l get by it, (ſuch a ſpeech as that Eccl. 11.9. and that Matth. 23.32.) ¶ [11] Joſh. 4.15. See there. ¶ [12] In imitation of the daily Sacrifice, Exod. 29.38,39. ¶ [13] In imitation of that Law, Deut. 14.28.

5 And † offer a ſacrifice of thankſgiving [14] with leaven, and [15] proclaim and publiſh the free-offerings; for † [16] this liketh you, O ye children of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord GOD. † Heb. offer by burning. † Heb. ſo ye love.

[14] In imitation of that Lev. 7.13. ¶ [15] Offer your free-will Offerings ſo publickly that all may take notice thereof, (as Matth. 6.2.) ¶ [16] You are ſo violently addicted to theſe ways of Will-worſhip, that there's no reclaiming you.

6 ¶ And [17] I alſo have given you cleanneſs of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: [18] yet have ye not returned unto me, ſaith the LORD.

[17] q. d. But remember that for this your Idolatry I have puniſh'd you ſeverely. ¶ [18] Rev. 2.21. and 9.20,21.

7 And alſo I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harveſt, and I cauſed it to rain upon one city, and cauſed it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not, withered.

8 So two or three cities wandred unto one city, to drink water; but they were not ſatisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, ſaith the LORD.

9 I have ſmitten you with [19] blaſting and mildew; ‖ when your gardens and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees [20] increaſed, * the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, ſaith the LORD. ‖ Or, the multitude of your gardens, &c. did the palmer-worm, &c. * Joel 1.4. & 2.25.

[19] Deut. 28.22. Hag. 2.17. ¶ [20] Shot forth towards an encreaſe.

Chap. 5.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence ‖ after the manner of [21] Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, † and have taken away your horses, and I have made the stink of your [22] camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

‖ Or, in the way.
† Heb. with the captivity of your horses.

[21] *Exod.*9.10. ¶ [22] Those slain there by the Enemy.

11 I have [23] overthrown some of you, as God overthrew * Sodom and Gomorrah, and [24] ye were as a fire-brand pluckt out of the burning, yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

* Gen. 19. 24, 25.

[23] Viz. By devouring fire on their Houses and Habitations, or some such desolating Judgment. ¶ [24] Zech. 3. 2. They that escap't that Judgment were yet in great danger.

12 Therefore [25] thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, * [26] prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

* See Ezek. 13. 5. & 22.30.

[25] Still multiply Judgments, whiles thou continuest impenitent. ¶ [26] Luke 14. 31, 32. Set your selves in good earnest to make your peace with God by repentance, and so to prevent what else will follow.

13 [27] For lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth ‖ the wind, and [28] declareth unto man what is his thought, that [29] maketh the morning darkness, and * [30] treadeth upon the high places of the earth, the LORD, the God of hosts is his name.

‖ Or, spirit.
* Deut. 32. 13. & 33.29.

[27] q. d. And it concerns you to do so; because he is an Almighty God, and therefore will destroy you, if you do not so. ¶ [28] Is omniscient, and therefore can't be deceiv'd by the most subtle Contrivances. ¶ [29] ch. 5. 8. Turns all your hopes and comforts into grief and mourning ¶ [30] Mic. 1.-3. Is exalted above all humane power, and subdues the proudest Spirits.

CHAP. V.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

1 HEar ye this word which I take up against you, even [2] a lamentation, O house of Israel.

[1] *Ch.*3.1. ¶ [2] For the Judgments coming upon you.

2 The [3] virgin of Israel is fallen, she shall no more rise: she is [4] forsaken upon her land, there is none to raise her up.

[3] The state of Israel, not yet subdued or humbled by Enemies, (as *Isa.*47.1. *Jer.*46.11.) shall certainly and suddenly fall from her former prosperity into extreme misery, and not recover again for a long time ¶ [4] Deprived of her Subjects who formerly possess'd her Land.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD, [5] The city that went out by [5] a thousand, shall leave [5] an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred, shall leave ten to the house of Israel.

[5] q. d. So great a destruction shall there be made of their Forces by the Enemy, that but a small part shall be left to 'em.

4 ¶ [6] For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, [7] Seek ye me, and ye shall [8] live.

[6] Or, Yet: since it is so. ¶ [7] v. 6, 14. By repentance and reformation. ¶ [8] Continue in your flourishing condition, and be preserved from these Judgments, or at least saved everlastingly.

5 But seek not [9] Beth-el, nor enter into [9] Gilgal, and pass not to [9] Beer-sheba: for [10] Gilgal shall surely [11] go into captivity, and [10] Beth-el shall [11] come to nought.

[9] *Ch.*4.4. and 8.14. To your Idols there; but absolutely renounce 'em all. ¶ [10] The Inhabitants thereof. ¶ [11] In the Hebrew there's an allusion to their Names.

6 [7] Seek the LORD and ye shall [8] live, lest he break out like fire in the house of [12] Joseph, and devour it, and there be [13] none to quench it in Beth-el.

[12] *Ch.*6.-6. The Ten Tribes; whereof Ephraim the Son of Joseph was chief. ¶ [13] viz. Of your Idols there.

Chap. 5.

7 Ye who [14] turn judgment to wormwood, and [15] leave off righteousness in the earth.

[14] *Ch.*6.12. *Hos.*10.4. Pervert Justice, to the great grief and vexation of the wronged. ¶ [15] Neglect the administration of Justice, and all just dealings.

8 [7] Seek him that [16] maketh the seven stars and Orion, and [17] turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and [17] maketh the day dark with night: that [18] calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth, the LORD is his name:

[16] Job 9. 9. and 38. 31. Governs all the influences of the Stars, (and so can give you seasonable Weather again, which has been with-holden, *ch.*4.7.) ¶ [17] Is the Disposer of Day and Night; and also can change your condition from good to evil, or evil to good, *ch.*4.-13. ¶ [18] ch. 9.-6. Raises vapours out of the Sea, which turn to rain; and so can bring either showers of comfort, or a deluge of misery on you.

9 [19] That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong; so that the † spoiled shall [20] come against the fortress.

[19] Who can enable the weakest to encounter their strong Enemies. ¶ [20] Be able to besiege and take their strong Holds.

10 [21] They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that [22] speaketh uprightly.

[21] *Isa.*29.21. q. d. Yet they have not consider'd this, but have shewed their malice against those that reprove 'em openly for their sins. ¶ [22] Deals freely and truly with 'em.

11 Forasmuch therefore as [23] your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him [24] burdens of wheat: * ye have [25] built houses of hewen stone, but ye shall not dwell in them: ye have [26] planted † pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

* Deut. 28. 38, 39. Hag. 1. 6.
† Heb. vineyards of desire.

[23] You crush and oppress 'em, and that in an insolent manner, *ch.*4.1. ¶ [24] Their provision for their own sustenance. ¶ [25] Zeph. 1. 13. viz. By such unjust means. ¶ [26] Deut. 28. 39.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a ‖ bribe, and they [27] turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

[27] Isa. 10.2. *Lam.*3.35. *Mal.*3.5. Pass false Sentence against the poor, contrary to right.

13 [28] Therefore the [29] prudent shall keep silence in that time, for it is an [30] evil time.

[28] q. d. Since sin does so abound, (v. 12.) and you are grown incorrigible therein, (v. 10.) so that Judgment must needs follow, (v.-11.) therefore----- ¶ [29] The Godly wise shall forbear reproof, and silently adore God's Justice in his dealings with you, and not murmur at 'em. ¶ [30] *Mic.*2.-3. 2 *Tim.*3.-1. Both in regard of sin and suffering.

14 [31] Seek good and not evil, that ye may [8] live: and so the LORD the God of hosts shall be with you, as ye [32] have spoken.

[31] Follow after. ¶ [32] Use to boast, Mic. 3.-11.

15 [33] Hate the [34] evil, and [33] love the [34] good, and [35] establish judgment in the gate: [36] it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the [37] remnant of [12] Joseph.

[33] *Psal.*97.10. and 119.-.104. Rom. 12.9. and 7.22. God is not only to be sought, (v. 14.) but to be loved: And Evil is not only not to be pursued, but to be hated. ¶ [34] Both Practices and Persons, *Psal.*15.4. and 139.21,22. ¶ [35] Let Justice be administred with a steddy course, and not turn'd aside, (v.-12.) upon any occasion. ¶ [36] Joel 2.14. See there. ¶ [37] The few that survive these Judgments.

16 [38] Therefore the LORD the God of hosts, the Lord saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets, and they shall say in all the high-ways, Alas, alas: and they shall call the [39] husbandman to mourning, and such as are [40] skilful of lamentation, to wailing.

[38] q. d. But because I foresee you will not harken to my Call, (*v.*14,15.) and repent, therefore---- ¶ [39] i.e. There shall be occasion enough, and but too much for mourning, in the Country as well as in the City. ¶ [40] 2 Chron. 35.25. Jer.

Chap. 6.

*Jer.*9.17. *Matth.*9.-23. Their sorrow shall be so great, that they shall not be able to express it sufficiently themselves, but shall call in the help of others, who make a trade of it.

17 And in all [41] vineyards shall be wailing: for I will [42] pass through thee, saith the LORD.

[41] Where was wont to be the greatest mirth. ¶ [42] Exod. 12.12. Make a general destruction among you.

18 Wo unto you that [43] desire the [44] day of the LORD: [45] to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is [46] darkness and not light.

[43] *Isa.*5.19.*Jer.*17.15. 2 *Pet.*3 4. Out of a profane or presumptuous Spirit; as not believing any such thing, they scornfully wish they could once see it. ¶ [44] Joel 1.15. See there. ¶ [45] What will you get by it? ¶ [46] Zeph. 1. 15. Full of misery and perplexity, without any comfort.

19 [47] As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

[47] q. d. And these calamities shall be of sundry sorts; so that tho you should escape one, yet you shall fall into another, *Isa.*24.18. *Jer.*48.44.

20 Shall not the [44] day of the LORD be [46] darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

*Jer. 6.20. ‖Or, smell your holy-days.

21 ¶ * [48] I hate, I despise [49] your feast-days, and I will not ‖ [50] smell in your solemn assemblies.

[48] *Isa.*1.11. See there. q. d. Don't think to appease my wrath by any of your ceremonious observations. ¶ [49] Of your own institution, (not mine.) ¶ [50] Accept, *Gen.*8.21. See there.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the ‖ peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

‖Or, thankofferings.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy [51] songs, for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let [52] judgment † run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

[52] Let the administration of Justice have a free course without interruption. See *n.*35.

25 [53] Have ye offered [54] unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

[53] Acts 7.42. See there. q. d. You and your Forefathers in the Wilderness are all of the same stamp; they were Idolaters, and so are you, (and therefore that's no excuse that you do but as they did.) ¶ [54] q.d. You have not done it so much to me as to your Idols.

‖Or, Sicuth your king.

26 But ye have [55] born ‖ the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, [56] the star of your God, which ye made to your selves.

[55] Carried about with you a Shrine; with the Images of the Sun and Saturn in it. ¶ [56] Some other Idol in the shape of a Star.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity [57] beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

JONAH.

The ARGUMENT.

JOnah was a Prophet of the Ten Tribes, about the days of Jeroboam the second, (2 Kings 14.25.) but they continuing obstinate, he is sent by God to preach to the Ninevites, thereby to shame the Israelites: which employment he at first withstood, for fear, if they repented and God spared 'em, he should be counted a false Prophet, (ch.4.2.) For this disobedience he is corrected, by being cast into the Sea and swallowed of a Whale, and there lay in his belly three days and three nights; but upon his Repentance and Prayer, is vomited out upon the shore: wherein he was a Type of Christ, Mat. 12.37,40. After which he delivers his Message, and they repent at present, and so are spar'd: whereat he repining, is reprov'd of God.

[10] *ch.*3.9. Joel 2.14. See there.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come,

[1] Lest his own reputation should suffer thereby (which he was more concern'd for, than the lives of so many thousand persons,) Corruption may still remain unmortified in those that have smarted for it.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this [2] my saying, when I was yet in my countrey? Therefore [3] I

MICAH.

The ARGUMENT.

MIcah propheſied much about the ſame time with Eſay, and much to the ſame purpoſe, viz. Reproving the Jews for their Sins. Threatning Judgments by the Babylonians and Aſſyrians, with Promiſes of Deliverance; chiefly by Chriſt, of whoſe Coming, Place of Birth, Kingdom, and manifold Benefits to the Church, he treats very particularly. He is noted by Jeremy as a faithful Perſon in declining times, Jer. 26. 18, 19.

‖ Or, wrested.

[9] Because they escape punishment, therefore they still continue in their sins, and grow worse and worse, *Eccl.*8.11. ¶ [9] They grow remiss in the execution of Justice; and God's Law is slighted and disobeyed. ¶ [10] Justice is suppress'd, and never executed among 'em, Isa. 59.4, 9, 14. ¶ [11] *Psal.*12.8. *Isa.*59.15. Oppress and overpower by their multitude, interest, &c. so that they can't shew themselves.

5 ¶ [12] Behold ye [13] among the heathen, and regard, and [14] wonder marvellously: for I will work a [15] work in your days, which ye will not [16] believe, tho it be told you.

[12] Acts 13. 41. q. d. But tho you have gone on a great while securely in your sins, yet now I'll reckon with you for all together. And hereby God answers the Prophets expostulation, *v.*2. ¶ [13] q. d. See if you can find an instance of such Judgments inflicted upon the Heathen, as I'll bring upon you, *Dan.*9.12. ¶ [14] At this matchless Judgment. ¶ [15] viz. Of Judgment. ¶ [16] For the strangeness of it.

6 For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that [17] bitter and [18] hasty nation, which shall march through the † breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

† Heb. breadths.

[17] Cruel and fierce, *Jer.*6.23. ¶ [18] Active and nimble in the dispatch of their affairs, v.-8. *Isa.*5.-26, 27.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: ‖ [19] their judgment and their [19] dignity shall proceed of themselves.

‖ Or, from them shall proceed the judgment of these, and the captivity of these.

[19] Those Decrees and Sentences which they pass, and that authority that they exercise over you, is all according to their own will and pleasure, and not regulated by any other Law either divine or humane.

8 Their horses also are swifter then the leopards, and are more † fierce then [20] the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far, they shall flie [21] as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

† Heb. sharp. [20] *Jer.*5.6. *Zeph.*3.3. [21] *Jer.*4.-13.

9 They shall come all [22] for violence, ‖ † [23] their faces shall sup up as the east-wind, and they shall gather the [24] captivity as the sand.

‖ Or, the sopping up of their faces, &c. or, their faces shall look toward the east. † Heb. the opposition of their faces toward the east.

[22] To plunder and spoil, and use all manner of violence. ¶ [23] Their very countenance and presence shall be as mischievous to you, as the East wind is to Plants. ¶ [24] Captives in great abundance.

10 And they shall scoff at the [25] kings, and the [25] princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold, for they shall heap dust and take it.

[25] At all the opposition that the Kings and Princes of Judea, or any of their Confederates can make against 'em.

11 [26] Then shall his mind change, and he shall [27] pass over, and [28] offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

[26] q. d. Then the King of Babylon being drunk with these great successes, shall grow more insolent, presumptuous and self-confident than afore. ¶ [27] Exceed all bounds of sobriety, modesty, and humanity, which formerly he might seem to have had, 2 *Chron.*32.17-19. *Dan.*4.29,30. ¶ [28] Go on to a further degree of wickedness, *Isa.*25.13,14.

12 ¶ Art thou not [29] from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine holy One? [30] we shall not die: O LORD, * thou hast [31] ordained them for judgment, and O † mighty God, thou hast † established them for correction.

[29] Hast been in covenant with us for many ages, and so wilt continue? and therefore—— ¶ [30] We shall not be utterly destroyed, (tho we be grievously afflicted.) ¶ [31] Appointed these Chaldeans to execute thy Judgments upon us, *Isa.*10.5,6.

13 Thou art of purer eyes then to [32] behold evil, and canst not [33] look on ‖ iniquity: [34] wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous then he?

‖ Or, grievance.

[32] To approve of the wicked designs of our cruel and malicious enemies. ¶ [33] See the oppression and grievance of thy people with pleasure and delight. ¶ [34] Jer. 12. 1, 2. Psal. 73. 2. &c. Why dost thou suffer 'em to go on, seeing thou beholdest it.

Chap. 2.

14 And makest men [35] as the fishes of the sea, as the ‖ creeping things that have [36] no ruler over them?

‖ Or, moving.

[35] Where the greater is ever ready to devour the less. ¶ [36] *Judg.*21.25. To govern 'em, but every one does what he pleases.

15 [37] They take up all of them with the angle: they catch them in their net, and gather them in their ‖ drag; therefore they rejoyce and are glad.

‖ Or, flux-net.

[37] *Am.*4.-2. These Chaldeans catch all they can, and make a prey of 'em.

16 Therefore they [38] sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag: because [39] by them their portion is fat, and their meat ‖ † plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore [40] empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

[40] Hoard up what they have gotten already, and prepare for a new draught, and so go on? Surely thou wilt not suffer it to be thus always.

CHAP. II.

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 Judgment on the Chaldeans.

1 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the † tower, and will watch to see what he will say ‖ unto me, and what I shall answer † when I am ‖ [2] reproved.

† Heb. fenced place. ‖ Or, in me. † Heb. upon my reproof, or arguing. ‖ Or, argued with.

[1] q.d. I have waited a great while for an answer to my complaint, *ch.*1.-13, &c. ¶ [2] Quarrel'd with for my message to my Countrimen concerning their captivity by the Chaldeans, as if it were inconsistent with the Justice of God.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, [3] Write the [4] vision, and make it [5] plain upon [6] tables, that he may run that readeth it.

[3] *Rom.*15.4. ¶ [4] Now given thee, (*v.*5. &c.) concerning the destruction of the Chaldeans. ¶ [5] Deut. 27.-8. That the meanest capacity may understand it, and receive satisfaction and comfort thereby. ¶ [6] *Isa.*30.8.

3 [7] For the vision is [8] yet for an appointed time, but [9] at the end it shall [10] speak, and not [11] lie: though it [12] tarry, wait for it, because it will surely [13] come, it will not [14] tarry.

[7] q. d. It must be written, lest it should be forgotten, because—— ¶ [8] Psal. 102.-13. Not presently to be accomplish'd, but after a certain determinate time, at some distances off. ¶ [9] viz. Of the appointed time, Exod. 12.41. ¶ [10] Discover it self to your satisfaction. ¶ [11] Disappoint your expectation, (tho you may fear it will, Psal. 116. 11.) ¶ [12] viz. Till the appointed time: Or, seem to Flesh and Blood to be delayed beyond the due time. ¶ [13] *Heb.*10.37. viz. In Gods due, set time. ¶ [14] Beyond that time, Exod. 12. 41.

4 Behold, [15] his soul which is lifted up, is not upright in him: but [16] the just shall [17] live by his faith.

[15] q.d. Now under these delays, if any one shall proudly quarrel with the Justice or Wisdom of God's Dispensations, disbelieve the Promises of the Deliverance, cast off his dependance upon God, and seek to shift out of trouble by any back-door of unlawful means, it's a sign that his heart is not sincere, but rotten and corrupt. ¶ [16] See on *Rom.*1.17. ¶ [17] Support himself, and quiet his heart by his firm dependance on God for the accomplishment of his promises of deliverance to his Church by the destruction of their enemies in his own time.

5 ¶ ‖ [18] Yea also, because [19] he transgresseth by wine, he is [20] a proud man, neither [21] keepeth at home, who [22] enlargeth his desire [23] as hell, and is as [23] death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

‖ Or, how much more.

Chap. 2.

[18] Here begins the Vision shewed to Habakkuk, (v. 2.) concerning the destruction of the Chaldeans. ¶ [19] The King of Babylon is given to Luxury and Sensuality, *Dan.*5.1. &c. ¶ [20] Insolent in his carriage to all. ¶ [21] Is not content with his own Dominions. ¶ [22] Is insatiably greedy to devour all; (therefore God will certainly bring him down.) ¶ [23] *Prov.*30.15,16.

3395. Compl. 3416.

6 Shall not [24] all these take up a parable against him, and a [25] taunting proverb against him, and say, ‖ [26] Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his: [27] how long? and to him that ladeth himself with [28] thick clay.

‖ Or, Ho, he.

[24] His neighbour Nations, whom he oppresses, and makes a prey of. ¶ [25] *Isa.*14.9,10. ¶ [26] q. d. Mischief shall befal thee for these thy wicked practices; and all others that are guilty of the like. ¶ [27] Sure this will not last long. ¶ [28] 1 *Tim.*6.9,10. Heaps of gold and silver, which do but burden and defile.

[29] The Medes and Persians, *Jer.*50.9.

7 Shall [29] they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled [30] many nations, all the remnant of the people shall [31] spoil thee: because of [32] mens † blood, and for the violence [33] of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

[34] *Jer.*22.13. That is greedy of unjust gain. ¶ [35] Or, A covetousness evil to his house; i.e. Which will prove the bane and ruine of it; (tho' he designs the advancement and enriching of his Family thereby.) ¶ [36] Obad. 4. *Psal.*49.11. and 52.7. Advance his Family, that it may be out of the reach of danger. ¶ [37] Exempted from the common miseries of mankind.

10 [38] Thou hast [39] consulted shame to thy house, [40] by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against [41] thy soul.

[43] *Jer.*22.13. *Mich.*3.10. See there. ¶ [44] Endeavours to fortifie it by Wealth gotten by any unjust courses.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts, that the people shall [45] labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves ‖ for very vanity?

[45] Take a great deal of pains in building and establishing their Cities, but all to no purpose; (as the next words explain it; and as it is explained *Jer.*51.58.)

‖ Or, by knowing the glory of the LORD.

14 For the [46] earth shall be filled ‖ with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

[46] All nations shall take notice of, and acknowledg God's glorious Power and Justice in punishing these cruel, unjust Babylonians, (Psal. 9. 16.) and delivering his People; as a type and pledg of his Glory to be reveal'd in Christ, and knowledg of his Name then to be communicated, *Isa.*9.-11.

16 [49] Thou art filled ‖ with shame for glory: [50] drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup [52] of the LORDs right hand shall be turned unto thee, and [53] shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

Chap. 3.

‖ Or, more with shame then with glory.

[49] Ye Babylonians are brought into a contemptible condition, instead of that renown you did formerly enjoy. ¶ [50] Jer. 51.57. [54] Such violence as you did exercise against the Land of Judea and its Inhabitants, and particularly against the Temple, (built with Cedar of Lebanon) shall be repayed into your own Bosoms, and shall overwhelm you. ¶ [55] And such spoil and havock shall be made among you, as you made among the Beasts there, by which they were terrified.

† Heb. the fashioner of his fashion.

The ARGUMENT.

ZEPHANY was one of the last Prophets who propheſied before the Captivity: He foretels the utter Deſolation of Jeruſalem and Judea by the Chaldeans, thereby to ſtir 'em up, if it were poſſible, to Repentance, that they might prevent this Judgment, ch. 1. To which therefore he exhorts 'em; and the rather, in regard of the ſore Judgments that were to be inflicted upon their Neighbour Nations, for their ſins, which therefore ſhould be a warning to them, ch. 2. But finding 'em incorrigible he reproves 'em again; and then concludes with gracious Promiſes concerning their Converſion and Reſtoration to their own Land in the latter days.

HAGGAI.

The ARGUMENT.

These three last Prophets, Haggai, Zechary, and Malachi propheſied after their Return from Babylon.

When the Jews, after their Return, had laid the Foundation of the Temple with great rejoycing, (Ezra 3.10,11.) they met with much Oppoſition by the chief of the Samaritans, (who were planted in the room of the Ten Tribes when they were carried away by Eſarhaddon, Ezra 4.) whereupon the Work was hindred for many years; which it ſeems the Generality were well enough ſatisfied with, and fell to building their own Houſes in a ſplendid manner, neglecting the Temple, ch.1.4. for which they were puniſh'd with Scarcity, (ch.1.6,9,10,11. and 2.16,17.) whereupon God ſends Haggai firſt, and two months after him Zechary, (ch.1.1. with Zech.1.1. and Ezra 5.1.) to tax 'em for their neglect, and quicken 'em to go forward with the Temple, (having had leave and authority from Darius ſo to do, Ezra 6.7--12.) Thereupon they ſet upon it again, (ch.1.12--15. Ezra 5.2.) and are encourag'd to proceed by the promiſe of Chriſt's Preſence in that Temple, and his ſetting up a more pure ſpiritual way of Worſhip, ch.2. after which, in four years time, the Temple was finiſh'd, and they kept the Feaſt of Dedication, and alſo the Paſſover, Ezra 6.14. &c. And ſo the final iſſue anſwers the name of this Prophet, which comes from a word that ſignifies, a Feaſt. His whole Prophecy was within the compaſs of four months, ch.1.1,15. and 2.1,10,20.

CHAP. I.

1 Haggai reproving the peoples negligence, 7 inciteth them to build the houſe, 12 and promiſeth Gods aſſiſtance.

3434 IN the [1] ſecond year of Darius the king, in the ſixth month, in the firſt day of the month, came the word of the LORD † by [2] Haggai the prophet unto * [3] Zerubbabel the ſon of Shealtiel ‖ governour of Judah, and to [3] Joſhua the ſon of Joſedech the high prieſt, ſaying, † Heb. by the hand of. * 1 Chron.3.17,19. ‖ Or, captain.

[1] Ezra 4.-24. ¶ [2] Ezra 5.1. ¶ [3] Ezra 5.2. Zech. 3.1. and 4.6,7,9,10.

2 Thus ſpeaketh the LORD of hoſts, ſaying, This people [4] ſay, The time is [5] not come, the time that the LORDs houſe ſhould be built.

[4] *Prov.*26.16. ¶ [5] (There being a Command for 'em to ceaſe building, (Ezra 4.21.) but none as yet to proceed: or if there were, they were negligent in it.)

3 [6] Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, ſaying,

[6] Mark 3.5.

4 * [7] Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houſes, and this houſe lie waſte?

* 2 Sam.7.2. Pſal.132.3.&c.

[7] q. d. It ſeems you can find both Time and Mony enough to build and beautifie your own Houſes with curious and coſtly Wainſcot of Cedar, (Zeph. 2.-14.) tho' you pretend Excuſes, and think all Time and Coſt too much for mine, *Phil.*2.21.

5 Now therefore thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, † [8] Conſider [9] your ways.

† Heb. ſet your heart on your ways.

[8] V. 7. Lam. 3.40. 2 Cor. 13.5. Pſal. 4.-4. and 77.-6. ¶ [9] The ſinfulneſs and miſchief of this courſe; how ill it has ſucceeded with you, v. 6,9. ch. 2.15,16.

6 Ye have [10] ſown much, and bring in little: ye eat, but ye have [11] not enough: ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink: ye clothe you, but there is none warm: and [12] he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag † with holes.

[9] q. d. Ben't troubled at this mean outward appearance of things, for there shall a greater honour be conferr'd on this Temple, than any can arise from Gold or Silver, viz. The Presence of the Messiah. ¶ [10] Heb. 12. 26. See there. q. d. I shook Heaven and Earth at the giving of the Law, and confirmation of the Covenant between me and you then, and once more (and but once more) I'll renew and confirm it by the Messiah, (*Dan.*9.27.) and then it shall continue without any further alteration. ¶ [11] It's not long before I'll shake— (yet it was five hundred Years to Christ's Incarnation.) ¶ [12] *v.*21. Joel 3.16. Make great alterations both in the Jewish Church and State, and among all ranks and degrees of men there.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ask now the [19] priests [20] concerning the law, saying,

[19] *Deut.*33.10. *Lev.*10.10. *Ezek.*44.23. *Mal.*2.7. ¶ [20] The Resolution of a case in their own Law.

[21] Flesh of any Sacrifice, that being offer'd upon the Altar has been consecrated thereby, *Matth.*23.-19.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body, touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be [22] unclean.

[22] *Numb.*19.22. (Because the Legal Holiness is not so easily communicated, as the Legal Uncleanness is.)

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, [23] So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is [23] every work of their hands, and that which they offer there is unclean.

[23] q. d. So the Sacrifices which this People offer upon their late erected Altar, (Ezra 3.2,3.) cannot sanctifie 'em, (*v.*12.) but their neglect of building my Temple does defile their Offerings, (*v.*13.) and bring a Curse upon their Labours, *v.*16,17.

15 And now I pray you, consider [24] from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD.

[24] i.e. How you have fared from this day and backwards, all the while you neglected the building of the Temple, how that God has curs'd all your Labours, v. 16.

16 [25] Since those days were, * when one came to an heap [26] of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty. * Chap.1.9. Zech.8.10.

[28] Mark how I'll bless you from this day that you begin to clear the Foundation, and carry on the building.

[29] q. d. Your Seed is not yet sown, and therefore no one can guess at the encrease of that, or any other Fruit; yet I foretel you that God will bless it, and you shall have a plentiful Harvest.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

IN the eighth month, in the ſecond year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto [1] Zechariah, the ſon of Berachiah, the ſon of Iddo the prophet, ſaying,

4 Be ye not [5] as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, * Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, ſaith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, [6] where are they? and [7] the prophets, do they live for ever?

[6] q.d. They periſh'd in and for their ſins, according to the threatnings of my Prophets. ¶ [7] Your falſe Prophets, who ſooth'd you up in your ſins, and promis'd you peace, what's become of 'em? Are they not alſo deſtroyed by my Judgments, as well as your Fathers, for all their confidence to the contrary?

6 [8] But my [9] words and my [10] ſtatutes which I commanded my ſervants the prophets, did they not ‖ [11] take hold of your fathers? [12] and they returned and ſaid, Like as the LORD of hoſts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, [13] ſo hath he dealt with us.

[8] q.d. But it was not ſo with the words of my faithful Prophets; for though themſelves died, yet their words died not with 'em, but took effect. ¶ [9] Threatnings. ¶ [10] Determin'd Judgments. ¶ [11] Dan. 9. 11. 7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the ſecond year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the ſon of Berachiah, the ſon of Iddo the prophet, ſaying,

8 [14] I ſaw by night, and behold, [15] a man, [16] riding upon a red horſe, and he [17] ſtood among the myrtle-trees that were in the [18] bottom, and [19] behind him were there [20] red horſes, ‖ ſpeckled and white.

‖ Or, bay.

[14] This Viſion repreſents Chriſt's care of his Church to order all events for her good, that ſhe may have a Time of peace and reſt for the better carrying on the Temple-work, (*v.*8--11.) and alſo, his interceſſion for mercy, with comfortable Anſwers, v. 12. &c. ¶ [15] Chriſt, appearing in a humane ſhape, as a prelude of his Incarnation, as *Joſh.*5.13. *Ezek.*1.-26. and 40.3. *Dan.*7.13. ¶ [16] Pſal. 45. 4. 9 Then ſaid I, O my lord, what are theſe? And the angel that talked with me, ſaid unto me, I will ſhew thee what theſe be.

10 And the man that ſtood among the myrtle-trees anſwered and ſaid, Theſe are they whom the LORD hath [21] ſent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they anſwered the angel of the LORD that ſtood among the myrtle-trees, and ſaid, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, [22] all the earth ſitteth ſtill, and is at reſt.

[22] V. 15. All Nations round about us are in peace and quiet, (only we thy people are in trouble, v. 12.)

From 3415 to 3481.

12 ¶ Then the [23] angel of the LORD anſwered and ſaid, O LORD of hoſts, [24] how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jeruſalem, and on the cities of Judah, againſt which thou haſt had indignation theſe [25] threeſcore and ten years?

[26] God the Father. ¶ [27] *v.*14,15. *Matth.*3.17. John 11. 42. Such promiſes as would afford relief, and tended to comfort his People.

14 So the angel that communed with me, ſaid unto me, [28] Cry thou, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, I am [29] jealous for Jeruſalem, and for Zion with a great jealouſie.

[28] Declare earneſtly and affectionately to my Church and People theſe good tidings for their comfort. ¶ [29] ch. 8. 2. See there. *Nah.*1.2. See there.

15 And I am very ſore diſpleaſed with [22] the heathen that are at eaſe: for I was but a [30] little diſpleaſed, and they [31] helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus ſaith the LORD, I am [32] returned to Jeruſalem with mercies: my houſe ſhall be [33] built in it, ſaith the LORD of hoſts, and [34] a line ſhall be ſtretched forth upon Jeruſalem.

[32] *Iſa.*12.1. ¶ [33] Hag. 1.14. ¶ [31] Not only the Temple, but the City alſo ſhall be rebuilt.

[1] Christ. The scope of this Vision is to encourage Joshua, (and in him all of 'em, v. 8.) to go on with the work of building the Temple, notwithstanding the endeavours of Satan to provoke God against 'em by reason of their sins; whom therefore Christ defends and intercedes for, *v.*2. ¶ [2] Representing the whole Church at that time, both Priests and People, *v.*8. ¶ [3] Ministring and worshiping God. ¶ [4] Christ, (whose Minister or Servant he was, as well as a Type of him.) ¶ [5] Rev. 12.-10. Psal. 109.-6. Job 1.-6. and 2.1. ¶ [6] To frustrate his Prayers and Intercessions, by interposing his most bitter accusation against him and the Jews.

CHAP. V.

1 The curſe of thieves and ſwearers: 5 The final ruine of Babylon.

THEN I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, [1] a flying roll.

[1] A Book open'd to its full extent (v. 2.) flying in the Air all about the Land; (to note the ſpeedy execution of judgment) wherein was written the Curſes of the Law againſt ſinners, v. 3.

2 And he ſaid unto me, What ſeeſt thou? And I anſwered, I ſee [1] a flying roll, [2] the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

[2] *Gen.*6.-11. Rev. 18.5. By the large extent thereof (above twelve yards long, and ſix broad) is noted the multitude of ſins they were guilty of, together with the manifold Judgments that were ready to ſeize upon 'em.

3 Then ſaid he unto me, [3] This is the curſe that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: [3] for ‖ every one that ſtealeth, ſhall be cut off [4] as on this ſide, according to it: and every one that [5] ſweareth, ſhall be cut off as on that ſide, according to it.

‖ Or, every one of this people that ſtealeth, holdeth himſelf guiltleſs, as it doth.

[3] *Mal.*4.-6. *Rev.*14.10. i. e. This Roll contains the curſes denounc'd by God in his Law againſt all ſorts of ſinners, which is ready to ſeize upon every particular ſinner in the Land of Judea for the ſins they are guilty of both againſt the firſt and ſecond Table. ¶ [4] According as its written on this part of the Roll concerning ſins againſt the ſecond Table. ¶ [5] Viz. Falſly, *v.*4. i. e. Is guilty of any ſin againſt the firſt Table.

4 I will [6] bring it forth, ſaith the LORD of hoſts, and it ſhall [7] enter into the houſe of the thief, and into the houſe of * him that ſweareth falſly by my name: and it ſhall remain in the midſt of his houſe, and * ſhall conſume it, with the timber thereof, and the ſtones thereof.

Chap. 6.

[6] Execute these Judgments in the sight of all. ¶ [7] Job 18.14,15. and 20.23. Luke 19.44. Seize upon such Sinners, and destroy them and their Families, and all that they have gotten by Stealing, Perjury, and the like.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me, went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an [8] ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, [9] This is their resemblance through all the earth.

[8] A large measure, about three Pecks. ¶ [9] q. d. This may serve for a fit resemblance of those Sinners in all parts of the Land, who are daily filling up the measure of their sins; which when it is full, then God will bring his Judgments upon 'em for the same.

7 And behold, there was [10] lift up ‖ a talent of lead: and this is [11] a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

‖ Or, weighty piece.

[10] Noting heavy Judgments ready to seize upon 'em. ¶ [11] A representation of that People now become extremely wicked.

8 And he said, This is [11] wickedness; and he [12] cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he [13] cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

[12] To note, that their wickedness was now come to the full: they had filled up the measure of their sins. ¶ [13] To note, that they are left under the power of their sins, and should not be able to escape the Judgments of God for the same.

9 Then lift I up mine eyes and looked, and behold, there came out [14] two women, and the [15] wind was in their wings, (for they had wings like the wings of a stork) and they [16] lift up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

[14] The Executioners of God's wrath upon 'em, and the Instruments of their Captivity, (which were the Romans.) ¶ [15] To note the sudden execution of this Judgment on 'em. ¶ [16] To note the carrying away of this sinful Nation into Captivity again.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, [17] To build it an house in the land of Shinar; and it [18] shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

[17] *Jer.*29.28. q.d. And they shall (being driven out of their own Land) either fly, or be carried into Babylon, and other remote Countries, and that not for a short time only, but for long continuance. ¶ [18] To note that this Judgment shall be continued upon 'em, (being the result of their sins) and be setled upon that foundation that their sins have laid for it.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vision of the four chariots. 9 By the crowns of Joshua, is shewed the temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

AND [1] I turned, and lift up mine eyes and looked, and behold, there came [2] four chariots out [3] from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 [4] In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot [5] black horses.

Chap. 6.

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the [2] four ‖ spirits of the heavens, which go forth from * [8] standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 [9] The black horses which are therein, go forth into the [9] north-country, and [9] the white go forth after them; and the [10] grisled go forth toward the south-country.

[9] q. d. God's dealings with Babylon (north of Judea) are in a way of Judgment, bringing destruction upon 'em (by the Persians) which yet shall be followed with matter of comfort to the Jews, in their deliverance from captivity. ¶ [10] q. d. As for the Jews that are gone into Egypt with Johanan, (*Jer.*43.) they shall be exercis'd with a mixt Dispensation.

7 And the bay [11] went forth, and sought to go, that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

[11] Here's no particular business assign'd to these, but only a general Commission given 'em, which they readily execute: and perhaps it may note, That as some Angels have particular works assign'd to 'em, so others are imploy'd more generally, and have larger Walks and Circuits than the former.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north-country have [12] quieted my spirit in the north-country.

[12] *Ezek.*5.13. Fully executed my Judgments upon the Babylonians, and so appeas'd my Wrath, and satisfied my purpose concerning 'em; and also reliev'd my people, and brought 'em back from Babylon.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 [13] Take of them of the [14] captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and [15] come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

[13] Viz. Their Offerings. The Scope and Design of this Vision is, by two Crowns set upon the head of Joshua (a Type of Christ) to represent Christ, the Builder of his Church, in his twofold Office of King and Priest, (*v.*12,13.) 11 Then take [16] silver and [16] gold, and make [17] crowns, and [18] set them upon the head of [19] Joshua, the son of Josedech the high priest;

Two Crowns; one of Silver, another of Gold. ¶ [18] Viz. One after another; to note the Union and Conjunction of both Offices of King and Priest in one Person, the Messiah. ¶ [19] Herein a Type and Representative of Christ, in whom both Kingdom and Priesthood should meet together and be really executed.

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, [20] Behold * the man whose name is the [21] BRANCH, and he shall ‖ [22] grow up out of his [23] place, and he shall [24] build the temple of the LORD.

CHAP. XI.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem. 15 The type and curse of a foolish shepherd.

1 OPen thy doors, O Lebanon, [2] that the fire may devour thy cedars.

[1] q.d. The Enemy (the Romans) shall as easily enter into the Land of Judea, and possess himself of all the strong holds thereof, as if all were set open to him. To the former Promises, (ch. 8. and 9. and 10.) the Lord here subjoyns a sad Prediction of the destruction of Jerusalem, the wasting of the Land, and rejection of the Body of that Nation for many generations; that they should be neither a Church nor Kingdom; all which was executed by the Romans for their rejecting of Christ and his Gospel. ¶ [2] That whatsoever is eminent and excellent, either among persons or things, may be destroyed by them.

2 Howl [3] fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen; [3] because the ‖ mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for [4] the ‖ forest of the vintage is come down.

[3] You of meaner rank and quality, who must expect to bear your share in these Calamities, since the rich and great ones are fallen, and Persons in place of Power and Authority are spoiled. ¶ [4] Those places which were kept with greatest care, and secured by greatest Art, are laid desolate.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the [5] shepherds; for [6] their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roring of [7] young lions; for the [8] pride of Jordan is spoiled.

[5] The Rulers and Governors. ¶ [6] Their Subjects, (*Prov.*14.28.) are destroyed, and their Wealth devoured. ¶ [7] Such Rulers as were cruel Oppressors; more like Lions than Shepherds, devouring instead of feeding the People. ¶ [8] The fruitful Land of Canaan, lying along Jordan.

4 Thus [9] saith the LORD [10] my God, [11] Feed the flock of the slaughter.

[9] Viz. To me the Messiah. ¶ [10] See on *Eph.*1.3. ¶ [11] *v.*7. Take the charge and care of this poor People of the Jews, who are thus appointed to destruction, (*v.*1,2.) yet instruct 'em, and labor to bring 'em to repentance, that if it be possible, they may escape this Judgment.

5 [12] Whose possessours slay them, and hold themselves [13] not guilty: and they that [14] sell them, * say, [15] Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their [16] own shepherds pity them not.

* Deut.29.19. Hos.12.8.

[12] Whose Lords and Masters in the several Countries of their dispersion, use 'em with all manner of rigor and severity at their pleasure. ¶ [13] John 16.-2. ¶ [14] For Slaves. ¶ [15] *Hos.*12.8. God approves of what I do, and its his blessing that has given me this opportunity of enriching my self. ¶ [16] Luke 10.31,32. Their own Rulers take no care to relieve 'em.

6 [17] For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but lo, I will † [18] deliver the men every one into his neighbours hand, and into the hand of [19] his king, and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

† Heb. make to be found.

[17] q.d. They shall be made a prey, because— ¶ [18] Give 'em up to destroy one another by their civil Dissentions, Seditions, and mutual slaughters. ¶ [19] The Roman Emperor, whom they chose for their King and rejected Christ, John 19.15.

7 And I [20] will feed the [11] flock of slaughter, ‖ [21] even you, O poor of the flock: and I took unto me two [22] staves; the one I called [23] Beauty, and the other I called ‖ [24] Bands, and I [25] fed the flock.

[Or, verily the poor.
‖ Or, Binders.

[20] I'll instruct you in my own Person, and by my Apostles. Here Christ undertakes the charge committed to him, v. 4. ¶ [21] And among 'em I'll take special care of those that are poor in Spirit, (Matth. 11.-5.) mine elect ones among 'em. ¶ [22] Shepherds Crooks, (the badg of his Office.) ¶ [23] Noting the beautiful Order of his Covenant with 'em, (v.-10. 2 Sam. 23.5.) and the Doctrin thereof; whereby

Chap. 11. the Church is directed in Faith, Worſhip and Obedience. ¶ [24] Noting the Government of the Church and State, whereby they are kept in Unity, without Rents and Schiſms, v.-14. ¶ [25] I diſcharged my Office faithfully among 'em.

8 [26] Three ſhepherds alſo I cut off in one month, and my ſoul † lothed them, and their ſoul alſo [27] abhorred me.

† Heb. was ſtraitned for them.

[26] And in the diſcharge of my Office, I cut off within a very little time, (*Hoſ.*5.-7.) ſeveral evil Governors, who had oppreſs'd 'em, and I brought into contempt their corrupt Teachers, Scribes, Phariſes and Sadduces, (all which he did to reclaim 'em, but all in vain.) ¶ [27] *Matth.*27.-21.

9 [28] Then ſaid I, I will [29] not feed you: that that dieth, [30] let it die: and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the reſt [31] eat every one the fleſh of † another.

† Heb. his fellow or neighbour.

[28] After they had manifeſted ſo great hatred and diſaffection to me. ¶ [29] Take no further care of you, but leave you to your ſelves, and the rage of your Enemies, and take away the Goſpel from you, *Matth.*21.43. ¶ [30] *Jer.*15.2. *Rev.*22.11. ¶ [31] Kill one another by their Seditions and inteſtine quarrels.

10 ¶ And I took my ſtaff, even [23] Beauty, and cut it aſunder, [32] that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

[32] Rom 11.20. To note the breaking of that Covenant I had made with 'em, and taking away the Dignities, Priviledges and Benefits promis'd therein.

‖ Or, the poor of the flock, &c. certainly knew

11 And [33] it was broken in that day: and ‖ ſo the [24] poor of the flock that [34] waited upon me, [34] knew that it was the word of the LORD.

[33] About that time was the Covenant as good as broken on both ſides. ¶ [34] *Mic.*7.7. Diligently obſerved my works, weighed my Judgments, conſider'd my Doctrin, Miracles and Life, thereupon acknowledged that all this came to paſs according to what was threatned by God againſt 'em.

† Heb. If it be good in your eyes.

12 And I [35] ſaid unto them, † [36] If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, [37] forbear: [38] ſo they weighed for my price [39] thirty pieces of ſilver.

[35] To manifeſt their horrid Ingratitude, and the reaſon of his breaking Covenant with 'em. ¶ [36] q.d. If you think I deſerve any thing from you, give me a meet recompenſe for all my care and pains with you, by your Obedience. ¶ [37] Matth. 15. 14. Rev. 22. 11. Ezek. 3. -11, 27. ¶ [38] q.d. All the recompenſe I had was this, to take away my Life, (*Matth.*21.37-39.) and in order thereto they gave Judas thirty Shekels to betray me to 'em, *Mat.*26.15. and 27.9. ¶ [39] About three pounds eight ſhillings ſix pence Sterling.

13 And the LORD [40] ſaid unto me, [41] Caſt it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was priſed at of them. And [42] I took the thirty pieces of ſilver, and caſt them to the potter [43] in the houſe of the LORD.

[40] God the Father, in deteſtation of their horrid ingratitude. ¶ [41] Give it to a Potter, or any other common workman, as a fitter reward for his ſervice, than as a Recompenſe for me. ¶ [42] q.d. And I order'd it ſo by my Providence, that this Mony ſhould be given to a Potter to buy a Field withal, to be a laſting Monument of their Contempt of me, and undervaluing my Service, and ſhedding my Blood. ¶ [43] *Matth.*27.5.

14 [44] Then I cut aſunder mine other ſtaff, even ‖ [24] Bands, that I might [45] break the brotherhood between Judah and Iſrael.

‖ Or, Binders.

[44] After that they had dealt thus with me. ¶ [45] Hoſ. 1. 7,9. Rom. 11. 20. Give 'em up to Rents and Schiſms in Church, and Seditions in State, and ſuffer 'em to be broken in pieces, and ſcattered all the World over, ſo that there was no more face of Church or Commonwealth, either among the Two Tribes, or the Ten, nor any communion between Judah and Iſrael for the future.

15 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto me, † Take unto thee yet the inſtruments of [46] a fooliſh ſhepherd.

† Perſonate a Shepherd once more, (tho another ſort of Shepherd than the former.) ¶ [46] *Ezek.*34.2. Matth. 23.17. Mark 7. 3,4. Luke 11.40. To note that their Governors both in Church and State, after Chriſts time, ſhould be ſuch as had neither Skill nor Will to manage their Office aright, but inſtead thereof ſhould devour 'em.

16 For lo, I will raiſe up [47] a ſhepherd in the land, which ſhall not [48] viſit thoſe that be ‖ cut off, neither ſhall ſeek the [49] young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor ‖ feed that that [50] ſtandeth ſtill: but he ſhall [51] eat the fleſh of the fat, and [52] tear their claws in pieces. Chap. 11.

[47] Such Governors both in Church and State. ¶ [48] Take care to reduce ſuch as ſtraggle from the Company, Luke 15.4. ¶ [49] Such as are weak and apt to go aſtray. ¶ [50] Not able to go forward, or make any progreſs in the way to Heaven. ¶ [51] Ezek. 34.-2. ¶ [52] Hurry 'em about till their very claws are worn to pieces.

17 Wo to the [53] idol ſhepherd that [54] leaveth the flock: [55] the ſword ſhall be upon his arm, [56] and upon his right eye: his arm ſhall be clean [55] dried up, and his right eye ſhall be utterly [56] darkened.

[53] *Jer.*23.1. and 25.34. Such Governors as bear only the Name, but do nothing of the work. ¶ [54] John 10.12,13. ¶ [55] The Judgment of God ſhall be upon the Civil Governors, to deprive 'em of power and authority. ¶ [56] Ezek. 13.23. *Mic.*3.6,7. And the Church-Officers ſhall be deprived of knowledge and underſtanding in the things of God.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jeruſalem a cup of trembling, 3 and a burdenſom ſtone to her adverſary. 6 The victorious reſtoring of Judah.

THe [1] burden of the word of the LORD [2] for Iſrael, ſaith the LORD which [3] ſtretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the [4] foundation of the earth, and [5] formeth the ſpirit of man within him.

[1] *Ch.*9.1. See there. ¶ [2] For the good and behoof of Iſrael, (as containing Threatnings againſt her Enemies, and promiſes of good to her ſelf.) ¶ [3] *Iſa.*42.5. ¶ [4] Job 26.-7. *Pſal.*24.2. ¶ [5] Numb 16.22. *Eccl.*12.-7. In a moſt exact, artificial manner, (as the word ſignifies.)

2 Behold, I will make [6] Jeruſalem a [7] cup of ‖ trembling unto all the people round about, ‖ [8] when they ſhall be in the ſiege both againſt Judah, and againſt Jeruſalem.

‖ Or, ſtumbling block or priſon. ‖ Or, and alſo againſt Judah ſhall he be which ſhall be in ſiege againſt Jeruſalem.

[6] That place, and my Church typified thereby. ¶ [7] Iſa. 51.-17. i.e. All that afflict her ſhall but procure miſchief to themſelves thereby, (as they do that drink poiſonous intoxicating Liquor.) ¶ [8] Whenſoever they ſhall attempt any thing againſt 'em.

3 ¶ And [9] in that day will I make Jeruſalem [10] a burdenſom ſtone for all people: all that [11] burden themſelves with it ſhall be [12] cut in pieces, though [13] all the people of the earth be gathered together againſt it.

[9] *V.*9. ¶ [10] Too heavy for any of 'em to remove, and which ſhall bring trouble to them that meddle with it. ¶ [11] Seek to overthrow and undermine the Church. ¶ [12] *Matth.*21.44. ¶ [13] *Rev.*16. 13,14. and 17. 14.

4 In that day, ſaith the LORD, I will ſmite every [14] horſe with aſtoniſhment, and [14] his rider with madneſs, and I will [15] open mine eyes upon the houſe of Judah, and will ſmite [14] every horſe of the people with blindneſs.

[14] *Pſal.*76.5,6. Blaſt all undertakings, and confound all undertakers of any miſchief againſt my People. ¶ [15] Jer. 24.6. Look upon 'em with favor.

5 And the [16] governors of Judah ſhall [17] ſay in their heart, ‖ [18] The inhabitants of Jeruſalem ſhall be my ſtrength in the LORD of hoſts their God.

‖ Or, There is ſtrength to me and to the inhabitants, &c.

[16] Thoſe Magiſtrates and Rulers that God ſhall place over 'em, ſhall be men of Piety. ¶ [17] Be fully perſwaded of the truth of this. ¶ [18] q. d. Whatſoever our Armies are, whether great or ſmall, and how many ſoever our Subjects be, whether many or few, yet we don't place our confidence in them as our ſtrength, but only upon the Lord of Hoſts, in whom alſo they truſt as their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governours of Judah [19] like a hearth of fire among the wood, and and [19] like a torch of fire in a ſheaf; and they ſhall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jeruſalem ſhall be inhabited again, in her [20] own place, [20] even in Jeruſalem.

[19] Victorious over all their Enemies round about. ¶ [20] This Paſſage is ſo exceeding emphatical, that it ſeems to exclude all myſtical, figurative ſenſes, and (certainly) muſt be underſtood in a literal ſenſe, of the Jews repoſſeſſing their own Land and Jeruſalem again after their Calling, yet not any more as typical of the heavenly Inheritance, but only as their own proper ancient Inheritance.

7 The LORD alſo ſhall [21] ſave the tents of Judah firſt, that the [22] glory of the houſe of David, and the [22] glory of the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, do not magnifie themſelves againſt Judah.

[21] Begin to diſcover his glorious Power among the middle ſort of people living in a plain, but comly way; (ſuch as living in Tents of old was.) ¶ [22] 1 Cor. 1. 31. That ſo neither Court nor City may have cauſe to boaſt of their power, policy, wealth, or the like, as if the poor Country muſt have periſh'd had it not been for them.

8 In that day ſhall the LORD [23] defend the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and * he that is ‖ †feeble among them at that day ſhall be [24] as David; and the [25] houſe of David ſhall be as God, [25] as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it ſhall come to paſs in that day, that I will [26] ſeek to deſtroy all the nations that come againſt Jeruſalem.

[26] Seriouſly and carefully ſet my ſelf about it.

*Joel 2.28.

10 And * I will [27] pour upon the houſe of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, [28] the ſpirit of grace and of [29] ſupplications, and they ſhall [30] look upon me whom they have [31] pierced, and they ſhall [32] mourn [33] for him, as one mourneth for his [34] only ſon, and ſhall be in bitterneſs for him, as one that is in bitterneſs for his firſt-born.

[27] Plentifully beſtow upon all ſorts, whether higher or lower. ¶ [28] A truly gracious frame of heart; by enriching 'em with the Graces of my Spirit, Gal. 5.22,23. ¶ [29] Jer. 31.9. *Acts 2. 37.
‖ 2 Chron. 35.-24,25.

11 In that day ſhall there be a great * mourning in Jeruſalem, as the mourning [35] of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

†Heb. families, families.

12 And [36] the land ſhall mourn, † every family apart, the family of the [37] houſe of David apart, and [38] their wives apart: the family of the houſe of Nathan apart, and their wives apart:

[36] The whole Nation of the Jews. ¶ [37] All Jews of what Tribe or Family ſoever, and in what Country ſoever they are ſcatter'd. ¶ [38] 1 Cor. 7. 5. This Prophecy remains yet to be accompliſh'd, at the general Converſion of the Jews.

13 The family of the houſe of Levi apart, and their wives apart: the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart:

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

1 The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ, and the graces of his kingdom.

BEhold, the [1] day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

[1] Joel 2.-1,2. Wherein he'll destroy Jerusalem and the Jews for their killing of Christ.

2 For I will gather [2] all nations against Jerusalem to battel, and the city shall be taken, and the houses [3] rifled, and the women [3] ravished, and [4] half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the [5] residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

[2] The Roman Army consisting of divers Nations, which shall make war with the Jews, and besiege Jerusalem, and take it. ¶ [3] Isa. 13.16. Great Outrages committed. ¶ [4] ch. 13.8. A great number. ¶ [5] The godly among 'em shall be preserved (Luke 21.28.) and many others reserved for future Mercy, *ch.*13.-8,9.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and [6] fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battel.

[6] After he has made use of 'em in this work, he'll inflict many Calamities upon 'em, as he has done formerly upon many other Occasions.

* See Ezek. 11.23.

4 ¶ And [7] his feet shall stand in that day * upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall [8] cleave in the midst thereof toward the east, and toward the west, and there shall be [8] a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

[7] Christ shall appear most eminently and conspicously in behalf of his people to reveal the Doctrin of Salvation to the Gentiles, (as when he gave Commission to his Apostles to carry the Gospel into all parts of the World, Acts 1. 8, 12.) ¶ [8] He shall take away the Ceremonial Worship, and all other impediments, and make a plain way for the Gentiles to come unto the Church, and worship him according to his Will, from afar off.

‖ Or, my mountains. ‖ Or, when he shall touch the valley of the mountains to the place he separated. * Amos 1. 1.

5 And [9] ye shall flee to the valley ‖ [10] of the mountains: ‖ [11] for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee [12] like as ye fled from before the * earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God [13] shall come, and [14] all the saints with thee.

[9] You my chosen Ones among the Jews, who shall escape these Calamities, shall joyn your selves to the Christian Church; the way being now made clear and open to you. ¶ [10] Made by the division of the Mountains, *v.*4. ¶ [11] There shall be a large passage to the Church, so that every one, tho' separated at never so great a distance, shall have liberty to come to it, and free admission into it. ¶ [12] With all earnestness, from the wrath to come, and imbrace Christ with all readiness. ¶ [13] To bring all these things to pass; to destroy his Enemies, propagate his Church, and then at last to judge the World, and glorifie his people. ¶ [14] Jude 14. ‖ Or, the day shall be one.

7 But ‖ it shall be [17] one day which shall be known to the LORD, [18] not day, [18] nor night: but it shall come to pass that at [19] evening-time it shall be light.

Chap.14.

8 And it shall be in that day, that [20] living waters shall go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the ‖ [21] former sea, and half of them toward the [22] hinder sea: in [23] summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the [24] LORD shall be King over all the earth: in that day shall there be [25] one LORD, and his [25] name one.

[24] Christ shall be own'd both by Jews and Gentiles in all parts of the World, as their Lord and King; and more especially after the Calling of the Jews, Rev. 19.-6, 16. and 11.17. ¶ [25] All Idolatry, and all other false ways of Worship being destroy'd, the true God alone shall be owned and worshipt in his own way.

[34] Suddenly and without any evident cause, only by the immediate hand of God. ¶ [35] Acts 13. 11. Their Prudence and Eloquence, and all other means whereby they might help themselves, shall fail 'em.

[39] God shall not only destroy the Enemies themselves, (*v.*12,13.) but all the Cattel and Instruments they made use of.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that [40] every one that is left of all the Nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King the LORD of hosts, and to keep * [41] the feast of tabernacles.

MALACHI.

The ARGUMENT.

MALACHI is the last of the Prophets who clos'd up the Canon of the Old Testament: after whom the Spirit of Prophecy departed from the Jewish Church till the Coming of Christ; about whose time it was restor'd again, Luke 2.25, 36. He lived after the second Temple and City were built up again, towards the latter end of Ezra and Nehemiah, when all things were grown worse; Zeal was decay'd, Worship corrupted, and many sins were rife both among Priests and People; as Ingratitude, Contempt of God and his Worship, Abuse of Marriage, Sacriledge, &c. for all which he reproves and threatens 'em: but encourages the godly who kept their Integrity in such declining Times. Then he speaks more distinctly of the Coming of Christ in the Flesh, and his Forerunner John the Baptist: directs the Church how to carry themselves in the mean while, and acquaints both wicked and godly what they might expect by Christ's Coming.

St. MATTHEW.

The ARGUMENT.

MAtthew, the inſpired Penman of this Goſpel (called alſo Levi, Luk. 5. 27.) was by Parentage the Son of Alpheus, (Mar. 2. 14.) by Profeſſion a Publican (c. 10. 3.) or, Receiver of Cuſtom (c. 9. 9.) from which imployment he was firſt called to be one of Chriſt's Diſciples (ibid.) and afterwards choſen to be one of the twelve Apoſtles. Luk. 6. 13. 15.

His Goſpel contains the Hiſtory both of Chriſt's Perſon, in reſpect of his Parentage, Conception and Birth; and alſo of his Office, how he was prepared for it, by his Baptiſm, the Deſcent of the Holy Ghoſt, and his Temptation by Satan; and how he Adminiſtred it, by Preaching, working Miracles, making Diſciples, ſending out Apoſtles, Suffering, Dying, Riſing again, and Commiſſionating his Apoſtles to diſciple all Nations.

He was the firſt that wrote the Evangelical Hiſtory; which he compoſed about eight years after Chriſt's Aſcenſion, as is commonly thought.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogy of Chriſt. 18 His conception and birth. 21, 23 His names.

[1] THE Book of the * generation of Jeſus Chriſt, the Son of [2] David, the Son of [2] Abraham.

[1] q. d. This is the Narrative or Rehearſal of ſuch paſſages as concern the Birth, Life, Death and Reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt; and particularly, of his Pedigree. ¶ [2] Theſe are more eſpecially mentioned, becauſe the Promiſes of the Meſſia were chiefly made to them. Matthew here deſcribes Chriſt's Pedigree by the Legal Line, that is, by Joſeph his ſuppoſed Father, according to whom only the Genealogies were to be reckoned (and not by their Mothers.) And hereby it appears that Chriſt was of the Line Royal, Heir to the Crown, and King of the Jews.

2 * [1] Abraham begat Iſaac, and * Iſaac begat Jacob, and * Jacob begat Judas and his [4] brethren,

[1] He begins with him, becauſe (1.) The Promiſe of the Meſſiah was often made to him. (2.) The Jews boaſted of him as their Father, (ch. 3. 9.) and the Root of their Nation. ¶ [4] They are mentioned to ſhew that Chriſt is related to all the Tribes, as well as to Judah.

3 And * Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, and * Phares begat Eſrom, and Eſrom begat Aram,

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naaſſon, and Naaſſon begat Salmon,

5 And Salmon begat Booz [5] of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of [5] Ruth, and Obed begat Jeſſe,

[5] They are named, to ſhew that Chriſt came Of, and For, the Gentiles as well as the Jews.

6 And * Jeſſe begat David the [6] King, and * David the King begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias,

[6] This is added, becauſe (1.) David was the firſt King of the Tribe of Judah, and his Kingdom a clear type of the everlaſting Kingdom of Chriſt. (2.) That Kingdom was begun by him, which Chriſt was to raiſe up, and poſſeſs for ever. (3.) To ſhew, that Chriſt was the true Heir of the Kingdom.

7 And * Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Aſa,

8 And Aſa begat Joſaphat, and Joſaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat [7] Ozias,

[7] Here are three omitted, which were of Ahab's curſed poſterity, and to keep the number of fourteen.

* Gen. 38. 27. * Ruth 4. 18. 1 Chron. 2. 5, 9, &c.

* 1 Sam. 16. 1. & 17. 12. * 2 Sam. 12. 24.

[1] Luke 3. 23.

[2] Gen. 21. 2, 3. [2] Gen. 25. 26. [2] Gen. 29. 35.

Chap. 1.

9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezekias,

10 And * Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias,

11 And ‖Josias begat [8] Jechonias and his Brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

* 2King.20.21. 1 Chron. 3.13.

‖ Some read, Josias begat Jakim, and Jakim begat Jechonias.

[8] Viz. The Father; called also Joakim, or Jehojachim.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, * [9] Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel.

* 1 Chron. 3. 16, 17.

[9] The Son of him, mentioned v. 11. called also Jehojachin.

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor,

14 And Azor begat Zadoc, and Zadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud,

15 And Eliud begat Eleazer, and Eleazer begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob,

16 And Jacob begat [10] Joseph the Husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

[10] Though Joseph was not the true Father of Christ, yet his Pedigree is reckoned by him; because he had no other Father, as Man, and Joseph was his supposed Father, being the Husband of his Mother; and the Mother being transplanted into her Husband's Family, the Child must go for one of that Family: And therefore Joseph's Family was to be set down, lest if it had not been known, the Jews should have taken occasion to reject Christ upon that account. By this Pedigree it appears that Joseph was right Heir to the Kingdom, and that Christ was his Heir, being, though not begotten by him, yet, conceived without help of any other man, and born in wedlock of his Wife, who was one flesh with him, so that her Son was his Son.

17 So [11] all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations: and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations: and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

[11] Viz. Here set down; which are sufficient to deduce his Pedigree from Abraham to David.

18 ¶ Now the [12] Birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they [13] came together, she was found with child of the [14] Holy Ghost. 3999.

[12] Luk. 1. 27, 35. i. e. something relating to his Birth, viz. what befel his Mother after her conception of him. ¶ [13] Did dwell together; or, though he had not known her. ¶ [14] Luk. 1. 35.

19 Then Joseph her [15] husband, being [16] a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to [17] put her away [18] privily.

[15] Deut. 22. 24. ¶ [16] Having never found any cause of suspicion in her, he could not in justice publickly expose her: or, kind, pitiful, tender-hearted. ¶ [17] Deut. 24. 1. To renounce his Relation to her, and disclaim her as his Wife. ¶ [18] Without publishing the reason of it.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph thou [19] Son of David, fear not to [20] take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is † conceived in her, is [21] of the Holy Ghost.

[19] Of the Family of David. Hereby he puts him in mind of the Promises made to David concerning Christ, and of the Prophecies concerning the restoring of David's Kingdom by Christ. ¶ [20] To take her home to thee, and treat her kindly, as a Wife ought to be. ¶ [21] v. 18. Proceeds from the powerful work of the Holy Ghost overshadowing her, Luk. 1. 35. (who yet cannot be called the Father of Christ, as Man, because he bestowed a different Nature on Christ from his own, which is the part of a Creator, and not a Begetter.)

21 And she shall [22] bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his Name JESUS: for he shall [23] save his [24] people [25] from their sins.

[22] Luk. 1. 31. ¶ [23] Act. 4. 12. ¶ [24] Such as were given him by his Father, Joh. 17. 2, 6. ¶ [25] Both from the power and punishment of sin.

22 (Now [26] all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying,

[26] i. e. By the doing of all this it did appear, that That was eminently fulfilled--.

Chap. 2.

23 [27] Behold, a Virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and ‖ [28] they shall call his name Emmanuel, which, being interpreted, is, [29] God with us.) 3362.

‖ Or, his name shall be called.

[27] Isa. 7. 14. ¶ [28] i. e. He shall be owned and accounted. ¶ [29] 1 Tim. 3. 16. Rom. 9. 5. God in our Nature, by whose Incarnation, as Man, God is united to our Nature; and by whose Satisfaction, as Mediator, God is reconciled to us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the Angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not, [30] till she had brought forth her [31] first-born son; and he called his name Jesus. 4000.

[30] i. e. Not at all; as Gen. 8. 7. 1 Sam. 15. 35. 2 Sam. 6. 23. Psal. 112. 8. and afterwards too; as 1 Tim. 4. 13. ¶ [31] Which yet does not imply that she had any more Children (and that she had no more (at least at that time) may be, probably, gather'd from Christ's recommending her, at his Death, to the care of his beloved Disciple, Joh. 19. 27.) Besides, if Joseph had had any Child by her, that Child would have been the undoubted Heir to the Crown (and not Jesus) as being Heir both by Father and Mother.

CHAP. II.

1 The wise-men coming to Christ, 11 worship him.
14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt.

NOW when * Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold there came [1] wise men from the [2] east to Jerusalem, * Luke 2. 6, 7.

[1] Astronomers: men of Wisdom and Wealth too; (v. 11.) the first-fruits of the Gentiles. Christ is neglected by his own Country-men, and sought after by strangers. ¶ [2] Chaldea, Arabia, or Persia.

2 Saying, [3] Where is he that is born [4] king of the Jews? for we have seen [5] his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

[3] By this Enquiry the Birth of Christ is more publickly declared to the Jews, and more fully attested by these grave and understanding personages. ¶ [4] The Messia, who is true Heir to the Crown. ¶ [5] Numb. 24. 17. A strange, extraordinary Star, never seen afore; which we understand does betoken the Birth of the Messia.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was [6] troubled, and [7] all Jerusalem with him.

[6] For fear of losing his Kingdom. ¶ [7] Lest troubles should arise in the State.

4 And when he had gathered all the * [8] chief priests and [9] scribes of the people together, he [11] demanded of them, where Christ should be born. 4001.

* 2 Chr. 36. 14. 1 Mac. 5. 42. & 7. 12.

[8] Heads of the Courses or Families, (1 Chron. 24. 4.) and Members of the great Council. ¶ [9] They were of the Tribe of Levi onely and so were either Priests, Ez. 7. 11, 12. or Levites. 1 Chron. 24. 6. 2 Chr. 34. 13. Their Office was chiefly, (1.) to be the ordinary, publick Preachers and Teachers of the people (therefore called here, Scribes of the People) c. 7. 29. and 13. 52. And though Priests were Teachers too (Mal. 2. 7.) yet it seems to be rather by resolving questions about Ceremonial matters of Worship (Hag. 2. 11.) than by preaching Sermons: and also (2.) to copy out the Law and Scriptures of the Old Testament: as may be gather'd from Jer. 8. 8. (see notes there.) and (3.) they, together with the chief Priests, and Elders, constituted the Sanhedrim, or great Council of the Nation. c. 16. 21. and 20. 18. and 26. 3, 57. and 27. 41. Mar. 11. 27. Luk. 19. 47. and 20. 1. and 22. 66. But this must needs be but some few of 'em. ¶ [11] Mal. 2. 7.

5 And [12] they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the Prophet; [12] Tit. 1. 16.

6 * And thou Bethlehem, in the [13] land of Juda, [14] art not the least among the [15] princes of Juda; for out of thee shall come a governour, that shall ‖ [16] rule my [17] people Israel. * Mich. 5. 2. John 7. 42.

Chap. 2. 4001.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise-men, enquired of them diligently what time the ſtar appeared.

8 And he ſent them to Bethlehem, and ſaid, [18] Go, and ſearch diligently for the young child, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and [19] worſhip him alſo.

[18] Job 5. 12. 1 King. 19. 2. Iſa. 42. 25. ¶ [19] 2 Sam. 15. 7. 1 King. 21. 9.

9 When they had heard the King, they departed; and lo, the ſtar which they ſaw in the eaſt, went before them, till it came and ſtood over where the young child was.

*Luk. 2. 10, 11.

10 When they ſaw the ſtar, they [20] rejoyced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the houſe, they ſaw the young Child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worſhipped him: and when they had opened their treaſures, they ‖ [21] preſented unto him gifts; [22] gold, and frankincenſe, and myrrh.

‖ Or, offered.

[21] Pſal. 72. 10. Iſa. 60. 6. ¶ [22] Whereby they were furniſht with money for their Journey into Egypt.

12 And being warned of God in a dream, that they ſhould not return to Herod, they [23] departed into their own countrey another way.

[23] Exod. 1. 17. Act. 4. 19.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joſeph in a dream, ſaying, Ariſe, and take the young child, and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will ſeek the young child to deſtroy him.

14 When he aroſe, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: [24] that it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken of the Lord by the prophet, ſaying, [25] Out of Egypt have I called my ſon.

[24] q. d. And thereby was fully accompliſht that which was foreſhadowed by the deliverance of Iſrael, God's adopted Son, out of Egypt; which was a type of his bringing Chriſt, his natural Son, from thence. ¶ [25] Hoſ. 11. 1. Literally and immediately, my people Iſrael; chiefly and primarily, my onely begotten Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he ſaw that he was [26] mocked of the wiſe-men, was exceeding [27] wroth, and ſent forth, and ſlew [28] all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coaſts thereof, from two years old and under, [29] according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wiſe-men.

[26] Diſappointed in his expectation. ¶ [27] Prov. 27. 3. ¶ [28] But Prov. 21. 30. ¶ [29] i. e. He ſlew all that were ſo much under two years old, as ſince the Star appeared.

17 Then was [30] fulfilled that which was ſpoken by Jeremy the Prophet, ſaying, [30] viz. Again, what had been formerly ſpoken upon another occaſion.

18 [31] In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning; [32] Rachel weeping for her [33] Children, and would not be comforted, becauſe they [34] are not.

[31] Jer. 31. 15. ¶ [32] i. e. The Inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and Tribe of Benjamin, the Son of Rachel, and the people thereabours. ¶ [33] Which were either kill'd, or carried into captivity then, and were kill'd now. ¶ [34] Gen. 42. 36.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joſeph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Ariſe, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Iſrael: for they are dead which ſought the young child's life.

21 And he aroſe, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Iſrael.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea, in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithſtanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aſide into the parts of Galilee.

Chap. 3. 4001.

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, [35] that it might be fulfilled * which was ſpoken by the Prophets, He ſhall be called a [36] Nazarene.

* Judg. 13. 5.

[35] q. d. And ſo by dwelling at Nazareth, he was made capable of that title, which is ſpoken enigmatically, or myſtically of Chriſt, Iſa. 11. 1. that he ſhall be Netzer, the Branch of the Root of Jeſſe; and they might be put in mind of the perfection of the Nazarites, and of what was typified by the Law concerning them. ¶ [36] Not a Nazarite by vow or profeſſion, but a Nazarene, i. e. as well the ſpriggy one, propheſied of, Iſa. 11. 1. Zech. 6. 12. as one of Nazareth's breed or abode, and in whom was accompliſht that holineſs, which was figured by the Nazarites.

1 John preacheth. 4 His apparel, meat, and baptiſm. 8 The fruits of repentance. 13 Chriſt baptized by John in Jordan.

IN thoſe days came * John the [1] Baptiſt, preaching in the [2] wilderneſs of Judea, 4030.

3 For this is he that was ſpoken of by the Prophet Eſaias, ſaying,* [7] The voice of one crying in the [8] wilderneſs, [8] Prepare ye the way [9] of the Lord, * [10] make his paths ſtraight.

Though it be grace that prepares for further grace, yet man's duty muſt be uſed thereunto. ¶ [9] For the Meſſia to come freely to you without any let. ¶ [10] Heb. 12. 13. Let him have a ready paſſage and acceſs to your hearts.

And hereby, as alſo by his ſpare Diet, he gave an example of Repentance, and of his expectation of a heavenly Kingdom. ¶ [12] c. 11. 18. Either a larger ſort of Graſhoppers, (Lev. 11. 22.) or a kind of green Herb growing in the wilderneſs, or wood-land.

* Acts 19. 18.

‖ John's Baptiſm, though it agreed with Chriſt's in many things (as all Sacraments do) yet ſeems to be of a different nature from his. For (1.) John was no Goſpel-miniſter, nor his Miniſtry a Goſpel-miniſtry, (for that State of the Church was not then begun) but as he was a middle Perſon between both Teſtaments, greater than the Prophets, leſs than a Goſpel-miniſter, (Matt. 11. 11, 13.) ſo his Miniſtry was a ſort of middle miniſtry, the chief drift whereof was to prepare people to receive Jeſus of Nazareth as the promiſed Meſſiah; in order whereunto he labour'd to convince 'em of their ſins and their need of a Saviour, by preaching Repentance (v. 2.) and pointed out the Meſſia to 'em. (Joh. 1. 29.) and baptized 'em as a profeſſing ſign of Repentance on their part, and an aſſurance of pardon on God's part; (Mark 1. 4.) and at his Baptiſm taught 'em to believe in Chriſt for pardon (Act. 19. 4.) and thereby manifeſted him to 'em. Joh. 1. 31. (2.) The form of it was different: Chriſt's was in the Name of Father, Son and Holy Ghoſt; John's could be only in the Name of the Father, who ſent him to baptize, Joh. 1. 33. (3.) The End alſo was different. The End of Chriſt's was to oblige perſons of all

Chap. 3. 4030.

Nations to make profession of their Faith in the Trinity: the End of John's was only to manifest Christ to Israel, (Joh. 1. 31.) and oblige 'em to own him as the promised Messiah: So that it was only a temporary Sacrament, or Institution, set up upon a particular occasion; which as it agreed with Christ's in the external sign, so was perfected by his. † See on Mark 1. 5.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the [14] Pharisees and [15] Sadducees come to his Baptism, he said unto them, * [16] O generation of Vipers,[17] who hath warned you to flee from the [18] wrath to come?

[14] This was not the Name of an Office, but a Sect (Act. 15. 5. and 26. 5.) or sort of persons of a different opinion or perswasion from others in matters of Religion: and so they were sometimes Priests and Levites, Joh. 1. 19, 24. compar'd; Rulers, Joh. 3. 1. Doctors of the Law, Act. 5. 34. or Lawyers, Matt. 22. 34, 35. compar'd; Scribes, Act. 23. 9. and might be indifferently of any Tribe: for Paul was a Pharisee of the Tribe of Benjamin, Phil. 3. 5. This was the most strict, and precise Sect among the Jews, who separated themselves (as the word signifies) from others, in habit, manners and a seeming strictness of conversation, as thinking themselves more righteous than they, Luk. 18. 11. They had their original from Antigonus Sochæus, in the time of Alexander the Great. ¶ [15] The loosest Sect of all; who believed not the Immortality of the Soul, nor consequently the Resurrection of the Body, c. 22. 23. Acts 23. 8. ¶ [16] c. 12. 34. and 23. 33. a wicked brood of wicked Parents. ¶ [17] q. d. 'Tis strange to see you come to learn of, and be baptized by me. How comes it about that you now apprehend your selves to be in any kind of danger, and use means to escape? since you Pharisees are so conceited of your own righteousness, that you think you are in no danger of Hell; Luk. 18. 9. 11. and you Sadducees, think there is none; Acts 23. 8. and therefore it's well if you be sincere herein. ¶ [18] 1 Thes. 1. 10.

Ingaged solemnly in the same military work with us against Sin and Satan. (3.) Admitted a Member of the Gospel-Church (as he was afore of the Jewish, by Circumcision.) (4.) He was baptized as a publick Person, the Head of his Church, in whom, and by virtue of whose Baptism, all his Members are baptized spiritually, Rom. 6. 4. Col. 2. 12. ¶ [43] For his sake. ¶ [44] Both Christ himself saw, and also John the Baptist; as appears by Joh. 1. 33, 34. ¶ [45] Joh. 1. 32. To signifie what Christ is, (1.) In his own Nature to them that come to him, viz. meek, harmless, loving: (2.) In the execution of his Office; even He by whom the Father is pacified, and who brings the good tidings of the assuaging the deluge of wrath: (3.) In the Operations of his Spirit upon his people, that they are made meek, harmless, and lowly as Doves. ¶ [46] And also abiding and remaining on him, Joh. 1. 32, 33. to betoken, a new degree of the Holy Ghost's Operation in Christ, now at his Entrance upon his publick Employment. wilderness, to be [1] tempted of the [2] Devil.

[1] Heb. 4. 15. (1.) For a tryal, and proof of his perfect holiness. (2.) To gain the victory over the Devil. (3.) To give his Church Assurance of a perfect Conquest over all Satan's Assaults and Subtilties. ¶ [2] The chief of the Devils.

2 And when he had [3] fasted forty days, and forty nights, he was afterward [4] an hungred.

3 And when the Tempter [5] came to him, he said, [6] If thou be the Son of God, [7] command that these stones be made bread.

[5] viz. In a visible shape and appearance, to tempt him outwardly (as he had done inwardly before, Luk. 4. 2, 3.) ¶ [6] As was said, c. 3. 17. (which the Devil here tempts him to disbelieve.) ¶ [7] He puts him upon an unnecessary proof proof of his Divinity, and a distrust of God's Providence; fitting his temptation to his present condition.)

4 But he answered and said, It is [8] written, * [9] Man shall not live by [10] bread alone, but by [11] every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

[8] Rom. 15. 14. ¶ [9] Deut. 8. 3. q. d. Whether I am the Son of God or no, is nothing to the present purpose: I am a true man, and therefore must go in God's way, and depend upon him for sustenance, and provision. ¶ [10] By the ordinary, outward means of life. ¶ [11] By whatsoever the Providence of God shall afford, and bless for our support; yea, by his only Power and Will, without any means at all, if he so please: (and therefore neither I, nor any other man, must absolutely rest upon the means, and without warrant run to an extraordinary course for supply, but trust in God, and leave him to provide as he pleases.)

5 Then the Devil [12] taketh him up into * the holy City, and setteth him on a [13] Pinnacle of the Temple,

[12] Job 1. 16. Carries him through the Air. ¶ [13] The Battlement.

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, [14] cast thy self down: [15] for it is written, [16] He shall give his Angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

[14] Thereby to shew to all the people about the Temple, that thou art indeed the Son of God, when they shall see thee fly without falling, or fall without hurting thy self. ¶ [15] q. d. Since thou trustest so much to Providence, as to expect to be sustained by it, even without food, Throw thy self down now, to give more undoubted evidence of thy dependance upon it. ¶ [16] Psal. 91. 11.

7 Jesus said unto him, it is written again, [17] Thou shalt not [18] tempt the Lord thy God.

[17] Deut. 6. 16. q. d. I am well enough satisfied already, that I am the Son of God, and shall not express any doubt of it, nor use extraordinary means, when I can go down by an ordinary way. ¶ [18] By limiting him in any thing, or desiring extraordinary proof of his care over us, when he has provided ordinary means for our safety.

8 Again, the Devil taketh him up into an exceeding high Mountain, and [19] sheweth him all the Kingdoms of the World, and the [20] glory of them:

[19] Partly by the advantage of the Place, which being so exceeding high, he might from thence behold many magnificent Buildings, fruitfull Vallies, pleasant Meadows, &c. and then, what was wanting that way he might supply, by framing Landskips and representations of more such things in the Air, and also by his discourses about the delightfulness and agreeableness of such things. ¶ [20] Whatsoever was gay, splendid or magnificent, either in respect of the honours, riches or pleasures of the world.

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

4034. 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, [21] Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

[21] Deut. 6. 13. & 10. 20. 1 Sam. 7. 3.

11 Then the Devil leaveth him, and behold, Angels came and ministred unto him.

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the Sea-coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the Prophet, saying,

[23] Isa. 9. 1. See there. 16 [26] The people which sat in [26] darkness [27] saw great [28] light; and to them which [29] sat in the region and shadow of death, [30] light is sprung up.

[25] They whose Predecessours were afflicted by the Assyrian, and are now Captives of Satan, and have hitherto lived in sin, and ignorance of the way of happiness, being far from Jerusalem, the place of Worship, and conversing much with the men of Tyre and Sidon, who were very wicked. ¶ [27] Shall first of all see, (viz. at the time of the Messia's coming in the flesh.) ¶ [28] By having the chief share of Christ's presence and conversation. ¶ [29] Were extreamly miserable. ¶ [30] The Gospel shall be preacht to them.

* Mark 1. 16. Luke 5. 2.

[33] Joh. 1. 42. ¶ [34] He calls such mean persons, to shew (1.) The freedom of his grace in chusing such weak Instruments. (2.) The Power of his grace, who by such weak Instruments can subdue the world. (3.) The depth of his Wisdom, who provided so for his own honour, that the Instrument shall not carry away the glory of the work.

19 And he saith unto them, [35] Follow me, and I will make you [36] Fishers of men.

[35] viz. Not only now and then, (as you have done hitherto, since my Baptism, Joh. 1. 37.) but now leave your other Imployments, and become my constant Attendants, that so by continual hearing my Doctrine, and seeing my Miracles, you may be fitted in due time to become my Apostles, Act. 1. 21. ¶ [36] Ezek. 47. 9, 10. [40] The Evangelist and beloved Disciple.

22 And they immediately left the Ship, and their [41] Father, and followed him.

[41] Ch. 10. 37.

23 ¶ And Jesus [42] went about all Galilee, [43] teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the [44] Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing all manner of [45] Sickness, and all manner of [46] Disease among the people.

[42] c. 9. 35. ¶ [43] Though it belonged chiefly to the Priests, Levites and Scribes to teach, yet it was the custom for any one of ability to do it. ¶ [44] That Doctrine whereby the Kingdom of Heaven is revealed, and offered to men, and by obedience whereto they come to partake of it. ¶ [45] Though otherwise never so incurable. ¶ [46] Lesser infirmities.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with Devils, and those which were [47] lunatick, and those that had the Palsie; and he healed them.

[47] Affected with any Diseases on which the Moon had influence, as Madness, Falling-sickness, and the like.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

3 Who are blessed. 13 The Apostles are the salt and light of the world.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a Mountain, and when he was set, his [1] Disciples came unto him.

Have a comfortable right to so much of those outward things, as God's Providence allots them, and enjoy them with inward Peace: And (3.) [29] All my Disciples in general, but especially Ministers. ¶ [30] Col. 4. 6. 15 [36] Neither do men light a Candle, and put it under ‖ a bushel, but on a Candlestick: and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. ‖ The word in the original signifieth a measure containing about a pint less than a peck.

[36] Mark 4. 21. Luk. 8. 16. & 11. 33. q.d. I did not bestow gifts and graces upon you only for your selves, or for your own sakes, but for the good of others.

16 [37] Let your light so shine before men, * that they may see your [38] good works, and [39] * glorifie your Father which is in Heaven. * 1 Cor. 14. 25.

17 ¶ [40] Think not that I am come to [41] destroy the Law or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to [42] fulfil.

[40] Here he prevents their misconstruction of his following exposition of the Law (which was different from what their teachers taught them.) ¶ [41] To pervert the sense, overthrow the design, dissolve the obligation, or derogate from the authority of the Moral Law, as a Rule of Life. ¶ [42] c. 3. 15. To expound what was doubtfull; restore the right sense where it was corrupted; accomplish the Prophecies and Types; confirm, both by my Doctrine and Example, the Duties of the Moral Law, and oblige men to a more strict observance of them, than the Pharisees had taught; and to give grace, and strength for the performance of them.

18 For verily I say unto you, [43] Till Heaven and Earth [44] pass, [45] one jot or one tittle shall in no wise [46] pass from the Law, till [47] all be fulfilled.

[43] Luke 16. 17. Isa. 51. 6. ¶ [44] Cease to continue in their present state. ¶ [45] The least branch or parcel. ¶ [46] Isa. 40. 8. Want its due force, efficacy, design and end. ¶ [47] The predictions concerning me, and other Prophecies and Threatnings, be accomplisht, and all the Precepts thereof be sincerely and impartially observed.

19 * Whosoever therefore shall [48] break one of these [49] least Commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be [50] called the least in the [51] Kingdom of Heaven: but whosoever shall do, and teach them, the same shall be called great in the [51] Kingdom of Heaven.

[48] Jam. 2. 10. Psal. 2. 3. Transgress, or go about, by any false interpretation, to make void (as the Pharisees did.) ¶ [49] Which men make least account of: or, the least branch, or part of the Moral Law. ¶ [50] Lose much of God's approbation, and the esteem of good men, (1 Cor. 3. 15.) and, without repentance, be rejected by God at the day of Judgment. ¶ [51] See on c. 3. n. 4, 5.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed [52] the righteousness of the [53] Scribes and [54] Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

[52] Which they either teach, or practice; it being only an external, (v. 21. & c. 23. 25–27. Luk. 11. 39.) partial, (c. 15. 3.) and negative righteousness, Luke 18. 11. ¶ [53] Who were the Teachers and Expounders of the Law, and counted men of the greatest Learning. ¶ [54] Who were of the strictest life, and great pretenders to the observation of the Law, to the smallest circumstances.

21 ¶ [55] Ye have heard, that it was said ‖ by [56] them of old time, * Thou shalt not [57] kill: and who- ‖ Or, to them. * Exod. 20. 13. Deut. 5. 17. soever shall kill, shall [58] be in danger of the judgment.

[55] Here he proves his fulfilling the Law in one respect, by shewing its true meaning according to its full extent; that so men, seeing their guilt, may see their need of a Saviour to redeem them. ¶ [56] The corrupt Teachers of former times (whose opinion you embrace.) Christ does not here tax the Doctrine of Moses and the Prophets, but the corrupt interpretations of the Scribes and Pharisees, who neither understood the extent of the Law, that it reacht to the the heart, nor of the punishment, that it reacht to the other world. ¶ [57] Be guilty of actual murder. ¶ [58] Liable to be tried for his life.

22 But [59] I say [60] unto you, that [61] whosoever is [62] angry with his [63] Brother [64] without a cause, shall be in [65] danger of the Judgment: and whosoever shall say to his [63] Brother, [66] Raca, [67] shall be in danger of the Council: but whosoever shall say, [68] Thou fool, shall be in danger [69] of Hell-fire.

[59] Your Prophet, and Teacher sent from God (like Moses, Deut. 18. 18.) ¶ [60] Viz. More fully and clearly than ever was said afore. ¶ [61] Though never so much provok't. ¶ [62] 1 Joh. 3. 15. Inwardly (though it break not forth outwardly.) ¶ [63] Neighbour, or any one. ¶ [64] (1.) For a light cause. (2.) Above the proportion of the cause. (3.) Immoderately, for any cause. ¶ [65] Liable to the severe Sentence of God's Judgment. ¶ [66] In his rash anger use any scornfull, disdainfull, vilifying speech to him. As 1 Sam. 20. 3. 2 Sam. 16. 7. ¶ [67] Is guilty in a higher degree, and so liable to a severer punishment. ¶ [68] Shall be so far transported with rage, as to use any violent, railing, reviling terms, without cause, (which does not extend to what is spoken out of a just indignation against sin, and zeal for God, as in Christ and others, c. 3. 7, & 12. 34. & 23. 13, 17, &c. Joh. 8. 44. Acts 13. 10. & 23. 3.) ¶ [69] The highest degree of punishment in Hell.

23 [70] Therefore, [71] if thou bring thy gift to the Altar, and there remembrest that thy Brother [72] hath ought against thee;

[70] q. d. Since God forbids anger, and evil-speaking, as well as murder, therefore if thou hast offended against this Law, don't think to expiate it, by Sacrifices, but seek reconciliation, and make satisfaction to thy Neighbour, (without which there can be no remission.) ¶ [71] If thou goest about to perform any worship, or duty to God. ¶ [72] Has any matter of complaint against thee, for any rash anger, or any injury done to him by thee.

24 [73] Leave there thy gift before the Altar, and
'See Job 42.8. 1 Pet. 3. 7. * go thy way; first [74] be reconciled to thy Brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

[73] Take it not away, as despairing of God's mercy. ¶ [74] Rom. 12. 18. 1 Tim. 2. 8. Do thy endeavour to make him friends with thee.

25 [75] Agree with thine adversary quickly,
'See Pf. 32. 6. Is. 55. 6. * whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary [76] deliver thee to the Judge, and the Judge deliver thee to the Officer, and thou be cast into prison.

[75] Luke 12. 58. (see there) 1 Sam. 25. 18. Prov. 25. 8. Take heed thou diest not unreconciled; but treat with him about reconciliation, and be not wanting in any thing on thy part towards it. [76] Accuse, and implead thee before the Judge.

26 Verily, I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ [77] Ye have heard that it was said by them
'Exod. 20.14. Deut. 5. 18. of old time, * Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

[77] q. d. The Scribes and Pharisees teach that the seventh Commandment reacheth only to the gross act of uncleanness.

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever [78] looketh on a woman to lust after her, [79] hath committed Adultery with her already in his heart.

[78] Job 31. 1. Prov. 6. 25. 2 Pet. 2. 14. Has any unclean desires stirred up in him, either by seeing, hearing, or the like: (and the case is the same of a woman's looking upon a man, or decking her self to be lookt on, and lusted after. She has tempered the poison, though none drink of it.) ¶ [79] Is guilty in the sight of God of the breach of this Law.

29 And if thy [80] right eye ‖ [81] offend thee,
‖ Or, do cause him to offend. [82] pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that [83] one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into Hell.

30 And if thy [80] right hand [81] offend thee, [82] cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that [83] one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into Hell.

[80] Ch. 18. 8. Mark 9. 43. 45, 47. Any thing that is most delightfull to thee to behold, 2 Pet. 2. 14. ¶ [81] Encline thee to the breach of this Command, and draw thee to evil, or hinder thee from good. ¶ [82] Mortifie thy affection and inclination to it; turn away thine eyes from it (Psal. 119. 37.) be as if thou hadst no eye to see it, (Job 31. 1.) or hand to practise it, Col. 3. 5. 1 Cor. 9. 27. Prov. 1. 10. 15. ¶ [83] That thou shouldest want the present satisfaction of such an enjoyment.

31 [84] It hath been said, * Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement.
* See chap. 19. 3, &c. Mark 10. 2, &c.

[84] Ch. 19. 7. Deut. 24. 1. Mark 10. 4.

32 But I say unto you, that [85] whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, [86] causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

[85] Luk. 16. 18. 1 Cor. 7. 10, 11. Mal. 2. 14, 15. ¶ [86] Is guilty of making her commit adultery, viz. if she marry again in his life-time, which hereby he gives her occasion to do.

33 ¶ Again, [87] ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, * [88] Thou shalt not forswear thy self, but * shalt perform unto the Lord thine Oaths.
* Chap. 23. 16. * Deut. 23. 23.

[87] q. d. The Scribes teach you, that, according to their tradition, the third Commandment is broken, not by swearing by the name of God upon every trivial occasion, but by not performing what you so swear; and that you may lawfully swear by the creatures, and yet break such oaths without guilt. [88] Exod. 20. 7. Lev. 19. 12. Deut. 5. 11.

34 But I say unto you, [89] Swear not [90] at all; neither by heaven, for it is [91] God's throne:

[89] James 5. 12. ¶ [90] viz. By the creatures; nor vainly, rashly, unnecessarily, deceitfully, by God. ¶ [91] Isa. 66. 1. (And therefore 'tis in effect to swear by him that sits on it.)

35 Nor by the earth, for it is his [92] footstool: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the [93] City of the great King.

[92] Isa. 66. 1. CHAP. VI.

‖ Or, righteouſneſs, Deut. 24. 13. Pſal. 112. 9. Dan. 4. 27. 2 Cor. 9. 9, 10.

[1] TAke heed that ye do not your ‖ [2] alms before men, [3] to be ſeen of them: otherwiſe ye have no reward ‖ of your Father which is in [4] heaven.

[1] Jer. 19. 9. Chriſt having vindicated the Law, as to the ſubſtance and matter thereof, now comes to ſhew the manner, how duties are to be done. ¶ [2] Any good work; eſpecially of charity and liberality to the poor. ¶ [3] 1 Cor. 10. 31. For this end. ¶ [4] And deſigns you a heavenly, eternal reward.

‖ Or, cauſe not a Trumpet to be ſounded.

2 Therefore [5] when thou doeſt thine alms, ‖ do not [6] ſound a trumpet before thee, as the Hypocrites do, in the ſynagogues, and in the ſtreets, that they may have [7] glory of men. Verily, I ſay unto you, they have [8] their reward.

3 But when thou doeſt alms, [9] let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

[9] Watch againſt vain-glory therein, and hide it, even from thy ſelf, as much as thou canſt; at leaſt, think not to merit any thing thereby.

Chap. 6. 4034.

4 That thine alms may be in [10] ſecret: and thy Father which [11] ſeeth in ſecret, himſelf ſhall reward thee [12] openly.

[10] Carried with all ſecreſie poſſible: at leaſt, free from vain glory. ¶ [11] v. 18. Pſal. 44. 21. ¶ [12] c. 25. 34. See there, either (1.) by a ſenſible anſwer, as Dan. 9. 20–22. or (2.) with an evident Bleſſing, in the eyes of the world, or (3.) in convincing the conſciences of wicked men, that God's people have ſpecial intereſt in, and Audience with him. (4.) chiefly at the Reſurrection, Luke 14. 14. 1 Cor. 4. 5.

5 ¶ And when thou prayeſt, thou ſhalt not be as the hypocrites are; for they love to pray ſtanding in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the ſtreets, that they may be ſeen of men. Verily, I ſay unto you, they have their [8] reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayeſt,* [13] enter into thy cloſet, and when thou haſt ſhut thy door, pray to thy Father which is [14] in ſecret, and thy Father which [11] ſeeth in ſecret, ſhall reward thee openly.

* 2 Kings 4. 33.

[13] Avoid all ſhow of vain glory, and do nothing which may ſavour thereof. ¶ [14] Every where, even in the moſt retired place.

9 [18] After this manner [19] therefore pray ye: [20] Our Father which art in [21] heaven: [22] Hallowed be thy Name.

[18] Reduce all your petitions to ſome or other of theſe heads, and uſe the ſimplicity, and ſober brevity thereof. ¶ [19] Viz. that you may avoid vain repetitions, (v. 7.) and pray for things needfull, v. 8. ¶ [20] Luke 11. 2. q. d. O thou who art the Creator, Preſerver, Redeemer, and Governour of me, and all men! ¶ [21] Ready to hear, and able to help, and therefore art to be reverenced, loved, and truſted in. ¶ [22] John 12. 28. Iſa. 6. 3. & 8. 13. [23] Endue us with thy grace, and bring us to thy glory; convert all Nations; deſtroy the Kingdom of Sin and Satan; and haſten thy coming to Judgment. ¶ [24] Enable us to obey all thy Laws, as the Saints and Angels do in Heaven, (Pſal. 103. 20, 21.) in all things, at all times, and with all our hearts: and in order hereunto,-

As we forbear all vindictive puniſhment of thoſe who have done any private injury to our ſelves, and are ready to ſhew 'em the ſame kindneſs, as if they had never wronged us.

13 And [28] lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from [29] evil: For thine is the [30] Kingdom, and the [31] power, and the [32] glory, for ever. [33] Amen.

14 *[34] For, if ye forgive men their treſpaſſes, your heavenly Father will alſo forgive you.

15 *[35] But if ye forgive not men their treſpaſſes, neither will your Father forgive your treſpaſſes.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye faſt, be not as the hypocrites, of a [36] ſad countenance: for they [37] diſfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to faſt. Verily, I ſay unto you, they have their reward.

[36] Iſa. 58. 5. 1 Kings 21. 27. ¶ [37] Put on mortified looks, and a neglected garb.

23 But [49] if thine eye be evil, [50] thy whole body ſhall be full of darkneſs. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkneſs, how great is that darkneſs.

30 Wherefore if God ſo clothe the graſs of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is caſt into the oven, ſhall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ cleanseth the leper. 5 Healeth the centurions servant. 14 Peter's mother in law, and many other diseased. 18 Sheweth how he is to be followed. 23 Stilleth the tempest on the sea. 28 Driveth Devils out of two men possessed. 31 And suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHen he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

*Mark 1. 40. Luke 5. 12. 2 * And behold, there came a Leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; Be thou clean. And immediately his leprosie was cleansed.

*Mark 5. 43. [1] Levit. 14. 3, 4, 10. 4 And Jesus saith unto him, *[1] See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thy self to the [2] priest, and offer the gift that * Moses commanded, for a [3] testimony unto them.

[1] Christ frequently forbids the divulging of his Miracles. As c. 9. 30. & 12. 16. & 16. 20. & 17. 9. Mark 7. 36, &c. (1.) To avoid all appearance of ostentation, and vain glory, and that he might not seem to make a bustle in the world, c. 12. 16–19. (2.) To decline the Pharisees envy, and prevent their persecuting of him, as c. 12. 13, 14. 16. See also on c. 16. 20. ¶ [2] To whom it appertains to judge of Leprosie, Lev. 13. 2. that so thou mayest be pronounced clean. ¶ [3] To be an evidence, (1.) Of the truth of the Miracle, when they shall find that thou art perfectly cured, and consequently, (2.) Of my Divine Power; (for the Jews themselves confess that God only can cure the Leprosie, 2 Kings 5. 7.) (3.) Of my regard to, and observation of the law of Moses. (4.) Of their ingratitude and perverseness, if they do not own me for the Messia, and believe my Doctrine thus confirmed, Mark 6. 11. John 10. 37.

*Luke 7. 1. 5 ¶ * And when Jesus was entred into Capernaum, there came unto him a [4] centurion, beseeching him.

[4] A Captain of a hundred Souldiers.

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsie, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

*Luke 15. 19, 21. 8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, *I am not worthy that thou should'st come under my roof, *Psal. 107. 20. but * speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having souldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he [5] doeth it.

[5] Therefore much more canst thou, who hast supreme authority, command the Palsie to be gone, and health to come.

10 When Jesus heard it, he [6] marvelled, and said unto them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so [7] great faith, no not in [8] Israel.

[6] Used some sign of admiration, to render the Centurions Faith so much the more observable. ¶ [7] So strong and firm a Belief of my Divine Power. See c. 9. n. 3. ¶ [8] John 3. 4. & 11. 21. Among any of the Jews that I have cured.

11 And [9] I say unto you, that [10] many shall come from the east, and west, and shall [11] sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven.

[12] You Jews (Luke 12.–28.) born of those Parents to whom the Kingdom was promised, and so have an outward title to it, and are at present members of the Visible Church. ¶ [13] c. 21. 43. & 22. 13. & 25. 30. ¶ [14] Extream misery, confusion and horror. ¶ [15] c. 13. 42. 50. & 24. 51.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast [16] believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

[16] Expresst thy belief of my divine Power, v. 8, 9.

14 ¶ * And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he * saw his wives mother laid, and sick of a fever. *Mark 1. 29. Luke 4. 38. * 1 Cor. 9. 5.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose and [17] ministred unto them.

[17] What we receive from Christ, ought to be laid out for him.

16 ¶ * When the [18] even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed [19] all that were sick: *Mark 1. 32. Luke 4. 40.

[18] And so the Sabbath was ended; (for this was the Sabbath day, Mark 1. 21. and they scrupled carrying about, and healing on the Sabbath, Mark 3. 2. Luke 14. 1.) ¶ [19] Viz. That came to him. Christ never denies mercy to any that seek to him sincerely for it.

19 [23] And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, [24] I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

[23] Luke 9. 57. ¶ [24] This he spake rashly, not considering the difficulties he might meet with, (as appears by Christ's answer) and hoping for some temporal advantage thereby.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the son of man [25] hath not where to lay his head.

[25] Viz. Of his own, (for he either lived in a hired house, or lodged with some of his Disciples.)

22 But Jesus said unto him, [29] Follow me, and let the [30] dead bury their dead.

[29] 2 Tim. 4. 2. Christ will take no denial from those he intends to imploy. ¶ [30] Luke 15.–32. q. d. Any are fit enough for that Imployment; and rather than fail, let the dead bury one another, rather than my service be neglected. When Christ calls to his service, he'll admit of no excuses; but the glory of God and our duty to him is to be preferred before any work, though in it self commendable, and at another time necessary.

12 He did not indulge himself in the delicacies and softnesses of the Court, but was mortified to all fleshly pleasures, and sensual delights; and therefore will not speak any thing to flatter me, 1 Thes. 1. 2, 3.

9 But what went ye out for to see? 13 A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and 14 more than a prophet.

13 Luke 1. 76. 'Tis certain you went out to him, as a holy Teacher, sent by God, c. 21. 26. ¶ 14 In respect of the clearness of God's discovering the Messia to him, and his revealing him to others.

10 15 For this is he of whom it is written, * 16 Behold, I send my 17 messenger before 18 thy face, which shall 19 prepare thy way before thee. * Luke 7. 27.

15 q. d. For it was foretold of him, that he should be the immediate forerunner of the Messia, and acquaint the people with him. ¶ 16 Mal. 3. 1. Mark 1. 2. These are the words of God the Father to his Son concerning John. ¶ 17 My special Officer, to point out thy Person to the People.

People. ¶ [18] In Malachi it is [my face] becauſe Chriſt himſelf there ſpeaks to his Church. ¶ [19] Eph. 3. 17. 2 Cor. 6. 16. Fit men (by his Preaching and Teſtimony of thee) to embrace thy Doctrine, and believe in thee.

11 Verily I ſay unto you, [20] among them that are born of women, there hath not riſen [21] a greater than John the baptiſt: notwithſtanding, he that is [22] leaſt in the kingdom of heaven, is [23] greater than he.

[20] Chriſt ſpeaks ſo highly of John, that they might give the more heed and credit to his Teſtimony of him. ¶ [21] He had many ſingular and extraordinary priviledges above any of the Prophets: As (1.) The ſpecial predictions that were of him. (2.) His conception and Birth. (3.) His Authority and Office to bring in a new Sacrament. (4.) His baptizing Chriſt, and converting multitudes. (5.) A clearer Revelation of Goſpel-Myſteries. (6.) The Sanctification of his Perſon from the womb. (7.) His clear underſtanding of the Types of the Meſſia, ſo as to apply 'em to Chriſt, the true Lamb of God, John 1. 29. ¶ [22] The meaneſt of my Apoſtles, or of Goſpel-Miniſters, duly qualified. ¶ [23] As having a more excellent Function, in regard of the clearneſs of Goſpel-Doctrine to be taught by him. (For though John ſaw more of Chriſt than all that were before him, yet he ſaw leſs than they that came after him.)

12 [24] And [25] from the days of John the Baptiſt [26] until now, the [27] kingdom of heaven ‖ ſuffereth violence, and the violent [28] take it by force.

‖ Or, is gotten by force, and they that thruſt men.

[24] Here he ſhews John's greatneſs by the ſucceſs of his Miniſtry. ¶ [25] Luke 16. 16. Since he began to Preach. ¶ [26] Which Zeal laſts in 'em ſtill, though John be caſt into Priſon. ¶ [27] Multitudes of People embrace the Goſpel with ardent affections and zeal, and ſeek after Salvation with as great vehemency, as men ſtorm a Town, Mark 7. 27. & 2. 4. Luke 18. 35. & 12. 1. ¶ [28] Stand not upon nice points of Legal Impediments, and preſent unworthineſs, but reſolvedly embrace John's Doctrine.

13 [29] For all the [30] prophets, and the [31] law [32] propheſied until John.

[29] q. d. And no wonder that it is ſo, becauſe the diſcovery of theſe things is more clear, particular and preſent, than formerly. ¶ [30] Who foretold the Coming of the Meſſia. ¶ [31] The Ceremonial Law prefigured it. ¶ [32] Could but declare what was future; but John ſpake of what was preſent, and ſhew'd that the Meſſia was come, and pointed him out to the People.

14 And [33] if ye will receive it, this is [34] Elias which was for to come.

[33] If you can endure to have the Truth told you, and if you can find in your hearts to believe it. ¶ [34] Mal. 4. 5. One coming in the ſpirit and power of Elias, Luke 1. 17. (ſee there) who was foretold by Malachi to come immediately before Chriſt.

*Luke 7. 31.

16 ¶ * But whereunto ſhall I liken [38] this generation? It is like unto children ſitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, [38] Rev. 3. 15. The Grandees of the Jews, Luke 7. 30.

17 And ſaying, We have [39] piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have [40] mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

[39] Play'd merry tunes. ¶ [40] Sung mournfull ſongs.

18 For John came [41] neither eating nor drinking, and they ſay, He [42] hath a devil.

[41] Matt. 3. 4. 1 Cor. 9. 27. 1 Pet. 5. 2. viz. Not as other men do, but uſing a ſpare and peculiar diet, (c. 3. 4.) and hereby calling People to repentance and mourning. ¶ [42] Is frantick; or, the Devil enables him to endure ſuch hardſhip; and thereupon they reject his Doctrine. They who have no mind to receive the Doctrine, will ſoon pick ſome quarrel with the Preacher.

19 The Son of man came [43] eating and drinking, and they ſay, [44] Behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and ſinners: but [45] wiſdom is juſtified of her children.

[43] Rom. 15. 2. 1 Cor. 9. 19. Uſing ſuch a diet and apparel as other men did, and converſing freely and ſociably with all ſorts. ¶ [44] And ſo they rejoyce not at Chriſt's ſweet offers of grace and ſalvation made to 'em in a more complying and obliging way, but reject them too. ¶ [45] Religion in all the branches and duties thereof, enjoyned by God: or the various methods that God uſes to reclaim ſinners, is owned and acknowledged to be full of wiſdom, holineſs and equity; and alſo vindicated from the cavils and unjuſt imputations of all ungodly ones, by thoſe who have devoted themſelves to the ſtudy and practice of Religion.

20 ¶ * Then began he to [48] upbraid the cities wherein moſt of his mighty works were done; becauſe they repented not. *Luke 10. 13.

[48] Or, to reproach 'em for their obſtinacy, and to denounce utter deſtruction againſt 'em, (thereby to deter others.)

21 Wo unto thee Chorazin; wo unto thee Bethſaida: for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in [49] Tyre and Sydon, they would have [50] repented long ago in ſackcloth and aſhes.

[49] Heathen Cities, which were near, and were voluptuous, lewd places. ¶ [50] Have humbled 'emſelves outwardly at leaſt, and reformed, and ſo have ſaved 'emſelves from ruine, 1 Kings 21. 29. Jonah 3. 10.

22 But I ſay unto you, it ſhall be [51] more tolerable for Tyre and Sydon at the day of judgment, than for you. [51] Ch. 10. 15.

23 And thou Capernaum, which art [52] exalted unto heaven, ſhalt be [53] brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

[52] Highly honour'd by my habitation, Doctrine and Miracles. ¶ [53] Lam. 4. 6. Utterly ruin'd.

24 But I ſay unto you, that it ſhall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ [54] At that time Jeſus anſwered and ſaid, [55] I thank thee, O Father, [56] Lord of heaven and earth, becauſe * thou haſt [57] hid theſe things from the [58] wiſe and [59] prudent, and haſt [60] revealed them unto [61] babes. * 1 Cor. 1. 27. & 2. 8. See Pſal. 8. 2.

Such as excel in worldly wiſdom, humane learning, and the like, and ſo are highly conceited of their own knowledge. ¶ [59] They that are eſteem'd of the greateſt underſtanding in the Law, and all points of Religion, (as the Scribes and Phariſees, John 9. 40, 41.) ¶ [60] c. 16. 17. AT that time * Jesus went on the sabbath-day through the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and began [1] to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not [2] lawfull to do upon the sabbath-day.

[2] Exod. 23. 12. & 31. 15. viz. According to their superstitious Interpretation of the Law.

3 But he said unto them, [3] Have ye not read what [4] David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him?

[3] q. d. As David's necessity dispensed with the Ceremonial Law of the Shew-bread; so this case of my Disciples necessity does dispense with that Law of the Ceremonial observation of the Sabbath. ¶ [4] 1 Sam. 21. 6.

4 How he entred into the house of God, and did eat * the shew-bread, which was not [5] lawfull for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, * [6] but only for the Priests?

[5] viz. According to the letter of the Law. ¶ [6] Exod. 29. 32.

[7] John 7. 22.

5 Or have ye not read in the * [7] Law, how that on the sabbath-days the Priests in the temple [8] profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

[7] Num. 28. 9. ¶ [8] Perform those servile works, in killing and ordering the Sacrifices for the service of the Temple, which, consider'd only in themselves, may seem, and in other common cases would be, a violation of the Sabbath.

[8] 2 Chr. 6. 18.

6 But I say unto you, that in this place is * one [9] greater than the [10] temple.

[9] Ch. 23. 17. Holier and worthier. ¶ [10] (And therefore if they were blameless in doing that for the service of the Temple, much more are my Disciples, in doing that which enables 'em for my service.)

[9] Hos. 6. 6.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, * [11] I will have mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

[11] Ch. 9. 13. See there. q. d. Ceremonial duties must give way to Moral, when both cannot be done.

8 For the Son of man is [12] Lord even of the sabbath-day.

[12] Mark 12. 27. Has power to dispose of it, and the observation thereof, as he judges most conducible to his own service, and the good of men.

9 ¶ * And when he was departed thence, he went into their Synagogue,

10 And [13] behold, there was a man which had his hand [14] withered: and they [15] asked him, saying, * [16] Is it lawfull to heal on the sabbath-days? that they might accuse him.

[11] Luke 13. 14. & 14. 3. John 9. 16.

[13] Here's another occasion seasonably offer'd, to confirm his Doctrine of the Sabbath. ¶ [14] Psal. 39. 11. The sinews being shrunk, and dried up. ¶ [15] c. 22. 17. Job 5. 13, 14. ¶ [16] Luke 14. 3.

Chap. 12. 4034.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and * if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

* See Exod. 23. 4, 5. Deut. 22. 4.

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? wherefore it is lawfull to do well on the sabbath-days.

13 Then [17] saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

[17] He made use of no outward applications, but only of words, which the most superstitious among 'em could not condemn as a breach of the Sabbath.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees [18] went out, and ‖ held [19] a counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

[23] i.e. By which actions of his (viz. his humility, and declining applause, his not contending with those that would not acknowledge him; his continuing to heal diseases, and preach the Gospel with all tenderness even to the meanest of the People, and that to the Gentiles, sometimes upon occasion, as well as to the Jews) was fulfilled—

18 [24] Behold my [25] servant whom I have [26] chosen, [27] my beloved in [28] whom my soul is well pleased: I will put [29] my spirit upon him, and he shall [30] shew judgment to the [31] Gentiles.

19 He shall not [32] strive, nor cry, neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

[32] Not manage his Spiritual Kingdom with noise and violence, nor make a bustle in the world, but be meek and humble.

21 And [38] in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

[38] Psal. 9. 10. Upon his power, mercy and goodness, even the Gentiles shall depend for salvation.

25 And Jeſus [42] knew their thoughts, and ſaid unto them, Every kingdom [43] divided againſt it ſelf, is brought to deſolation: and every city or houſe divided againſt it ſelf, ſhall not ſtand.

[42] v. 15. See on ch. 9. 4. ¶ [43] Gal. 5. 15.

26 And if [44] Satan caſt out Satan, he is divided againſt himſelf; how ſhall then his kingdom ſtand?

[44] If one Devil caſt out another againſt his will, and that not only from the bodies of men, but from their Souls too, as I do.

27 And if I by Beelzebub caſt out devils, [45] by whom do [46] your children caſt them out? therefore [47] they ſhall be your Judges.

[45] q. d. You take it for granted, that your diſciples and followers, who pretend to caſt out Devils, do it by a Divine Power. ¶ [46] Mark 9. 38. Acts 19. 13. ¶ [47] Luke 19. 22. 1 John 3. 20. 28 But if I [48] caſt out devils by the Spirit of God, then the [49] kingdom of God is come unto you.

[48] Both out of the bodies and ſouls of men, and that my Doctrine tends to the beating down of all manner of wickedneſs (wherein the Devil's Kingdom doth conſiſt.) ¶ [49] This is a clear Argument that I am ſent of God to redeem you, if you will believe on me, Dan. 7. 14. See on Luke 10. 9.

29 Or [50] elſe, * how can one enter into [51] a ſtrong man's houſe, and ſpoil his goods, except he firſt [52] bind the ſtrong man? and then he will ſpoil his houſe.

[50] q. d. If I were not endued with Divine Power, I could not overcome Satan; but my turning him out of thoſe he poſſeſſes, and deſtroying his Power and Kingdom among men, ſhews that my Power is greater than his, and contrary to his alſo, even Divine. ¶ [51] Eph. 6. 12. ¶ [52] 1 John 3. 8.

[54] q. d. Since then it's evident, that I do all my Miracles by the Power and Spirit of God, therefore conſider what a heinous ſin it is for you to aſcribe 'em to the Power of the Devil: it's no other than to blaſpheme the Holy Ghoſt. ¶ [55] I give you warning of it, that you may avoid it. ¶ [56] Mark 3. 28. Luke 12. 10. 1 John 5. 16. 32 And whoſoever ſpeaketh a word [59] againſt the Son of man, it ſhall be forgiven him: but whoſoever † ſpeaketh againſt the holy Ghoſt, [60] it ſhall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

[59] Tending to his diſparagement; as, that he is a winebibber, &c. (ch. 11. 19.) a leader of a Sect, and this through ignorance of his Perſon (1 Tim. 1. 13.) or by reaſon of offence taken at his mean condition in the world. ¶ † Oppoſes or perſecutes the Doctrine, ways, and ſervants of Chriſt, becauſe they are ſpiritual, or have any thing of the Spirit appearing in 'em, and that contrary to his own convictions. ¶ [60] Heb. 10. 26. 1 John 5. 16. 25 And in the [20] fourth watch of the night, Jeſus went unto them walking on the ſea.

26 And when the diſciples ſaw him walking on the ſea, they were troubled, ſaying, It is a ſpirit; and they cried out for fear.

3 God's commandments and mens traditions. 17 What defileth a man.

* Mark 7. 1.

THen * came to Jeſus [1] Scribes and Phariſees, which were of [2] Jeruſalem, ſaying,

[1] The Scribes were pretenders to a greater meaſure of knowledge, and the Phariſees to a greater meaſure of holineſs than others; and to them (as members of the great Council) belonged the judgment of all matters of Religion. ¶ [2] And ſo were, likely, of the ableſt and bittereſt of them.

Chap. 15. 4034.

2 Why do thy [3] diſciples [4] tranſgreſs the [5] tradition of the [6] elders? for they [7] waſh not their hands when they eat bread.

[3] They cenſure the whole Society for the ſuppoſed fault of ſome, Mark 7. 2. ¶ [4] Nonconformity to humane Inventions and Impoſitions in matters of Religion, is no new thing in the Church. ¶ [5] A Canon, Injunction, and Determination, delivered down from one to another. See on Gal. 1.–14. ¶ [6] The chief Governours of the Church. ¶ [7] This waſhing was a Ceremony not contrary to the Law of God, (but rather a matter of decency, which they might freely uſe, in a civil way, ſo long as they plac'd nothing of Religion in it) and enjoyn'd by lawfull Authority, yet ſo far from becoming neceſſary thereby, that Chriſt condemns it, and all their Traditions in general, becauſe they plac'd Religion therein, and had no divine warrant for 'em.

3 But he anſwered and ſaid unto them, Why do [8] you alſo tranſgreſs the commandment of God by [9] your [10] tradition?

[8] The greateſt Zealots for humane Traditions and Inventions, are commonly the greateſt deſpiſers of Divine Inſtitutions. ¶ [9] They called 'em [the Traditions of the Elders] but Chriſt calls 'em [your Traditions] becauſe they were forg'd not long ago, by men of the ſame ſtamp with 'emſelves; and they maintain'd 'em as their own, becauſe they were now gotten into the room of thoſe Elders. ¶ [10] Chriſt does not ſay that this practice, or tradition of waſhing, was contrary to the command of God, (though others were) but by this one inſtance he ſhews that none of 'em were binding; for otherwiſe his reply would be invalid.

* Exod. 20. 12. Deut. 5. 16. Eph. 6. 2. * Lev. 20. 9.

4 For God commanded, ſaying, * [11] Honour thy father and mother: and, * He that [12] curſeth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But [13] ye ſay, Whoſoever ſhall ſay to his [14] father or his mother, [15] * It is a gift by whatſoever thou mighteſt be profited by me,

[13] i. e. Your Traditions do warrant Children to anſwer their Parents thus. ¶ [14] Being in want, and ſeeking ſupport and relief from his Children. ¶ [15] i. e. I have conſecrated all the overplus of my eſtate, more than will ſerve for my own maintenance, as a religious offering or gift to God, and therefore you muſt excuſe me.

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he ſhall be [16] free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

[16] viz. From any obligation to relieve his Parents, and conſequently from any tranſgreſſion of that Law.

7 * Ye [17] hypocrites, well did Eſaias propheſie of [18] you, ſaying,

[17] Hypocriſie is commonly joyn'd with Superſtition. ¶ [18] Of all Hypocrites in general; particularly and immediately of your Forefathers; and chiefly of you in this Age: or at leaſt, it fits you, as well as if it had been ſpoken directly of you.

[23] To free his Diſciples from the crime charg'd upon 'em, and to inform the multitude of the truth in this caſe, he calls 'em to him, and ſhews 'em the true ſpring and fountain of ſpiritual pollution, and uncleanneſs. ¶ [24] Conſider and weigh my Doctrine, (which differs much from the Doctrine of the Scribes and Phariſees) that you may know the truth.

12 Then came his diſciples and ſaid unto him, Knoweſt thou that the [28] Phariſees were [29] offended after they heard this ſaying?

[28] Who profeſſed a more exact obſervation of theſe things, than the Scribes (though they held 'em too.) ¶ [29] More alienated from thy Perſon and Doctrine.

'John 15. 2. 13 But he anſwered and ſaid, * [30] Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, ſhall be rooted up.

[30] q. d. Theſe obſtinate, malicious Phariſees are but like noiſome weeds in the Church, which were never placed there by God.

14 [31] Let them alone: they be [32] blind leaders of the blind. And [33] if the blind lead the blind, [34] both ſhall fall into the ditch.

[31] Hoſ. 4.–14. q. d. 'Tis no matter though they be offended, being ſuch as they are, devoted to deſtruction. It was a neceſſary truth that Chriſt preach'd, and therefore their offence at it was to be ſlighted. ¶ [32] Ch. 23. 16. Luke 6. 39. wilfully and obſtinately ignorant, and will not learn. 22 And behold, a Woman of Canaan came out of the ſame coaſts, and cried unto him, ſaying: Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou ſon of David: my daughter is grievouſly vexed with a devil.

23 But he anſwered her [47] not a word: And his diſciples came and beſought him, ſaying, [48] Send her away, for ſhe crieth after us.

[1] Out of a vain curiosity to try his power, whose ordinary Miracles they undervalued in comparison of those of Moses, and the ancient Prophets. ¶ [2] Not only of something upon earth, as hitherto, but from Heaven, the place where God dwells; as the raining of Manna, making the Sun stand still, &c. to testifie that Thou art owned, and sent by God; see on ch. 12. 38.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the skie is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the [4] face of the skie, but [5] can ye not discern the signs of the times?

[4] What weather it is like to be by the appearance of the Skie. ¶ [5] Why are you not as quick-sighted to gather from the many infallible signs, which, according to the predictions of the Prophets, do shew the coming and presence of the Messia, that he is come?

4 A wicked and [6] adulterous generation seeketh after a sign, and there shall no sign be given [7] unto it, but the sign of the prophet [8] Jonas. And he [9] left them, and departed.

[19] q. d. You should have learnt by these Examples of my power and care, not to have been solicitous for food, nor to have understood my words in such a low, carnal sense, which respect higher things than these.

12 Then understood they how that he bad them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which ought him ten thouſand ‖ talents.

25 But foraſmuch as he had not to pay, his Lord commanded him to be ſold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The ſervant therefore fell down, and ‖ worſhipped him, ſaying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the Lord of that ſervant was moved with compaſſion, and looſed him, and [55] forgave him the debt.

30 And he would not; but went and caſt him into priſon, till he ſhould pay the debt.

31 * So when his fellow-ſervants ſaw what was done, they were very ſorry, and came and told unto their Lord all that was done.

32 Then his Lord, after that he had called him, ſaid unto him, [56] O thou wicked ſervant, I forgave thee all that debt, becauſe thou deſiredſt me:

[56] He did not upbraid him before, for his great debt, but only now, for his great cruelty.

CHAP. XX.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 20 Christ teacheth his disciples to be lowly.

[1] FOR [2] the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an housholder, which went out early in the morning [3] to hire labourers into his vineyard.

[1] q. d. And this point mentioned, ch. 19. 30. (see there) I'll further illustrate, and make plain to you by this Parable: The scope whereof is to shew, that God is free in dispensing his favours, and obliged to none; and therefore the Jews ought not to envy or grudge against the Gentiles impenitency, be wholly rejected, and the Gentiles taken into their room. ¶ [2] The bestowing of Church-priviledges on this, or that particular People in order to their being made fit for Heaven. ¶ [3] To call People to the knowledge and service of the true God.

Chap. 20. 4036.

2 And when he had [4] agreed with the labourers for * [5] a peny a day, he [6] sent them into his vineyard.

* See on ch. 18. 28.

[4] Made a Covenant with the Jews to be his peculiar People. ¶ [5] Many benefits they should thereupon partake of. ¶ [6] Imploy'd 'em in his service.

3 And he went out about the [7] third hour, and saw others standing [8] idle in [9] the market-place,

[7] This notes the several messages God sent unto 'em by his Prophets in several Ages. ¶ [8] Doing nothing for God and their own Souls. ¶ [9] Minding only this present world, and their secular affairs and concerns.

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the [7] sixth and [7] ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the [10] eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

[10] This notes the calling of the Gentiles at the end of the legal Dispensation.

7 They say unto him, Because [11] no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, [12] Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

[11] We have not yet been called by the Preaching of the Word. (This represents only how the case stood with 'em, and not that they themselves made any such excuse.) ¶ [12] Betake your selves to my service, and the performance of those duties I require of you.

8 So when [13] even was come, the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first,

[13] The time for reckoning, and rewarding.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a [14] peny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more, and they likewise received every man a [14] peny.

[14] This must be some common reward bestowed upon all the labourers; which therefore I take to be an interest in Church-priviledges.

11 And when they had received it, they [15] murmured against the good man of the house,

42 Jeſus ſaith unto them, [71] Did ye never read in the ſcriptures, [72] The ſtone which the [73] builders rejected, the ſame is become the [74] head of the corner: this is the [75] Lord's doing, and it is [76] marvellous in our eyes?

[71] q. d. You don't obſerve and conſider that David, by the Spirit of God, did foretel the ſame thing, viz. That the Rulers ſhould reject the Meſſia when he came among 'em. ¶ [72] Pſal. 118. 22. Iſa. 28. 16. Mark 12. 10. Luke 20. 17. Acts 4. 11. Rom. 9. 33. 1 Pet. 2. 7. CHAP. XXII.

1 The marriage of the kings ſon. 9 The calling of the Gentiles. 12 The wedding garment.

AND Jeſus anſwered, * and ſpake unto them * Luke 14. 16. Rev. 19. 7, 9. again by [1] parables, and ſaid,

[1] Ch. 13. 13.

2 [2] The kingdom of heaven is like unto a [3] certain king, which [4] made a marriage for his ſon.

[2] i. e. God in his diſpenſations towards his Church and People, deals as if a King ſhould make a marriage, &c. In the former Parable, Chriſt threatned deſtruction chiefly to the Rulers of the Jews; here he more plainly threatens the rejection and ruine of the whole Nation, for their refuſal of the Goſpel, and offers of Grace by him. ¶ [3] Luke 14. 16. ¶ [4] Appointed the Preaching of the Goſpel to be the means for bringing and marrying Souls to Chriſt.

3 And ſent forth his [5] ſervants to call them that were [7] bidden to the wedding: and they would [9] not come.

[5] John the Baptiſt, the Apoſtles and ſeventy Diſciples, to invite 'em to repent, believe in Chriſt, and embrace the Goſpel. ¶ [7] Formerly inſtructed concerning the coming of the Meſſia, and invited to partake of the Priviledges of the Goſpel. ¶ [9] Iſa. 65. 2.

4 Again he ſent forth [10] other ſervants, ſaying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have [11] prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and [12] all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

[10] The Apoſtles, and ſuch as Preac'd to the Jews after the Reſurrection and Aſcenſion of Chriſt. ¶ [11] Prov. 9. 3. ¶ [12] Chriſt

Chap. 22. 4036.

¶ [12] Christ hath fully accomplisht the work of man's Redemption, and is ready to receive repenting sinners.

5 But they [13] made light of it, and went their ways, one to his [14] farm, another to his [14] merchandise.

[13] Gen. 19.14. ¶ [14] ch. 13. 22. 1 Tim. 6. 10. Minded their worldly affairs, more than their Souls.

6 And the [15] remnant took his servants, and [16] entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

[15] Such as did not concern themselves at all about matters of Religion. ¶ [16] Acts 5. 40. & 7. 59. & 14. 5. 19.

[17] Luke 19. 43. The Romans, imploy'd by him.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were [18] bidden were [19] not worthy.

[18] First invited, viz. the Jews, Acts 3. 26. ¶ [19] Acts 13. 46.

9 Go ye therefore into the [20] high-ways, and as many as ye shall find, [21] bid to the marriage.

[20] Rom. 10. 18. Into all parts of the world, among the Gentiles. ¶ [21] Preach the Gospel to 'em, Acts 13. 46.

10 So those servants went out into the high-ways, and [22] gathered together all, as many as they found, both [23] bad and good: and the [24] wedding was furnished with guests.

[22] Perswaded 'em to believe the Gospel, and make profession of Christ, and the Christian Religion. ¶ [23] ch. 13. 38. 47. Poor and Rich, prophane and civil; (who are good, comparatively) of which some became sincere, others were but Hypocrites. ¶ [24] Multitudes made profession of the Gospel, and so became members of the Church; whereby it was much inlarged.

11 ¶ And [25] when the king [26] came in to see the guests, he saw there [27] a man which had not on a [28] wedding-garment:

[25] Here he prevents an Objection, which the Jews might make; What! Will believing in Christ alone suffice for salvation? Shall the Gentiles be saved let 'em live as they list? ¶ [26] Luke 19. 15. ¶ [27] This [one] represents all that are of such a disposition and conversation; that whole Society and body of men that are so. ¶ [28] Rom. 13. 14. 2 Cor. 5. 3. Eph. 4. 24. Col. 3. 10. 12. Rev. 3. 4. & 16. 15. & 19. 8. 12 And he saith unto him, [29] Friend, [30] how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was [31] speechless.

[29] One whom I have dealt friendly withal in admitting to this wedding. ¶ [30] With what face canst thou come in? ¶ [31] Hypocrites will have nothing to plead for 'emselves at the last day.

13 Then said the king to the servants, † Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast *him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

[35] Who, together with the generality of the People, were against paying Tribute, looking upon 'emselves as a free-born Nation, (John 8. 33.) and therefore if he allowed of it, he'd incur their hatred and displeasure, as a betrayer of their liberties. ¶ [36] Some of Herod's Party, who maintained his Interest against his opposers; for Religion, they were of the Sadducees persuasion; as appears by comparing ch. 16. 6. with Mark 8. 15. for civil matters, they were great sticklers for the Roman Interest, and so were for paying Tribute; and therefore if he disallowed it, he'd expose himself to their accusation of being guilty of Sedition against Cæsar. ¶ [37] Psal. 12. 2. & 55. 21. ¶ [38] 2 Cor. 2. 17. 1 Thess. 2. 4. 22 When they had heard these words they marvelled, and left him and went their way.

23 ¶ * The same day came to him the Sadducees, which [47] say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

*Mark 12. 18. Luke 20. 27.

24 [48] Saying, Master, [49] Moses said, if a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

[48] To confute that Opinion which they conceived was encumbred with such absurdities. ¶ [49] Deut. 25. 5.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren, and the first when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.

[50] q. d. If there be any such future estate (as you hold.)

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [51] not knowing the scriptures, nor the [52] power of God.

[51] Not considering what the Scriptures do deliver concerning this matter, and the state of persons then. ¶ [52] Phil. 3. 21. Luke 1. 37.

*John 3. 2.

[53] This he speaks of the Saints, and those who are raised to glory. See on Luke 20. 36. n. 54.

31 [54] But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

[54] Having overthrown the foundation of their Errour, and answered their Cavil, he confirms the Truth by Scripture.

32 [55] I am the [56] God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God [57] of the dead, but [58] of the living.

[55] i. e. A God in Covenant with Abraham, &c. and that not only in respect of their Souls, but bodies too, (as appears by their Circumcision) and therefore their bodies also must be rais'd again, and they must both in Soul and Body partake of a happiness suitable to my Wisdom, Power and Goodness to bestow; which is greater than this life can afford; and therefore it must be in another world. ¶ [56] Exod. 3. 6. Acts 7. 32. Heb. 11. 16. Not only [I have been] or, [I will be] but [I am] at present; (and therefore they have a present being.) ¶ [57] Of such as are finally and irrecoverably dead, without any possibility of living again. ¶ [58] And therefore they were then alive in some sense, when God spake this of 'em, which was long after their death.

33 And when the multitude heard this they were [59] astonished at his [60] doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Phariſees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to ſilence, they were [61] gathered together.

[61] To try if they could puzzle him with ſome Queſtion out of the Law; being envious at the credit he had gain'd with the People by his Confutation of the Sadducees.

35 Then one of them which was a [62] lawyer, asked him a queſtion, [63] tempting him, and ſaying, 36 Maſter, which is the great commandment in the law?

1 The Scribes and Phariſees good doctrine, but evil example of life. 34 The deſtruction of Jeruſalem.

THen ſpake Jeſus to the multitude, and to his diſciples,

2 Saying, [1] The Scribes and Phariſees ſit in Moſes ſeat.

[1] The Scribes were the ordinary Teachers of the People, (See on ch. 2. 4.) called Guides, v. 16. and ſaid, to bind burthens, i. e. impoſe (in their teaching) hard Duties, v. 4. to ſhut up the Kingdom of Heaven, viz. by their neglect to teach ſound, wholſom Doctrine, which might bring men to heaven, v. 13. to make long Prayers, v. 14. to gain Proſelytes, v. 15. to treat about the obligation of Oaths, v. 16, 18. Then for the Phariſees here mention'd, they were probably ſome of the Scribes (being join'd together with 'em all along in this Chapter) only ſuch as made profeſſion of greater ſtrictneſs than the others did: By all which it appears that this muſt needs be the Chair of Doctrine (and not of judicature) that the Scribes and Phariſees ſucceed Moſes in.

3 All therefore whatſoever they bid you [2] obſerve, that obſerve and do; but do not ye after their works: for [*] they ſay, and do not.

See on Exod. 13. 9. ¶ [7] The Jews wore fringes at the bottom of their upper garments, according to thoſe commands, Numb. 15. 38–40. Deut. 22. 12. and theſe alſo they made broader than ordinary, that they might ſeem the more eminently religious.

*Luke 11. 47.

[51] Pretend a great deal of respect to the ancient Prophets, and to disallow what your Fathers did to them, and yet are as ready to practice the like your selves.

*Acts 7. 51, 52. 1 Thess. 2. 15.

[52] q. d. This practice of yours, though pretended to be done out of respect to the Prophets, yet seems rather to be an approbation of your Father's wickedness, if one look upon it, either in the nature of the thing (for hereby you keep in memory what your fathers did against 'em: whereas, if you did detest it, you would rather do all you could that it might be utterly forgotten) or if one may judge of your affections to the dead Prophets, by your usage of the living, viz. my self and Apostles.

[59] q. d. And so it will come to pass at last, by your killing, and persecuting me, and my Apostles, and so filling up the measure of your sins, that God will reckon with you for all together; not only for your own sins, but those of your Forefathers, the guilt whereof you have involved your selves in, by your approving of 'em. And though this doth abundantly exceed what God had declared concerning his visiting the sins of the Fathers upon the Children (Exod. 20. 5.) yet that is only concerning such as are guilty of false Worship themselves, but this is concerning such as moreover are guilty of persecuting the true Worshippers of God even unto death, which they were guilty of in the highest degree, in killing Christ himself, and so justifying and approving all that was done by their Forefathers. ¶ [60] Rev. 18. 24. [3] To set up thy glorious, temporal Kingdom; (which they still dream't of.) ¶ [4] They join these together, because they thought that the end of the world would immediately follow the destruction of the Temple.

4 And Jesus answered, and said unto them, [5] Take heed that no man deceive you.

[27] Because the Jews generally counted it unlawfull to go above a mile (see on Acts 1. 12.) on the Sabbath-day.

Such calamities are thus expreſt in the Prophets, as Iſa. 13. 10. ſpeaking of the miſeries of Babylon: and Joel 2. 30, 31. which words are a prediction of this very deſtruction of the Jews, and ſo applied by Peter, Acts 2. 19, 20. and under the like terms the deſtruction of the Roman Empire, as idolatrous, is deſcribed and foretold, Rev. 6. 12–14. 3 They that were foolish [11] took their lamps, and took [12] no oil with them:

[11] See n. 5. because (1.) Conscience would not be quiet without a form of godliness. (2.) Empty Lamps are easily carried. (3.) They thought there was Oil in 'em, through self-conceit: Or, (4.) They thought they had time enough to get it. ¶ [12] None of the saving Graces of the Spirit: the root of the matter was wanting, which should send forth continual fruits of holiness.

4 But the wise took [13] oil in their vessels with their lamps.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and [20] trimmed their lamps.

[20] Ch. 5. 16. The Wise set upon the exercise of grace; the Foolish adorn'd their Profession, and made as fair a shew as they could, by an appearance of repentance, and devotion.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, [21] Give us ‖ Or, going out. of your oil, for [22] our lamps are ‖ gone out.

[21] Bestow some of your grace upon us. (This represents the sorry shifts that persons in distress will make to relieve themselves, and that they'll use the means next at hand, though never so improbable.) ¶ [22] Our temporary, or seeming Faith, now fails, and will not abide the trial, (Ch. 13. 6, 12, 21.) and our groundless Presumption is overthrown, ch. 7. 27.

*John 13. 38. 34. Jesus said unto him, * Verily I say unto thee that this night, [46] before the cock crow, thou shalt [47] deny me [48] thrice.

[46] Before the second and chief Cock-crowing, i. e. that time of the night, so called, be ended; which was a little before break of day. ¶ [47] Not onely forsake me, like the rest, but flatly deny me. While the Cock praises its Creator, Peter denies his Redeemer. ¶ [48] Not only once, by surprisal, but thrice, and that with some distance between, and space to recollect thy self; and being admonisht once by the Cock's crowing. When men once give way to temptation, there would be no end of defection, if mercy did not stop their course.

35. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. [49] Likewise also said all the disciples.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, [70] Sleep on now, and take your rest; behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is [71] betrayed into the hands of [72] sinners.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Chriſt delivered to Pilate. 5 Judas hangeth himſelf. 35 Chriſt is crucified.

WHEN the morning was come, * all the chief priests and elders of the people, took counſel againſt Jeſus to [1] put him to death.

* Mark 15. 1. Luke 22. 66. & 23. 1 John 18. 28.

[1] Viz. in the moſt commodious manner; (for they had reſolved upon the thing afore.)

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour.

3 ¶ Then Judas which had betrayed him, when he ſaw that he was condemned, [2] repented himſelf, and [3] brought again the thirty pieces of ſilver to the chief prieſts and elders.

[2] 1 King. 21. 27. was mightily afflicted in his mind about it, and wiſht it had not been done. ¶ [3] Job 20. 15.

4 Saying, I have ſinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they ſaid, What is that to us? ſee thou to that.

5 And he caſt down the pieces of ſilver in the temple and departed, and went and [4] hanged himſelf.

[4] In the doing whereof, caſting himſelf headlong with violence (as it ſeems by Act. 1. 18) from the place where he had faſten'd the Rope, either the Rope, or that to which he had faſtned it, breaking, he fell down, and with the force of the fall burſt aſunder, and his bowels guſht out in a miſerable manner.

6 And the chief prieſts took the ſilver pieces, and ſaid, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treaſury, becauſe it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counſel, and bought with them the potters field to bury [5] ſtrangers in.

[5] Any that were not of their own Nation.

8 Wherefore that field was called, [6] the field of blood unto this day.

[6] Acts 1. 19.

9 (Then was [7] fulfilled that which was ſpoken by [8] Jeremy the prophet, ſaying, * And they [9] took the thirty pieces of ſilver, the price of him that was valued, whom they ‖ of the children of Iſrael did value:

* Zech. 11. 12, 13. ‖ Or, bought of the children of Iſrael.

[7] i. e. What was figuratively repreſented in the time of the Prophet, was really acted, and accompliſht upon the Perſon of Chriſt. ¶ [8] The words quoted, are found only in Zechary (ch. 11. 12.) and therefore ſome think that he was called Jeremy alſo: others, that this paſſage was firſt deliver'd by Jeremy (in ſome Prophecy not now extant) and afterwards repeated by Zechary (as many other things of his are: others, that the Prophecy of Jeremy ſtood firſt in the Volume of the Prophets, and ſo any paſſage quoted out of that Volume, goes under his name; as Chriſt called all that part of the Old Teſtament, which we call the Hagiographa, by the name of the Pſalms, (Luk. 24. 44.) beacuſe that Book ſtood firſt in that Volume. ¶ [9] God in Zechary, under the perſon of a Shepherd, demanding ſome reward for his pains, ſhews the great ingratitude of the Jews, who, for all the pains he had taken with 'em, and for all the benefits he had beſtowed upon 'em, return'd him onely a few Sacrifices, and outward ſervices, without any inward affection; which was but as if they had given him 30 pieces of ſilver (the price of a Slave, Exod. 21. 32.) which therefore he rejects with diſdain, as a company of broken potſheards.

10 And gave them for the potters field; [10] as the Lord appointed me.)

[10] i. e. And theſe things were done (viz. in viſion) according to God's command.

11 And Jeſus ſtood before the governour; and the governour asked him, ſaying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And Jeſus ſaid unto him, * [11] Thou ſayeſt.

12 And

Chap. 27. 4036.

12 And when he was accuſed of the chief prieſts and elders, he anſwered [12] nothing.

13 Then ſaith Pilate unto him, * Heareſt thou not how many things they witneſs againſt thee?

14 And he anſwered him to never a word, inſomuch that the governour [13] marvelled greatly.

[12] Since he ſeem'd to be innocent, and Pilate ſeem'd ſo inclinable to acquit him.

15 * Now at that feaſt the governour was † wont to releaſe unto the people a priſoner, whom they would.

† This cuſtom ſeems to have been invented by them in their declining times, to honour the Feaſt of the Paſſover, and to be ſome memorial of their Redemption from Egypt, and of their ſo-much deſired liberty.

16 And they had then a notable priſoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate ſaid unto them, Whom will ye that I releaſe unto you? Barabbas, or Jeſus which is called Chriſt?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was ſet down on the judgment-ſeat, his [14] wife ſent unto him, ſaying, Have thou nothing to [15] do with that juſt man: for [16] I have ſuffered many things this day in a dream, becauſe of him.

[14] Only Pilate and his Wife, two Gentiles, pleaded for Chriſt. ¶ [15] Viz. as to the condemning of him. ¶ [16] I have dreamt that great judgments will befall us, if thou doſt condemn him.

20 * But the chief prieſts and elders perſwaded the multitude that they ſhould ask [17] Barabbas, and deſtroy Jeſus.

[17] Act. 3.13, 14. Wicked men have a greater hate againſt Chriſt, than againſt the moſt lude among 'em.

21 The governour anſwered and ſaid unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I releaſe unto you? They ſaid Barabbas.

22 Pilate ſaith unto them What ſhall I do then with Jeſus which is called Chriſt? They all ſay unto him, Let him be * crucified.

* A kind of death the Romans uſed to inflict upon the baſeſt ſort of perſons, for the moſt heinous crimes.

23 And the governour ſaid, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, ſaying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate ſaw that he could prevail nothing but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and [18] waſhed his hands before the multitude, ſaying, I am innocent of the blood of this juſt perſon: ſee ye to it.

25 Then anſwered all the people and ſaid, * [19] His blood be on us, and on our children.

[19] Let God puniſh us and our Children for it.

26 ¶ Then releaſed he Barabbas unto them: and when * he had ſcourged Jeſus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the [20] ſouldiers of the governour took Jeſus into the ‖ common hall, and gathered unto him the [21] whole band of ſouldiers.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown [23] of thorns, they put it [22] upon his head, and a reed [22] in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him and mocked him, ſaying, Hail King of the Jews.

[23] Thorns were the fruit of the Curſe for man's ſin, Chriſt bears our curſe, and takes it away.

30 And they [24] ſpit upon him, and took the reed, and ſmote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

Chap. 27. 4036.

32 * And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Symon by name: him they compell'd to bear his croſs.

33 * And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to ſay, a place of a [25] ſcull.

[25] Where ſculls and bones of malefactors lay, that had been buried there.

34 ¶ They [26] gave him [27] vineger to drink, mingled with [28] gall: and when he had taſted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, caſting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by the prophet, [29] They parted my garments among them, and upon my veſture did they caſt lots.

36 And ſitting down, they watched him there:

37 And * ſet up over his head, his [30] accuſation written, THIS IS JESUS THE [31] KING OF THE JEWS.

41 Likewiſe alſo the chief prieſts mocking him, with the ſcribes and elders, ſaid,

42 [35] He ſaved others, himſelf he cannot ſave: if he be the king of Iſrael, let him now come down from the croſs, and we will believe him.

[35] Luke 4. 12. q. d. He pretended to cure and raiſe others, but either it was not real, or it was done by the help of the Devil, becauſe he can't deliver himſelf from death; and therefore he is but an Impoſtor.

44 * The thieves alſo which were crucified with him, caſt the ſame in his teeth.

45 Now from the [37] ſixth hour there was darkneſs over all the [38] land unto the ninth hour.

[37] From noon till three a clock. ¶ [38] Over all Judea, and over all that hemiſphere.

46 And about the ninth hour * Jeſus cried with a loud voice, ſaying, Eli, Eli, lama ſabachthani? that is to ſay, My God, My God, why haſt thou [39] forſaken [40] me?

(2) To give us assurance of our Resurrection, by vertue of his. (3) That he is the Saviour of all those that believed in him before his Incarnation, and that they partake of the benefits of his Resurrection, no less than those that died since.

57 * When the [52] even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple:

[52] i. e. After three a Clock: (for the Jews reckon'd from three till six, the evening of the day.)

58 He went to Pilate; and begged the body of Jesus: then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it in his own [53] new tomb, which he had hewen out in the rock: and he [54] rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

[53] Isa. 53. 9. ¶ [54] This was so ordered by the Providence of God, for the stronger confirmation of the Christian Faith, in these two great and fundamental points of Christ's Death, and Resurrection.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the [55] next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief Priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate.

[55] Which was the Sabbath. The Evangelist here closely taxes their wickedness and malice, in that they, who at other times seem'd to be such precise and superstitious observers of the Sabbath, yet now, without any respect unto it, use their utmost endeavours to hinder Christ's Resurrection.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a [59] watch, go your way, make it as sure as you can.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not [2] ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

[2] q. d. You that are Christ's friends need not fear, (though his enemies are almost frighted out of their wits, and ran away.)

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the souldiers.

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governour's ears, we will perswade him and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

St. MARK.

The ARGUMENT.

THERE are several of this Name mentioned in Scripture: which of 'em was the Pen-man of this Gospel, is altogether uncertain: It's onely certain that he wrote by Divine Inspiration, and relates things more briefly than Matthew; after whom he next compiled his History: about the tenth year after Christ's Resurrection, as is supposed.

32 And he spake that saying [43] openly. And [44] Peter took him, and began to [45] rebuke him.

[43] Plainly and boldly, without any fear, or concern for it. ¶ [44 45] See on Matt. 16. 22. n. 43, 44.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his [46] disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, [47] Satan: for [48] thou savourest not the things that be of God, but [49] the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, *[50] Whosoever will [51] come after me, let him [52] deny himself, and [53] take up his cross, and [54] follow me. * Matt. 10. 38. & 16. 24. Luke 9. 23. & 14. 27.

35 For * whosoever will [55] save his life, shall [56] lose it; but whosoever shall [57] lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall [58] save it. * John 12. 25.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole [60] world, and [61] lose his own soul?

[46] That they might take notice of it, and take it to themselves, so far as they were concern'd in it. ¶ [47–61] See on Matt. 16. 23–26.

37 Or what shall a man give [62] in exchange for his soul? [62] Psal. 49. 7. 1 Pet. 1. 18, 19.

38 [63] Whosoever therefore * shall be [64] ashamed of me, and of my words, in this [65] adulterous and sinfull generation, of him also shall the Son of man be [66] ashamed, when he cometh [67] in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels. * See Rom. 1. 16. 2 Tim. 1. 8.

CHAP. IX.

2 Jesus transfigured. 30 He foreshewth his death and resurrection, 33 and giveth divers instructions to his disciples.

AND he said unto them, * Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen [1] the kingdom of God come with power. * Matt. 16. 28. Luke 9. 27.

[1] John 21. 22. The Gospel prevailing all the world over, in spite of all opposition.

2 ¶ * And after six days, Jesus taketh with him, [2] Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was [3] transfigured [4] before them. * Luke 9. 28.

[2 3] See on Matt. 17. 1, 2. n. 1, 2. ¶ [4] Isa. 33. 17.

3 And his [5] raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them. [5 6] See on Matt. 17. 2, 3. n. 5, 6.

4 And there appeared unto them [6] Elias, with [6] Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say, for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that over-shadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, this is my beloved Son: [7] hear him. [7] See on Matt. 17. 5. n. 10.

8 And suddenly when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And

Chap. 9. 4035.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should [8] tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were [9] risen from the dead.

[8] See on Matt. 16. 20. n. 40. ¶ [9] See on Matt. 17. 9. n. 14.

10 And they kept that saying [10] with themselves, questioning one with another what the [11] rising from the dead should mean.

[10] They conceal'd it, yet laid it up in their memories. ¶ [11] Not that they doubted of the general resurrection, (John 11. 24.) but they dream'd so much of a temporal Kingdom, that they understood nothing that seemed inconsistent therewith. See n. 41.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, [12] Why say the [13] scribes that * Elias must first come?

[12] Mal. 4. 5.

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and [14] restoreth all things, and [15] how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and * be [16] set at nought.

[12–14] See on Matt. 17. 10. n. 15, 16, 17. ¶ [15] i. e. He told 'em how it is written in the Scriptures, that the Messia must suffer, Dan. 9. 26. ¶ [16] Psal. 22. 6. Isa. 53. 3, &c. Acts 3. 14.

[12] Matt. 11. 14. Luke 1. 17.

13 But I say unto you, that * [17] Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, [18] as it is written of him.

[17] See on Matt. 17. 12. n. 19. ¶ [18] Viz. That he should come before the Messia, and be treated like Elias, (who was persecuted by Ahab and Jezabel for his reproving their sins.)

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the [19] scribes questioning with them.

[19] These cunning Sophisters having gotten 'em alone, thought to baffle and expose 'em.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were [20] greatly amazed, and running to him, [21] saluted him.

[20] Because his countenance still retain'd some of that splendour, glory and loveliness which he had in the Mount: which made them run to him and salute him, (which we never read that they did at any other time.) ¶ [21] Express their good will and respects to him, and joy for his return.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ‖ ye with them?

‖ Or, among your selves.

[8] Matt. 17. 14. Luke 9. 38.

17 And * one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a [22] dumb spirit:

[22] A distemper which makes him both deaf and dumb, v. 25.

18 And whereſoever he taketh him, he ‖ teareth him: and he ſometh, and gnaſheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I ſpake to thy diſciples, that they ſhould caſt him out, and they [23] could not.

‖ Or, diſpeth.

19 He anſwered him, and ſaith, [24] O faithleſs generation, how long ſhall I be [25] with you? how long ſhall I [26] ſuffer you? bring him unto me.

[23 24] See on Matt. 17. 16, 17. n. 23, 24. ¶ [25 26] See on Matt. 17. 17. n. 25, 26.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he ſaw him, ſtraightway the ſpirit [27] tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foming.

[27] Ch. 1. 26. See there n. 51.

21 And he [28] asked his father, How long is it ago ſince this came unto him? And he ſaid, Of a child.

[28] That ſo all might take notice that it was a rooted diſtemper.

22 And oft-times it hath caſt him into the fire, and into the waters to deſtroy him: but if thou canſt do any thing, [29] have compaſſion on us, and help us.

[29] Matt. 15. 22. Pſal. 25. 7.

23 Jeſus ſaid unto him, If thou canſt believe, [30] all things are poſſible to him that believeth.

24 And ſtraightway the father of the child cried out, and ſaid with tears, Lord, I believe; [31] help thou mine unbelief.

Chap. 9. 4035.

25 When Jeſus ſaw that the people came [32] running together, he [33] rebuked the foul ſpirit, ſaying unto him, [34] Thou dumb and deaf ſpirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and [35] enter no more into him.

[31] Luke 17. 5.

[32] To ſee what would be done, upon this great out-cry of the man. ¶ [33] See on Matt. 17. 18. ¶ [34] Thou evil ſpirit that makeſt this Child both deaf and dumb, in his Fits. ¶ [35] Let him have no more Fits hereafter.

26 And the ſpirit cried, and rent him ſore, and came out of him, and he was as one [36] dead, inſomuch that many ſaid, He is dead.

[36] Chriſt ſuffered the Devil to ſhew his power and malice ſo far, that his own power and mercy might be the more evident.

27 But Jeſus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he aroſe.

28 And when he was come into the houſe, his diſciples asked him privately, Why could not we caſt him out?

29 And he ſaid unto them, [37] This kind can come forth by nothing, but by [38] prayer and faſting.

[37 38] See on Matt. 17. 21.

30 ¶ * And they departed thence, and paſſed through Galilee; and he would not that any man ſhould know it.

* Matt. 17. 22. Luke 9. 44.

31 [39] For he taught his diſciples, and ſaid unto them, the Son of man is [40] delivered into the hands of men, and they ſhall kill him, and after that he is killed, he ſhall riſe the third day.

[39] q. d. The reaſon why he deſired to keep himſelf private, was, that he might have the better opportunity fully and plainly to inſtruct his Diſciples in all needfull points; and particularly, in the Doctrine of his Paſſion and Reſurrection. ¶ [40] See on Matt. 17. 22. n. 34.

32 But they [41] underſtood not that ſaying, and were afraid to ask him.

[41] Luke 2. 50. & 18. 34. See there; Could not apprehend the Myſtery of his Death; how he, being the Meſſia, the Son of God that had wrought ſo many Miracles, and concerning whoſe Kingdom there were ſo many glorious promiſes could or ſhould come to ſuffer death; or for what end or purpoſe: much leſs how he ſhould riſe again after he was dead. See n. 11.

33 ¶ * And he came to Capernaum, and being in the houſe, he asked them, [42] What was it that ye diſputed among your ſelves, by the way.

* Matt. 18. 1. Luke 9. 46.

[42] Chriſt asks this queſtion, thereby to take occaſion to root the ſin of Ambition out of their hearts, and to read 'em a Lecture of Humility.

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had diſputed among themſelves who ſhould be the greateſt.

35 And he [43] ſat down and called the twelve, and ſaith unto them, If any man [44] deſire to be firſt, [45] the ſame ſhall be laſt of all, and [46] ſervant of all.

41 [55] For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink, in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

[55] Matt. 10. 42. q. d. God will own and reward the least countenance and assistance for the carrying on of the work of the Gospel; (and therefore you should encourage those that make profession of my Name, though they be not of my followers.)

42 And whosoever shall [56] offend one of these [57] little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a milstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

‖ Or, cause thee to offend: and so V. 45, 47.

43 [58] And if thy [59] hand ‖ [60] offend thee, [61] cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life [62] maimed, than having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their [63] worm dieth not, and the [63] fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy [59] foot [60] offend thee, [61] cut it off: it is better for thee to enter [62] halt into life, than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their [63] worm dieth not, and the [63] fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine [59] eye [60] offend thee, [61] pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with [62] one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

50 * [69] Salt is good: but [70] if the salt have lost his saltness, [71] wherewith will you season it? [72] Have salt in your selves, and [73] have peace one with another.

[69] Luke 14. 34. See there. Profession of Religion is good in it self; and you that are Professours, are usefull persons in the world (Matt. 5. 13. see there) to subdue corruption in persons, beat down sin, and implant Grace. ¶ [70] If you renounce the Truth, and fall from your Profession of it. ¶ [71] Heb. 6. 4, 6. [15-17] See on Matt. 19. 13. n. 24-27.

21 Then

Chap. 10. 4036.

21 Then Jesus beholding him, [29] loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest; go thy way, [30] sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor; and thou shalt have * treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross and follow me.

22 And he was [31] sad at that saying, and went away grieved for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looked [32] round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

[32] As having something to say that concern'd all, and was worthy to be observ'd by all.

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how [33] hard is it for them * that [34] trust in riches, to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, [35] Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them, saith, [36] With men it is impossible, but not with God: for * with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ * Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the [37] gospels,

[37] For his embracing, preaching, promoting, defending it, living according to it, cherishing the Ministers thereof, &c.

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we [50] may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in [51] thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, [52] Ye know not what ye ask: [53] can ye [54] drink of the cup that I drink of? and be [55] baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed [56] drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withall, shall ye be [57] baptized:

40 But to [58] sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, [59] is not mine to give, but [60] it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be [61] much displeased with James and John.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called, and they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

5 * And entring into the ſepulchre, they ſaw a young man ſitting on the right ſide, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he ſaith unto them, Be not affrighted: ye ſeek Jeſus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is riſen, he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

CHAP. XV.

1 Jeſus brought bound and accuſed before Pilate, 25 is delivered to be crucified, 27 hangeth between two thieves, 43 and is honourably buried.

AND * ſtraightway in the [1] morning the chief prieſts held a [2] conſultation with the elders and ſcribes, and the whole councel, and bound Jeſus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. * Matt. 27. 1. Luke 22. 66. & 23. 1 John 18. 28. [1] Prov. 4. 18. Mic. 2. 1.

4 * And Pilate asked him again, ſaying, Anſwereſt thou nothing? behold how many things they witneſs againſt thee. * Matt. 27. 13.

5 But Jeſus yet anſwered nothing; ſo that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now * at that feaſt he releaſed unto them one priſoner, whomſoever they deſired. * Matt. 27. 15. Luke 23. 17. John 18. 39.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made inſurrection with him, who had committed murther in the inſurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to deſire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate anſwered them, ſaying, Will ye that I releaſe unto you the king of the Jews?

12 And Pilate anſwered, and ſaid again unto them, What will ye then that I ſhall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews?

13 And they [6] cryed out again, [7] Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate ſaid unto them, Why, [8] what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucifie him.

15 ¶ And

Chap. 15. 4036.

15 ¶ * And ſo Pilate, willing to [9] content the people, releaſed Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jeſus, when he had ſcourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the [10] ſouldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with [11] purple, and platted [11] a crown of thorns, and put it about his head.

18 And began to ſalute him, Hail king of the Jews.

19 And they ſmote him on the head with a reed, and did ſpit upon him, and [12] bowing their knees, worſhipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 * And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who paſſed by, coming out of the countrey, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his croſs.

22 * And they bring him unto the [13] place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a [14] ſcull.

23 And they [15] gave him to drink [16] wine mingled with [17] myrrhe: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, * they parted his garments, caſting lots upon them, what every man ſhould take.

25 * And it was the [18] third hour, and they crucified him.

[18] That ſpace of time called [the third hour] (which reaches from nine to twelve) was not yet paſt: the ſixth hour, or twelve a clock, was not yet come, (though it was near, John 19. 14.)

[21] Treated and dealt with, as one of that rank; being put to death in the ſame place, and at the ſame time, with other malefactors.

29 And * they that paſſed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and ſaying, Ah, * thou that [22] deſtroyeſt the temple, and buildeſt it in three days,

30 Save thy ſelf, and come down from the croſs.

31 Likewiſe alſo the [23] chief prieſts mocking, ſaid among themſelves with the ſcribes, [24] He ſaved others, himſelf he cannot ſave.

32 Let Chriſt the king of Iſrael deſcend now from the croſs, that we may ſee and believe. And * they that were crucified with him, reviled him.

33 And when the [25] ſixth hour was come there was darkneſs over the whole [26] land, untill the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jeſus cried with a loud voice, ſaying, * Eloi, Eloi, lamaſabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why haſt thou [27] forſaken [28] me?

35 And ſome of them that ſtood by, when they heard it, ſaid, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And * one ran, and filled a ſponge full of vineger, and put it on a reed, and * gave him to [29] drink, ſaying, [30] Let alone; let us ſee whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 * And Jeſus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghoſt.

38 And * the [31] vail of the temple was [32] rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.

St. LUKE.

The ARGUMENT.

LUKE was by Profession a Physician, and beloved by Paul (Coloss. 4. 14.) as being his constant Companion in his Travels.

In this Book he relates many remarkable Passages not mentioned by others. He wrote (as is conceived) about the twentieth year after Christ's Ascension.

1 Chriſt teacheth out of the ſhip. 4 A miraculous draught of fiſhes. 12 The leper cleanſed. 18 The palſie is healed. 27 Matthew called.

AND * it came to paſs, that as the people [1] preſſed upon him to hear the word of God, he ſtood [2] by the lake of Genneſareth,

3 And he entred into one of the ſhips, which was Simons, and prayed him that he would thruſt out a little from the land: and he ſat down, and taught the people out of the ſhip.

4 Now when he had left ſpeaking, he ſaid unto Simon, launch out into the deep, and [4] let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon anſwering, ſaid unto him, Maſter, we have toiled all the night, and have [5] taken nothing: nevertheleſs at thy word I will let down the net.

7 And they beckened unto their partners, which were in the other ſhip, that they ſhould come and [7] help them. And they came, and filled both the ſhips, ſo that they began to ſink.

8 When Simon Peter ſaw it, he fell down at Jeſus knees, ſaying, * [8] Depart from me, for I am a [9] ſinfull man, O Lord.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, ſaying, I will; be thou clean. And [15] immediately the leproſie departed from him.

14 And he charged him to [16] tell no man: but go, and ſhew thy ſelf to the [17] prieſt, and offer for thy cleanſing, * according as Moſes commanded, [18] for a teſtimony unto them.

Chap. 5. 4034.

15 But ſo much the more went their fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he [19] withdrew himſelf into the wilderneſs, and prayed.

17 And it came to paſs, on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phariſees and Doctors of the Law ſitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jeruſalem: and the [20] power of the Lord was preſent to heal [21] them.

[20] He manifeſted his Divine Power readily in healing. ¶ [21] Thoſe ſick Perſons that were brought to him from the parts thereabouts.

18 ¶ * And behold, men [22] brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palſie: and they ſought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, becauſe of the multitude, they went upon the houſe-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the midſt before Jeſus.

20 And when he ſaw [23] their [24] faith, he ſaid unto him, Man, [25] thy ſins are [26] forgiven thee.

21 And the Scribes and the Phariſees began to reaſon, ſaying, Who is this which ſpeaketh [27] blaſphemies? Who can forgive ſins but [28] God alone?

22 But when Jeſus [29] perceived their thoughts, he anſwering, ſaid unto them, What reaſon ye in your hearts?

23 ‖ Whether is eaſier to ſay, Thy ſins be forgiven thee, or to ſay; Riſe up and walk?

24 [30] But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power [31] upon earth to [32] forgive ſins, (he ſaid unto the ſick of the palſie,) [33] I ſay unto thee, [34] Ariſe, and take up thy couch, and go into thine houſe.

25 And immediately he roſe up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own houſe, [35] glorifying God.

30 But [42] their ſcribes and phariſees murmured againſt his [43] diſciples, ſaying, [44] Why do ye eat and drink with publicanes and ſinners?

32 I came not to call the righteous, but [48] ſinners to repentance.

37 And no man putteth 56 new wine into old bottles; elſe the new wine will burſt the bottles, and be ſpilled, and the bottles ſhall periſh.

38 But new wine muſt be put into new bottles; and both are preſerved.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city, called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

* Isa. 35. 5. 22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and [20] tell John what things ye have [21] seen and heard, * how that the [22] blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the [23] poor the [24] Gospel is preached.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, [27] What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? [28] A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? [29] A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? [30] A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and [31] much more than a prophet.

* Mal. 3. 1. 27 [32] This is he of whom it is written, * [33] Behold, I send my [34] messenger before [35] thy face, which shall [36] prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, [37] Among those that are born of women, there is not [38] a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is [39] least in the kingdom of God, is [40] greater than he.

29 And all the [41] people that heard him, and the publicanes [42] justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

[41] The meaner sort. ¶ [42] Ver. 35. Rom. 3. 4. approved of what he did, and acknowledged his righteousness therein, by owning and submitting to this Law, Institution or Ordinance of John's Baptism.

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have [46] piped unto you, and ye have not danced: We have [47] mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

* Matt. 3. 4. Mark 1. 6. 33 For * John the Baptist came [48] neither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, He [49] hath a Devil.

34 The Son of man is come [50] eating and drinking; and ye say, [51] Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicanes and sinners.

35 But [52] wisdom is [53] justified of all her [54] children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. Chap. 7. 4034

37 And behold, [55] a woman in the city, which was [56] a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet [57] behind him weeping, and began to [58] wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the [59] hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

[57] Out of modesty, and a sense of her own unworthiness. ¶ [58] 1 Tim. 5. 10. ¶ [59] 2 Cor. 7. 11.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, [60] This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and [61] what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. [60] Ch. 15. 2. [61] Numb. 19. 22.

40 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, Say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two [62] debtors: the one ought five hundred ‖ pence, and the other fifty. [62] Matt. 6. 13. ‖ See on Matt. 18. 28.

43 Simon answered, and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet; but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no [66] kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet. [65] Rom. 16. 16.

46 Mine head with [67] oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. [67] Psal. 23. 5. & 104. 15.

47 [68] Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; [69] for she [70] loved much: but [71] to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

[68] i. e. Because by her thus coming to me, and expressing her sorrow for her sins, she has manifested her faith in me, and true repentance (which are the conditions of pardon) therefore I do bestow pardon upon her. ¶ [69] Or, wherefore, i. e. because so many and great sins are forgiven her, therefore—— ¶ [70] Cant. 1. 3, 4. 1 John 4. 10. has shewn these extraordinary tokens of her extraordinary and singular love to me. Upon her repentance she obtain'd pardon, and being pardon'd, she is filled with love to me. ¶ [71] q. d. Whereas thou, who thinkest thy self guilty of few or no sins, hast shew'd little sign of love to me.

48 And he said unto her, [72] Thy sins are forgiven. [72] Matt. 9. 2.

49 And they that sat at meat with him, began to say within themselves, [73] Who is this that forgiveth sins [74] also?

[73] Mark 2. 7. ¶ [74] Viz. besides his miracles, and converse with sinners, ver. 39.

50 And he said to the woman, * [75] Thy faith hath saved thee; [76] go in peace. * Matt 9. 22. Mark 5. 34 & 10. 52. ch. 8. 48. & 18. 42.

[75] This great expression, and these extraordinary acts of thy faith has been a means to obtain a free pardon of all thy sins that are past, and the removal of this evil, Rom. 3. 27, 28. ¶ [76] Let not the thoughts nor sense of thy sins any longer disquiet and perplex thee, but be assur'd they are all pardon'd; and therefore be satisfied.

3 Women minister unto Christ. 5 The parable of the sower, and of the candle. 26 The legion of devils.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went [1] throughout every city and village, preaching, and shewing the [2] glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him;

[1] Acts 10. 38. ¶ [2] See on Matt. 4. 17. n. 44.

3 And Joanna the wife of Chusa, Herods steward, and Susanna, and many others, which [6] ministred unto him of their substance.

[6] Mark 15. 40, 41. contributed to him of their goods for the maintenance of his family, in thankfulness for the benefits they received from him.

[a] Matt. 13. 2. Mark 4. 1. 4 ¶ * And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city he spake by a parable:

5 [7] A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was trodden down, and the fouls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a [8] rock, and [9] assoon as it was sprung up, it [10] withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among [11] thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And another fell on [12] good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, [13] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

[b] Matt. 13. 10. Mark 4. 10. 9 * And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, [14] Unto you [15] it is given to know the [16] mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to [c] Is. 6. 9. Mark 4. 12. [17] others in parables, * [18] that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

[d] Matt. 13. 18. [e] 1 Pet. 1. 23. 11 * Now the parable is this: The seed is the [19] word of God.

12 [20] Those by the way-side, are they that hear: then cometh the devil, and [21] taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock, are they, which when they hear, [22] receive the word with [23] joy; and these have no [24] root, which for a [25] while believe, and in time of temptation [26] fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with [27] cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

[20] See on Mark 4. 15. [21–27] See on Matt. 13. 19–22.

15 But that on the good ground, are they which in [28] an honest and good heart having heard the word, [29] keep it, and [30] bring forth fruit with [31] patience.

[28] Jer. 31. 33. studious of holiness, (being prepared by the Spirit of God, to entertain the word with due affections, dispositions and resolutions.) ¶ [29] viz. notwithstanding all temptations to the contrary, either from worldly sufferings, (which the second sort of hearers did not) or from worldly enjoyments (which the third sort did not.) ¶ [30] Psal. 1. 3. & 92. 14. John 15. 4. Gal. 5. 22. Col. 1. 6. ¶ [31] Matt. 24. 13. patiently enduring all those evils they meet with in the way of obedience.

16 ¶ [32] No man when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

[32] See on Matt. 5. 15. and on Luke 11. 33. q. d. I have taught you these things, not that you should keep 'em to your selves, but in due time impart 'em to others.

17 * For [33] nothing is secret, that shall not be made [34] manifest: neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.

* Matt. 10. 26. ch. 12. 2.

18 Take heed [35] therefore [36] how ye hear: * for whosoever [37] hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be [38] taken even that which he ‖ [39] seemeth to have.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and [41] do it.

22 ¶ * Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

* Matt. 8. 23. Mark 4. 35.

23 But as they sailed, he [42] fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

[42] [43] [44] See on Matt. 8. 24, 25.

24 And they [43] came to him, and [44] awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, [45] Where is your faith? And they being [46] afraid, wondred, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

[45] q. d. you ought to have believed that I would preserve you, though I were asleep, and not to have been thus fearfull. ¶ [46] See on Mark 4. 41.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him [47] out of the city, a certain man which had devils, [48] long time and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the [49] tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, [50] What have I to do with thee, [51] Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee [52] torment me not.

[47] Whose habitation was in the City; or, who came from some part near the City, and met Christ. ¶ [48] John 5. 5. ¶ [49–52] See on Matt. 8. 28, 29.

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, [54] What is thy name? And he said, [55] Legion: because many devils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not [56] command them to go out into the deep.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city, and in the countrey.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save [85] Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

1 To avoid hypocriſie and fearfulneſs in publiſhing Chriſts doctrine. 23 To beware of covetouſneſs. 42 The faithful and wiſe ſteward.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, inſomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to [1] ſay unto his diſciples firſt of all, Beware ye of the [2] leaven of the Phariſees, [2] which is hypocriſie.

[1] In this Sermon Chriſt repeats and inculcates many things he had delivered afore. ¶ [2] Matt. 16. 6. i. e. Of being puft up with a conceit of your own Righteouſneſs and Holineſs, as the Phariſees are, whoſe Religion is but a meer Pretence, without any Reality.

13 ¶ And one of the company ſaid unto him, Maſter, [20] ſpeak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

[20] He look'd upon Chriſt as the Meſſia, and ſo a King and Judge; or at leaſt as a very underſtanding, upright Perſon, and as one who was mighty in Words and Deeds; and therefore he thought his Brother would ſtand in awe of him, and ſubmit to his Determination.

Chap. 12. 4036.

14 And he said unto him, Man, [21] who made me a judge, or a divider over you?

[21] q. d. It belongs not to me to meddle with the Civil Rights of particular Persons.

15 And he said unto them, * [22] Take heed, and [22] beware of [24] covetousness: for a [25] man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

* 1 Tim. 6. 7, &c.

[22] A two-fold Caution, implying, That we can never be watchfull enough against such a sly and dangerous Enemy, which steals upon us insensibly. ¶ [24] 1 Tim. 6. 17. Which is, an immoderate desire of having or keeping more than is fit, or taking full content in what we have; as here. ¶ [25] Neither the Comfort, Safety, nor Continuance of Life depends upon having more than he needs or uses.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, [28] The ground of a certain rich man brought forth [29] plentifully.

[28] This teaches us, That a man may be a covetous worldling, that does not get his Estate by unjust means; and, That Riches well gotten are not to be rested in as our Portion or Happiness, but to be used for God. ¶ [29] Job 12. 6. Matt. 5. 45.

17 And he thought within himself, saying, [30] What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits.

[30] This notes the Care and Solicitude that attends Riches.

18 And he said, This will I do: [31] I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and [32] there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

[31] This represents the Cumber of Worldly things. ¶ [32] He never thinks of laying out part of his Superfluities in works of Piety or Charity, Matt. 6. 19.

19 And I will say to my soul, [33] Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for [34] many years; take thine ease, [35] eat, drink, and be merry.

[33] A worldly disposition betrays it self in taking too much complacency in what we have, as well as in a greedy desire of getting more. ¶ [34] Job 14. 1. Prov. 27. 11. ¶ [35] Eccl. 11. 9. 1 Cor. 15. 32. James 5. 5. This represents the delightfull part of the world, and shews, That a little carnal, sensual Satisfaction is the Sum of all Worldly Enjoyments.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, [36] this night ‖ thy soul shall be required of thee: then [37] whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 [38] So is he that layeth up treasure [40] for himself, and is not [41] rich towards God.

[38] Such a Fool is he, and so shall he fare, who minds onely the heaping up and keeping together of worldly Wealth, and counts that his onely Treasure. ¶ [40] Hos. 10. 1. Merely for his own use, or for the solacing of himself withall, or to be fewel for his Lusts. ¶ [41] 1 Tim. 6. 17. Endued with Grace (James 2. 5.) and full of Good Works, (1 Tim. 6. 18.) whereby he may be accepted with God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, [42] Therefore I say unto you, [43] Take no [44] thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 [45] The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

[42] q. d. Since neither the Comfort nor Continuance of Life depends on these things, therefore be not solicitous about 'em. ¶ [43–45] See on Matt. 6. 25.

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, ‖ neither be ye [50] of doubtfull mind.

‖ Or, live not in carefull suspense.

[50] Heb. 13. 5. Distracted and disturbed with Care about temporal Necessaries.

[71] The greater Patience and Perseverance has been used, the greater Reward will be bestowed.

77 Christ's Answer chiefly respects the Dispensers of Spiritual things to his People; yet not denying but that in some respect it concerns all that will be saved. ¶ 78-81 See on Matt. 24. 45.

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find 82 so doing.

49 ¶ 92 I am come to send fire on the earth, and 93 what will I, if it be already kindled?

92 q. d. Upon my coming and publishing the Gospel, there will follow (through the Devil's malice and the corruption of men) much Persecution to the Professors thereof, (Matt. 10. 34.) and manifold Divisions in the World, (v. 51.) whereby men will be tried whether they be faithfull or not. ¶ 93 i. e. I have an earnest desire that the Gospel (whereby this Fire of Persecution will be occasionally kindled) may be publish'd by you, because it will try and refine my People, as Fire does Metal. Or, What shall I say? What is to be done in this Case? Why, Be sure you don't neglect your Duty, whatever you suffer on my account.

55 And when ye see the south-wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galileans, and others. 6 The fig-tree cursed. 24 The strait gate.

THere were present at that season, some that told him of the 1 Galileans whose bloud Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

1 Followers, probably, of Judas of Galilee, mentioned Acts 5. 37. who dissuaded Subjection to the Roman Emperour; whereupon Pilate slew them as they were sacrificing.

2 And Jesus answering, said unto them, 2 Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

2 Job 5. 6, 7. Acts 28. 4. implying, That men are apt to censure those for the greatest Sinners, who are visited with the greatest outward Punishments.

3 I tell you, 3 Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

3 q. d. Whatsoever you may think of them or your selves, yet you are as great Sinners as they were; and these Judgments on them, are warnings to call you to Repentance; which if not complied with, you'll all be involv'd in the like destruction (partly by the bloudy cruelty of the Romans, and partly by the fall and ruine of the Temple, Towers, and Walls of the City, ch. 19. 43.)

‖ Or, debtors. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were ‖ sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, 3 Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this 5 parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and 6 sought fruit thereon, and 7 found none.

5 The scope hereof is to shew, That God having born long with the Jews for their Unfruitfulness, and having now sent his Son to bring 'em to Repentance and Obedience, if this prevailed not, they were to expect nothing but Destruction. ¶ 6 Isa. 5.-2. ¶ 7 Matt. 21. 19.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath-day?

6 And they [8] could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a [9] parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms, saying unto them;

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

[9] A Speech, wherein, by occasion of this present Practice of theirs, he preaches the Doctrine of Humility in general to 'em, both in reference to God and Man; that they should think meanly of themselves, and account others better than themselves.

10 [10] But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou [13] makest a dinner or a supper, call [14] not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

16 Then said he unto him, [19] A certain man made a great [20] supper, and bade many:

[19] Matt. 22. 2. Isa. 25. 6. The scope of this Parable is to convince 'em of their gross neglect of the many Offers of Mercy and Blessedness that had been made unto 'em; whereupon they should be rejected and excluded from it, and others made partakers thereof. q. d. If it be so great a Blessedness, (as you say, v.-15.) why then do you refuse the Offers thereof, and neglect the Means, and not believe and obey my Doctrine, whereby you might come to attain this Blessedness. ¶ [20] This notes the Grace and Priviledges of the Gospel, and the Glory and Happiness of Heaven, consequent thereupon.

17 And sent his [21] servant at supper-time, to say to them that were bidden, [22] Come, for all things are now ready.

[21] Ministers and Messengers, Prophets and Apostles. ¶ [22] Isa. 55. 1. Prov. 9. 2, 5. Believe in Christ, and embrace the Gospel.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a [23] piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

[23] This notes that hindrance that arises from Riches and worldly Possessions, Matt. 13. 22.

19 And another said, I have bought [24] five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

[24] This notes the hindrance that arises from worldly Business and Employments, and Cares of this Life.

20 And another said, I have [25] married a wife, and therefore I [26] cannot come.

Chap. 14. 4036.

[25] This notes the hindrance that arises from sensual Pleasures: Not that these things they mentioned are, any of 'em, unlawfull in themselves; but onely they were so excessive in the pursuit and enjoyment of 'em, that they became snares and hindrances to the Duties of Piety. ¶ [26] Sensual Pleasures are the greatest hindrances of all others, (for he that was under the power of them, gives a peremptory denial.)

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the [27] streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the [28] poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

[27] This notes the calling of some few of the Jews, and those the most contemptible, as Publicans, and Sinners, and their embracing the Gospel. ¶ [28] Matt. 11.-5, 28.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the Lord said unto the servant, Go out into the [29] highways and hedges, and [30] compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

[29] This notes the calling of the Gentiles. ¶ [30] 1 Sam. 28. 23. This notes, (1.) God's bountifull Liberality, and earnest desires that all should partake of his grace. (2.) The effectual, prevailing Motions of his Spirit on the Hearts of the Elect. (3.) The importunate Perswasions and powerfull Arguments that Ministers should use, 2 Cor. 5.-20. 2 Tim. 4. 2. (4.) The wonderfull Success of the Gospel, which converted such Multitudes, that they seem'd even to be forc'd.

29 Lest haply after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it, begin to mock him,

1 The Parable of the loſt ſheep: 8 Of the piece of ſilver: 11 of the prodigal ſon.

2 And the Phariſees and Scribes [4] murmured, ſaying, This man receiveth ſinners and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he ſpake this [5] parable unto them, ſaying,

[5] In theſe three Parables, Chriſt ſhews God's tender Care for the Converſion of poor loſt Sinners, whatſoever their Sins have been, whether of Weakneſs, (in the Sheep;) of Heedleſneſs or Surpriſal, (in the Groat ſlipping thorow the Fingers;) or of Rebellion, (in the Prodigal:) and that therefore he did well to converſe with 'em, in order to the bringing 'em to Repentance, wherewith God would be well pleaſed; and ſo ſhould they.)

5 And when he hath [9] found it, he layeth it on his ſhoulders, rejoycing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, ſaying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my ſheep which was loſt.

7 I ſay unto you, that likewiſe [10] joy ſhall be in heaven over one ſinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine [11] juſt perſons, which need [12] no repentance.

[10] Chap. 2. 13. 9 And when ſhe hath found it, ſhe calleth her friends and her neighbours together, ſaying, [14] Rejoyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had loſt.

10 Likewiſe I ſay unto you, There is [10] joy in the preſence of the angels of God, over one ſinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he ſaid, a [15] certain man had two ſons:

[15] This Parable does more eminently repreſent God's readineſs and willingneſs to receive, and his Bowels of tender Mercies and Kindneſs towards repenting Sinners, (as the two former ſhew Chriſt's great Care and Pains for the recovering of 'em.)

12 And the younger of them ſaid unto his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto him his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger ſon gathered all together, and took his journey into a [16] far country, and there waſted his ſubſtance with riotous living.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the [19] husks that the ſwine did eat: and [20] no man gave unto him.

[19] This notes what low, mean things Sinners content themſelves withall. ¶ [20] He could not get enough of 'em.

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat and be merry.

[33] Eph. 2. 1.

25 Now his [34] elder ſon was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the houſe, he heard muſick and [35] dancing.

[34] The Formal, Moral, Phariſaical Profeſſor, (ſuch a one as Paul was, Phil. 3.-6.) who values himſelf ſo highly upon that account, that he thinks all due to him that God beſtows upon him, and that none ſhould have more Favour from God than himſelf; and therefore is unthankfull for what he has, and envious againſt any that have more, Matt. 20. 10-12. ¶ [35] Acts 8.-39. Rom. 5. 1. Phil. 4. 4.

32 It was meet that we ſhould make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was loſt, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Of the unjuſt ſteward. 14 The hypocriſie of the covetous Phariſees reproved.

AND he ſaid alſo unto his diſciples, [1] There was a certain rich man which had a ſteward; and the ſame was accuſed unto him that he had waſted his goods.

[1] The Deſign of this Parable is to teach us, That we are but Stewards of the Goods, Riches and other Gifts that we enjoy; and that we muſt be accountable for 'em: and therefore that we ſhould uſe ſuch Spiritual Wiſedom in the diſpenſing of 'em, particularly for the relief of the Poor, as may tend to our eternal Happineſs when we come to die.

2 And he called him, and ſaid unto him, how is it that I [2] hear this of thee? [3] give an account of thy ſtewardſhip, for thou mayeſt be no longer ſteward.

19 ¶ [32] There was a certain rich man, which was cloathed in purple and fine linnen, and fared ſumptuouſly every day.

[32] The Deſign of this Parable (as appears from v. 31.) is to ſhew the Authority of the Word of God, or Moral Law, over the Conſcience, as the onely means to perſwade to Repentance and Obedience.

20 And there was a certain begger [33] named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of ſores;

21 And deſiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich mans table: moreover the dogs came and licked his ſores.

22 And it came to paſs, that the begger died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams boſom: the rich man alſo died, and was buried.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and ſeeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his boſom.

1 To avoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith. 12 The ten lepers.

* Mark 9. 23. & 11. 23.

6 * And the Lord said, [13] If ye had [14] faith [15] as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

[13] Matt. 17. 20. & 21. 21. ¶ [14] True, saving Faith in the least degree; and if you put it forth, you shall be enabled to perform the most difficult Duties: even as the least degree of Miraculous Faith will enable you to do great things in that way. ¶ [15] Matt. 13. 31.

7 [16] But which of you having [17] a servant plowing, or feeding cattel, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go, and sit down to meat?

[16] By this Parable Christ cautions 'em against Self-conceit, and a high Opinion of their own Performances (though never so many and great) as if they did deserve some Reward from God for 'em; and shews, That they must still continue in a way of Service and Duty to their Lifes end; and, after all, to think meanly of themselves. ¶ [17] A Bond-slave, who owes his Lord all he can do.

[13] Acts 1. 6. 2 Thess. 2. 2, 3. That as soon as he came to Jerusalem, he'd take upon him Regal Authority, and render himself Glorious by some external Pomp and Splendour.

12 He said therefore, [14] A certain noble man went into a [15] far countrey, to receive for himself a kingdom, and [16] to return.

[14] Matt. 25. 14. The scope of the Parable is to shew, That afore Christ enters upon his Kingdom, and exercises his Kingly Authority, in the punishing of his Enemies, and rewarding his faithful Servants, he must suffer Death, and rise again, and ascend into Heaven, to be installed in his Kingdom, and afterwards to return: and in the mean while, all they upon whom he has bestowed any Gifts, must diligently employ 'em for the gaining of others to his Service, for which they shall be proportionably rewarded. ¶ [15] Gh. 20. 9. Acts 1. 11. ¶ [16] Heb. 9. 28.

18 And the ſecond came, ſaying, Lord, thy pound hath gained [23] five pounds.

19 And he ſaid likewiſe to him, Be thou alſo over five cities.

20 And another came, ſaying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound which I have kept laid up in a [24] napkin:

21 For I feared thee, becauſe thou art an [25] auſtere man: thou takeſt up that thou layedſt not down, and reapeſt that thou didſt not ſow.

[25] This notes the perverſe diſpoſition of thoſe idle Drones, that rather than confeſs themſelves in a Fault, will accuſe God, as if he were ſo ſtrict that they deſpaired of pleaſing him, and ſo never attempted it.

22 And he ſaith unto him, [26] Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked ſervant. Thou kneweſt that I was an auſtere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not ſow.

23 Wherefore then gaveſt not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with [27] uſury?

[27] (For he might well think, that God would much more reap where he did ſow, and expect Increaſe where he had beſtowed Gifts.)

24 And he ſaid unto them that ſtood by, [28] Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they ſaid unto him, Lord, [29] he hath ten pounds.)

CHAP. XX.

1 Christ avoucheth his authority by a question of John's baptism. 9 The parable of the vineyard. 19 Tribute to Cesar.

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the Gospel, the [1] chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the [2] elders.

[1-2] See on Matt. 21. 23.

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, [3] By what authority doest thou [4] these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered, and said unto them, I will also [5] ask you one thing, and answer me:

4 [6] The baptism of John, was it from heaven or [7] of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, from heaven; he will say, Why then [8] believed ye him not?

[3] Acts 4. 7. & 7. 27. ¶ [4-8] See on Matt. 21. 23, &c. n. 40–44.

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people [9] will stone us: for they be perswaded that John was a prophet.

[9] Matt. 14. 5.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, [10] Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

[10] See on Matt. 21. 27.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: [11] A certain man [12] planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and [13] went into [14] a far countrey for a long time.

[11] See on Matt. 21. 33. ¶ [12] Psal. 80. 8. Isa. 5. 1. Jer. 2. 21. 1 Cor. 3. 6–9. ¶ [13] See on Matt. 21. 33. n. 64. ¶ [14] Ch. 19. 12. Acts 1. 11.

10 And at the [15] season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

[15] See on Matt. 21. 34.

11 And again he sent [16] another servant; and they [17] beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

[16] Isa. 30. 9. ¶ [17] Matt. 23. 37. 2 Chron. 36. 16. Acts 7. 59. & 14. 19.

12 And again he sent the [18] third; and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

[18] Hos. 6. 4, 5.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will [19] reverence him when they see him.

[19] Psal. 2. 12.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: [20] come, let us kill him, [21] that the inheritance may be ours.

[20] Gen. 37. 18. Matt. 26. 3, 4. John 11. 53. ¶ [21] That we may dispose of all things according to our own pleasure, and there may be none to controll us in what we do.

15 So they [22] cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the Lord of the vineyard do unto them?

[22] Heb. 13. 12.

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall [23] give the vineyard to others: And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

[23] Rom. 11. 19, 20. Matt. 8. 11.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, [24] The stone which the [25] builders rejected, the same is become the [26] head of the corner?

[24-26] See on Matt. 21. 42. n. 72, 73, 74.

18 Whosoever shall [27] fall upon that stone, [28] shall be broken: but * [29] on whomsoever it shall fall, it will [30] grind him to powder.

[27-30] See on Matt. 21. 44. * Dan. 2. 34, 35.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour [31] sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable [32] against them.

20 * And they [33] watched him and sent forth [34] spies, which should [35] feign themselves [36] just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governour.

* Matt. 22. 15.

21 And they asked him, saying, * Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest [37] rightly, neither accepteth thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God ‖ truly.

* Matt. 22. 16. Mark 12. 15.

‖ Or, of a truth.

[37] According to what thou thinkest.

22 Is it [38] lawfull for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

[38-44] See on Matt. 22. 17–21.

23 But he perceived their [39] craftiness, and said unto them, Why [40] tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a * peny: whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

* See on Matt. 18. 28.

25 And he said unto them, [41] Render [42] therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesars, and [43] unto God the [44] things which be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and [45] held their peace.

[41] 1 Sam. 2. 9. Tit. 1. 11.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees * (which [46] deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

* Acts 23. 6, 8. [46-49] See on Matt. 22, 23, &c.

28 [47] Saying, Master, * [48] Moses wrote unto us, if any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

* Deut. 25. 5.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also. And they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore [49] in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering, said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted [50] worthy to obtain [51] that world, and [52] the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

[50] 2 Thess. 1. 5. ¶ [51] Heb. 2.–5. ¶ [52] The Happiness of that State.

36 Neither can they [53] die any more; for they are [54] equal unto the angels, and are the [55] children of God, being [56] the children of the resurrection.

[53] 1 Cor. 15. 54. Rev. 21. 4. ¶ [54] Immortal, and so have no more need of Meat, Drink, Marriage, &c. for the preservation of their Persons or Kind, than the Angels have. ¶ [55] 1 John 3. 2. 37 Now that the dead are [57] raised, * even [58] Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord, [59] the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

* Exod. 3. 6.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And

Chap. 21.

40 And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

4035. 41 And he [63] said unto them, * How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of psalms, * [64] The LORD [65] said unto [66] my Lord, [67] Sit thou on my right hand, 43 [68] Till I make thine enemies thy foot-stool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then in the [69] audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 * [70] Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in [71] long robes, and * love [72] greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the [73] chief rooms at feasts;

47 * Which [74] devour [75] widows houses, and for a [76] shew make [77] long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

1 The poor Widow is commended. 5 The destruction of the temple and city is foretold.

4036. AND he looked up, and [1] saw the rich men casting their gifts into the [2] treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow, casting in thither [3] two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in [4] more then they all.

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her [5] penury hath cast in [6] all the living that she had.

5 ¶ * And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with [7] goodly stones, and [8] gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall [9] not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but [10] when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass.

8 And he said, * [11] Take heed that ye be not deceived: for [12] many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; ‖ and the [13] time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them,

9 But when ye shall hear of [14] wars, and commotions, be not [15] terrified: for these things must first come to pass, but [16] the end is not by and by.

10 * Then said he unto them, [17] Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences, and fearfull sights, and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 * But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you [18] up to the synagogues, and into prisons, * being brought before kings and rulers for my names sake.

13 * And it shall turn to you for [19] a testimony.

14 [20] Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate before, what ye shall answer.

15 For I will give you a [21] mouth and wisedom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay, nor [22] resist.

16 * And ye shall be [23] betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and *friends, and [24] some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be [25] hated of all men for my names sake.

18 * But [26] there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 [27] In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 * And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the [28] desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea flee to the [29] mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it, [30] depart out; and let not them that are in the countreys, enter thereinto.

22 For these be the [31] days of vengeance, that * all things which are [32] written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days: for there shall be [33] great distress in the land, and [33] wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, untill the [34] times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ * And there shall be [35] signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, [36] the sea and the waves roaring;

26 [37] Mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the [38] powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then [39] shall they see the Son of man [40] coming in a cloud, with power and [41] great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your [42] redemption draweth nigh.

29 * And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves, that summer is now nigh at hand.

44 And it was about the [47] sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the ‖ [48] earth until the ninth hour.

Chap. 24. 4036.

45 And the sun was [49] darkned, and * the [50] vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

[49] As it is in an Eclipse. ¶ [50] Eph. 2. 14.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I [51] commend my spirit: * and having said thus, he gave up the Ghost.

[51] Psal. 31. 5. Acts 7. 59. I commit it to the care and custody of thy Power, Providence, and Goodness.

47 * Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, [52] smote their breasts, and returned.

[52] Here Christ's Prayer for 'em (v. 34.) begins to take effect, and they begin to relent.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ * And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counseller, and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had [53] not consented to the counsel and deed of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: * (who also himself [54] waited for the kingdom of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein [55] never man before was laid.

[55] That none might pretend, That it was some other Body that rose, and not he; or, That he was raised by vertue of some other buried there afore him; as 2 Kings 13. 21.

54 And that day was * † the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

† Viz. For the Sabbath Mark 15. 42.

55 And the [56] women also which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared [57] spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath-day, * according to the commandment.

[57] To embalm him more exactly (out of their singular Love to him,) than Joseph and Nicodemus could now do for want of time, the Sabbath being so nigh.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Christ's resurrection declared to the women. 9 They report it to others. 13 And Christ himself appeareth. 51 He ascendeth.

NOW * upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain [1] others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entred in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold [2] two men stood by them in shining garments.

[2] Mark mentions but one within the Sepulchre (ch. 16. 5.) and Matthew one that sate without the Sepulchre, upon the Stone (ch. 28. 2.) but perhaps he was now removed into the Sepulchre, and so there were two.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, [3] they said unto them, Why seek ye ‖ the [4] living among the dead?

[3] One spake (Matt. 28. 5. Mark 16. 6.) in the name of both. ¶ [4] Rev. 1. 18.

Chap. 24. 4036.

6 He is not here, but is risen: [5] remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of [6] sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they [7] remembered his words,

9 * And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and unto all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and * Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other [8] women that were with them, which told these things unto the Apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as [9] idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 * Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre, and stooping down, he beheld the linen [10] clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ * And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they [11] talked together of all these things which had hapned.

15 And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself [12] drew near and went with them.

16 But * their eyes were [13] holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was [14] a prophet [15] mighty in deed and word [16] before God, and all the [17] people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he, which should have [18] redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and * certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then said he unto them, [19] O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken.

26 * [20] Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at [21] Moses, and * all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and * he [22] made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they [23] constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he [24] took bread and [25] blessed it, and brake and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were [26] opened, and they knew him: and he ‖ [27] vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, [28] Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the [29] eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 [30] Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to [31] Simon.

35 And [32] they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ * And [33] as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, [34] Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen [35] a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, [36] Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I my self: * [37] handle me, and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondred, he said unto them, * Have ye here any meat?

42 And thy gave him a piece of a broiled fish and of an honey-comb.

43 And he took it, and [38] did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, * [39] These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was [40] yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written [21] in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms concerning me.

45 Then [41] opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

St. JOHN.

The ARGUMENT.

JOhn was the Son of Zebedee, (Matt. 4. 21.) By Profession a Fisher-man; from which he was first called to be a Disciple, (ibid.) and afterwards chosen to be an Apostle, (Matt. 10. 3.) and with his Brother James sirnamed Boanerges, (Mark 3. 17.) He was singularly beloved by Christ, (ch. 13. 23. & 21. 20.) and thereupon admitted to be an eye-witness of some of his privacies, (Luke 8. 51. Matt. 17. 1. & 26. 37.) and was intrusted with the particular care of his Mother.

He begins his Gospel with a Declaration of Christ's God-head, and insists more upon the proof of that than any other of the Evangelists. Most things related by him are singular, not mentioned by others: as, several Disputes between him and the Pharisees about his God-head: his last Sermons to his Disciples: his Mediatory Prayer, &c.

He wrote also three Epistles and the Revelation.

It's said that he lived longest of all the Apostles, and that towards his latter end he wrote this Gospel, and died in the 102*d. year after Christ's Birth, being ninety years old.*

Chap. 1. 4033.

18 [52] No man hath [53] seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is [54] in the bosom of the Father, he hath [55] declared him.

[52] Ch. 6. 46. Exod. 33. 20. Deut. 4.–12. Matt. 11.–27. 1 Tim. 1. 17. & 6. 16. 1 John 2. 5. & 3. 24. & 4. 12. ¶ [53] Known the Mind of God, (as the next words shew) nor seen him, viz. (1.) In his own Nature; (2.) With Bodily Eyes; (3.) Fully, as Christ does; and therefore knows nothing of him to any purpose, without Christ. ¶ [54] i. e. (1.) Is one with him; (2.) Intirely beloved by him; (3.) Intimately acquainted with all his Counsels and Will. ¶ [55] Matt. 11. 27. Fully reveal'd so much of his mind as is necessary to Salvation.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews [56] sent Priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou?

[56] Ch. 5. 33.

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but [57] confessed, I am not the Christ.

[57] Ch. 3.–28. Acts 13. 25.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou ‖ [58] that prophet? and he answered, No.

‖ Or, a prophet.

[58] Deut. 18. 15. A singular Prophet that they look'd for in the time of the Messia, besides the Messia himself.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us: What sayest thou of thy self?

23 He said, I am [59] the voice of one crying in the [60] wilderness, [61] Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

[59] Isa. 40. 3. Matt. 3. 3. i. e. He that was prophesied of by Isaiah in those words. ¶ [60] See on Luke 3. 2. n. 4. ¶ [61] See on Matt. 3. 3. n. 10.

24 And they which were sent were of the [62] Pharisees.

[62] Who more concern'd themselves about Ceremonies, than others.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, [63] Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that Prophet?

[63] Ver. 33. Matt. 21. 23. i. e. What Authority then hast thou for receiving Disciples, and instituting this new Ceremony?

26 John answered them, saying, [64] I baptize with water: but there [65] standeth one among you, whom ye [66] know not;

[64] Matt. 3. 11. Acts 1. 5. & 11. 16. & 19. 3. q. d. Though I use this Ceremony, yet I can only administer the outward Element. ¶ [65] Is entred upon his publick Employment, (by whose Authority I do this, and who only can make it effectual for any Spiritual purpose.) ¶ [66] V. 10. 1 Cor. 2. 4. viz. In his Dignity, Quality, and Authority; (and therefore you own him not for the Messia.)

* Ver. 15, 30. Acts 19. 4

27 * He it is who [42] coming after me, is [43] preferred before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus [67] coming unto him, and saith, Behold [68] the Lamb [69] of God, which ‖ [70] taketh away [71] the sin of the [72] world.

‖ Or, beareth.

[67] To give him occasion to declare him particularly. ¶ [68] Ver. 36. Exod. 12. 3. Isa. 53. 7. 1 Pet. 1. 19. He who was typified by the Lamb in the Passover, and daily Sacrifices, and is to become a Sacrifice for Sin. ¶ [69] Appointed, set apart, and sent by God, for that purpose. ¶ [70] Heb. 9.–12, 14. 1 Pet. 2. 24. 1 John 1. 7. & 2. 2. & 3. 5. Takes off both the Guilt and Punishment of Sin from us, and takes it upon himself, and, by bearing the Punishment, makes Satisfaction for it, and, consequently, makes Reconciliation between God and us. ¶ [71] i. e. Both the Power and Pollution of Sin, by Sanctification; and also the Guilt and Punishment of Sin, by Justification, (on Condition of Faith and Repentance.) ¶ [72] Gentiles, as well as Jews.

* Ver. 15, 27.

30 * This is he of whom I said, [42] After me cometh a man, which is [43] preferred before me: for he [44] was before me.

31 And [73] I knew him not: but [74] that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

[73] Viz. By Face, or Personally, but only by Revelation: (and

(and therefore there was no jugling between us.) ¶ [74] q. d. The grand Design of my Coming, and gathering Disciples, is, That thereby I might have opportunity to declare him to be the Messia, and so to gain the Jews to own him, and believe in him.

[n-n] See on Matt. 3. 16. [*] Mark 1. 10. Luke 3. 22.

32 And John bare record, saying, [75] I saw * the Spirit descending from heaven like a [76] dove, and it [77] abode upon him.

33 And [73] I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the [78] holy Ghost.

[t] See on Matt. 3. 11. & 31.

34 And [79] I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

[79] q. d. And accordingly it came to pass: So that my Testimony of him, That he is the Son of God, is no more than I saw with my Eyes, and heard distinctly affirmed from Heaven, Matt. 3. 17.

35 ¶ Again the next day after, John stood and two of his [80] disciples.

[80] Matt. 11. 2. Acts 16.-14. Such as had embrac'd his Doctrine, and were more than common Hearers.

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, [81] Behold the [68] Lamb [69] of God.

[81] Ver. 29. q. d. Follow him and not me.

37 And the two disciples [82] heard him speak, and they [83] followed Jesus.

[82] Rom. 10. 17. ¶ [83] Matt. 4. 18. Isa. 55. 10, 11. Became his Disciples, so as to embrace him as the promis'd Messia, and to entertain some Familiarity with him, and thereby to gain some further Knowledge of him: (but not to be his constant Attendants.)

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, [84] What seek ye? They said unto him, [85] Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where ‖ [86] dwellest thou?

‖ Or, abidest.

[84] What would you have? ¶ [85] (Hereby they own him for their Teacher.) ¶ [86] Or, [abidest] viz. at present, (as minding to have some more familiar converse with him.)

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ‖ about the tenth hour.

‖ That is two hours before night.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was [87] Andrew Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother [87] Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, [88] the ‖ Christ.

‖ Or, anointed.

[87] Matt. 4. 18. ¶ [88] Psal. 2. 2. Dan. 9. 25. i. e. Anointed, viz. both King, Priest, and Prophet; (for such were anointed under the old Testament, to fore-shadow him.)

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, [89] Thou art Simon the Son of Jona: * thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, ‖ [90] a stone.

[*] Matt. 16. 18. ‖ Or, Peter.

[89] (Though he had never seen him afore, yet he calls him by his Name, that thereby Simon might know that he was some extraordinary Person.) ¶ [90] To note his Constancy and Firmness in the Truth, and Profession thereof, in variety of Times and Trials, notwithstanding his Slips that follow'd; and to fore-arm him against discouragement therefrom.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and [91] findeth Philip, and saith unto him, [92] Follow me.

44 Now * Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

[97] Rom. 2. 28, 29. A true Believer, and Child of Abraham, not only according to the Flesh, but Spirit; resembling his Father Jacob, or Israel, in Life and Manners. ¶ [98] Psal. 32. 2. No prevailing, allow'd Hypocrisie; but a Man of much simplicity and integrity of Heart: (and therefore what he spake of Nazareth, was not to reproach me, but in the simplicity of his Heart.)

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, [99] thou art the [1] son of God, thou art the [2] king of Israel.

51 And he saith unto him, [4] Verily verily I say unto you, [5] Hereafter you shall see heaven open, and the [6] angels of God ascending and descending upon the [7] Son of man.

[4] He doubles this Word, to note both the Truth spoken, and the Truth speaking it. q. d. This is Truth that I say, and I am the Truth that speak it. ¶ [5] q. d. From this time forward you shall perceive that I have such knowledge of things, as if the Heaven it self were open to me; and such power of Miracles, and doing Wonders, as if the Angels were continually going on Errands for me, and doing my Will. ¶ [6] Gen. 28. 12. And she puts him upon this, partly out of respect to himself, that so his Divine Power might be known; and partly for their sakes that made the Feast, which were her Friends, if not Kindred, and so she'd not have 'em discredited.

CHAP. III.

1 Chriſt teacheth Nicodemus the neceſſity of regeneration. 14 Of faith in Chriſt. 16 Gods great love to the world. 23 Johns baptiſm, witneſs, and doctrine concerning Chriſt.

THere was a man of the Phariſees named Nicodemus, [1] a ruler of the Jews:

[1] One of the Jewiſh Sanhedrim, or Great Council.

2 The ſame came to Jeſus [2] by night, and ſaid unto him, Rabbi, [3] we know that thou art a teacher [4] come from God: for no man can do theſe miracles that thou doeſt, except God be with him.

[2] Ch. 7. 50. & 19. 39. Either for fear of ſuſtaining ſome prejudice if he had owned him publickly; or becauſe he was aſham'd to be thought ignorant. ¶ [3] I, and the reſt of the Phariſees. ¶ [4] Ch. 9. 16, 33. Acts 10. 38. viz. In a ſpecial, extraordinary way.

3 Jeſus [5] anſwered and ſaid unto him, Verily verily I ſay unto thee, Except [6] a man be [7] born ‖ again, he cannot [8] ſee the kingdom of God.

[5] Nicodemus hearing Chriſt ſpeak ſo much of a Kingdom, poſſibly, might ask him, How to obtain it? or, Leſt he ſhould think his bare owning of Chriſt to be the Meſſia, and ſent of God, would be ſufficient for Salvation, without a new courſe of Life, Chriſt tells him expreſly, What is neceſſary thereto. ¶ [6] Every man. ¶ [7] Ch. 1. 13. Renewed by the power of God's Grace, both in Heart and Life. ¶ [8] Underſtand Goſpel-Myſteries, or partake of Goſpel-Priviledges.

4 Nicodemus ſaith unto him, How can a man be born when he is [9] old? can he enter the ſecond time into his mothers womb, and be born?

[9] After he is grown a Man.

5 Jeſus anſwered, Verily verily I ſay unto thee, Except a man be born [10] of water and of the ſpirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

[10] Tit. 3. 5. Renewed by the Power of the Holy Ghoſt, cleanſing like Water. (See on Matt. 3. 11. n. 32.) Or, He that will enter into the State of the Goſpel, muſt be Baptized; and he that will enter into a State of Grace, and be fitted for Glory, muſt be renewed.

6 [11] that which is born of the fleſh, is fleſh; and that which is [12] born of the Spirit, is ſpirit.

[11] i. e. Whatſoever we derive from our Parents by Natural Propagation, or is produced meerly by the Power of Nature, is corrupt. Gal. 5. 19. Rom. 8. 7. [16] q. d. As there are many things in Nature (particularly, the Wind) which are evident in their Effects, yet no man can give a clear and full Account of 'em. ¶ [17] Without any reſtraint, by the Power of Man. ¶ [18] Perceiveſt by the Effects thereof, that there is ſuch a thing, and that it does blow. ¶ [19] Mans reaſon cannot reach to know from whence it riſes, or from how far it comes, or how far it reaches. ¶ [20] Eccl. 11. 5. Matt. 20. 15. 1 Cor. 2. 11. i. e. So is this Spiritual Change wrought; Freely, Where, In whom, When, and In what meaſure the Spirit pleaſes; and alſo Powerfully, to make an evident, ſenſible Change, (though the manner thereof be incomprehenſible.)

[21] Ver. 4. Ch. 6. 52, 60. (Thus Carnal Men advance their Reaſon againſt Divine Revelation.)

10 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto him, Art thou a Maſter of Iſrael and knoweſt not theſe things?

Such things as are wrought in Men on Earth, as Regeneration; or, Spiritual things made plain by familiar Compariſons; or, thoſe Spiritual things which are moſt eaſie to be underſtood. ¶ [27] Higher, and more ſublime Myſteries; as about the Eternal Generation of the Son of God, Proceſſion of the Holy Ghoſt, Incarnation of Chriſt, Glory of Heaven: or, the great things of Salvation, in a Style ſuitable to their own Nature.

Prov. 30. 4. 13 [28] And * no man hath aſcended up to Heaven, [29] but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is [30] in heaven.

But I my ſelf, who being God, am yet come to reveal the Will of God, and declare the Myſteries of Salvation: (and therefore you muſt believe me, or you can never attain to the knowledge of theſe things.) ¶ [30] viz. In reſpect of my Divine Nature.

14 ¶ And as Moſes [31] lifted up the ſerpent in the wilderneſs, even ſo muſt the Son of man be [32] lifted up:

16 [20] Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband; and come hither.

[20] Since Offers of Free Grace, and the Commendation of it, prevail so little, he next discovers her Misery to her, and something of his Omniscience, whereby she is at length by degrees brought to know him.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

[27] The time is approaching, when all distinction of places shall be taken away, and both these ways of Worship shall give place to a better. ¶ [29] 1 Tim. 2. 8.

22 [30] Ye worship, * [31] ye know not what: [32] we know what we worship; for [33] salvation is of the Jews.

[30] Here he answers directly, and condemns their way of Worship. ¶ [31] Your Worship is false, and without Warrant. ¶ [32] We Jews Worship the true God, who has reveal'd himself, and his true way of Worship, to us. ¶ [33] Isa. 2. 3. Rom. 9. 4, 5. The Jews only enjoy all the Means of Salvation.

23 But the hour cometh, and [34] now is, when the [35] true worshippers shall worship the Father [36] in spirit and in [37] truth: for the Father [38] seeketh such to worship him.

[34] (Because he was now beginning this Reformation by his Ministry.) ¶ [35] Such as God will own and accept. ¶ [36] (1.) With all the Affections of the Soul: (2.) And in a more spiritual manner than formerly: (3.) And stripp'd of those Ceremonies wherewith it was attended. ¶ [37] In the way of his own prescribing, without Legal Rites, (which are but Shadows.) [Spirit] chiefly respects the Inward, [Truth] the Outward part of Worship. God will neither accept Worship in a True way, performed Hypocritically; nor in a false one, performed never so Devoutly: It must be right both for Matter and Manner. ¶ [38] Viz. By sending his Son to draw men off from other Ways to this.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet [46] no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

[46] We must not quarrel with Christ's Dispensations.

28 The woman then [47] left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

[47] One that has tasted of Christ's Excellency, little regards other things, (see n. 16.) though before of great esteem.

34 Jesus saith unto them, [52] My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to [54] finish his work.

36 And he that [57] reapeth receiveth [58] wages, and [59] gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both [60] he that soweth, and [61] he that reapeth may rejoyce together.

[57] By Preaching the Gospel brings People to Christ. ¶ [58] Matt. 10. 10. ¶ [59] Thereby advantages himself eternally. ¶ [60] The Prophets (who have sowed the Seeds of Instruction among the People formerly, and taught 'em the Principles of Saving Truth.) ¶ [61] Heb. 11. 40. 37 And herein is that saying true, [62] One soweth, and [63] another reapeth.

[62] The Prophets have taken much pains in teaching the Doctrine of Salvation, and foretelling the coming of the Messia, thereby to prepare Mens Hearts to receive him when he came; but with little success. ¶ [63] You, my Disciples, shall bring in People to me with ease, (comparatively.)

38 I sent you to [64] reap that whereon ye bestowed [65] no labour: [66] other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him, [68] for the saying of the woman, which testified, [69] He told me all that ever I did.

[68] Weak Instruments may be blessed richly, when they employ themselves for Christ. ¶ [69] A little spoken from Experience may be more persuasive, than much spoken onely from a Notional Knowledge, or Hear-say.

40 So when the Samaritanes were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there [70] two days.

[70] No more, (because, Matt. 15. 24.) yet so long, to shew, that the Gospel was not the Jews Peculiar.

41 And many more believed; because of his own word:

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for * we have heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour [71] of the world.

* Chap. 17. 8.

[71] (And not of the Jews only.)

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went [72] into Galilee:

[72] Into some other Parts of Galilee, (whither he was going, v. 3.) having left Nazareth, Matt. 4. 13.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans [76] received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

[76] Made him welcome, and admitted him as their Teacher.

46 So Jesus came again into * Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain ‖ noble man, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

* Chap. 2. 1, 11. ‖ Or, courtier, or, ruler.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, [77] Except ye see [78] signs and [79] wonders, ye will not believe.

Chap. 5. 4034.

[77] He thought Christ only a Prophet, that could cure his Son, if present with him; therefore to convince him, and the rest of the Jews present, that he was more than a Man, even the true Messiah, he heals him, though absent. ¶ [78] [79] 1 Cor. 1. 22. See on Acts 2. 22.

49 The noble man saith unto him, Sir, [80] come down ere my child die.

[80] We are apt to limit Christ, both for Time and Place.

50 Jesus saith unto him, [81] Go thy way; thy Son [82] liveth. And the man [83] believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

[81] Christ does better for us than we desire, or can devise. ¶ [82] Is recovered, and freed from dying at this time. ¶ [83] Ch. 11. 25. Acts 14. 9.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants [84] Psal. 71. 20. met him, and told him, saying, [84] Thy son liveth.

52 Then [85] enquired he of them the hour, when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

[85] It's good to observe the Circumstances of God's Dealings with us.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and himself [86] believed, and his [87] whole house.

[86] He had some good thoughts of Christ afore, but now he owns him for the Messia. ¶ [87] The Example of Superiours has a great Influence upon Inferiours.

[88] Viz. In Cana. 54 This is again the [88] second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

[7] Deut. 32. 36. Psal. 72.-12. 7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, [7] I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, [8] take up thy bed, and walk.

[8] Matt. 9.-6. Mark 2. 11. Luke 5. 24. He enjoyns this, in reference, (1.) To the Man, to try his Faith and Obedience: (2. To others, to demonstrate evidently to them the Perfection of the Cure: (3.) to the Day, to shew his Authority over the Sabbath. (And this was the first apparent Sign towards its alteration.)

[9] Ch. 9. 7. 9 And immediately the man [9] was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

* Exod. 20. 10. Mark 2. 24. Luke 6. 2. [10] Neh. 13.-19. Jer. 17. 21. Matt. 12. 2. 10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, * It is the sabbath-day; [10] it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

Chap. 5. 4034.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed and walk.

12 Then asked they him, [11] What man is that which said unto thee, take up thy bed and walk?

[11] They seem to speak in a threatning way, as if they had said, Let's know who it is that durst presume to do so, and we'll make him smart for it.

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, ‖ a multitude being in that place.

‖ Or, from the multitude that was.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in [12] the temple, and said unto him, Behold, Thou art made whole: [13] sin no more, lest [14] a worse thing come unto thee.

[12] Viz. To offer the First-fruits of his health to God, by way of Gratitude. ¶ [13] Ch. 8.-11. Ezra 9. 13, 14. 1 Pet. 4. 3. Watch against Sin for the future; (implying, That he had been a great Sinner formerly, and that this Disease was inflicted upon him for his Sin.) ¶ [14] Lev. 26. 21. Matt. 12. 45.

15 The man departed, and [15] told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

[15] Thereby to publish his Power, and declare him to be a Divine Person, and so to recommend him to their Respect, and invite 'em to make use of him.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, * [16] My Father worketh hitherto, and [17] I work. * Chap. 14. 10.

[16] q. d. Though God rested from the Work of Creation on the Sabbath, (and alledged it as an Argument for you to rest on that day) yet there are other Works he still (even on the Sabbath) continues to do, yet no man charges him with the Breach of the Sabbath; and therefore I, who am his Son, may do such things too, without blame. ¶ [17] Viz. The same Works together with him, (being undivided from him both in Essence and Working) in the Preservation and Government of the World, and that even on the Sabbath; and therefore should no more be blamed, either for working this Cure, or commanding the Man to carry his Bed, than He.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to [18] kill him, because he not only had [19] broken the sabbath, but said also, that God was his [20] Father, * making himself [21] equal with God. * Chap. 10. 33.

[18] Ver. 18. Ch. 7.-19. & 8. 37. & 10. 32. ¶ [19] Viz. in their account. ¶ [20] Viz. In such a peculiar manner, as made him equal with God. [21] Phil. 2.-6.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily verily I say unto you, [22] The Son can do nothing [23] of himself, but [24] what he seeth the Father do: For what thing soever he doth, these also doth the [25] Son likewise.

[22] Here he proves his Conjunction and Equality with the Father, by shewing, that the Father and the Son are undivided in their Working, one not working without the other, but the Father working by the Son, and the Son from the Father. ¶ [23] Ver. 30. Divided from the Father: or, without his Concurrence, Consent, and Co-operation; there being, as the same Essence, so the same Will, in the Father and himself. ¶ [24] Ch. 8. 38. (These Words point out that unspeakable Communication whereby the Father communicates to the Son his Nature, Will, Wisdom, and Power. ¶ [25] Ch. 1. 3. i. e. The Father does 'em By the Son; (and so the Son works the same Works with the Father, and from him.)

20 [26] For the Father [27] loveth the son, and [28] sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he [29] will shew him greater works than these, that ye may [31] marvel.

[26] q. d. And it must needs be so, that as the Son can do nothing without the Father, so the Father will do nothing without the Son, because of his special Love to him. ¶ [27] Ch. 3. 35. Prov. 8. 30. ¶ [28] Communicates to him, by a Divine and Ineffable Communication, his Purpose and Power to work, Ch. 3. 35. Matt. 11.-27. ¶ [29] Will work with him, and enable him to do such Works which will be more ample and evident Proofs of this Equality, than any you have seen yet. ¶ [31] Be convinced so far, as to be put to silence, (though not converted.)

[31] Here he shews what those [greater works] are, which are so many Instances and Proofs of his Equality with the Father; as, Quickning the Dead, (v. 21.) Judging the World, (v. 22.) Being the Object of Divine Honour, (v. 23.) Giving Eternal Life, (v. 24.) Quickning dead Souls, (v. 25.) Having a Fountain of Life, (v. 26.) Raising the Dead at the last Day, v. 28, 29. CHAP. VIII.

4 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery. 12 He preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine.

JEsus went unto the mount of Olives:

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the Scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the mids,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now [1] Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest [2] thou?

[1] Lev. 20. 10. Deut. 22. 21, 22. ¶ [2] (Who tak'st upon thee to interpret the Law otherwise than we do.)

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to [3] accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground as though he heard them not.

[3] Viz. Of contradicting the Law, if he acquitted her, (as they supposed he would, according to his wonted Clemency.)

7 So when they [4] continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them, * [5] He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And

Chap. 8. 4036.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, [6] went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and [7] sin no more.

[6] (Herein he performs the Office of a Minister, (declining that of a Magistrate) in calling her to Repentance and Reformation.)

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the [8] light of [9] the world: he that [10] followeth me, shall not [11] walk in darkness, but shall have the [12] light of life.

[8] Ch. 1. 4, 5, 9. & 9. 5. & 12. 35, 46. To enlighten the Mind, cause Men to know themselves, discover and scatter Works of Darkness, remove Wrath and Misery, and cheer up and warm the Hearts of my People with Comfort. ¶ [9] All Nations, as well as the Jews. ¶ [10] Obeys my Commands, and follows my Directions. ¶ [11] Ch. 12. 35. Not continue in destructive Errour and Ignorance. ¶ [12] That Light which shall lead him to Eternal Life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [13] Thou beares record of thy self; thy record is not [14] true.

[13] Ch. 5. 31. ¶ [14] Legal, and valid in Law.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of my self, yet my record is [15] true: [16] for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but * ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

[15] Rev. 1. 5. viz. In it self, (though not valid in Law.) See on Ch. 5. 31. ¶ [16] q. d. Being conscious to my self Who, and What I am, I know my Testimony is unexceptionable in it self.

16 And yet if [19] I judge, my judgment is [20] true: for * I am not alone, but I and the [21] Father that sent me.

[19] Should take upon me to censure you as obstinate Unbelievers. ¶ [20] Valid in Law. ¶ [21] (Who has so many ways given Testimony to me, and required all to believe in me.)

18 [24] I am one that bear witness of my self, and * the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

[24] I, as God, bear witness of my self as Man, and Mediator.

19 Then said they unto him, [25] Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, * Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known [26] me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in * the treasury as he taught in the temple: and [27] no man laid hands on him, for * [28] his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, [29] I go my way, and ye shall [30] seek me, and shall [31] die in your sins: whither I go, ye [32] cannot come.

Chap. 8. 4036.

22 Then said the Jews, will he [33] kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

[33] (In stead of trembling at his Threatnings, they deride 'em.)

who did ſin, [1] this man or his parents, that he was born blind?

[1] Luke 13. 2. Acts 28. 4. q. d. Was it for his own (Original) Sin, or for his Parents Sins?

*Chap. 1. 5, 9. & 12. 35, 45.

[7] Whiles I am with you, I ſhall ſecure you from theſe Judgments, and the day of Grace will be continued to you; and it's my Buſineſs to cure Men of their Spiritual Blindneſs; and as a Sign thereof, I'll cure this Man now of his Bodily Blindneſs. ¶ [8] [9] See on Ch. 8. 12.

6 When he had thus ſpoken, * he ſpat on the ground, and made clay of the ſpittle, and he ‖ [10] anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had ſeen him that he was blind, ſaid, Is not this he that ſat and begged?

9 Some ſaid, This is he: others ſaid, He is like him: but he ſaid, I am he.

10 Therefore ſaid they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He anſwered and ſaid, A man that is called Jeſus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and ſaid unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and waſh: and I went and waſhed, and I received ſight.

12 Then ſaid they unto him, where is he? He ſaid, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phariſees him that afore-time was blind.

14 And it was the [13] ſabbath-day when Jeſus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

*Ch. 5. 9. Gal. 2. 5.

18 But the [16] Jews did [17] not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his ſight, until they called the parents of him that had received his ſight.

[16] The Phariſees, or great Council, (who, it ſeems, appropriated this Title to themſelves, as appears by v. 22.) ¶ [17] Pretended ſo, at leaſt.

Chap. 9. 4036.

19 And they asked them, ſaying, Is this your ſon, who ye ſay was born blind? how then doth he now ſee?

20 His parents anſwered them, and ſaid, We know that this is our ſon, and that he was born blind.

21 But by what means he now ſeeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age, ask him, he ſhall ſpeak for himſelf.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

CHAP. X.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. 24 He proveth by his works that he is Christ. 39 He escapeth the Jews.

1 VErily verily I say unto you, He that entreth not by the [2] door into the sheepfold, but [3] climbeth up some other way, the same is a [4] thief and a robber.

[1] Christ having upbraided the Pharisees for their Blindness, ch. 9. 41. (though they thought themselves the only Guides und Teachers of the People,) in this Parable points out himself as the true Shepherd of the Sheep, and consequently, that he was the true Messia, promis'd under that Name, (Ezek. 34. 23.) and, on the contrary, shews, Who were not true Shepherds. Here, the Sheepfold is the Church; the Door, Porter, and Chief Shepherd, is Christ; they that come in through him, are Teachers sent by him, who get entrance into Mens Hearts, and true Believers, whom he admits into his Church: Thieves are Intruders, and false Teachers; the Sheep are true Believers; the Food is the Word of God, and all the Benefits of his Grace. ¶ [2] ver. 7. ch. 14. 6. That way that I have appointed: or, Own not a dependence on me, as the Chief Shepherd. (He aims here at the present Teachers of the Jewish Church.) ¶ [3] Jer. 23. 21. ¶ [4] Is to be look'd upon as a Destroyer of Mens Souls, v. 10.

2 But he that entreth in by the door, is the [5] shepherd of the sheep.

[5] Acts 20. 28. A lawfull, approved Pastor.

3 To him the [6] porter openeth; and the sheep [7] hear his voice: and he [8] calleth his own sheep by name, and [9] leadeth them out.

[6] Christ, by his Spirit, blesses his Ministry, and gives it admission into the Hearts of his People. ¶ [7] Obey and follow him, and depend upon his Ministry. ¶ [8] Exod. 33. 12, 17. Phil. 4.-3. 2 Tim. 2. 19. Has a particular Care of every one of his Flock. ¶ [9] Guides and governs 'em.

5 And [12] a stranger will they [13] not follow, but will flee from him: for they [14] know not the voice of strangers.

[12] Gal. 1. 8. A Teacher not thus qualified. ¶ [13] Not be drawn from God by him. ¶ [14] Approve not his Doctrine, (which commonly differs from the word.)

[51] Ch. 7. 20. & 8. 48. Matt. 9. 34. ¶ [53] Talks Nonsense.

[55] Instituted in remembrance of the Repairing the Temple and the Altar, 1 Macc. 4. 59. ¶ [56] About the middle of December.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple * in [57] Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and ‖ Or, bold us in suspense. said unto him, How long dost thou ‖ make us to [58] doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us [59] plainly.

[58] Viz. By thy obscure Expressions. ¶ [59] Not that they desir'd to know the Truth, but to ensnare and accuse him, as affecting a Kingdom, if he should declare himself to be the Messia.

25 Jesus answered them, [60] I told you, and ye believed not: * the works that I do [61] in my Father's name, they [62] bear witness of me.

[60] Viz. As much, in effect, as this comes to, ch. 6. 51, 53, 54. & ch. 8. 12, 24, 58. ¶ [61] By his Commission, Authority, and Power. ¶ [62] Speak sufficiently who I am.

26 But * ye believe not, [63] because ye are not [64] of my sheep, [65] as I said unto you.

[63] q. d. 'Tis not from the obscurity of my Doctrine without you, but from the obstinacy of your own Hearts within you. See on ch. 6. 44, 65. ¶ [64] Acts 13.-48. Of those who are Elected, and given me by God to Redeem and actually made mine by Conversion. ¶ [65] Such as I have formerly describ'd to you.

27 My sheep [7] hear my voice, and I [37] know them, and they [66] follow me.

[66] Matt. 16.-24. Imitate my Example.

28 And I give unto them eternal life, and * they shall [67] never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

[69] 1 John 5.-7. Have one and the same Mind, Will, and Power to save you, as well as the same Essence.

31 Then the Jews took up stones [70] again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you [71] from my Father: [72] for which of those works do ye stone me?

[71] As a Testimony of my Commission from him. ¶ [72] Psal. 109. 4. Eccl. 4. 4.

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for [73] blasphemy; and because that thou being a man, * makest thy self God.

34 Jesus answered them, * Is it not written in [74] your law, I said, [75] Ye are [76] Gods?

[77] Who were authorized by his Commission and Appointment, to represent Him in the World, and do bear some Stamp of his Authority and Dominion. ¶ [78] Lose its Power and Truth.

Chap. 11. 4036.

36 [79] Say ye of him, whom the Father hath [80] sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; * because I said, I am * the Son of God?

[79] q. d. If the Title of [Gods] be given to those to whom God has communicated some part of his Dominion, then surely it does much more properly and truly belong to me, whom God has appointed to rule over all, with Himself. ¶ [80] Ch. 6.-27. Separated and ordained for Mediator, King, and Head of his Church; which Office cannot be assumed or executed by any meer Creature, but onely by the Eternal Son of God.

37 * If I do not the works [81] of my Father, believe me not.

[81] Which he has appointed me to do, and which are peculiar to God, and flow from that Power which I have in common with the Father.

38 But if I do, though ye [82] believe not me, * [83] believe the works: [84] that ye may know and believe that the Father is [86] in me, and I [86] in him.

[82] Think me not as yet a Person worthy of Credit. ¶ [83] Own me for such a one as my Works declare me to be. ¶ [84] That you may have Arguments and Grounds, not only which are sufficient to persuade and convince you of my Divinity, but by which you may also be actually persuaded of the Truth and Certainty hereof, so as firmly to believe it. ¶ [86] Ch. 14. 10, 11. & 17. 21. That the Divine Essence is the same in us both, (v. 30.) though there be a Distinction of Persons between us.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he [87] escaped out of their hand.

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where John [88] at first baptized: and there he abode.

[88] Ch. 1. 28. To see what Fruits his Ministry had left behind him, and thereby to put 'em in mind of those clear Testimonies which John then gave of him.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did [89] no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man, were true.

[89] Probably God in his Infinite wisdom thought fit so to order it, as to reserve the Glory of Miracles wholly to Christ, that the Evidence of his being the Messia might be made more clear by the Miracles which he wrought, that so the Minds of People might not be distracted between John and Christ, and that there might be no Pretence of Competition between 'em.

42 And many believed on him there.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus four days buried. 45 Many Jews believe. 47 The high Priests and Pharisees gather a counsel against him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of Bethany, the town of * Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (* It was that Mary which [1] anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou [2] lovest, is sick.

[2] Ch. 13. 23. Psal. 16. 3. Heb. 13. 6. Hast a particular Kindness and Affection for, (he being a singularly good Man.)

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto [3] death, * but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be [4] glorified thereby.

8 His diſciples ſay unto him, Maſter, the Jews of late ſought to [7] ſtone thee; and [8] goeſt thou thither again?

9 Jeſus anſwered, [9] Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man [10] walk in the day, he ſtumbleth not, becauſe he ſeeth the light of this world.

[9] q. d. There's a certain time appointed by God for the Exerciſe of my Calling in, ch. 9. 4. ¶ [10] q. d. While I make uſe of that Seaſon for the diſpatch of the work incumbent on me, I ſhall be ſecure from danger.

10 But * if a man [11] walk in the night, [12] he ſtumbleth, becauſe [13] there is no light in him.

[11] Undertakes that which he has not a Call for, Pſal. 104. 22, 23. ¶ [12] Meets with many Inconveniences. ¶ [13] He wants that Guidance and Protection that otherwiſe he might expect.

11 Theſe things ſaid he: and after that, he ſaith unto them, [14] Our friend Lazarus * ſleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of ſleep.

12 Then ſaid his diſciples, Lord, if he [15] ſleep, he ſhall do well.

[15] q. d. Sleep being a Sign of Health, thou needeſt not go to heal him.

13 Howbeit Jeſus ſpake of his death; but they thought that he had ſpoken of taking of reſt in ſleep.

14 Then ſaid Jeſus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your ſakes, that I was not there: (to the intent ye [16] may believe) nevertheleſs, let us go unto him.

[16] V. 4. May have your Faith confirmed, (by the greater Evidence of my Divine Power.)

16 Then ſaid Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-diſciples, [17] Let us alſo go, that we may die with him.

[17] q. d. Since our Lord will needs go, and expoſe himſelf to inevitable danger, (v. 8.) let us not forſake him, though we die for it.

17 Then when Jeſus came, he found that he had lien in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jeruſalem, ‖ about fifteen furlongs off.)

‖ That is, about two miles.

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, aſſoon as ſhe heard that Jeſus was coming, went and met him: but Mary ſat ſtill in the houſe.

21 Then ſaid Martha unto Jeſus, Lord, [18] if thou hadſt been here, [19] my brother had not died.

[18] 2 Kings 5. 11. ¶ [19] q. d. I am confident thou wouldeſt have healed him.

22 But I know, that even now whatſoever thou wilt [20] ask of God, God will [21] give it thee.

[20] She did not underſtand that Chriſt could work Miracles by his own Power, as he was God; but only by Power obtained from God by Prayer. ¶ [21] Enable thee to do it.

23 Jeſus ſaith unto her, Thy brother ſhall riſe again.

24 Martha ſaith unto him, [22] I know that he ſhall riſe again in the reſurrection at the laſt day.

25 Jeſus ſaid unto her, I am [23] the reſurrection, and the [23] life: he that believeth in me, though he were [24] dead, yet [25] ſhall he live;

[23] 1 Cor. 15. 22. The Raiſer of the Dead, and the Giver of Eternal Life, (ch. 14. 6.) as appears by this, that [he that believes, &c.] ¶ [24] viz. Naturally, in Body. ¶ [25] I'll raiſe him to a Bodily Life again by my own Power; for [I am the Reſurrection.]

26 And whoſoever liveth, and [26] believeth in me, ſhall [27] never die. Believeſt thou this?

[26] Ch. 3. 36. (ſee there) and ſo is endued with Spiritual Life. ¶ [27] Ch. 8. 51, 52. & 10. 28. or [not die for ever;] but I'll continue his Spiritual Life, and give him Eternal Life: for [I am the Life.]

27 She ſaith unto him, Yea Lord, [28] I believe that thou art the [29] Chriſt the Son of God, which ſhould come into the world.

28 And when ſhe had ſo ſaid, ſhe went her way, and called Mary her ſiſter [30] ſecretly, ſaying, The Maſter is come and calleth for thee.

[30] Leſt the Jews there, knowing of it, might bring him into ſome trouble.

29 Aſſoon as ſhe heard that ſhe aroſe quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jeſus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the houſe, and comforted her, when they ſaw Mary that ſhe roſe up haſtily, and went out, and followed her, ſaying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jeſus was, and ſaw him, ſhe fell down at his feet, ſaying unto him, Lord, if thou hadſt been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jeſus therefore ſaw her weeping, and the Jews alſo weeping which came with her, he [31] groaned in the ſpirit, and † was troubled,

† Gr. he troubled himſelf.

[31] Out of indignation againſt Sin, that had drawn on Death, and all this Sorrow; and out of tender compaſſion to her, in this her Trouble and Affliction.

34 And ſaid, where have ye laid him? They ſay unto him, Lord, come and ſee.

35 * Jeſus wept.

* Luke 19. 41.

36 Then ſaid the Jews, Behold how he loved him.

37 And ſome of them ſaid, Could not this man, which [32] opened the eyes of the blind, have cauſed that even this man ſhould not have died?

[32] Ch. 9. 6.

38 Jeſus therefore again [33] groaning in himſelf, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a ſtone lay upon it.

[33] By way of earneſt Prayer, v. 41.

39 Jeſus ſaid, Take ye away the ſtone. Martha, the ſiſter of him that was dead, ſaith unto him, Lord, by this [34] time he ſtinketh: for he hath been dead four days, [34] Ezek. 37. 11.

40 Jeſus ſaith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldeſt [35] believe, thou ſhouldeſt ſee the [36] glory of God?

[35] Matt. 13. 58. Luke 1. 20. ¶ [36] An admirable Inſtance of my Divine Power.

41 Then they took away the ſtone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jeſus lift up his eyes, and ſaid, [37] Father, I thank thee that thou [38] haſt heard me.

[37] Chriſt, as God, is the Principal Efficient in doing theſe Works, and works 'em by his own Power; as Man, he is the Inſtrument of the Godhead; as Mediator, he acts as ſent by the Father. ¶ [38] Art ready to do that by me which I deſire and determine to do, that ſo others may believe in me, v. 42. (as they did, v. 45.)

42 And I knew that thou heareſt me always: but * becauſe of the people which ſtand by, I ſaid it, that they may believe that thou haſt ſent me.

43 And when he thus had ſpoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, [39] come forth.

[39] Rom. 4. 17.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with [40] grave-clothes, and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jeſus ſaith unto them, Looſe him, and let him go.

[40] Becauſe he was to die, and be buried again; whereas—ch. 20. 5.

45 Then [41] many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had ſeen the things which Jeſus did, believed on him.

46 But ſome of them went their ways to the Phariſees, and told them what things Jeſus had done.

49 And one of them named * [45] Caiaphas, being the high-prieſt [46] that ſame year, ſaid unto them, [47] Ye know nothing at all,

[45] Ch. 18. 14. ¶ [46] (Whereby it ſeems they were changed, or changeable, yearly; contrary to God's Inſtitution at firſt.) ¶ [47] q. d. It's a great weakneſs in you to ſtick at it, or to make any ſcruple at all of putting him to death, ſince Reaſon of State ſo requires.

[48] Ch. 18. 14. Better to put one to death, (how innocent ſoever) thereby to ſecure the Nation, than by preſerving him, to expoſe the whole Nation to ruine.

51 And this ſpake he [49] not of himſelf: but being [50] high-prieſt that year, he [51] propheſied that Jeſus ſhould die for that nation:

[49] Not merely of his own motion. ¶ [50] In the higheſt Place of Dignity and Authority; (and therefore he was the fitter Perſon for God to make uſe of, becauſe his words would be more taken notice of, and leave the Jews more inexcuſable in their Unbelief.) ¶ [51] Numb. 23. 5. [1] Chap. 4. 1, 3.

54 Jeſus therefore * [53] walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence into a country near to the wilderneſs, into a city called * Ephraim, and there continued with his diſciples.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jeſus excuſeth Mary anointing his feet. 9 The people flock to ſee Lazarus. 10 The high Prieſts conſult to kill him.

THen Jeſus, [1] ſix days before the paſſover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raiſed from the dead.

3 Then took * Mary a pound of ointment, [4] of ſpikenard, [5] very coſtly, and anointed the feet of Jeſus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the houſe was filled with the odour of the ointment.

Chap. 12. 4036.

4 Then ſaith one of his diſciples, [6] Judas Iſcariot, Simon's ſon which ſhould betray him,

[6] He was the Ring-leader; but ſome of the reſt were drawn in, Matt. 26. 8. (being deluded by his fair Pretence) to joyn with him in this Diſlike.

5 Why was not this ointment ſold for [7] three hundred pence, and given to the [8] poor?

[7] See on Mark. 14. 5. [8] Ch. 13. 29.

* Chap. 13. 29.

[9] (And ſo loſt the opportunity of converting ſome of it to his own uſe.)

10 ¶ But the chief Prieſts conſulted that they might put Lazarus alſo to death;

[21] Publiſh'd it openly and freely in Jeruſalem.

18 For this cauſe the people alſo [22] met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

[22] Viz. In ſuch a triumphant manner, (v. 13.) as owning him for the Meſſia.

19 The Phariſees therefore ſaid among themſelves, * Perceive ye how ye [23] prevail nothing? behold, [24] the world is gone after him.

[23] All our Endeavours to ſuppreſs his Doctrine prove ſucceſsleſs; (and therefore we muſt take ſome other courſe ſpeedily.) ¶ [24] Multitudes of People believe in him, in ſpite of us.

20 ¶ And there were certain [25] Greeks among them, * that came up to worſhip at the feaſt:

[90] Chriſt being full of Zeal in ſuch a weighty Buſineſs, uſed this Earneſtneſs to ſtir 'em up not only to believe in him, but not to be aſhamed to own their Faith in him, no more than they were to profeſs that they believed in God the Father; ſince he was one in Eſſence with the Father. ¶ [91] His Faith is not terminated on a mere Man, or on my Perſon, as Man; but includes Faith in God alſo. ¶ [92] 1 Pet. 1. 21.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jeſus waſhing his diſciples feet, 14 exhorteth them to humility and charity. 18 Foretelleth that Judas ſhall betray him, 36 and Peter deny him.

[1]Matt. 26. 2. NOW * [1] before the feaſt of the paſſover, when Jeſus [2] knew that his hour was come, that he ſhould depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his [4] own which were [5] in the world, he loved them [6] unto the end.

[1] On the Evening of the Paſchal-day; ſome hours afore the dreſſing and eating of the Lamb, which was the Paſchal-Feaſt. ¶ [2] Was actually thinking, conſidering, and meditating of it, that the time drew nigh. ¶ [4] His Children, Members, Wife, Fleſh, (which were a piece of himſelf, as it were.) ¶ [5] To continue here, now he was leaving the world. ¶ [6] Ch. 17. 12. Rom. 8. 39. In the higheſt degree, (ch. 15. 13.) and for ever; and though he was to change his Condition from Earth to Heaven, and from a State of Humiliation to Glory, yet he'd not change his Affection to 'em, but continue the ſame as formerly.

Chap. 13. 4036.

2 And [7] ſupper being ended, * (the devil having now [8] put into the heart of Judas Iſcariot, Simon's ſon, to be betray him)

* Luke 22. 3. Ver. 27.

[7] During the time of their ordinary Supper, v. 4, 12. ¶ [8] Acts 5. 3. Prevail'd with him now to endeavour effectually that, which, probably, he had been deſigning ſome while before.

3 [9] Jeſus knowing that the Father had [10] given all things into his hands, and that he was come [11] from God, and went to God,

[9] When he was actually entertaining himſelf with thoſe great Thoughts of his approaching Glory. ¶ [10] Matt. 11. 27. See there. ¶ [11] In reſpect of his Incarnation, and coming from Heaven, to dwell with us on Earth.

4 He riſeth from ſupper, and laid aſide his garments, and took a towel and girded himſelf.

5 After that, he poureth water into a baſon, and began to [12] waſh the diſciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

[12] Becauſe when he ſhould be in Heaven, he could not make ſuch outward, viſible Demonſtrations of his Love, by doing ſuch mean ſervice for 'em, therefore by doing this now, in the midſt of the Thoughts of his Glory, he'd ſhew, what he could be content, as it were, to do for 'em, when he ſhould be in full poſſeſſion of it. This waſhing, as it was a ſervile Employment (1 Sam. 25. 41.) notes his Humility, which they were to imitate him in, v. 14—16. Matt. 11. 29. And as it was ſuch a particular act; it notes his waſhing away their Sins (v. 8. 10. Eph. 5. 26.) by his Bloud, 1 John 1. 7.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter. And † Peter ſaith unto him, Lord, * doſt thou waſh my feet?

† Gr. he. * See Matt. 3. 14.

7 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto him, What I do thou [13] knoweſt not now, but thou ſhalt know [14] hereafter.

[13] Underſtandeſt not the full meaning of it at preſent, and what need thou haſt to be waſhed from Sin. ¶ [14] Viz. When thou ſhalt be guilty of that heinous Sin of denying me.

8 Peter ſaith unto him, Thou ſhalt [15] never waſh my feet. Jeſus anſwered him, * If I [16] waſh thee not, thou haſt no part with me.

* Chap. 3. 5. 1 Cor. 6. 11. Eph. 5. 26. Tit. 3. 5. Heb. 10. 22.

[15] Good Intentions will not juſtifie Evil Actions. Men may have much ſeeming Humility in the Matters of God, which yet is prepoſterous, ariſing merely from carnal Reaſon, Col. 2. 18, 23. ¶ [16] Cleanſe thee not from thy frequent Miſcarriages, (ſignified by this waſhing.) thou haſt no ſhare in the Benefit of my Mediatorſhip.

9 Simon Peter ſaith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but alſo [18] my hands and my head.

[18] Pſal. 51. 2. We commonly run from one extreme to another.

10 Jeſus ſaith to him, He that is [19] waſhed, needeth not ſave to [20] waſh his feet, but is [21] clean every whit: and ye are [22] clean, but not all.

[19] Sanctified wholly and throughly (1 Theſſ. 5. 23.) already, by my word, (ch 15. 3. & 17. 17.) and Faith, Acts 15. 9. ¶ [20] Cleanſe himſelf by daily Repentance from thoſe daily Defilements which he contracts by converſing with worldly things. q. d. As he that is waſht all over, yet by walking abroad defiles his feet again, and ſo muſt be waſhing 'em ever and anon; ſo he that by ſanctifying Grace is cleanſed from the filth of all former Sins, yet by daily converſe with worldly things, contracts new Guilt, and ſo muſt cleanſe himſelf, by daily Repentance, from thoſe Defilements. ¶ [21] Ch. 15. 3. In a ſtate of Juſtification, and by renewing his Repentance daily, is accounted perfectly righteous by God. ¶ [22] Free from reigning and heinous Sins.

11 For he * knew who ſhould betray him; therefore ſaid he, Ye are not all clean.

* Chap. 6. 64.

12 So after he had waſhed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was ſet down again, he ſaid unto them, [23] Know ye what I have done to you?

* 1 John 2. 6.

[27] 1 Pet. 2. 21.

15 For * I have given you [27] an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily verily I say unto you, [28] The servant is not greater than his Lord, neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him.

[28] Ch. 15. 20. Matt. 10. 24. q. d. Though I have set you in the highest Office in the Church, yet you are lower than my self; and therefore should not look upon your selves as too good to do what I have done afore you.

17 * If ye know these [29] things, happy are ye if ye [30] do them.

[29] Your Duty in such cases. ¶ [30] See on Matt. 7. 24.

18 ¶ [31] I speak not of you all; I [32] know whom I have chosen: [33] but that the [34] scripture may be fulfilled, * He [35] that eateth bread with me, hath [36] lift up his heel against me.

* Matt. 26. 23.

[31] q. d. I expect not this Obedience and Humility from every one of you. ¶ [32] 2 Tim. 2. 19. q. d. I am not ignorant that one, whom I have chosen to be an Apostle, is a wicked Person. ¶ [33] q. d. But I have purposely made choice of such a one, in order to the more eminent Accomplishment of that Prediction of David. ¶ [34] Psal. 41. 9. (which, in Achitophel's Treachery against David, does foreshew Judas's Treachery against Christ, whereof the former was a Type.) ¶ [35] Whom I have treated most friendly and familiarly. ¶ [36] Will do me all the mischief he can, Deut. 32. 15.

‖ Or, From henceforth.

[37] Matt. 11. 3. May be so far from being offended hereat, that you may be confirmed in your belief, That I am the Messia, of whom these things were foretold, and of whom David was a Type herein.

* Luke 10. 16.

20 * Verily verily I say unto you, [38] He that [39] receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

[38] Matt. 10. 40. q. d. But though Judas deal thus with me, and so deserve to be rejected of all, yet, for you who stick close to me, and continue faithful in my Service, be not you discouraged, for you shall find much kindness from many. ¶ [39] Embraces his Doctrine.

* Mark 14. 18. Luke 22. 21. * Chap. 12. 27. * Acts 1. 17. 1 John 2. 19.

21 * When Jesus had thus said, * he was [40] troubled in spirit, and [41] testified, and said, [42] Verily verily I say unto you, that * one of you shall betray me.

[40] Mark 3. 5. Acts 17. 16. Partly at Judas's odious Treachery, and partly at his own Sufferings, which would follow thereon. ¶ [41] Affirmed it openly and earnestly. ¶ [42] Matt. 26. 21.

22 Then the disciples [43] looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

[43] As amazed at such a horrid Practice, and to observe if any Guilt betray'd it self in any of their looks.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus bosom, one of his disciples whom Jesus [44] loved.

[44] Ch. 19. 26. & 21. 20. Viz. With a more particular Affection than he did the rest. See on ch. 11. 3.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckened to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

[45] Whisper'd.

25 He then lying on Jesus breast, [45] saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it: and when he had dipped the ‖ sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

‖ Or, morsel.

27 And [46] after the sop, [47] Satan entred into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou [48] doest [49] do quickly.

[45] Judas suspecting, perhaps, that it was given him out of some design to discover him, or out of some knowledge of his purpose, grew desperate, and wholly gives himself up to Satan. ¶ [47] See on Luke 22. 3. ¶ [48] Intendest to do. ¶ [49] q. d. I'll restrain thee no longer, but permit thee now to accomplish thy design with all expedition, Psal. 81. 11, 12.

Chap. 13. 4036.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had [50] the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast: or that he should [51] give something to the poor.

[50] Ch. 12. 6. ¶ [51] Though Christ had nothing but what he received from others, yet he was wont to give something to the Poor, for our Example.

30 He then having received the sop, [52] went immediately out: and it was night.

[52] Matt. 26. 14.

31 ¶ Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, [54] Now is the Son of man [55] glorified, and [56] God is glorified [57] in him.

[54] Viz. By my approaching Sufferings, (through Judas's Treachery.) ¶ [55] Ch. 12. 23. I shall obtain abundant Honour in many Respects; viz. as I manifest thereby my Obedience to my Father, and love to Mankind; as I triumph over Sin and Satan; purchase all Priviledges for my People, &c. ¶ [56] Ch. 21. 19. The Truth of his Threatnings and Justice shines bright in what he inflicts on me; and his Wisdom and Goodness, in the Redemption of lost Man by such Means. ¶ [57] In that Obedience which I pay to his Will in my Sufferings.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall [62] seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, [63] Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto [64] you.

[62] Ch. 7. 34. & 8. 21. Desire my Bodily Presence again, to help and comfort you in your Straits and Troubles. ¶ [63] Ch. 7. 34. & 8. 21. ¶ [64] Viz. That you cannot suffer (v. 36.) with me, (as will appear by your forsaking of me) till you are enabled thereto by the Holy Ghost.

After a new Pattern, viz. God's giving his Son for us, 1 John 4. 10, 11. and Christ's giving himself, Eph. 5. 25. 1 Chriſt comforteth his diſciples: 6 profeſſeth himſelf the way, the truth, the life, and one with the Father.

LET not your heart be [1] troubled: ye believe in [2] God, believe alſo [3] in me.

[1] Viz. At the conſideration of my ſufferings and departure. ¶ [2] Viz. That he is faithful in his Promiſes, (and therefore you'l truſt in him for deliverance from evils.) ¶ [3] Acts 4. 11. & 8. 37. viz. That I'll take care of you ſtill, though abſent from you; (and therefore let that ſupport you againſt your troubles.)

2 In my fathers houſe are [4] many manſions: if it were not ſo, [5] I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you.

[4] Room enough for you all: whither you ſhall come in due time, though you cannot follow me at preſent. ¶ [5] q. d. You may believe me, for I would not deceive you for all the Glory there.

3 And [6] if I go and [7] prepare a place for [8] you, I will [9] come again, and receive you unto my ſelf, that [10] where I am, there ye [11] may be alſo.

[6] q. d. And if that be my errand, then doubt not of my love when I am there, and of my mindfulneſs of you. ¶ [7] Heb. 6. 20. & 7. 9. 4 And [12] whither I go, [13] ye know, and [14] the way [15] ye know.

[12] That I am going to Heaven. ¶ [13] You cannot but know in ſome meaſure, viz. In the General, and Habitually, (having been ſo often, and ſo plainly inſtructed by me about it,) though perhaps not diſtinctly, or at preſent under temptation. ¶ [14] Acts 14–22. 1 Pet. 2. 21. viz. That I muſt ſuffer, in order to my glory, and what you muſt do that you may get thither after me. ¶ [15] Viz. In ſome meaſure, in part: This he ſpeaks to draw from 'em, a Confeſſion of their ignorance that ſo he might thence take occaſion to inſtruct 'em more fully about it.

5 [16] Thomas ſaith unto him, Lord, we know [17] not whither thou goeſt, and how can we know the way?

[16] (Who perhaps was more ſlow of underſtanding than the reſt, as well as of Faith, Ch. 20. 25, 27.) ¶ [17] Viz. Not ſo fully and diſtinctly, as we deſire.

1 The conſolation and mutual love between Chriſt and his members under the parable of the vine. 18 Comfort in perſecution.

[1] I Am the [2] true [3] vine, and my Father is the [4] husbandman.

[1] Chriſt having treated, in the former Chapter, of many ſingular benefits he had purchaſed for his Church and People, here he ſhews how they may come to partake of 'em, viz. by Union with him; and declares, That though he was to go away from 'em as to his bodily preſence, yet ſtill he remains moſt cloſely and nearly joyn'd to 'em, and exhorts 'em to keep cloſe alſo to him by Faith and Love. ¶ [2] The moſt excellent in all reſpects; and in compariſon of which, all other Vines are but Shadows. ¶ [3] The Root, Fountain, and Head of Influence, whence my People and Members derive Life, Grace, Fruitfulneſs, and all Good. ¶ [4] Matt. 20. 1. 1 Chriſt comforteth his diſciples againſt tribulation, by the promiſe of the holy Ghoſt, and by his own reſurrection, and aſcenſion.

1 THeſe things have I ſpoken unto you, that ye ſhould not be [2] offended.

Chap. 16. 4036.

2 They ſhall [3] put you out of the ſynagogues:
yea, the time cometh, that whoſoever killeth you, will [4] think that he doeth God ſervice.

[3] Ch. 9. 34. & 12. 42. Debar you from all Communion with their Church. ¶ [4] Iſa. 66. 5. Acts 26. 9. Phil. 3. 6.

4 But * theſe things have I told you, that when * Chap. 13. 19.

told you of them. And [8] theſe things [9] I ſaid not unto you at the beginning, becauſe I was [10] with you.

[7] (And thence be aſſured of my Omniſcience, and Faithfulneſs; and ſo be encouraged to truſt in my Promiſes, Matt. 24. 25.) ¶ [8] Both concerning your ſufferings, and your ſupport and comfort by the Spirit. ¶ [9] viz. So expreſly, fully, and particularly; (but only in general, Matt. 10. 17.) ¶ [10] (And ſo did ſhelter you from the brunt of their Malice, and bore it my ſelf, and did comfort you by my Bodily preſence.)

5 But now I go [11] my way to him that ſent me, and [12] none of you asketh me, Whither goeſt thou?

[11] Matt. 9. 15. 6 But becauſe I have ſaid theſe things unto you, ſorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheleſs, [13] I tell you the [14] truth; It is [15] expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, * [16] the Comforter will [17] not come un- * Chap. 14. 16,

[13] I, who am Truth it ſelf, who love you, take care of you, and am now going to lay down my Life for you. ¶ [14] q. d. You think, indeed, that if I'd abide with you, it would be better for you; but you know not what is good for your ſelves: This that I am about now to tell you, is a great Truth, (and therefore ſhould quiet your miſgiving Hearts under all your Fears.) ¶ [15] Behovefull, for your profit, and will anſwer the End you aim at. ¶ [16] The Holy Ghoſt who will comfort you more than my Bodily preſence could; and can comfort Believers in all places at once, (which my Bodily preſence could not.) ¶ [17] Ch. 7. 39. Acts 2. 33. viz. In ſuch a plentiful Meaſure of his Gifts and Graces, God not ſeeing it fit to beſtow the Spirit ſo plentifully, while the Church enjoy'd the Bodily preſence of Chriſt for her conduct in all points. ¶ [18] See on ch. 15. 26. n. 76.

9 [24] Of ſin, becauſe they believe not on me;

[24] Acts 7. 54. i. e. The Spirit in and by you my Apoſtles ſhall ſo evidently prove me to be the Son of God, and Redeemer of the world, that the greatneſs of the Jews ſin ſhall appear in rejecting me, and putting me to death; and of all others who ſhall ſtill refuſe to own and believe in me.

10 [25] Of righteouſneſs, [26] becauſe I go to my Father, and ye [28] ſee me no more;

[25] That I have perfectly fulfilled all that Righteouſneſs which was requir'd of me as Mediator, (and ſo have made full Satisfaction to the Juſtice of God for the ſins of the world.) ¶ [26] q. d. Which appears by this, in that I don't continue under the power of death, but riſe again, and return to my Father,

12 I have yet [31] many things to say unto you, but ye cannot [32] bear them now.

[31] Viz. For the further explaining and confirming of what I have said; (for he had delivered the Substance of all afore, ch. 15. 15.) ¶ [32] ver. 6. Comprehend 'em as yet, (by reason of the Imperfection of your Knowledge, Weakness of your Faith, and manifold Mistakes.)

13 Howbeit, when he the Spirit [33] of truth is come, he will [34] guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak [35] of himself; but whatsoever he shall [36] hear, that shall he speak: and he [37] will shew you things to come.

[33] See on ch. 14. 17. & 15. 26. ¶ [34] Ch. 14. 26. 1 John 2. 27. Rectifie your mistakes, and enable you to understand all the Mysteries of the Gospel, in order to the full discharge of your Office. ¶ [35] Nothing which shall disagree with any thing I have delivered. ¶ [36] Receive (together with his Nature) from the Father and my self. ¶ [37] Will be a Spirit of Prophesie in you, to acquaint you aforehand with such things as are needfull for you to know, and make known to the Church; as Acts 11. 28. & 20. 28, 29. & 21. 11. 1 Tim. 4. 1. 2 Pet. 1. 14.

14 He shall [38] glorifie me: for he shall [39] receive [40] of mine, and shall [41] shew it unto you.

[38] Greaten my worth and love to you, and so advance me in your Esteem and Affections. ¶ [39] (To dispose for your good.) ¶ [40] Of the Fulness of those Gifts and Graces, which are the Fruit of my Purchase and Mediation. ¶ [41] Make you partakers thereof, (by revealing Truths, communicating Life, applying comforts, &c. as you stand in need thereof.)

15 [42] All things that the Father hath are mine: [44] therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

[42] Ch. 17. 10. Phil. 2. 6. All that Favour and Good-will which the Father bears to you, all that Grace he bestows upon you, all that Glory he has provided for you, are the Fruit of my purchase and mediation. ¶ [44] q. d. And though I call these things mine, yet all comes Originally from the Father: but as the Father works and communicates all by me, so do I by the Holy Ghost.

16 [45] A little while and ye shall not see me: and again a little while and ye shall [46] see me, because I go to [47] the Father.

[45] Ch. 7. 33. & 13. 33. ¶ [46] i. e. Either, (1.) Enjoy my Spiritual presence, (by the pouring out of the Holy Ghost on the Day of Pentecost, as ch. 14. 19.) Or, (2.) At the Resurrection at the End of the World, when I shall come again, and you shall see me again with your bodily Eyes, and fully enjoy me; (which though it be a long time in it self, yet he calls it [a little while] (as Heb. 10. 37.) because 'tis as little a while as may be, in respect that he makes no delay, and will not stay a moment longer than till he has dispatch'd all our Business in Heaven for us.) ¶ [47] (And so, (1.) will send the comforter to you, v. 7. And (2.) shall be glorified with him, and so shall not be satisfied till I fetch you thither to partake of my Glory, ch. 14. 3.)

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith A little while? we cannot tell [48] what he saith.

[48] What his meaning is. (Hereby they don't only betray their ignorance of his Death, Resurrection, and Ascension, but seem to express some kind of dislike of, and discontent at his speaking thus to 'em.)

19 Now Jesus [49] knew that they were [50] desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among your selves of that I said, A little while and ye shall not see me: and again a little while and ye shall see me?

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorifie him. 6 To preserve his Apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth, 20 to glorifie them, and all other believers.

1 THese words spake Jesus; and lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, [2] the hour is come; [3] glorifie thy Son, [4] that thy Son also may [5] glorifie thee.

Have, upon true and sufficient Grounds, apprehended and conceived. ¶ [37] Have yielded up their Hearts, Souls, and Consciences to the convincing Power of my Doctrine, and have accordingly fully believed that —

9 I pray [38] for them: I pray [39] not for the world, but for them which thou hast [40] given me, for they are [41] thine.

[38] Peculiarly for my Apostles; (as appears by v. 20.) ¶ [39] viz. Not now at this time; not in this part of my Prayer: (for otherwise, he does pray for the World, v. 21, 23.) Or, Not in such a manner; not such a Prayer, as for my Apostles, and all true Believers. ¶ [40] More especially committed to my care and trust. See n. 27. ¶ [41] viz. By Eternal Election: (and therefore as I have already converted 'em, (v. 6. 8.) so do thou assist me in carrying on the Work of their Salvation.)

10 [42] And [43] all mine are thine, and [44] thine [45] are mine, and [46] I am glorified in them.

Chap. 17. 4036.

viz. Because of the Community, in all respects, between 'em. ¶ [43] All that I have is from Thee; and all those whom thou hast elected and given me, and I have undertaken for in the Covenant of Redemption, I'll take care of, that they shall be made Thine again by Regeneration and Conversion, and thereby fitted for Thy Service, and the enjoyment of Thee. ¶ [44] Thy Nature, Essence, Properties, Attributes, (ch. 16. 15.) and particularly, the Persons of all the Elect, and especially of my Apostles. ¶ [45] My Charge given me, to redeem, and convert, and dedicate to Thee. All that are elected, are redeemed, (John 17. 10.) converted, (Acts 13.-48. Rom. 8. 30.) and saved, (Rom. 8.-30.) and all that are saved are elected, (Rev. 21. 27.) But they that are not elected nor redeem'd don't believe, (John 10. 26. Rom. 11.-7.) and so are damn'd, (Rev. 20. 15.) The Acts of the Three Persons are of the same Extent; The Father loves none but those that are given to Christ, and Christ takes charge of none but those that are loved of the Father. Your Election will be known by your Interest in Christ, and your Interest in Christ by the Sanctification of the Spirit. There is a Chain of Salvation; The Beginning is from the Father, the Dispensation through the Son, the Application by the Spirit. In looking after the comfort of Election, you must first look Inward to the work of the Spirit in your hearts; then Outward to the work of Christ on the Cross; then Upwards to the heart of the Father in Heaven, 1 Pet. 1. 2. ¶ [46] That Glory they partake of redounds unto me: Or, By the Obedience and Faith of these my Apostles, and their Ministry, I have been already honour'd and own'd by many, and shall be more by their further Service; (and therefore I recommend 'em to thee.)

11 And now [47] I am no more in the world, but these are [48] in the world, and I [49] come to thee.
1 Pet. 1. 5. John 1. [50] Holy Father, * [51] keep [52] through thine own name, those whom thou hast [27] given me, that they may be [53] one, [54] as we are.

[47] I am now going out of the world. ¶. [48] Still to continue here, exposed to manifold temptations and troubles. ¶ [49] (And leave them alone, as to my bodily Presence, which hitherto they have enjoyed to direct and comfort 'em; and therefore do thou supply that want unto them.) ¶ [50] q. d. Thou who hatest all unholiness, keep them from it. (He uses a Title suitable to the Business in hand.) ¶ [51] Preserve them, both as to their outward condition, that they may not be destroyed; and as to their spiritual condition, that they may not lose their Faith and other Graces. ¶ [52] By thy Divine Power, Mercy, and Goodness, and for the Honour of thy Holy Name, and in their owning of thee, and profession of thy Truth and Worship. ¶ [53] Eph. 4. 4,6. viz. In Faith and Love, in Judgment and Affection. (See n. 79.) Unity among Church-Officers is a great Mercy. ¶ [54] Ver. 21 ch. 10. 30. See n. 80. As there was a mutual Agreement between the Father and the Son in the Work of Redemption, so between the Apostles in the Doctrine of Redemption.

Chap. 6. 39. & 10. 28. Heb. 2. 13. Chap. 18. 9. 1 John 2. 19. Chap. 6. 70. & 13. 18.

12 While I was with them in the world, * I kept them † in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and * none of them is lost, * [55] but [56] the son of perdition: [57] that the scripture might be fulfilled.

† By thy Authority and Power, and for thy Glory. ¶ [55] q. d. True indeed, Judas, who is one of my Apostles, and so seems to be given to me, is in a manner already lost, being in the High-way to Destruction, and very near it; but he never was given to me, being always a Son of Perdition. ¶ [56] 2 Thess. 2. 3. That is, (1.) One that is most worthy to be destroy'd, having brought himself into a state of Destruction. (2.) One that certainly shall be destroy'd. (3.) One ordain'd and appointed by God to Destruction for his Sins. (4.) One who by reason of the horridness of his Crime, is mentioned as the most dreadful Instance of God's irrevocable Doom to eternal Perdition. ¶ [57] Whose Defection and Ruine the Scripture has foretold, (Psal. 109. 8.) so that hereby it is fulfilled.

13 [58] And now come I to thee, and these things I speak [59] in the world, [60] that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

[58] q. d. And now being to depart from them, I make this Prayer on their behalf, and in their hearing. ¶ [59] Publickly in their hearing: Or, I have made this Prayer in the world, and left a Record and Pattern of it in the Church, that they, feeling the same heavenly Desires kindled in their Hearts, may be comforted in the workings of that Spirit in them, which testifies to their Souls the quality of that Intercession which I shall make for 'em in Heaven. ¶ [60] That that Joy, which they have hitherto had, by reason of my presence with, and care of 'em, may be so far from being abated by my absence, that it may abound, and their Hearts be filled with it, by the consideration of this Prayer I now make for 'em.

14 [61] I have given them thy word, and the world hath † hated them, because they are not [62] of the world, even [63] as I am not of the world.

[61] q. d. Because they have embrac'd and obey'd the Doctrine I received from thee, and deliver'd to them, therefore they have incurr'd the hatred of wicked, worldly Persons: (and upon this account also they are to be taken care of by thee.) ¶ † Gen. 3. 15. Prov. 29. 27. ¶ [62] Ver. 16. ch. 15. 19. Heb. 11.-13. 1 Pet. 4. 4. Of a worldly disposition and conversation, (like the generality of People.) ¶ [63] Ch. 8. 23.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest [64] take them out of the world, but * that thou shouldest keep them [65] from the evil. * Matt. 6. 13. 1 John 5. 18.

[64] Free 'em from these Temptations and Troubles presently, by present Death, (because I have further work for 'em to do.) ¶ [65] From being overcome by the Trials they meet with, so as to fall off from thee. See n. 51.

16 [66] They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

[65] q. d. Their disposition and conversation at present is heavenly, and free from any heinous Evil; (and therefore do thou keep 'em so still.)

17 * [67] Sanctifie them through thy truth: * [69] thy word is truth. * Acts 15. 9. Eph. 5. 26. 1 Pet. 1. 22. * 2 Sam. 7. 28. Ch. 8. 40.

[67] Ch. 15. 3. Increase thy Graces in 'em, (and so fit 'em for the great Employment of preaching the Gospel, as v. 19.) by the true knowledge of thy Self, Will, and Worship; which is to be fetch'd only from the Word; or, by thy Word, which is the Means and Instrument thereof. ¶ [69] The Doctrine delivered by me, and received by them, is pure, perfect Truth, which will not deceive 'em, but is the only means both of Holiness and Comfort; This, therefore, I pray they may be kept in.

18 As thou hast [70] sent me into the world, even so have I also [71] sent them into the world.

[70] Ch. 10. 36. & 20. 21. Viz. For this End, among others, to preach the Gospel. ¶ [71] Authorised them to be my Embassadors to preach the Gospel, 2 Cor. 5. 20. (and therefore they must not be yet taken out of the world, but preserved in it, and endued with a greater measure of Holiness, and assisted with a greater measure of Strength, than ordinary.)

19 And * [72] for their sakes I sanctifie my self, that [74] they also might be ‖ [75] sanctified [76] through the truth. * 1 Cor. 1. 2, 30. 1 Thess. 4. 7. ‖ Or, truly sanctified.

[72] That I may purchase both Grace and Glory for 'em, I set my self apart to the whole work of my mediatory Office, and particularly to become a Sacrifice for Sin. (Yet he was also set apart by the Father, ch. 10. 36.) ¶ [74] Viz. By the merit and virtue of my Sacrifice. ¶ [75] Eph. 5. 25, 26. 1 Pet. 2. 24. Made more holy in Heart and Life, (and thereby fitted to publish the Gospel to the world. See n. 67.) ¶ [76] By the preaching of the Gospel, v. 17. Or, [truly,] i. e. Not only outwardly and ceremonially, as the Priests under the Law were, but inwardly, in their hearts, Heb. 10. 22.

20 [77] Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me [78] through their word:

[77] q. d. And as I have prayed thus for my Apostles, in a peculiar manner, so I pray likewise for all other Believers to the end of the world. ¶ [78] Being converted through that Doctrine which is written or preach'd by them, or by any others duly qualified.

21 * That they all may [79] be one, [80] as * thou Father art in me, [80] and I in thee; that they also may [79] be one [81] in us: [82] that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. * Ver. 11. 22, 23. Gal. 3. 28. * Chap. 10. 38. & 14. 11.

[79] Viz. In Mind, Love, Design, and Interest; being first united by Faith to me, and by me to the Father, (which is chiefly here intended;) that so their union may in some sort resemble that inexpressible union between the Father and my self. ¶ [80] As we are one, v.-22. (1.) In Essence, Heb. 1. 2. See there, n. 10, 11. Phil. 2. 6. (2.) In Power, ch. 10. 29, 30. (3.) In Will and Operation, ch. 5. 19. (4.) In Love and Affection, ch. 1. 18. (5.) In Dignity, as the Object of Worship, ch. 5. 23. ¶ [81] (1.) By the Communication and Inhabitation of the Spirit that proceeds from us. (2.) In ways of Holiness. (3.) By keeping Communion with us. (4.) By following our Example. (5.) Being united to us by Faith, they may be united to one another by Love. ¶ [82] That the men of the world, being allured by the amiableness of this their union and concord, may be drawn to believe in me, as the true Messia, ch. 13. 35.

Chap. 18. 4036.

22 And the [83] glory which thou gavest me, I have given them: that they may be one, even as we are one.

[83] That Grace and Holiness, and whatsoever makes me Glorious, which I have as Mediator, and Head of the Church.

23 [86] I in them, [87] and thou in me, that they may be [88] made perfect in one; and that the [82] world may know that thou hast sent me, and [89] hast loved them, as thou hast [90] loved me.

[86] Christ dwells in the Saints immediately, in his own Person, (though not personally) ch. 14. 20. (See there.) Gal. 2. 20. by the Godhead, or Divine Nature, consider'd as united, or to be united (as it was afore his Incarnation) to the Manhood; whereby he becomes their Husband, Hos. 2. 19, 20. and communicates all good things to them. And by means of this Union, the other two Persons dwell in them too, in their Persons also: the Father, (1 John 4.-12, 13, 15, 16.) in our apprehensions of him in Love, (v. 16.) both of his Love to us, and ours to him: and the Holy Ghost, (Rom. 8.-11.) working in us Love to God, and Faith in Christ. And thus all the Three Persons dwell in the Saints; yet so, as that Christ's Person is still to be understood as the means of this Union, and that not onely by meriting or purchasing it for us, but by his own Inhabitation first in us. ¶ [87] Viz. (1.) By Unity of Essence, Col. 2. 9. (2.) By constant Influence. (1.) As the Father is the Beginning, and Root of the Life of Christ, ch. 6. 57. (2.) As he sustains the Person of Christ, as Mediator, Isa. 42. 1. (3.) As he works in him, and concurs to all his Operations and Actions, as Mediator, ch. 14. 10. ¶ [88] Being perfectly united among themselves, by virtue of their Union with Me and Thee. ¶ [89] As being Members of my mystical Body. ¶ [90] Viz. Eternally and unchangeably.

24 [91] Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be [92] with me where I am; that they may [93] behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst [94] me before the foundation of the world.

*Chap. 15. 9.

26 And I have declared unto them [1] thy name, and [2] will declare it: that the love * wherewith thou hast loved me, may be [3] in them, and [4] I in them.

[1] Thy Divine Nature, Attributes, and Counsels, (as v. 6. n. 23.) and especially that glorious Attribute of distinguishing Grace and Mercy. ¶ [2] Will continue the manifestation of it to them in a saving way, to the end of the world. ¶ [3] Upon them, or towards them: i. e. Extended unto them, and a sense thereof infused into their hearts. ¶ [4] And that I may ever dwell in them by my Grace and Holy Spirit.

4 Jesus therefore knowing [4] all things that should come upon him, [5] went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

[4] And particularly, that this was the time appointed for his Suffering. ¶ [5] Viz. Out of the Garden, to meet them.

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, [9] let these go their way.

[9] Matt. 26.-56. Let my Disciples alone, meddle not with them: (and accordingly he so overpowred their Hearts, that they laid hands on none of 'em.) In the midst of his own Sufferings, Christ is mindful of his Disciples, to secure them.

[28] q. d. Though I am a King, yet it is not ſuch a one as will prejudice the intereſt of the Romans here, or any other lawful Superiours any-where; (and therefore you need not fear me upon that account.) ¶ [29] Not ſuch a one as is manag'd by carnal, ſecular Power, (2 Cor. 10. 4.) nor attended with outward Pomp, Luke 17. 20, 21.

37 Pilate therefore ſaid unto him, [30] Art thou a king then? Jeſus anſwered, [31] Thou ſayeſt that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cauſe came I into the world, that I ſhould bear witneſs [32] unto the truth. Every one that * is [33] of the truth, [34] heareth my voice.

(Hereby he ſecretly taxes the Jews of Malice and Fallhood.) ¶ [34] Embraces my Doctrine and Teſtimony, and obeys me, as King, without any conſtraint: (whereas they that love Fallhood, as the Jews do, reject my Doctrine.)

38 Pilate ſaith unto him, [35] What is truth? and when he had ſaid this, he went out again unto the Jews, and ſaith unto them, * I find in him no fault at all.

10 Then ſaith Pilate unto him, Speakeſt thou not unto me? knoweſt thou not, that I have power to crucifie thee, and have power to releaſe thee?

11 Jeſus anſwered, Thou couldeſt have no power at all againſt me, except it were given thee from above: therefore [9] he that delivered me unto thee hath the [11] greater ſin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate ſought to releaſe him: but the Jews cried out, ſaying, If thou let this man go, thou art not [12] Cæſars friend.

[22] See on Matt. 27. 37.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jeſus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in [23] Hebrew, and Greek, and Latine.

21 Then ſaid the chief prieſts of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews; but that he ſaid, I am the king of the Jews.

22 Pilate anſwered, What I have written, I have written.

[29] See that thou uſe her as if ſhe were thy own Mother.

28 ¶ After this, Jeſus knowing that [30] all things were now accompliſhed, [31] that the ſcripture might be fulfilled, ſaith, I thirſt.

[30] That all the Propheſies concerning him hitherto have been punctually fulfilled. ¶ [31] That he might further give occaſion for the fulfilling that Scripture, Pſal. 69. 21.

[32] For what uſe it was ſet there; whether to preſerve thoſe that ſuffered from fainting, that ſo their Torments might be prolong'd; or to ſtanch the bloud of their wounds; or what elſe, is uncertain. ¶ [34] Pſal. 69.–21.

30 When Jeſus therefore had [35] received the vineger, he ſaid, [36] It is finiſhed: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghoſt.

The whole Legal Diſpenſation, and all Moſaical Inſtitutions, are now at an end, and of no ſignificancy nor efficacy in the Worſhip of God; (2.) The Jewiſh Covenant of Peculiarity is at an end: (3.) All things belonging to that great Sacrifice, whereby the Church was to be perfected, are accompliſh'd.

31 The Jews therefore, becauſe it was the [14] preparation, that the bodies [37] ſhould not remain upon the croſs on the ſabbath-day (for that ſabbath-day was [38] an high day) beſought [39] Pilate that their legs might be [40] broken, and that they might be taken away.

33 But when they came to Jeſus, and ſaw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the ſouldiers with a ſpear pierced his ſide, and forthwith came there out [41] bloud and water.

[2] After the Women (Mark 16. 1.) had told all the Disciples in general, (Luke 24. 10.) it should seem that Mary Magdalene speaks particularly to Peter and John about it. ¶ [3] (She was not yet satisfied that Christ was risen, v. 9.)

22 And when he had said this, he [22] breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the [23] holy Ghost.

[22] To note, (1.) that the Holy Ghost (hereby bestow'd on 'em) proceeded from him, as well as from the Father. (2.) 1 Christ appeareth to his disciples being a fishing. 12 He dineth with them. 15 Commandeth Peter to feed his Lambs, 18 and foretelleth Peter's death.

AFter these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself:

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.

9 Assoon then as they were come to land, they saw [10] a fire of coals there, and [10] fish laid thereon, and [11] bread.

[10] Miraculously provided by Christ, to refresh 'em after their toiling all Night; and to shew that he can feed 'em without any of their Provision. ¶ [11] Luke 5. 6.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish, which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, [11] full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the [12] third time that Jesus shewed himself to [13] his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

[12] Ch. 20. 19, 26. ¶ [13] To all or many of 'em together.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, [14] Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me more [15] than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord, [16] thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, [18] Feed my [19] lambs.

[14] Matt. 10. 17. ¶ [15] Than the rest of my Disciples, (as formerly thou didst boast to do, (Matt. 26. 33.) and as thou seemest to do, by thy forwardness to come to me now before the rest, v. 7.) ¶ [16] q. d. Thou who knowest my Heart better than I do my self, (as I have found by sad Experience,) knowest that though I, vile Wretch, denied thee with my Tongue, yet my Heart sincerely cleaves to thee. ¶ [18] Acts 20. 28. 1 Pet. 5. 2. q. d. Let thy Love to me be expres'd by thy Care of that Flock committed to thee, and performing the whole Duty of a Shepherd to 'em. Those of the meanest Capacity; let them have suitable Food.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; [20] thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my [21] sheep.

17 He ſaith unto him the [22] third time, Simon ſon of Jonas, loveſt thou me? Peter was grieved, becauſe he ſaid unto him the third time, Loveſt thou me? And he ſaid unto him, Lord, [23] thou knoweſt all things; thou knoweſt that I love thee. Jeſus ſaith unto him, [24] Feed my ſheep.

[22] That ſo his threefold profeſſion of his Love to Chriſt, might anſwer his threefold Denial of him. ¶ [23] Ch. 18. 4. See on Matt. 9. 4. ¶ [24] Matt. 28. 19.

18 [25] Verily, verily I ſay unto thee, When thou waſt young, thou girdedſt thy ſelf, and walkedſt whither thou wouldeſt: but when thou ſhalt be old, thou ſhalt [26] ſtretch forth thy hands, and [27] another ſhall gird thee, and carry thee whither [28] thou wouldeſt not.

[25] Peter being troubled and afraid leſt he ſhould deny Chriſt again, and fall from his Love, Chriſt comforts him, by telling him, that now he ſhould be ſo conſtant in his Love to him, that he ſhould lay down his Life for him, and ſo make that good indeed, which he had promiſed raſhly, ch. 13. 37. ¶ [26] (As being willing to be bound, and ready to ſuffer.) ¶ [27] The Executioner ſhall bind thee, to put thee to death. ¶ [28] Whither thy Natural Inclination does not lead thee.

[1] Pet. 1. 14. 19 This ſpake he, ſignifying * [29] by what death he ſhould glorifie God. And when he had ſpoken this, he ſaith unto him, [30] Follow me.

[29] That he ſhould by a violent Death, (and perhaps that of Crucifying, ſignified by his [ſtretching out his hands.] Give a glorious Teſtimony to the Truth of God's Word and Promiſes. ¶ [30] Matt. 16.-24. Reſolve with thy ſelf to ſuffer, as I have done.

[1] Chap. 13. 23, 25. & 20. 2. 20 Then Peter turning about, ſeeth * the diſciple whom Jeſus loved, following; which alſo leaned on his breaſt at ſupper, and ſaid, Lord which is he that betrayeth thee?

Chap. 21. 4036.

21 Peter ſeeing him, ſaith to Jeſus, Lord, and [31] what ſhall this man do?

[31] What ſhall become of him?

22 Jeſus ſaith unto him, [32] If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee: [33] Follow thou me.

[32] q. d. If I take him away by a Natural Death, and that he don't die a Violent Death, (as ſome others ſhall;) or, that he live till I come in Judgment againſt the Jews, it concerns thee not to know that. ¶ [33] Set thy ſelf to the diſcharge of thy own Duty.

23 Then went this ſaying abroad among the brethren, that that diſciple ſhould not die: yet Jeſus ſaid not unto him, He ſhall not die: but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee:

24 This is the diſciple which teſtifieth of theſe things, and wrote theſe things: and * we know that his teſtimony is true. * Chap. 19. 35.

25 And there are alſo [34] many other things which Jeſus did, the which if they ſhould be written every one, I ſuppoſe that even [35] the world it ſelf could not contain the books that ſhould be written. Amen.

[34] Ch. 20. 30, 31. Yet the Summ of all his Doctrine is recorded in what is written: which was ſo ordered out of reſpect to our Infirmity, and to take away all excuſe from the Lazy and Negligent, by comprizing his Mind and Will in ſo little a Book. ¶ [35] This ſhews the wonderful Activity, Induſtry, and Diligence of Chriſt; that he was never idle, but that his whole Life was ſpent in doing good: inſomuch that if all the particulars were committed to Writing, it would amount to an incredible Bulk.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage, will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and * serve me in this place.

8 And he [11] gave him the [12] covenant of circumcision: * and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: * and Isaac begat Jacob, and * Jacob begat the twelve [13] patriarchs.

[11] Gen. 17. 9. viz. After the former promise, v. 5. (and therefore Circumcision was not the procuring cause thereof.) ¶ [12] i. e. Circumcision, a Seal of that Covenant he had made with him. ¶ [13] See on ch. 2. 29.

9 * And the patriarchs moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was [14] with him, [14] Gen. 39. 2. By his Spirit, favour, grace, and blessing.

10 And [15] delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him [16] favour and [17] wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he made him [18] governour over Egypt, and all his house.

11 * Now there came a [19] dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 * But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the [20] second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Josephs kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, [21] threescore and fifteen souls.

[21] Gen. 46. 27. Deut. 10. 22. Stephen here reckons those which Joseph called into Egypt to him, viz. his eleven Brethren, his Sister Dinah, his Brethrens Children fifty two, (in all sixty four:) to which add the eleven Wives of his Brethren, and they make up seventy five: whereas Moses reckons only Jacob's Seed that came out of his Loins, and excepts his Daughters-in-Law, Gen. 46. 26.

15 * So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and [22] our fathers, [22] The twelve Patriarchs, the Sons of Jacob, from whom descended the twelve Tribes.

16 And * [23] were carried over into Sychem, and laid in * the sepulcher that [24] Abraham bought for a summ of mony of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

[23] i. e. Our Fathers. There is mention made only of Joseph's Bones that were carried over to Sichem, (Josh. 24. 32.) but by this place it appears, that the Bones of all the rest of the Patriarchs were carried thither also, (there being the same reason for all, as one.) ¶ [24] i. e. One of his Posterity, viz. Jacob, Gen. 33. 19. (and so 'tis recited almost in the very same words that are used here, Josh. 24. 32.) Thus Matt. 2. 18. Rachel is put for Benjamin her Son, and Benjamin for his Posterity, the People (and especially the Women) of that Tribe: so Oded is put for Azariah his Son. 2 Chron. 15. 1, 8. compared. Or, if we say, it was a slip of Memory in Stephen, it will not in the least impair or weaken the Force of his Discourse and Reasoning, nor impeach his being filled with the Holy Ghost: (v. 55.) for that Expression there seems to be meant chiefly of his Graces; particulatly, of Faith: (and therefore they are joyn'd together, ch. 6. 5.) but especially of that extraordinary Ability bestow'd upon him, to see with his Bodily Eyes the Glory of God, and Jesus standing on his Right Hand, (as it follows there.) Besides, Peter is said to be filled with the Holy Ghost, (ch. 4. 31.) yet he did that which was blame-worthy, (Gal. 2. 11.) which is more than can be said of Stephen, supposing it to be a Mistake.

17 But when the [25] time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, * the people grew and [26] multiplied in Egypt.

18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

13 Then Ananias anſwered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy ſaints at Jeruſalem:

15 But the Lord ſaid unto him, Go thy way: for * he is a [19] choſen veſſel unto me, to bear my name before the * [20] Gentiles, and * kings, and the children of Iſrael.

17 And * Ananias went his way, and entred into the houſe; and * [21] putting his hands on him, ſaid, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jeſus that [22] appeared unto thee in the way as thou cameſt) hath ſent me, that thou mighteſt receive thy ſight, and * be filled with the holy Ghoſt.

18 And immediately there [23] fell from his eyes as it had been ſcales; and he received ſight forthwith, and aroſe, and was baptized.

[23] 2 Cor. 3. 14.

19 And when he had received meat, he was ſtrengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the diſciples which were at Damaſcus.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Ceſarea, and ſent him forth to Tarſus.

31 [37] Then had the churches [38] reſt throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were [39] edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in [40] the comfort of the holy Ghoſt, were multiplied.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron, ſaw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain diſciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ‖ Dorcas: this woman was full of [44] good works, and alms-deeds which ſhe did.

‖ Or, Doe, or Roe.

37 And it came to paſs in thoſe days, that ſhe was ſick and died: whom when they had waſhed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And for as much as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the diſciples had heard that Peter was there, they ſent unto him two men, deſiring him that he would not ‖ delay to come to them.

‖ Or, be grieved.

39 Then Peter aroſe, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows ſtood by him [45] weeping, and [46] ſhewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while ſhe was with them.

40 But Peter [47] put them all forth, and kneeled down and [48] prayed, and turning him to the body, ſaid, Tabitha, ariſe. And ſhe opened her eyes: and when ſhe ſaw Peter, ſhe ſat up.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to paſs, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

1 THere was a certain man in Ceſarea, called Cornelius, [2] a centurion of the band called the Italian band.

[1] Hitherto we have had an Account wholly of the Apoſtles Converſe with, and Preaching to the Jews: Here he begins to relate their Preaching to, and Converſe with the Gentiles, and the Occaſion thereof, in this Chapter. ¶ [2] A Captain of a hundred Souldiers.

2 [3] A devout man, and one that [4] feared God with [5] all his houſe, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God [6] alway.

3 He ſaw in [7] a viſion evidently, [8] about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and ſaying unto him, Cornelius.

[7] Dan. 9. 21. An Appearance of an Angel, (v. 30.) which he ſaw with his Bodily Eyes, waking. ¶ [8] The time of Prayer, ch. 31.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and ſaid, [9] What is it, Lord? And he ſaid unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are [10] come up for a memorial before God.

[9] What's the matter? What's thy Pleaſure? ¶ [10] Pſal. 141. 2. Heb. 13. 16. Rev. 8. 3. Had in remembrance, (v. 31.) taken notice of, accepted, and ſhall be rewarded.

5 And now ſend men to Joppa and call for one Simon, whoſe ſurname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whoſe houſe is by the ſea-ſide: he ſhall tell thee what thou oughteſt to do.

7 And when the angel which ſpake unto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his houſhold-ſervants, and a [3] devout ſouldier of them that waited on him continually:

8 And when he had declared all theſe things unto them, he ſent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow as they went on their Journey, and drew nigh unto the city, * Peter went up upon the [11] houſe top to pray, about the [12] ſixth hour.

11 And * ſaw heaven opened, and a certain veſſel deſcending unto him, as it had been a great ſheet, knit at [14] the four corners, and let down to the earth:

[16] Viz. Indifferently; of any of theſe things; to note, that he ſhould converſe freely with all ſorts, Gentiles as well as Jews.

16 This was done [21] thrice: and the veſſel was received up again [22] into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himſelf what this viſion, which he had ſeen, ſhould mean; behold, the men which were ſent from Cornelius, had made enquiry for Simon's houſe, and ſtood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon which was ſurnamed Peter, were lodged there.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were ſent unto him from Cornelius; and ſaid, Behold, I am he whom ye ſeek: what is the cauſe wherefore ye are come?

22 And they ſaid, Cornelius the centurion, a juſt man, and one that feareth [27] God, and [28] of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to ſend for thee into his houſe, and to hear words of thee.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and [30] worſhipped him.

[30] Though it was but civil reverence he gave him, yet Peter perceived that it exceeded its due bounds, and ſo refuſed it; as Rev. 19. 10. & 22. 8.

* Ch. 14. 14. Rev. 19. 10. & 22. 9.

26 But Peter took him up, ſaying, * Stand up; [31] I my ſelf alſo am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he ſaid unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew, to keep company, or [32] come unto one of another nation: but * God hath ſhewed me, that I ſhould [33] not call any man common or unclean.

CHAP. XI.

1 Peter accuſed for going in to the Gentiles, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The Goſpel is ſpread. 26 At Antioch the diſciples firſt called Chriſtians.

AND the apoſtles and [1] brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had alſo received the word of God.

[1] Jewiſh Chriſtians.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jeruſalem, * [1] they that were of the circumciſion [2] contended with him,

* Ch. 10. 28. Gal. 2. 12.

4 But Peter [2] rehearſed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, ſaying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in [3] a trance I ſaw a viſion, a certain veſſel deſcend, as it had been a great ſheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me.

[3] See on ch. 10. 10, &c.

6 Upon the which when I had faſtened mine eyes, I conſidered, and ſaw four-footed beaſts of the earth, and wild beaſts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air,

7 And I heard a [4] voice ſaying unto me, Ariſe, Peter; ſlay, and eat.

[4] Iſa. 30. 21.

8 But I ſaid, Not ſo, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice anſwered me again from heaven, What God hath cleanſed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the houſe where I was, ſent from Ceſarea unto me.

12 And

12 And * the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter:

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and [s] all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, as on [6] us at the beginning.

[6] Ch. 2.4.

16 Then remembred I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed [7] baptized with [8] water; but ye shall be [9] baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 * Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what was I that I could [10] withstand God?

*Ch. 15.9.

[10] Ch. 5.39. Go about to oppose this wonderful work of God on 'em, by refusing to own 'em as the People of God, and converse with 'em as such, and bestow on 'em the outward Sign, when God had bestow'd the thing signified.

18 When they heard these things, they [11] held their peace, and [12] glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles [13] granted repentance unto life.

[11] Josh. 22.-30. ¶ [12] Ch. 21.20. ¶ [13] Afforded 'em the means to bring 'em to Repentance, and converted 'em to Christ, whereby they may be saved.

19 ¶ Now they which were [14] scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose [15] about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

[14] Ch. 8.1, 4. ¶ [15] For his plain dealing with the Jews and their Rulers.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the [16] Grecians, preaching the [17] Lord Jesus.

[17] Ch. 10.42.

21 And * the [18] hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

[18] Power to work Miracles, and render their preaching successful, and so God makes their scattering, (v. 19.) turn to their increase.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

8 And the Angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath [8] sent his angel, and hath [9] delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and [10] from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

17 But he * beckening unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how [14] the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now assoon as it was day, there was no small stir among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

CHAP. XV.

1 Dissension about the circumcision. 6 The Apostles consult about it. 22 Their determination. 36 Paul and Barnabas contend, and part asunder.

AND [1] certain men which came down from Judea, taught the [2] brethren, and said, * Except ye be [3] circumcised [4] after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul aud Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, [5] they determined that * Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the [6] apostles and elders about this [7] question.

[1] Gal. 2. 1.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done [8] with them.

[8] See on ch. 14. 27. in the conversion of the Gentiles.

5 But there ‖ rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which [9] believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

‖ Or, rose up, said they, certain. [9] Ch. 21. 20.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that [10] a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

Chap. 15. 4049.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God [22] at the first did [23] visit the Gentiles, to [24] take out of them a people [25] for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [26] After this I will return, and will [27] build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down: and I will build again the [28] ruines thereof, and I [29] will set it up:

[26] Amos 9. 11, 12. viz. In the latter days. ¶ [27] Repair the decay'd condition of the House of David, by sending the Messia, (the Son of David, and chief Branch of that Family) and by him establish and advance the Church. ¶ [28] The ruinous condition brought upon it by the unbelieving Jews. ¶ [29] Viz. By bringing the Gentiles into their room, Matt. 8. 11.

17 That [30] the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, [31] upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

[32] q. d. This, therefore, of the calling and conversion of the Gentiles, is nothing but what God appointed from all Eternity, and foretold long ago.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we [33] trouble not them which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

[33] v. 10. 24. Rom. 15. 2. Lay not upon 'em any unnecessary burdens and impositions.

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain * from [34] pollutions of idols, and from * [35] fornication, and from things [36] strangled, and from [36] blood.

(Which things were very offensive and odious to the Jews, and therefore must be forborn in case of Scandal.)

21 For [37] Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being [38] read in the synagogues every sabbath-day.

[37] q. d. The Jews are so inured to the Observation of these Laws, by the frequent reading of Moses, that they can't bear the neglect thereof, and therefore must be complied with thus far. ¶ [38] Ch. 13. 27.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, [39] with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

[39] With their approbation and consent.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, The apostles, and elders, and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria and Cilicia.

24 For as much as we have heard, that certain which went out [40] from us have [41] troubled you with words [42] subverting your souls, saying, Ye

† Gr. word. † mouth.

28 For it ſeemed good to the [46] holy Ghoſt, and [46] to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than theſe [47] neceſſary things;

[46] To us, guided by the Holy Ghoſt, 1 Cor. 7. 25. 40. ¶ [47] Not all of 'em in their own Nature, but in thoſe circumſtances you are in, for avoiding Offence to the Jews, and that their minds may not be alienated from the Goſpel, and to procure a good Underſtanding and mutual Agreement between you. 25 ¶ And at [34] midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and [35] ſang praiſes unto God: and the priſoners heard them.

26 And ſuddenly there was a great [36] earthquake, ſo that the foundations of the priſon were ſhaken: and immediately all the [37] doors were opened, and every ones bands were looſed.

27 And the keeper of the priſon awaking out of his ſleep, and ſeeing the priſon-doors open, drew out his ſword, and would have [38] killed himſelf, ſuppoſing that the priſoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, ſaying, Do thy ſelf no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and ſprang in, and came [39] trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas;

34 Many are converted.

NOW when they had paſſed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Theſſalonica, where was a ſynagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three ſabbath-days reaſoned with them out of the ſcriptures,

[4] Ver. 13. ch. 13. 45, 50. & 14. 2, 19. ¶ [5] Judg. 9. 4.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jaſon, and certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, Theſe that have [6] turned the world upſide down, are come hither alſo;

9 And when they had taken ſecurity of Jaſon, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately ſent away Paul and Silas [9] by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the ſynagogue of the Jews.

[9] Ch. 9. 25.

11 Theſe were [10] more noble than thoſe in Theſſalonica, in that they [11] received the word with all [12] readineſs of mind, and [13] ſearched the ſcriptures daily, whether [14] thoſe things were [15] ſo.

12 Therefore many of them believed: also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and [16] stirred up the people.

[16] Ch. 14. 2.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy abode there still.

1 Paul will not be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philip's daughters Prophetesses. 17 Paul at Jerusalem, 27 is apprehended, and in great danger: 31 but is rescued by the chief captain.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had lanched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burthen.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven * Chap. 20. 23. days: * [1] who said to Paul through the spirit, that he [2] should not go up to Jerusalem.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea; and we entred into the house of Philip the [4] evangelist, (which was [5] one of the seven) and abode with him.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful [21] Ch. 16. 37. for you to scourge a man that is a [21] Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest; for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him ‖ Or, tortured. which should have ‖ examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands and commanded the chief priests and all their councel to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

[5] I did not well consider the Dignity of the Person I spake to: Or, I own him not for a lawful High Priest. ¶ [6] Exod. 22. 28.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the councel, Men and brethren, I am a [7] Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: [8] of the hope and resurrection of the dead, I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the [9] multitude was divided.

[9] The Company of the Senators.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is [10] no resurrection, neither [11] angel nor [12] spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. * Mark. 12. 18. Luke 20. 27.

[10] Matt. 22. 23. ¶ [11] No such permanent Beings as we call Angels; but that those mentioned in the Old Testament, which appeared, were only Corporeal Substances, created upon a special Occasion; or, that they were but Images and Impressions supernaturally formed in the Fancy, by the special Operation of God, to signifie his Mind; whereupon they might fitly be called God's Messengers and Ministers. ¶ [12] Soul of Man subsisting without a Body.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, We find [13] no evil in this man: but if a [14] spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not [15] fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following, the Lord [16] stood by him, and said, [17] Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. [16] Ch. 2. 25. [17] Ch. 18. 9.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews [18] banded together, and bound themselves ‖ under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul: [18] Ver. 20, 30. Isa. 8. 9, 10. Matt. 26. 74. ‖ Or, with an oath of execration.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore [19] ye with the councel, signifie to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though you would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. [19] Prov. 1. 11.

16 And when Paul's sister's son [20] heard of their lying in wait, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul. [20] Job 5. 13. Prov. 21. 30.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the Prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, * The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the councel, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. * Ver. 12.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So

Chap. 24. 4063.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou haſt ſhewed theſe things unto me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, ſaying, Make ready two hundred ſouldiers to go to Ceſarea, and horſemen threeſcore and ten, and ſpearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night.

24 And provide them beaſts, that they may ſet Paul on, and bring him ſafe unto Felix the governour.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudias Lyſias, unto the moſt excellent governour Felix ſendeth greeting.

[a] Chap. 21. 33. 27 [a] This man was taken of the Jews, and ſhould have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and reſcued him, having underſtood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cauſe wherefore they accuſed him, I brought him forth into their councel:

[b] See ord. 18. 15. 29 Whom I perceived to be accuſed of queſtions [b] of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I ſent ſtraightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accuſers alſo, to ſay before thee what they had againſt him. Farewel.

31 Then the ſouldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horſemen to go with him, and returned to the caſtle.

33 Who when they came to Ceſarea, and delivered the epiſtle to the governour, preſented Paul alſo before him.

34 And when the governour had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he underſtood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, ſaid he, when thine accuſers are come. And he commanded him to be kept in [22] Herod's judgment-hall.

4 Notwithſtanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldeſt hear us of thy clemency a few words.

9 And the Jews alſo aſſented, ſaying, that theſe things were ſo.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckened unto him to ſpeak, anſwered, Foraſmuch as I know that thou haſt been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully anſwer for my ſelf:

11 Becauſe that thou mayeſt underſtand, that there are yet but twelve days ſince I went up to Jeruſalem for to worſhip;

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Druſilla, which was a Jeweſs, he ſent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Chriſt.

25 And as he reaſoned of [19] righteouſneſs, [20] temperance, and judgment to come, Felix [21] trembled, and anſwered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient ſeaſon, I will call for thee.

2 Paul accused before Festus, 8 answereth for himself, 11 appealeth to Cesar. 14 Festus openeth the matter to Agrippa: 23 He is brought forth, 25 and cleared by Festus.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

[1] Ch. 24. 1.

2 Then the high priest, and the [1] chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, [2] laying wait in the way to kill him.

[2] Ch. 23. 15. Psal. 140. 5.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

‖ Or, as some copies read, no more than eight or ten days.

6 And when he had tarried among them ‖ more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea, and the next day sitting in the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and laid many and [3] grievous complaints against Paul, which they could [4] not prove;

8 While he answered for himself, [5] Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

[6] Ch. 24.-27.

9 But Festus [6] willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars judgment-seat, where I [7] ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

[7] Viz. Because I am a Denizen of Rome, ch. 22.-28.

* Chap. 18. 14.

11 * For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, [8] I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may [9] deliver me unto them. [10] I appeal unto Cesar.

[8] Josh. 22.-22. A man may be such an offender in matters of Religion (v. 8.) as well as in civil matters, as to be worthy of death. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the councel, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying,

* Chap. 24.27.

* There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

[11] Esth. 3.9. Sentence past against him according to what they charg'd him with.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers [12] face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

Chap. 26. 4063.

[12] Deut. 19.17.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had [13] certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

[13] Ch. 23. 29.

20 And because ‖ I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

‖ Or, I was doubtful how to enquire hereof.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the ‖ hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

‖ Or, judgment.

22 Then * Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man my self. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

* See Chap. 9. 15.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with [14] great pomp, and was entred into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus commandment Paul was brought forth.

[14] A great Train, Appearance, or Shew.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying, that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing [15] worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

[15] Chap. 23. 9. & 26.-31. John 18.-38.

4 My manner of life from my [4] youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testifie) that after the most [5] straitest sect of our religion, I lived [6] a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand, and am judged [7] for the hope of * the promise made of God unto our fathers:

[7] For asserting the Resurrection from the Dead, (ver. 8. & 23. 6. & 24. 15.) which is the ground of our Hope of everlasting Life.

7 Unto which promise our [8] twelve tribes, instantly serving God † day and night, [9] hope to come: [10] for which hopes sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to [13] blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the [16] Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest:

16 But rise, and [17] stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of [18] these things which thou hast seen, and of [18] those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 [19] Delivering thee from the [20] people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 [21] To open their eyes, and to turn them from [22] darkness to [23] light, and from [24] the power of Satan unto God, that they may [25] receive [26] forgiveness of sins, and [27] inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is [28] in me.

11 Nevertheleſs, the centurion believed the maſter and the owner of the ſhip, more than thoſe things which were ſpoken by Paul.

12 And becauſe the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part adviſed to depart thence alſo, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth towards the ſouth-weſt, and north-weſt.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this Epiſtle are handled ſeveral of the great Doctrines of the Goſpel; as, I. Juſtification by Faith without the works of the Law; which neither Jews nor Gentiles could pretend to: not the Gentiles, becauſe they were guilty of many groſs ſins againſt the Light of Nature: (ch. 1. 18–32.) nor the Jews, becauſe they were Tranſgreſſors of the written Law: and therefore all, both Circumciſion and Uncircumciſion, muſt ſeek for Juſtification by Faith only, (ch. 2. v. 3.) even as Abraham the Father of the faithful, was juſtified, (ch. 4.) and from thence only we can have Peace and Comfort, ch. 5. II. Sanctification, both in reſpect of Mortification or the death of Sin, and Vivification or the Life of Holineſs, ch. 6. III. Freedom from the Law, as a Covenant of works though not as a Rule of Life and Obedience, ch. 7. 1–14. IV. The Conflict between the Fleſh and Spirit in the regenerate, ch. 7. 15–25. V. The Priviledges and Benefits of thoſe that are in Chriſt, viz. Freedom from Condemnation, Indwelling of the Spirit, Adoption, Witneſs of the Spirit, his Aſſiſtance in Prayer, a ſanctified Uſe of all Diſpenſations, Aſſurance of God's owning and loveing us, ch. 8. VI. Election and Reprobation, ch. 9. VII. Calling both of Gentiles, (ch. 10.) and of Jews, to become Members of the Chriſtian Church towards the latter End of the World, ch. 11. VIII. Obedience to God, (ch. 12.) and to Magiſtrates, ch. 13. IX. A charitable Uſe of our Chriſtian Liberty, ch. 14. and 15. and then he concludes with divers Salutations, ch. 16.

[64] q. d. It appears, that the Gospel is a powerful Means to bring Men to Salvation, because it teaches Justification by Faith, which is the only way of obtaining Salvation. (And so, here he begins to prove Justification by Faith.) ¶ [65] In the Gospel. ¶ [66] Ch. 3. 21, 22, 26. & 10. 3. 2 Cor. 5. 21. Phil. 3. 9. that way or method of becoming righteous, which is of God's Institution, Ordination, Appointment, and Establishment, and which alone he will accept to Life, and which he works by the Power of his Grace. Chap. 1. 4063.

18 [73] For the [74] wrath of God is [75] revealed from heaven against all [76] ungodliness, and [76] unrighteousness of men, who [77] hold the [78] truth in [79] unrighteousness.

[73] q. d. It appears, that the only way of obtaining Righteousness and Life, is by Faith, (which only the Gospel reveals, and neither the Light of Nature, nor the Law) and not by Works, because both Jews and Gentiles were guilty of great and heinous Sins, the one against the Light of Nature, the other against the Law, and so could not plead their Works, but fell under the Wrath of God. (Here he begins with the Gentiles.) ¶ [74] Ch. 2.–8. ¶ [75] Viz. by those Judgments which he inflicts on Sinners (v. 24.–26.) and by their Remorse, and the Challenges of their Consciences. ¶ [76] Against Transgressors of their Duty to God and Men. ¶ [77] John 12. 42. stifle and imprison in their Understandings, and suffer it not to discover it self, and influence their Lives, (at least not fully and thorowly) but resist it, and rebell against it. ¶ [78] Those common Notices and Principles, concerning the Nature of God, and Obedience due to him, and Just Dealing with others, imprinted on their Hearts by Nature. ¶ [79] Against all Right, and by reason of that Power which their vile Affections and base Lusts have over them.

22 [95] Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

[95] While they pretended to, and boasted of more than ordinary Wisdom, 1 Cor. 1.–22. (their Learned Men being at first usually called Sophists, or Wisemen; though afterwards, Philosophers,) they entertained and vented many gross and absurd Opinions and Practices, and so shew'd themselves to be real Fools.

23 And [97] changed the glory of the uncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

[97] Deut. 4. 15, &c. Psal. 106. 20. Isa. 40. 18, &c. Jer. 2. 11. q. d. By their Idolatrous Conceptions, Doctrines, and Representations, they made the glorious Majesty of God appear to be but of the same nature with inferiour, yea, the most contemptible Creatures.

24 Wherefore God also [98] gave them up to [99] uncleanneſs, [1] through the luſts of their own hearts, [2] to diſhonour their own bodies between themſelves:

[22] Matt.

Chap. 2. 4063.

[32] Matt. 16. 27. n. 65. (See there.) ¶ [33] Both good and bad, Jew and Gentile. ¶ [34] The Quality, Nature and Number of his Works, (and not according to his Presumptions or Pretences, Matt. 7. 22, 23.)

7 To them, who by [35] patient continuance in well-doing, [36] seek for [37] glory, and [37] honour, and [37] immortality; [38] eternal life:

[35] Rev. 2. 10. Persevering in a constant course of Obedience and Holiness, notwithstanding all Oppositions and Difficulties they meet with, Matt. 24. 13. ¶ [36] viz. As the glorious Reward of their sincere Endeavours. ¶ [37] 1 Pet. 1. 7. Matt. 13. 43. The Consummation of all those glorious Qualifications and Enjoyments, which are bestow'd on the Saints in Heaven. ¶ [38] He'll render Eternal Life to such.

8 But unto them that are [39] contentious, and [40] do not obey the truth, but [41] obey unrighteousness, [42] indignation and wrath;

[39] Job 24. 13. Hos. 4. 4. 2 Tim. 3. 8. 1 Cor. 11. 16. Quarrelling and cavelling against the Truth, Laws, and Justice of God, and will not be convinc'd of their Duty. ¶ [40] Walk not answerably to their Natural Light (ch. 1. 18.) and continue in their Infidelity and Disobedience against the Gospel, 2 Thess. 1. 8. Gal. 3. 1. & 5. 7. ¶ [41] Give up themselves to all manner of Wickedness. ¶ [42] A mixture of Anger and Hatred shall fall upon 'em from God.

9 [43] Tribulation and [44] anguish upon every [45] soul of man that doth evil, of the Jew * [46] first, and also of the † Gentile.

'Luke 12. 47, 48. 1 Pet. 4. 17. † Gr. Greek.

[43] Hellish Pains and Torments, which shall crush 'em all to pieces, as it were. ¶ [44] Such straits and perplexities of Mind, that they shall not know which way to turn themselves. ¶ [45] Ezek. 18. 4. ¶ [46] Amos 3. 2. As having more Means, and the first Offers of the Gospel, ch. 1. 16. Acts 3. 26. & 13. 46.

10 But [47] glory, honour, and [48] peace, to every man that [49] worketh good, to the [50] Jew first, and also to [50] the Gentile.

[47] See n. 27. ¶ [48] Psal. 37. 37. A secure and quiet enjoyment of all Good. ¶ [49] Sincerely performs his Duty. ¶ [50] To one as well as another (as the following Words carry it.)

11 For [51] there is [52] no respect of persons with God.

[51] Lev. 19. 15. Deut. 1. 17. & 10. 17. & 16. 19. 2 Chron. 19. 7. Job 34. 19. Prov. 24. 23. Acts 10. 34. Gal. 2. 6. Eph. 6. 9. Col. 3. 25. 1 Pet. 1. 17. Jud. 16. ¶ [52] q. d. In passing Sentence, and distributing Rewards and Punishments, God does not consider Men according to their outward Condition, Nation, Parentage, &c. but only according to their Works, 1 Pet. 1. 17.

12 For as many as have sinned [53] without law, shall also [54] perish without law: and [55] as many as have sinned [56] in the law, shall be [57] judged [58] by the law,

[53] Without having the Law publish'd to them in such a solemn manner, and written in Tables of Stone, as the Jews had, (which was the case of the Gentiles, v. 14.) ¶ [54] Be condemned, not according to the Sentence of that Law, but only according to what was written in their Hearts, and the Testimony of their own Consciences, v. 15. ¶ [55] Jews and Christians, who have the written Word of God for their Rule, and yet—— ¶ [56] Ch. 3. 2. Against this plain and perfect Revelation of it. ¶ [57] Dealt with. ¶ [58] Joh. 5. 45. According to their Observation of, and Obedience to that written Law.

13 (For [59] not the hearers of the law are [60] just before God, but the [61] doers of the law shall be [62] justified.

[59] Matt. 7. 21. Jam. 1. 22, 25. ¶ [60] Accounted and dealt with as righteous Persons, (as the Rabbins taught.) ¶ [61] 1 Joh. 3. 7. See on Matt. 7. 24. Such as yield sincere Obedience to the Law. ¶ [62] Accounted righteous, and acquitted from Condemnation.

14 [63] For when the Gentiles which have not the [64] law, [65] do [66] by nature the [67] things contained in the law, these having not the law, [68] are a law unto themselves:

[63] q. d. It appears that only the doers of the Law shall be justified, because even the Gentiles find that their Consciences do either accuse or excuse 'em, according to their Conformity to that Law and Light which they have. ¶ [64] Viz. Written, as the Jews had. ¶ [65] Any of them, in any particular. ¶ [66] 1 Cor. 5. 1. Being moved and guided meerly by the Light of Nature, and Dictates or Directions of Natural Conscience. ¶ [67] Many of the same Duties for substance, which the written Law enjoyns. ¶ [68] Have that within 'em, which shews 'em what is to be done, what to be avoided, and acquits or condemns 'em accordingly.

Chap. 2. 4063.

15 [69] Which shew the work of the law [70] written in their hearts, ‖ their conscience [71] also [72] bearing witness, and their [73] thoughts ‖ the [74] mean while [75] accusing, or else [76] excusing one another)

‖ Or, the conscience witnessing with them. ‖ Or, between themselves.

[69] Whereby they plainly discover, that there is the same Work or Duty required of 'em, as to the outward part of it, which the written Law enjoyns. ¶ [70] Imprinted there by Nature, and not quite blotted out or lost. ¶ [71] Together with the Testimony, or Law of God. ¶ [72] Viz. How far forth they have complied with their Light or Law. ¶ [73] Reflexions upon their own Actions. ¶ [74] Or, [by turns] according as they do well or ill. ¶ [75] Judg. 1. 7. Checking and condemning them, when they have gone against their Light. ¶ [76] Gen. 20. 5. Approving and justifying them, when they have conformed to it, (and therefore 'tis not the having or knowing of the Law (v. 13.) nor the condemning others for the transgression of it, (v. 13.) that will avail a Man, but the Doing of it.)

16 * [77] In the day when God shall judge the [78] secrets of men * [79] by Jesus Christ, according to [80] my gospel.

* Matt. 25. 31. * Acts 17. 31.

[77] This relates to v. 12. ¶ [78] Eccl. 12. 14. Not only their outward Actions, which are manifest to all, but their most hidden Sins (Psal. 90. 8.) and secret Duties, (Matt. 6. 4, 6.) and their inward Purposes, Designs, Aims, &c. 1 Cor. 4. 5. ¶ [79] See on John 5. 22. ¶ [80] 2 Tim. 2. 8. Committed to me (1 Tim. 1. 11. Tit. 1. 3.) and preached by me, Gal. 1. 11.

17 [81] Behold, [82] thou art called a [83] Jew, and * [84] restest in the law, and makest thy boast [85] of God;

* Mic. 3. 11. chap. 9. 4.

[81] Here he applies the matter more closely to the Jews, and proves, that notwithstanding all their pretences and priviledges, they were Transgressors of the Law, and so could not be justified by Works, any more than the Gentiles. ¶ [82] See n. 2. ¶ [83] A Professor of the true Religion, and a Worshipper of the true God. ¶ [84] Dependest on that alone, and the having of it, for Justification and Salvation. ¶ [85] John 8. 41. As belonging only to you Jews, and being yours in a peculiar manner: as your Law-giver, and Founder of your Commonwealth.

18 And [86] knowest his will, and ‖ [87] approvest the things that are more excellent, being [88] instructed out of the law,

‖ Or, triest the things that differ.

[86] Viz. By special Revelation, and more fully than the Gentiles. ¶ [87] Phil. 1. 10. Hast attained to a considerable degree of Understanding in the Law, so as to set a right value upon things according to their worth, and to distinguish between lawful and unlawful. ¶ [88] Acquainted with those things from thy childhood, 2 Tim. 3. 15.

19 And [89] art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

[89] Matt. 15. 14. & 23. 16. Vainly presumest that thou hast knowledge enough to teach others.

20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the [90] form of knowledge and [90] of the truth in the law.

[90] Rom. 6. 17. 2 Tim. 1. 13. A System, Body, Platform, or Model of that Knowledge which is scattered up and down in the Law, and of those Truths which are there delivered: (and these things thou countest sufficient to save thee, though thou livest loosely.)

21 * [91] Thou therefore which teachest another, [92] teachest thou not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, [93] dost thou steal?

* Psal. 50. 16, &c.

[91] q. d. These are the things thou valuest thy self upon, and trustest to, for acceptance with God, and never regardest the due governing and ordering of thy Life: But they'll be so far from standing thee in any stead, that they'll but aggravate thy Condemnation, for not living according to thy Knowledge. ¶ [92] q. d. What a shame is it that thou shouldest pretend to teach others, that which thou wilt not practise thy self! Matt. 23. 3. Luke 4. 23. 1 Cor. 9. 27. ¶ [93] Matt. 23. 14.

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou [94] commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou [95] commit sacrilege?

Chap. 2. 4063.

[85] Cherisheſt luſtful Thoughts and Deſires, and ſo becomeſt guilty of Adultery, Matt. 5. 28. ¶ [86] Robbing God of his Honour, or any thing that is due to him, Mal. 1. 6.

23 Thou that makeſt thy boaſt [87] of the law, through breaking the law [88] diſhonoureſt thou [89] God?

[87] Of having the Law given you by God, and conſigned to Writing for your uſe, and boaſteſt of thy perfect fulfilling of it, (Mat. 19. 20. Luke 18. 11.) and ſo reſteſt on it for Salvation, v. 17. ¶ [88] Viz. By thy own perſonal Sins, and giving occaſion to others to ſpeak evil of his Ways, as v. 24. ¶ [89] The Giver of the Law.

24 For [90] the Name of God is [91] blaſphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is [92] written.

[90] His Word and Ways. ¶ [91] Evil ſpoken of, as if it countenanced and encouraged ſuch Wickedneſs as you live in. ¶ [92] Viz. 2 Sam. 12. 14. Iſa. 52.-5. Ezek. 36. 20, 23. (whereby it appears, that Fathers and Children, former and preſent Generations, are all alike: and therefore none of 'em could challenge Juſtification by their Works.)

25 [93] For [94] circumciſion verily [95] profiteth, if thou [96] keep the law: but if thou be a [97] breaker of the law, thy circumciſion is [98] made uncircumciſion.

[93] q. d. Though none of the forementioned Particulars, nor any of thoſe outward Priviledges you enjoy, be ſufficient of themſelves to ſave you; yet they are not to be neglected, becauſe they are uſeful, if joyned with Obedience; otherwiſe not. ¶ [94] Thy being a Jew, and partaking of many Priviledges upon that account, ch. 3. 1, 2. & 9. 4, 5. ¶ [95] Is of ſpiritual advantage, according to its firſt Inſtitution, (and was not yet become abſolutely unlawful to the Jews.) ¶ [96] If thou ſincerely obſerveſt the Moral Law, and art inwardly holy; which Circumciſion and Profeſſion oblige to. ¶ [97] A wicked Liver. ¶ [98] Is of no more value, will ſtand thee in no more ſtead, is accounted by God (v. 26.) no better than Uncircumciſion; and no better ſhalt thou fare, Jer. 9. 25, 26.

26 [99] Therefore if the [1] uncircumciſion [96] keep the righteouſneſs of the law, [2] ſhall not his uncircumciſion be counted for circumciſion?

[99] q. d. Since the ſtreſs of all lies upon keeping the Law, therefore—— ¶ [1] The uncircumciſed Gentiles. ¶ [2] i. e. He ſhall be accounted a Jew ſpiritually (v. 29.) and accepted of God, rather than you carnal Jews, who live in Sin, and boaſt of your Circumciſion.

27 And ſhall not [3] uncircumciſion [4] which is by nature, if it [5] fulfil the law, [6] judge thee, who [7] by the letter and [7] circumciſion [8] doſt tranſgreſs the law?

[3] That ſort of Men whom you Jews ſo vilifie and deſpiſe, Eph. 2. 11. ¶ [4] Ver. 14. Gal. 2. 15. Who do not partake of that ſpecial Priviledge and Mark of God in their Fleſh, but are ſuch as Nature brought them into the World (as to that point.) ¶ [5] Ver. 14. Matt. 12. 41. ¶ [6] Condemn thee (by his example) and make thy Condemnation appear to be juſt, in that thou haſt more Means, and yet performeſt leſs Duty. ¶ [7] By truſting ſo much to thy having the Law in writing, and to thy being circumciſed, (as if theſe were ſufficient to ſave thee:) or, by truſting to the outward Priviledge of Circumciſion, which thou partakeſt of according to the Letter of the Law, but wanteſt the inward part thereof. ¶ [8] Takeſt liberty thereupon to indulge thy ſelf ſecurely in Sin, as if they'd bear thee out.

* John 8. 39. Rev. 2. 9.

28 [9] For * he is not a [10] Jew, which is one [11] outwardly; neither is that [12] circumciſion, which is [13] outward in the fleſh:

[9] q. d. It appears that a Jew, for all his outward Priviledges, may be judged and condemned, becauſe there are two ſorts of Jews and Circumciſion, one of which is of no account with God, and does not ſecure from Judgment. ¶ [10] Ch. 9.-6, 7, 8. & 14. 17. 1 Cor. 4. 20. & 8. 8. Gal. 5. 6. & 6. 15. 1 Tim. 4. 8. * Chap. 7. 6. 2 Cor. 3. 6, 7.

29 But he is [14] a Jew, which is one [15] inwardly; and [16] circumciſion is that [17] of the heart, * [18] in the ſpirit, and not [19] in the letter, * [20] whoſe praiſe is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 The Jews prerogative. 9 Yet the law convinceth them alſo of ſin. 20 None juſtified by the law, 28 but all by faith.

1 WHat advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there [2] of circumciſion?

[1] q. d. If it be ſo, that God looks only at the Heart, and does not regard Perſons for their external Priviledges, (ch. 2. 28, 29.) then, what is one the better for being a Jew, more than a Gentile? ¶ [2] If an uncircumciſed Perſon may be accepted, (ch. 2. 26.)

2 Much every way: chiefly, becauſe that unto them were committed the [3] oracles of God.

[3] Ch. 9. 14. Deut. 4. 7, 8. Pſal. 147. 19, 20. All the Revelations of God's Will, the Law, Sacraments, Prophecies, Promiſes, &c. which contain all things neceſſary to Salvation; ſo that they had great Helps, which others wanted.

3 [4] For what if * ſome did not believe? [5] ſhall their unbelief make the [6] faith of God [7] without effect?

* Heb. 4. 2.

[4] q. d. And though theſe Means are not effectual to all, to beget ſaving Faith in 'em, yet God is not to be blamed, but themſelves; for theſe things did in their own nature teach, excite, and oblige to Holineſs. ¶ [5] Ch. 9. 6. Numb. 29. 13. ¶ [6] His faithful Promiſes (2 Tim. 2. 13.) of ſending the Meſſiah, and of Redemption by him. ¶ [7] Not to be accompliſh'd.

4 God forbid: yea, [8] let * God be true, but * [9] every man a liar; [10] as it is written, [11] That thou mighteſt be juſtified in thy ſayings, and mighteſt [12] overcome when thou art judged.

* John 3. 33. * Pſal. 62. 9

[8] Let God be ſure to be juſtified, and acknowledged to be faithful in performing his Promiſes. ¶ [9] All mankind counted deceitful, and faithleſs, Pſal. 116. 11. ¶ [10] q. d. According to what David acknowledged to be true in his Caſe, and is true in all Caſes, that God muſt be juſtified, whatever becomes of us. ¶ [11] Pſal. 51. 4. q. d. I do acknowledge that I have juſtly deſerved all that is threatned, that ſo thou mayſt be acquitted from all Injuſtice in thoſe ſevere Judgments denounced againſt me. ¶ [12] Be pronounced Holy, and Juſt, and clear from all Imputations of Unrighteouſneſs, when thy Proceedings are narrowly ſcanned, and ſearched into at the Bar of right Reaſon.

5 [14] But if our unrighteouſneſs commend the righteouſneſs of God, [15] what ſhall we ſay? [16] Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ([17] I ſpeak as a man)

[14] q. d. But (may ſome ſay) if it be ſo, that our Infidelity be ſo far from making void the Faithfulneſs of God, as that it renders it more Illuſtrious, then we ought not to be condemned for it. ¶ [15] Ch. 4. 1. & 6. 1. & 7. 7. & 9.-14. Muſt we grant this to be true, and a good Inference? ¶ [16] Ch. 5. 8. Muſt we grant that God is unrighteous in puniſhing thoſe Practices which do ſo advance his Faithfulneſs? ¶ [17] Ch. 6. 19. 1 Cor. 9. 8. Gal. 3. 15. q. d. Theſe are the Thoughts and Speeches of profane cavilling Spirits.

6 [18] God forbid: for then [19] how ſhall God judge the world?

[18] Gen. 18. 25. q. d. This is a blaſphemous Cavil; ſince it is but by accident, that God's Faithfulneſs and Juſtice is advanced by our Infidelity. ¶ [19] q. d. It's impoſſible that he whom we own to be the Governour and Judge of the World, ſhould be unjuſt; and therefore the Conſequence is not good in ſuch Reaſoning.

Chap. 3. 4063.

7 [20] For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

[20] q. d. But such a one will further object, If God's Truth and Faithfulness be advanced by the Falseness and Faithlessness of Man, then he ought not only not to be punish'd, but not to be censur'd for it, or accounted a Transgressor. God should not complain of that which makes for his Glory.

8 [21] And not rather, [22] as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, [23] Let us do evil, that good may come? [24] whose damnation is just.

[21] The Order of the Words seems to be this, [And not rather, let us do evil——] the other Words [as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say] being included in a Parenthesis; and then the sense is thus, And why should not we rather think or say, That a Man may securely go on, and be exhorted to such things, that the Glory of God may be the more advanc'd thereby. ¶ [22] q. d. And they'd charge us the Apostles to have delivered something to this purpose: but it is a meer Slander. ¶ [23] Let us sin that Grace may abound. ¶ [24] q. d. I shall not reply to this Cavil now, but only tell you, That we are so far from any such Opinion, that we account their Damnation just, who hold and practise such Doctrines, and vent such Calumnies.

9 [25] What then? are we better than they? † Or charged. [26] No in no wise: for we have [27] before † proved both [28] Jews and [29] Gentiles, that they are [30] all [31] under sin;

[25] q. d. Well then (may a Jew further urge) since you grant that the Jews have the Advantage of the Gentiles in point of Priviledges (v. 2.) then sure they are in a better condition, as to Justification by Works. ¶ [26] The Apostle answers, That all are equal in that point, both Jews and Gentiles. ¶ [27] Viz. In the two former Chapters. ¶ [28] Viz. By the breach of the written Law. ¶ [29] Viz. By the transgression of the Law of Nature. ¶ [30] Every one of 'em, without exception. ¶ [31] Gal. 3. 22. Guilty of Sin (v. 19.) and so equally excluded from possibility of being justified by Works: And therefore the Gospel-righteousness is no less necessary for the one, than the other.

10 [32] As it is written, [33] There is none [34] righteous, no not one:

[32] Here he proves further concerning the Jews, that they are unrighteous before God, by Testimonies taken from their own Prophets, concerning their universal Corruption. ¶ [33] Psal. 14. 3. ¶ [34] That lives according to the Rule of the Law of God. All these Particulars are to be understood of what they were by Nature, and by the power and strength thereof.

11 [35] There is none that [36] understandeth, there is none that [37] seeketh after God.

[35] Psal. 14. 2. ¶ [36] Has any right apprehension of Spiritual, Divine things. ¶ [37] Viz. To know and worship him aright, whereby to get an Interest in him, and enjoy Communion with him.

12 [38] They are all gone out of the way, they are together become [39] unprofitable, there is none that [40] doeth good, no not one.

[38] Psal. 14. 3. Eccl. 7. 29. ¶ [39] Unfit and unable to bring forth any good Fruit. ¶ [40] Viz. Perfectly, according to the exactness of the Rule.

13 Their [41] throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the [42] poyson of asps is under their lips:

[41] Psal. 5. 9. Their speech is offensive, corrupt, and loathsome. ¶ [42] Psal. 140.-3. Jam. 3.-8. Their Slanders do wound mortally.

14 [43] Whose mouth is full of cursing and [44] bitterness.

[43] Psal. 10. 7. ¶ [44] Provoking, galling Language.

[41] Prov. 1. 16. Isa. 59. 7, 8. [42] Viz. To others.

15 [45] Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 [46] Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the [47] way of peace have they not known.

[47] Psal. 120. 7. They neither live quietly themselves, nor suffer others to live quietly by them.

18 There is no [48] fear of God before their eyes.

[48] Psal. 36. 1. No sense of Religion to restrain 'em.

19 [49] Now we know that what things soever the [50] law saith, it saith to them who are [51] under the law: that [52] every mouth may be stopped, and [53] all the world may become ‖ guilty before God.

Chap. 3. 4063.

‖ Or, subject to the judgment of God.

[49] q. d. Now since these Testimonies are produc'd out of the Law (which is your Rule) therefore they concern you Jews, and prove your universal Depravation. ¶ [50] The Scriptures of the Old Testament. ¶ [51] Under the conduct of the Law. ¶ [52] Ezek. 16. 63. 1 Cor. 1. 29. ¶ [53] Not only Gentiles, but you Jews also, (whatever you think to the contrary) and consequently, all the Sons of Adam, may acknowledge your selves guilty of the Transgression of the Law, and so cannot claim Justification thereby.

20 [55] Therefore [56] by the deeds of the law, there shall [57] no flesh be [58] justified in his sight: [59] for by the law is the † knowledge of sin.

[55] q. d. Since it appears by the fore-cited Testimonies, that the Law condemns you as Transgressours, therefore—— ¶ [56] Gal. 2.-16. By the performance of those Duties which the Law requires. See n. 92. ¶ [57] No Man, (because he is [flesh] depraved and weakned by Original Sin, and so disabled to fulfil the Law.) ¶ [58] Accounted righteous, and acquitted from condemnation. ¶ [59] Ch. 7. 7. q. d. And this appears, in that the Law (now since the Fall) serves only to shew us what is Sin, (ch. 7. 7.) and to discover the heinousness thereof, (ch. 5. 20.) but not to justifie. ¶ † An exacter and more perfect Discovery of its Nature, than the Light of Nature affords.

21 [60] But now the [61] righteousness of God [62] without the law is [63] manifested, being witnessed by the [64] law and the [65] prophets;

[60] q. d. But though Righteousness and Justification cannot be attained by the works of the Law, yet there is another way of attaining it, viz. by Faith, (which he comes now to assert.) ¶ [61] Ch. 1. 17. See there, n. 66. ¶ [62] Tho' we cannot yield or plead perfect Obedience to the Law, v. 28. ¶ [63] i. e. It is plain, there is such a way of becoming righteous, it being witnessed—— ¶ [64] Viz. Gen. 15. 6. ¶ [65] Viz. Isa. 53. Dan. 9. 24.

22 Even the [66] righteousness of God which is [66] by faith of Jesus Christ [67] unto all, and [67] upon all them that believe; for there is [68] no difference:

[66] Phil. 3.-9. By such a firm, hearty, lively belief of Christ to be what the Gospel declares him to be, as begets sincere obedience in the Life, Jam. 2. 24. ¶ [67] Which way of Justification belongs unto all, and is bestowed upon all Believers, whether Jews or Gentiles, without any difference in that respect. ¶ [68] Ch. 10. 12. Gal. 3. 28. Eph. 2. 14, 16. Col. 3. 11. viz. In the way of attaining Righteousness and Salvation.

23 [69] For * [70] all have sinned, and [71] come short of the glory of God; * Chap. 11. 32.

[69] q. d. And it appears that there can be no difference in the way of Justification, between Jews and Gentiles, because—— ¶ [70] Gal. 3. 22. ¶ [71] Are thereby deprived of the glorious Image of God, which rendred us righteous and acceptable to him; and also do deserve, according to the tenor of the Law, to be deprived of that glorious state (ch. 5. 2.) which otherwise we should have been partakers of.

24 [71] Being justified [74] freely by his grace, [75] through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

[73] Eph. 1. 6. & 2. 8. Tit. 3. 7. q. d. And this Justification I speak of, has nothing of merit in it, (in respect of us) but is of free Grace. ¶ [74] By his Grace acting freely and of its own accord, without any desert in us. ¶ [75] 1 Tim. 2. 6. Which is purchas'd for us by the Price that Christ has paid to God's Justice, to free us from the Penalty of the Law. See on Eph. 1. 7.

Law, and the Justice of God.) ¶ [78] Which we have a share in, by depending upon the Value and Merit of his Sacrifice and Sufferings for Acceptance, and all other Benefits which he has thereby purchas'd for us. ¶ [79] q. d. And the End why God set him forth to be a Propitiation, was that thereby it might appear that he might pardon Sin without any Impeachment of his righteousness, in that he did not pardon it without full satisfaction to the Law, by the Sufferings of Christ. ¶ [80] That were committed any time before his Death. q. d. It is now declared to Angels and Men, That the Pardon of Sins committed before Christ died (and much more since) was upon the account of the Satisfaction undertaken by Christ, and in due time to be exacted and paid, Heb. 9. 15. ¶ [81] And which through his Patience he did forbear to punish.

26 To declare, I say, [82] at this time his righteousness: [83] that he might be just, and [84] the justifier of him which [85] believeth in Jesus.

[82] Viz. Of shewing such Mercy to Sinners. q. d. When he most highly magnified his Mercy in finding out this way of Reconciliation, he did also most eminently declare his Justice, in requiring such Satisfaction for the Transgression of his Law. ¶ [83] That he might declare himself to be Just (by punishing Sin to the full in Christ.) ¶ [84] Might graciously account him that believes in Christ, a righteous Person, and thereupon might pardon his Sins. ¶ [85] Embraces this way of Justification, renouncing all Merit in himself, and is likewise indued with such a Faith.

* 1 Cor. 1. 29, 31. Eph. 2. 9.

27 * [86] Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? [87] of works? Nay: but by the [88] law of faith.

[85] q. d. And this way of Justification being of Free-grace (v. 24.) leaves no room for boasting of our own righteousness or abilities, (which you Jews are so prone to.) ¶ [87] Is it by that Law which requires perfect Obedience for Justification? ¶ [88] Isa. 51. 4. That Gospel-Law, or Constitution, which sets up Faith in the room of Law-works for Justification: Which Faith is the Work of God, and so takes away boasting of our own Abilities, Eph. 2. 8–10.

* Acts 13. 38. Chap. 8. 3.

28 [89] Therefore we conclude, * that a man is [90] justified [91] by faith without the [92] deeds of the law.

[89] q. d. Since it appears by what has been said, that all are Sinners, and so cannot be justified by the Law, and that God has set up another way of Justification, viz. by Faith, therefore—— ¶ [90] Gal. 2. 16. Accounted righteous, and dealt with accordingly. ¶ [91] By believing in Christ (See n. 66.) which is our Gospel-righteousness, or the Terms and Conditions of the Covenant of Grace for Justification: (as among us, some Felons are quitted, as to Life, by their Clergy, or upon their reading.) ¶ [92] See n. 62. i. e. Such Works as are done, (1.) By our own Strength, or the Strength of Nature, and common Assistance, without special Grace: for the Law gave no Strength: That came by Christ, John 1. 17. & 15.-5.) and therefore, (2.) meritorious, to which the Reward is reckoned of Debt, ch. 4. 4. (3.) Perfect (at least, thought to be so); and therefore (4.) whereof they might boast, ch. 4. 2. (See there.) Eph. 2. 8, 9.

29 [93] Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also.

[93] Ch. 10.-12. Prov. 22. 2. Eph. 2. 16. q. d. And hereby God has declared himself to have as much respect now to the Gentiles, as formerly to the Jews, (contrary to what they think, and would have) in that he has appointed the same way of Justification for both, v. 30.

30 Seeing it is [94] one God, which shall justifie the [95] circumcision [96] by faith, and [95] uncircumcision [96] through faith.

[94] The same unchangeable God in his method of justifying Sinners, whether Jews or Gentiles. ¶ [95] Jews and Gentiles. ¶ [96] q. d. The way of Justification is the same to both, whatever difference you may make in your Expressions about it.

31 [97] Do we then make void the law [98] through faith? God forbid: yea, we [99] establish the law.

[97] q. d. And yet for all this, though I affirm, That the Deeds of the Law have no consideration in the Business of Justification, yet I don't thereby destroy the Obligation and Use of the moral Law, (as some may think.) ¶ [98] By the Doctrine of Justification by Faith. ¶ [99] Matt. 5 17. Luke 16. 17. Maintain and confirm the great End and Design of the moral Law, which is, to promote universal Holiness; because that Faith by which we are justified, does produce it, Jam. 2. 24.

CHAP. IV.

Chap. 4. 4063.

1 Abraham's faith imputed for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 16 Abraham the father of all believers. 24 Our faith shall be also imputed for righteousness.

1 WHat shall we say then, that * Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? * Isa. 51. 2.

[1] Ch. 6. 1. & 7. 7. & 9. 14. q. d. Well! but (may some say) how can that be, that the Gentiles should be justified as well as, and in the same way with the Jews; (ch. 3. 20.) for Abraham was a justified Person, and he was one that was circumcised, and observed the Law. Did he get nothing thereby?

2 [2] For if Abraham were justified by [3] works, [4] he hath whereof to glory, [5] but not before God.

[2] q. d. No, not in point of Justification. For— ¶ [3] Law-works. See on ch. 3. 28. n. 92. ¶ [4] He may brag of what he has done by his own ability, and what he has deserv'd thereby. ¶ [5] q. d. But he has nothing to boast of before God (for 1 Cor. 4.-7.) (and therefore he was not justified by Works, but by Faith, as he proves in the following Verses.)

3 [6] For what saith the Scripture? [7] Abraham [8] believed [8] God, and [9] it was counted unto him for righteousness.

[6] q. d. For it appears by Scripture, that he was justified by Faith, and so had no such ground of boasting. ¶ [7] Gen. 15. 6. Gal. 3. 6. Jam. 2. 23. ¶ [8] That particular Promise of God concerning the numerousness of his Seed, Gen. 15. 5, 7. but especially the Promise of the Covenant concerning Christ, Gen. 12. 3. and in general, he firmly depended upon God for all; and manifested this his Faith, by his Works, Jam. 2. 21–23. ¶ [9] Ver. 10, 22. Psal. 106. 31. It was put upon his account by God, as one instance or particular (among others) of his righteousness; and accordingly he was graciously, and without any desert on his part, esteemed and owned to be a righteous Person, and dealt with accordingly. Or, This his Faith was accounted by God his Gospel-righteousness, as being the performance of the Condition which the Gospel requires to Justification. See ch. 3. 28. n. 91.

4 [10] Now to him that worketh, is the [11] reward not reckoned of grace, but † of debt.

[10] Ch. 11. 6. q. d. And this accounting a Man righteous upon believing, is an act of Grace and Favour; (whereas, if he were one that had perfectly obeyed the Law, then it were but his due Debt to be so counted.) ¶ [11] All that Benefit and Happiness he expects from God. ¶ † Not that God can properly and strictly be a debtor to the Creature in respect of commutative Justice, (ch. 11. 35.) but that, if Man continue in that state of Holiness wherein he was made, he should be esteemed righteous, and continue in God's Favour and Approbation, and live, (according to the Rules of distributive Justice.)

5 But to him that [12] worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the [13] ungodly, [14] his faith is counted for righteousness.

[12] Phil. 3. 8, 9. Has no perfect, meritorious, Law-works to plead. ¶ [13] One that is so in a strict Law-sense, who cannot plead perfect Obedience. ¶ [14] i. e. Upon his believing he is graciously dealt with by God, as if he were righteous in the strictest Law-sense. See n. 9.

6 [15] Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God [16] imputeth righteousness [17] without works,

[15] q. d. And that a man that is ungodly in a Law-sense may be justified, and that perfect Works are not necessary to Justification, may be also further confirmed by David's words, who describing the blessed Man, makes mention of his Sins and Iniquities; and therefore a Man may be justified though he has Sin, and so is not righteous in a Law-sense. His design is not to shew that Justification and Pardon are all one, but that Justification and Sin are consistent. ¶ [16] Graciously accounts him righteous in a Gospel-sense. ¶ [17] Ch. 3. 21–28. Though he hath no perfect meritorious Works to plead or produce.

7 Saying, [18] Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are † covered. [18] Psal. 32. 1, 2. † Deut. 23.-13.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will [19] not impute sin.

[19] Not charge his Sin upon him, so as to punish him for it.

9 Cometh

Chap. 4. 4063.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? [20] For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

[20] q. d. Yes; upon the Gentiles also, if they have Faith; for so it was with Abraham.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in [21] uncircumcision.

[21] q. d. He was justified by his Faith before he was circumcised; (and therefore the Gentiles Uncircumcision cannot hinder 'em from being justified, if they have Faith.)

11 [22] And he received the [23] sign of circumcision, [24] a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised; that * he might be the [25] father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; [26] that righteousness might be imputed unto them also.

* Luke 19. 9. v. 12, 16. Gal. 3. 7.

[22] i. e. And then, or, after he was justified. ¶ [23] i. e. Circumcision, which was a Sign or Token, on their part, that they had entred into Covenant with God, Gen. 17. 11. ¶ [24] An Assurance, on God's part, that he counted him righteous, by believing, before he was circumcised. ¶ [25] An eminent Example or Pattern of the Justification of Believers among the Gentiles. ¶ [26] That they might be accounted righteous, and treated accordingly, though they be guilty of many Sins.

12 And the [27] father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet [28] uncircumcised.

[27] A Pattern of the manner of the Justification of us Jews also, who are not only circumcised, as Abraham was, but also imitate his Faith. ¶ [28] q. d. And therefore if you Jews (though circumcised) will be justified, it must be by such a Faith as Abraham had when he was uncircumcised, or else you are not his true Children.

13 [29] For the promise that he [30] should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his [31] seed [32] through the law, but [33] through the righteousness of faith.

[29] Gal. 3. 18. q. d. And it further appears, that Abraham was righteous, or justified by Faith only, and not by Works of the Law, because—— ¶ [30] Gen. 17.-4. Should have a numerous natural Off-spring, (and, among them, Christ, by whom Blessedness was to be obtain'd) that should inherit that rich and pleasant part of the world, Canaan, (a Type of Heaven:) and also that he should have a spiritual Seed among all Nations all the world over. ¶ [31] True Believers. ¶ [32] Made to him upon consideration of any Efficacy there was in the Law, or his observance of it to procure that Blessing. ¶ [33] Upon the account of his Faith, (which rendred him a righteous Person in a Gospel-sense) manifested by his offering Isaac, which was an act of Faith (Heb. 11. 17. See there,) and upon which occasion God made those Promises to him, Gen. 22. 16.-18.

14 For if they which are [34] of the law be [35] heirs, [36] faith is made void, and the [37] promise made [38] of none effect.

[34] Gal. 3. 10, 18. & 2.-21. Of the Law's Party, Sticklers for it, Asserters and Maintainers of its Interest in Justification, Pretenders to the perfect Obedience of it, and seek to be justified thereby. ¶ [35] The only Persons that have a Title to the promised Inheritance and Blessedness, Eph. 3. 6. ¶ [36] There's no use of believing in Christ, and depending upon him alone for Blessedness. ¶ [37] Viz. Of Blessedness. ¶ [38] Can do us no good, is to no purpose, (because Blessedness can never be attained in that way, as he proves in the next words.)

15 Because * the [39] law [40] worketh wrath: [41] for where no law is, there is no transgression.

* 1 Cor. 7. 9. Gal. 3. 19.

[39] Viz. Of Works, which threatens Transgressors, but gives no ability to obey its Commands. ¶ [40] Ch. 5. 20. & 7. 8, 10. John 15. 22. 1 Cor. 15.-56. Reveals God's Wrath against Transgressors, and binds over to Punishment for the Transgression of it, and so begets fear of Wrath, in stead of giving Blessedness. ¶ [41] Ch. 5. 13. 1 Cor. 15.-56. q. d. As on one hand, where there is no Law, viz. that requires perfect Obedience as the condition of Life and Blessedness, there is no Transgression, that is, the Transgression thereof will not certainly deprive of Blessedness; so, on the other hand, where there is a Law or Covenant of Works, as the only Rule of Rewards and Punishments, it will certainly be broken, and so will bind over to Punishment, and deprive of Blessedness.

16 [42] Therefore it is of faith, [43] that it might be by grace; [44] to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to [45] that only which is of the law, but to [46] that also which is of the faith of Abraham, * who is the [47] father of us all,

Abraham* is the Father of all Believers, and therein is like unto God himself (in whom he believed) who is the Father of Gentile as well as Jewish Believers. ch. 3. 29. ¶ [50] John 5. 25. 2 Cor. 4. 6. Eph. 2. 1. Of eternal Salvation at laſt, Matt. 5. 12. John 16. 20.

5 And [17] hope maketh not aſhamed, becauſe the [18] love of God is [20] ſhed abroad in our hearts, [21] by the holy Ghoſt which is given unto us.

[17] Such Hope which is the fruit of Faith, Patience, and Experience, viz. Aſſurance, Shall not be diſappointed, but ſhall certainly obtain the good things hoped for, and ſo bring matter of rejoycing. ¶ [18] The ſenſe of his Love to us, v. 8. ¶ [20] Plentifully manifeſted to us, Tit. 3. 6. 2 Cor. 1. 22. ¶ [21] Ch. 8.-15, 16.

‖ Or, according to the time.

6 [22] For when we were yet [23] without ſtrength, ‖ [24] in due time Chriſt died [25] for the ungodly.

[22] q. d. And it is evident that we ſhall certainly partake of the forementioned Benefits, by and after our Juſtification, (v. 9.) becauſe Chriſt has done ſo much for us before Juſtification. ¶ [23] Ezek. 16. 3. Eph. 2. 1. Col. 2. 13. Unable to help our ſelves, or to ſatisfie God's Juſtice. ¶ [24] Gal. 4. 4. At the exact time prefix'd by God for it, John 13. 1. & 17. 1. ¶ [25] For the ſake, and in ſtead of ſuch as were Enemies to God, (v. 10.) and could not merit any favour from him.

7 For ſcarcely for a [27] righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a [28] good man ſome would even dare to die.

[27] An honeſt, juſt, unblamable Man. ¶ [28] A kind, merciful, bountiful Man.

8 But God [29] commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet [30] ſinners, Chriſt died [25] for us.

[29] John 3. 16. & 15. 13. 1 John 4. 9. Renders illuſtrious, as ch. 3. 5. ¶ [30] 1 Pet. 3. 18. In a ſtate of Sin, dead in Sin, and ſo had nothing to move God hereunto, but rather the contrary.

Chap. 5. 4063.

9 Much more then being now juſtified [31] by his bloud, we ſhall be ſaved from [32] wrath through him.

[31] Rev. 1.-5. 1 Pet. 1. 19. By Faith in his Sufferings, (ch. 3. 25. See there n. 78.) as the meritorious cauſe of our Juſtification, and all other Benefits. ¶ [32] Puniſhment, (1 Theſſ. 1. 10.) and have Peace, v. 1.

* See ch. 8. 32. * 2 Cor. 5. 19.

10 For * if when we were enemies, * we were [33] reconciled to God by the death of his Son: much more being reconciled, we ſhall be ſaved by * [34] his life.

* John 5. 57. & 14. 19. 2 Cor. 4. 10, 11.

[33] 2 Cor. 5. 18. Col. 1. 21, 22. Put into a capacity of Reconciliation, (God being thereby made reconcileable:) and alſo actually reconciled, if we believe, through the Merits of Chriſt's Death. ¶ [34] By what he does for us now he is alive; by his living to intercede (Heb. 7. 25.) and to communicate ſpiritual and eternal Life to Believers, John 6. 57.

11 And [35] not only ſo, but we alſo [36] joy in God, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom we have [37] now [38] received the atonement.

[35] Viz. That we ſhould be reconciled and ſaved, v. 10. ¶ [36] Rejoyce in certain aſſurance of our preſent Intereſt in God. ¶ [37] Now that we are Believers. ¶ [38] Made application to our own Souls of that Satisfaction which Chriſt has made for us, and ſo are actually reconciled.

* Gen. 3. 6. * Gen. 2. 17. Chap. 6. 23. ‖ Or, in whom.

12 [39] Wherefore, as * by [40] one man [41] ſin [42] entred into the world, and * [44] death [45] by ſin; and ſo death [46] paſſed upon [47] all men, ‖ for that [47] all have [48] ſinned:

[39] q. d. Since we are reconciled by Chriſt, it appears that he is the ſecond Adam, to repair what the firſt did ruine. Here he compares Chriſt and Adam, and ſhews, that Chriſt is more able to ſave, than Adam to deſtroy; and therefore juſtified Perſons need fear nothing. ¶ [40] Ch. 6. 23. 1 Cor. 15. 21. viz. Adam, (who only is mentioned (and not Eve) as being the Head of the Woman, and the Root of Mankind, with whom the Covenant was made.) ¶ [41] The firſt actual Sin, which was the original of all others. ¶ [42] Was firſt brought, came to be among Mankind. ¶ [44] Both Temporal and Eternal, together with all the Antecedents, Concomitants, and Conſequents thereof. ¶ [45] As a Puniſhment for Sin. ¶ [46] Seiſed upon all of all ſorts, one after another, (or, at leaſt, ſomething equivalent to it.) ¶ [47] Infants, as well as others. ¶ [48] Viz. In Adam their Head; and do derive Sin from him, v. 19. Here now ſhould follow the latter part of the Compariſon, [So by Chriſt righteouſneſs came into the world, and by righteouſneſs, life, unto all that are ſpiritually born of him,] But this is put off to v. 18, 19. and the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, and 17th Verſes are brought in in a kind of Parentheſis.

* 1 John 3. 4

13 [49] For until the law ſin was in the world: [50] but * ſin is not imputed when there is no law.

[49] q. d. And it appears that all have ſinned, becauſe Sin was always in the world, not only after the Law was given by Moſes, but alſo before, even from the beginning of the world till that time. ¶ [50] Ch. 4.-15. 1 Cor. 15.-56. q. d. Now if there had been no Law all that while, then Sin would not have been charg'd upon Men, ſo as to make them liable to Death: But Sin was charged upon them; for Death paſſed upon all, even Infants, (v. 12.) and therefore there was a Law, by the tranſgreſſion of which Men were Sinners then. Now this could not be the Law of Nature, (for Infants cannot tranſgreſs That) and therefore it muſt be the poſitive Law which God gave to Adam, the Tranſgreſſion whereof is imputed to all, even Infants, v. 14.

* 1 Cor. 15. 21, 22, 45.

14 [51] Nevertheleſs, death [52] reigned from Adam to Moſes, [53] even over them that had not ſinned after the ſimilitude of Adam's tranſgreſſion, * who is the [55] figure [56] of him that was to come:

[51] q. d. Though the Law was not yet given by Moſes, yet Sin was in the world, and was imputed, as appears by this, in that Death (which is the Puniſhment of Sin) was in the world afore the Law. ¶ [52] Brought all under its power, as v. 21. & ch. 6. 12. ¶ [53] q. d. Not only over them that had ſinned after the ſimilitude of Adam's Tranſgreſſion, but alſo over Infants, that had not ſinned actually, as Adam had done. ¶ [55] A lively Type of Chriſt in this publick Capacity, in that he is the Fountain, Head, and Root of Sin and Miſery, as Chriſt is of Righteouſneſs and Life. ¶ [56] Chriſt, the promiſed Seed.

15 [57] But

Chap. 5. 4063.

15 [57] But [58] not as [59] the offence, so also is [60] the free gift. [61] For if through the offence of one, many be dead; much more the [62] grace of God, and the [60] gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath [63] abounded * unto many.

* Matt. 20. 28. & 26. 28.

[57] q. d. But yet there is not a perfect equality and proportion between the Mischief that comes from Adam, and the Benefit that comes by Christ. ¶ [58] They are not equal in their Influence and Efficacy. ¶ [59] The sin of Adam, and the Misery that follows upon it. ¶ [60] The Benefit that arises to us from the Obedience of Christ. ¶ [61] q. d. If the Transgression of one meer Man was able to pull down Death, Condemnation, and Wrath, upon all his Posterity, or Natural Seed; then certainly much more will the Obedience and Righteousness of one, who is God as well as Man, avail to procure Reconciliation, Pardon, Blessing, and Life, for all his Members, or spiritual Seed. His design here is to compare Adam's sin, and Christ's Obedience, in respect of their Power, Efficacy, and Vertue, and to shew that the Efficacy of Christ's Obedience, must needs be much more abundant than the Power of Adam's sin. ¶ [62] His Love and Favour. ¶ [63] Is more abundantly efficacious to impart Life unto all his spiritual Seed.

16 [65] And not as [66] it was by one that sinned, so is the [60] gift: for the [67] judgment was by one to condemnation; but [60] the free gift [70] is of many offences unto [71] justification.

[65] See n. 57, 58. q. d. And as there's a difference in respect of the Persons from whom these Effects are derived, and the Advantage is on Christ's side; so there's a difference also in respect of the Extent of the Efficacy of their Acts: There, one sin did condemn, the Mischief arose from one Offence: Here, not onely that one sin, but also many, yea, all the sins of Believers, are pardoned: So that the Benefit exceeds the Mischief. ¶ [66] The mischief by Adam. ¶ [67] The Guilt, which exposed to Judgment arose from one Offence onely to make all his Posterity liable to Condemnation, v. 18. ¶ [70] Does reach to the Pardon not onely of that Original sin, (the Guilt whereof we derive from Adam) but of all other personal and actual Sins. ¶ [71] So that we are acquitted from condemnation, and accounted righteous by God.

‖ Or, by one offence.

17 [72] For if ‖ by one mans offence, death [72] reigned [73] by one: much more they which [74] receive [75] abundance of grace, and of [76] the gift of righteousness, shall [77] reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

[72] Here he shews the difference in respect of the consequents of these Acts, or the different nature of the Effects, that Death came from one, Life from the other; Condemnation from one, Justification from the other. ¶ [73] By one single Offence. ¶ [74] Viz. By Faith, John 1. 12. ¶ [75] A plentiful measure of God's Love and Favour. ¶ [76] Those Benefits which Christ by his Righteousness or Obedience has purchased for us, (as [a crown of righteousness] 2 Tim. 4. 8. is a Crown purchased by the Righteousness of Christ.) ¶ [77] Partake of spiritual Life here, whereby they conquer Sin, and obtain Eternal Life hereafter, when they reign in Glory.

‖ Or, by one offence. ‖ Or, by one righteousness. * John 12. 32. Heb. 2. 9.

18 [78] Therefore as ‖ by the offence of one [67] judgment came upon [79] all men to [80] condemnation; even so ‖ by the [81] righteousness of one, [60] the free gift came * upon [82] all men unto [71] justification of [83] life.

[78] Here he compares Christ and Adam together again, as he began to do, v. 12. and makes the comparison full in both Members; which there (by reason of intervening Matter) was left off imperfect. ¶ [79] All the natural Seed of the first Adam. ¶ [80] Ch. 3.-19. Brought 'em into a state of condemnation. See n. 69. ¶ [81] The Obedience of Christ. ¶ [82] All the spiritual Seed of the second Adam; all true Believers. ¶ [83] Whereby they have a Right and Title to Life Eternal, Rev. 22. 14.

19 [84] For as by one mans disobedience [85] many were [86] made sinners: so by the [87] obedience of one, shall many be made righteous.

[84] Here follows the Summ of what he had said afore. ¶ [85] All men, (as. v. 18.) called [many] onely in opposition to that [one] by whose Disobedience they become sinners. ¶ [86] Brought into a State of Sin, and do derive sinful Natures from him. ¶ [87] By the Merit of Christ's Obedience, we are brought into such a State, as that many become righteous.

* John 15. 22.

20 [88] Moreover, * the law [89] entred, that [90] the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, [91] grace did much more abound:

[88] Here he shews why the Law was given, since sin was in the World before, v. 13. ¶ [89] was given by Moses from God. ¶ [90] Ch. 2.-12. & 4. 15. & 7. 7, 8, 11, 13. Gal. 3. 19. That the Transgression of the Law might be more clearly manifested to us to be sin; and especially to set it out in its colours, and render it more heinous and demeritorious, (ch. 3. 20.) that so we might be more sensibly affected with the evil thereof. ¶ [91] Hereupon the Grace of God in Christ, which pardons such heinous Sins, is rendred so much the more glorious.

Chap. 6. 4063.

21 That [92] as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might [93] grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

[92] As the power of sin appeared in making us liable to Death, both Temporal and Eternal. ¶ [93] The Power of God's Grace might appear, upon the account of Christ's Righteousness or Obedience, in beginning in us a spiritual Life here, and bringing us to eternal Life hereafter.

CHAP. VI.

1 We may not live in sin, 12 nor let sin reign in us. 23 Death is the wages of sin.

1 WHat shall we say then? shall we continue in sin, that grace may [2] abound?

[1] Ch. 3. 5. & 4. 1. & 7. 7. & 9. 14. q. d. What shall we think of this Doctrine, ch. 5. 20? Does it not follow from thence, That we may continue in sin? He proceeds here to some further Benefits (besides those mentioned ch. 5. 1, &c.) of Justification by Faith in Christ, viz. the promoting of Holiness, (and not of Sin, as some might imagine.) ¶ [2] Appear more glorious in pardoning of us, ch. 5.-20. n. 91.

2 [3] God forbid: [5] How shall we that are [4] dead to sin, [5] live any longer therein?

[3] Tit. 2. 11, 12. q. d. Far be it from any to imagine that this Doctrine allows such cursed Inferences: For, though, 'tis true, where sin abounds, Grace does more abound; yet 'tis but by accident: for Sin of it self brings Death, (v. 23. Jam. 1. 15.) and the more Sin, the more Punishment, ch. 1. 18. & 2. 5. ¶ [4] viz. By Profession, Obligation, and Communion with Christ our Head in his Death and all this in our Baptism, v. 3, 4. See also on v. 11. n. 34. ¶ [5] q. d. 'Tis an absurd, unworthy, unsuitable thing, for us wilfully and wittingly to allow our selves therein.

3 [6] Know ye not, that so many of us as ‖ were [7] baptized into Jesus Christ, were [8] baptized into his death?

‖ Or, are.

[6] q. d. This is a great Truth, which you ought not to be ignorant of, and which confirms what I say. ¶ [7] Gal. 3. 27. incorporated into, and made Members of, Christ's Mystical Body, by Baptism. ¶ [8] Engaged by Baptism to a conformity to him in his Death, by dying to Sin, and mortifying our Corruptions; and also were made Partakers of the Benefits thereof, one whereof is the crucifying of Sin.

4 [9] Therefore we are [10] buried with him by baptism [11] into death: [12] that * like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the [13] glory of the Father, even so we also should [14] walk in newness of life.

* Chap. 8. 11. Phil. 3. 10, 11.

[9] q. d. And because we are thus dead with Christ, therefore—— ¶ [10] Col. 2. 12. (See there.) Have Communion with him in his Burial also, which represents a further Degree of the Destruction of Sin, (by putting it out of our sight (Gen. 23.-4.) and having no more to do with it) to which we are engaged by Baptism, and by his Burial are made Partakers of. For these bodily Actions and Sufferings of Christ, his being crucified, dying, being buried, rising, are both significative or representative of spiritual Works in us, our Mortification of Sin, and Rising to Holiness; and also operative of these Works; there being a spiritual Vertue and Efficacy even in his Body, to produce spiritual Effects, by reason of the personal Union between his Body, and the Second Person, whereby it is made a spiritual Body, and a quickning Spirit, (1 Cor. 15.-44, 45.) Hence we are raised to a spiritual Life, even by vertue of his bodily Resurrection; (v.-5.) and our old Man is crucified in us by vertue of his Crucifixion, v. 6. See Eph. 2. 5, 6. ¶ [11] To engage us to dy unto Sin; (see n. 8.) and also to carry on the Mortification and Death of Sin more and more, till it be utterly destroyed, v. 6. ¶ [12] That as after Christ's Death and Burial followed his Resurrection, so must it be with us. ¶ [13] John 11.-40. Glorious Power, Col. 1. 11. with Eph. 3. 16. 2 Cor. 13. 4. ¶ [14] Ch. 12. 2. Eph. 4. 22.-24. Col. 3. 10. 1 Pet. 4. 1, 2. Live a new Life, being acted by new Principles, viz. the Chap. 6. Spirit and Grace of God; and bringing forth new Fruits of Holiness, ch. 7. 6.

4063. 5 For if we have been [15] planted together [11] in the likeness of his death; we shall be also in the likeness of his [16] resurrection:

[15] Ch. 8. 11. Phil. 3. 10, 11. Been united to Christ by Faith, (to which Baptism does engage us) and so made partakers of his Death, and been conformed to him therein, by being dead to sin. ¶ [16] Eph. 2.-6. Phil. 3. 21. Col. 2. 12. By rising to Newness of Life, v.-5. See n. 10.

6 [17] Knowing this, that [18] our old man is crucified [19] with him, that * the [20] body of sin might be [21] destroyed, that henceforth we should not [22] serve sin.

* Col. 2. 11.

[17] q. d. For this is a Truth we ought to be very knowing in, and mindful of. ¶ [18] Eph. 4. 22. The Corruption of our Nature, (1.) which we derive from Adam, (2.) which in the godly is upon the declining hand, (3.) in opposition to the [new Nature] or work of Grace. ¶ [19] Gal. 2. 20. & 5. 24. By vertue of our Union with him, who is a publick Person; and by vertue of his Crucifixion. (See n. 10.) for when Christ died there was a Foundation laid for the destruction of sin, both by way of Merit, (there being a Price paid for it, Tit. 2. 14.) and by way of Pattern or Example; for by his death he taught us how to die to sin, that as he died himself for us, so should we for him; and as he suffered pain for us, so should we willingly digest the trouble of Mortification. ¶ [20] The whole Mass and Frame of this Corruption, (which has many Members, ready to commit actual Sin, Col. 3. 5.) See n. 41. ¶ [21] Weakned more and more, till at last it be utterly destroyed. ¶ [22] ver. 19. Wholly give up our selves to the pursuit and practice of it.

† Gr. justified. 7 For he that is [23] dead, is † [24] freed from sin.

[23] 1 Pet. 4. 1. viz. To Sin. ¶ [24] Ch. 8. 33. John 8. 30. Job 3.-19. Or, [justified] i.e. acquitted and discharged from any further Claim that Sin might make unto his service.

8 Now if we be [25] dead with Christ, we [26] believe that we shall also live with him:

[25] 2 Tim. 2. 11. Conformed to, and have Communion with him in his Death, by dying to Sin. ¶ [26] 2 Cor. 5. 1. Have ground and reason sufficient to believe that we shall be conformed to him in Life too, by living an uninterrupted Life of Grace here, and Glory hereafter; and shall die no more, v. 9.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the [28] Revel. 1. 18. dead; dieth no more; [28] death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died [29] unto sin [30] once: but in that he liveth, he liveth [31] unto God.

[29] For Sin's cause, or upon Sin's account, viz. to satisfie for it, and abolish it, Heb. 9.-26. See there n. 12. ¶ [30] Heb. 9. 28. & 10. 14. ¶ [31] Luke 20.-38. Heb. 10. 12. An immortal, heavenly, glorious Life, in the Presence of God, and to the Glory of God.

11 [32] Likewise [33] reckon ye also your selves to be [34] dead indeed unto sin; but [35] alive unto God [37] through Jesus Christ our Lord.

[32] In correspondence to Christ's Death and Life, v. 8, 9. ¶ [33] q. d. Though, 'tis true, for the present you are but imperfectly dead to sin, as consider'd in your selves; yet as consider'd in Christ your Head, so you may by Faith reckon your selves wholly dead to it, through him, because you are included in him. ¶ [34] 1 Pet. 2. 24. Set at liberty from the Power and Dominion of Sin. ¶ ∴ Obliged to do those which Right and Reason require: This is service in regard of the strictness of the Bond, but Liberty, in regard of the sweetness of the Work: it is service, because we live according to the will of another: but Liberty, because of our Inclination, and delight to do it. ¶ [64] (And so ought not to serve sin, or suffer it to reign in you.)

19 [65] I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: [67] for as ye have [68] yielded your members servants to [69] uncleanness and to [70] iniquity, [71] unto iniquity; [72] even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, [73] unto holiness.

[65] Ch. 3.-5. John 3. 12. Gal. 3. 15. q. d. I make a modest proposal to you, fitted to humane nature, yea even to the infirmities thereof, viz. that you should do as much for God, as you have done for sin, and be as industrious in the service of Christ, as you have been in pursuit of your Lusts. ¶ [67] q. d. And 'tis but reasonable that you should become Servants of Righteousness, (v. 18.) because—— ¶ [68] 1 Pet. 4. 2. ¶ [69] Fleshly Lusts, which defile you. ¶ [70] Unrighteous dealings with others. ¶ [71] Adding one sin unto another. ¶ [72] q. d. So 'tis but reasonable that you should be as ready to do good now, as formerly you were to do evil. ¶ [73] That you may attain higher Degrees thereof.

CHAP. VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 7 The law is not ſin, but 12 holy, juſt and good.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I ſpeak to [2] them that know the law) how that [3] the law [4] hath dominion over a man, as long as [5] he liveth?

[1] The Apoſtle having ſhewed (ch. 6.) that Regenerate Perſons are free from the Dominion of Sin, ſhews here that they are free alſo from the Yoke of the Moſaical Law, becauſe it is dead to them, (v. 6.) and they to it, v. 4. ¶ [2] You Jews, who ſtudy the Law, and think your ſelves obliged to it; but (if you believe in Chriſt) are freed from it (and much more then are believing Gentiles ſo.) ¶ [3] The whole Body or Frame of the Law of Moſes. ¶ [4] Obliges a man to obey it. ¶ [5] Either [he,] (that is, the man to whom the Law is given) [lives;] or, [it] (that is, the Law) [lives,] that is, continues in force; and no longer.

2 [6] For the [7] woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law [8] to her husband ſo long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, ſhe is looſed [9] from the law of her husband.

[6] q. d. And this appears in this particular Inſtance of the Law concerning Marriage. ¶ [7] 1 Cor. 7. 39. See there n. 99. ¶ [8] To continue to be his Wife, and to perform the Duties of a Wife to him. ¶ [9] From the Obligation of that Law.

[*] Matt. 5. 32.

3 So then [*] if while her husband liveth, ſhe be married to another man, ſhe ſhall be called an adultereſs: but if her husband be dead, ſhe is free from that law; ſo that ſhe is no adultereſs, though ſhe be married to another man.

[*] Chap. 8. 2. Gal. 5. 18.

4 [10] Wherefore my brethren, [11] ye alſo are become [*] [12] dead to the law [13] by the body of Chriſt; [14] that ye ſhould be married to another, even to him who is [15] raiſed from the dead, that we ſhould bring forth [16] fruit [17] unto God.

[10] q. d. And hence it follows; or, by this Compariſon it appears. ¶ [11] Believing Jews, (and much more believing Gentiles.) ¶ [12] Gal. 2. 19. Taken off from all hopes of Juſtification by it, and Confidence in your Obedience to it: and ſo likewiſe it is become dead to you, and has no Life nor Efficacy, in theſe reſpects. ¶ [13] 1 Pet. 2. 24. So that now you muſt give up your ſelves to Chriſt (as your ſecond Husband) that you may be juſtified by Faith in him. ¶ [15] Who is alive himſelf, and will beſtow ſpiritual Life on thoſe that give up themſelves to him. ¶ [16] viz. Of Holineſs and Good Works, Gal. 5. 22. ¶ [17] To his Glory, Matt. 5. 16. John 15. 8. Phil. 1. 11.

10 And the [52] commandment which was [53] ordained to [54] life, [55] I found to be unto death.

12 [60] Wherefore * the [61] law is [62] holy; and [63] the commandment [62] holy, and [64] juſt, and [65] good.

* 1 Tim. 1. 8.

[60] q. d. Since then, by what has been ſaid, it appears, that the Law is not the Cauſe of Sin or Death (directly) it muſt then be acquitted from this Charge, and be acknowledged to be holy---- ¶ [61] The Moral Law, in all the Branches of it, as a Rule of Life. ¶ [62] Pſal. 19. 7. 13 Was then that which is good, made [66] death unto me? God forbid. But [38] ſin that it might appear [67] ſin, [68] working death in me by that which is good; that ſin [69] by the commandment might become exceeding ſinful.

[66] Ver. 10, 11. A proper and direct Cauſe of Death. ¶ [67] Superlatively vile. ¶ [68] Or, was working, i.e. did work and ſpur me on to commit Actual Sin (and ſo expoſing me to Death) becauſe it was forbidden by the good Law. ¶ [69] By being ſtirred up by ſo innocent and holy a thing as the Commandment, might thereby ſhew its horrid and vile Nature.

14 [71] For we know that the law is [72] ſpiritual: but I am [73] carnal, * [74] ſold under ſin.

* 1 Mac. 1. 15.

[71] q. d. And it further appears, that the fault is not in the Law, but in my ſelf: For---- Here he comes to deſcribe the Conflict or Combate that is in a Regenerate Perſon between the Fleſh and the Spirit, Corruption and Grace: I ſay, in a Regenerate Perſon, as appears, (1.) By the double Principle mentioned all along, [I, and in-dwelling Sin] v. 17, 20. [the Law of Sin in the Members, and the Law in the Mind] v. 18. [the Mind, and the Fleſh] v.-25. [fleſh] v. 18. [the Law] v. 21. and [the inner Man] v. 22. Now ſuch a double Principle is never attributed to an Unregenerate Perſon; but, all is [Fleſh] John 3. 6. they are all of a piece. (2.) By the Actings and Diſcoveries of Grace, and Oppoſition to Sin in ſeveral Faculties: In the Judgment, [I allow not Evil] v.-15. [I conſent to the Law] v. 16. In the Will, [I would not do Evil] v. 16. to will is preſent with me] v. 18. [the Good that I would, the Evil that I would not] v. 19. In the Affections, [I hate Evil] v. 15. [I delight in the Law of God] v. 22. And the Practice is correſpondent hereunto, [I my ſelf ſerve the Law of God] v. 25. Now, Can an Unregenerate Man ſay all this? Nay, what can any Regenerate Perſon in this World ſay more? This is more than a natural, unrenewed Conſcience (however aſſiſted) can arrive to; for that, at utmoſt, ariſes but either to a Conviction of Duty, or to an Approbation of it, Video meliora, proboque; Which yet is commonly contradicted by the Practice, Deteriora ſequor: yea, and that even in the Jews, who had attained to the fulleſt knowledge of their Duty, and approbation of it, ch. 2. 18. and pretended to a punctual and ſtrict obſervance of it, ch. 2. 17, 19, 20, 23. and yet did not live anſwerably, v. 20—23. Yea, (3.) This Combate is in the ſame Faculties: In the Judgment, [That which I do, I allow not] v. 15. In the Will, [I do that which I would not] v. 16. So v. 19. (Like a Merchants throwing his Goods into the Sea in a Storm.) In the Affections, [I hate that I do] v. 15. Now when a thing is done, it is (in part, at leaſt) both allowed, willed, and delighted in; and yet here it is alſo, not allowed, willed, or delighted in. Whereas in an Unregenerate Perſon, the Combate is only in different Faculties; the Reaſon or Judgment drawing one way, the Will and Affections inclining and drawing another. (4.) By the Names given to the better Principle, [the inner Man] v. 22. [the Law of the Mind] v. 23. [the Mind] v. 25. which are never ſpoken of an Unregenerate Perſon. (5.) By the diſtinction he makes between himſelf and Sin, v. 17, 20. which cannot be in any Unregenerate Man in the World. (6.) By his bitter Complaint of his Condition in reſpect of the remainders of Corruption, v. 24. and Thanks for Deliverance from the Dominion of it, v. 25. (7.) Here are many things inconſiſtent with a State of Unregeneracy, and the Character that is given of ſuch elſewhere; both general, Eph. 2. 1—3. & 4. 18, 19. and particularly, [I delight in the Law of God] v. 22. and [I ſerve the Law of God] v. 25. with ch. 8. 7, 8. (8.) Here is nothing inconſiſtent with a State of Regeneration, (nay, which the moſt Holy on Earth may not ſay) or contrary to the Account given of a Regenerate Perſon elſewhere. As for thoſe Expreſſions which ſeem harſheſt, and to pinch moſt, of being [ſold under ſin] v. 14. [captivated by it] v. 23. [ſerving the Law of ſin] v. 25. if they be underſtood but of ſome particular Acts, and not of a Courſe of Life; or, of an unwilling, unaccuſtomed Subjection to it, where there is not the full Conſent of the Will, nor a cuſtomary, habitual Practice thereof; they will be very eaſily reconciled with thoſe Places which are brought to confront 'em, (as will appear by the Notes on thoſe ſeveral Expreſſions.) ¶ [72] Reaches to the Soul and Spirit, and lays an Obligation upon that, as well as upon the outward Man, requiring inward Obedience, and a Conformity to it in the Motions, Inclinations, and Affections of the Soul, Matt. 5. 22, 28. & 22. 37. Levit. 19. 17. ¶ [73] Viz. In part, in regard of the remainders of Corruption, v. 18, 23. and comparatively, in reſpect of the Purity of the Law. Thus one in Chriſt is called [carnal] 1 Cor. 3. 1. ¶ [74] Gal. 5—1. Not [ſelling my ſelf to it] as Ahab did, (1 Kings 21. 20.) but only over-powered ſometimes by the Tyranny of Corruption, (v.-25.) like a Slave forced to be ſubject to a cruel Maſter, v. 23.

* John 8. 36. Chap. 6. 18, 22. Gal. 2. 19. & 5. 1. * 1 Cor. 15. 45. 2 Cor. 3. 6.

2 [9] For * the [10] law of * the Spirit of life, [11] in Chriſt Jeſus, hath made [12] me [13] free from the [14] law of ſin and [14] death.

[9] q. d. And it appears, that there is no Condemnation—becauſe— ¶ [10] Ch. 3. 27. Iſa. 2. 3. & 51. 4. The Grace of the Goſpel, which is a Principle of Spiritual Life; or, the Goſpel, or Covenant of Grace, which is the Law of the Spirit, or a Spiritual Law; and that not only as it reaches to the Spirit, (as the other Law does, (ch. 7. 14. See there, n. 72.) and yet is but a feeble thing, v. 3.) but it is ſuch a Spiritual Law as gives Life, and is the Miniſtration of Life, (2 Cor. 3. 6.) being accompanied with Power to beget Spiritual Life, whereby we are enabled to the Performance of this Law, ſo as to be made Righteous according to it, and to live by it. ¶ [11] Which Law is procured, and which Efficacy is beſtowed on it, and which Life is beſtowed on us, by Chriſt. ¶ [12] (And other Believers alſo, after the ſame manner.) ¶ [13] Ch. 6. 14. & 7. 6. ¶ [14] That rigorous Covenant, which to ſaln Man ſerves only to convince of Sin, (ch. 3.-20. & 7. 7, 8.) and bind over to Death, ch. 7. 13. 2 Cor. 3. 7.

3 [15] For what the [16] law [17] could not do, in that it was [18] weak [19] through the fleſh, God [20] ſending his own Son, [21] in the likeneſs of ſinful fleſh, and ‖ [22] for ſin [23] condemned ſin in the [24] fleſh:

‖ Or, by a ſacrifice for ſin.

[15] q. d. And it appears that we are thus freed from the Law, becauſe God has condemned it. ¶ [16] Strictly taken, as oppoſed to the Promiſe, or Covenant of Grace given to Abraham. ¶ [17] Heb. 10. 4. ¶ [18] Heb. 7. 18, 19. Unable to free from Sin and Death. ¶ [19] By reaſon of the Infirmity of the Fleſh, and Corruption of Nature. ¶ [20] See on Matt. 10.-40. n. 77. ¶ [21] In a true Humane Nature, ſubject to ſuch Infirmities of Nature as our ſinful Fleſh is, and therein [like it:] and yet free from any Inherent Sin, and ſo [but like it.] ¶ [22] 2 Cor. 5. 21. By being a Sacrifice for Sin, (as the Phraſe is uſed Heb. 10. 6.) or making Atonement for it, (as Lev. 9. 15.) and thus it refers to the following Word [condemned:] or, [becauſe of ſin.] i. e. Sin was the Occaſion of his taking the Likeneſs of ſinful Fleſh, (and ſo it refers to the Word [ſending.]) ¶ [23] Adjudged it to deſtruction, (according to that, 1 John 3. 8.) paſs'd Sentence upon it, and accordingly puniſh'd it, and thereby declared openly before all the World, by theſe Sufferings of his Son, how abominable Sin was to him, and how contrary to his Nature. ¶ [24] Viz. Of his Son, by his Sufferings in the Fleſh, Col. 1. 22. 1 Pet. 4. 1.

4 [25] That the [26] righteouſneſs of the law might be [27] fulfilled in us, who [6] walk not [7] after the fleſh, but [8] after the Spirit.

[25] q. d. And God has thus condemned Sin, that we might obey the Law. ¶ [26] That Righteouſneſs which the Law, as a Rule of Life, requires. ¶ [27] Sincerely performed by us, (which it could never have been, had not the Power of Sin been mortified in us:) (and ſo it ſeems ſomething parallel to that ch. 7. 6.)

5 For * they that are [28] after the fleſh, do [29] mind the things of the fleſh: but they that are [30] after the Spirit, the [31] things of the Spirit.

* 1 Cor. 2. 14.

[28] Carnal, in their Natural Condition, under the full Power of their Luſts, in whom the Senſitive Appetite and Intereſt are predominant. ¶ [29] Phil. 3.-19. Reliſh and find a Sweetneſs in, and ſo are wholly taken up in the purſuit of. ¶ [30] Regenerated by the Spirit, and ſo become Spiritual, (1 Cor. 2. 15.) in whom the Spirit dwells, (v. 9.) and who are led by him, v. 14. ¶ [31] Spiritual things; the Fruits of the Spirit, (Gal. 5. 22.) which he works in the Hearts of Regenerate Perſons; the Intereſt of their Souls.

6 [32] For † * to be [33] carnally minded, is [34] death; but † to be [35] ſpiritually minded, is [36] life and peace.

* Chap. 6. 21.
† Gr. the minding of the fleſh. So verſe 7.
† Gr. the minding of the Spirit.

[32] q. d. And it further appears, that there is no Condemnation—v. 1. becauſe— ¶ [33] Gal. 6. 8. Of that temper before deſcribed, n. 28. ¶ [34] Such a one is in a State of Death, which will bring him to Eternal Death, (if he continue in it) ch. 6.-21. & 7. 10, 11. ¶ [35] To have a due Notion of Spiritual things, and to find a Sweetneſs and Excellency in 'em, ſo that the bent and inclination of the Mind lies that way. ¶ [36] That whereby we live to God, and enjoy Peace with him, and is the way to Eternal Life.

7 Becauſe the [37] carnal mind is [38] enmity againſt God: for it is not ſubject to the law of God, * neither indeed [39] can be.

* 1 Cor. 2. 14.

[37] The beſt Motions, Inclinations, and Affections of a Natural Man; or, the Carnal Diſpoſition of the Mind. ¶ [38] Rebellious in the higheſt degree againſt God's Will. ¶ [39] Viz. In reſpect of its Moral Impotency to Obedience.

8 So then they that are [40] in the fleſh, [41] cannot pleaſe God.

[40] In the Carnal, Corrupt State. ¶ [41] Viz. While they continue ſo, and till they be converted.

9 But [42] ye are not in the fleſh, but [10] in the Spirit, [43] if ſo be that the Spirit [44] of God [45] dwell in you. Now if any man [46] have not * the Spirit of Chriſt, he is [47] none of his.

* John 3. 34. Phil. 1. 19.

[42] Believers. ¶ [43] Seeing that; or, Foraſmuch as: (for he does not ſpeak doubtingly.) ¶ [44] 1 Cor. 3. 16. 1 Pet. 1. 11. ¶ [45] 1 Cor. 3.-16. Jam. 4. 5. Has his fixed abode in you, (John 14. 16, 17. 1 John 2. 27.) and this is by his gracious Operations; eſpecially Faith, (Eph. 3. 17.) and Love, (1 John 4. 16.) and alſo in his own Perſon, (See on John 17. 23.) (For, [dwelling.] and that [as in a Temple,] 1 Cor. 6. 19. is proper to a Perſon.) Yet not Perſonally, but Spiritually, ſo as he is no-where elſe, John 14. 17, 22. ¶ [46] Gal. 4. 6. 1 Pet. 1. 11. i. e. Doth not partake (in his meaſure) of the ſame Spirit which dwells in Chriſt without meaſure, John 3.-34. ¶ [47] No true Member of his Myſtical Body; has no ſpecial Relation to him.

Chap. 8. 4063.

10 And if Christ be [48] in you, [49] the body is dead because of [50] sin; but the [51] Spirit [52] is life, [53] because of righteousness.

[48] See on John 17. 23. ¶ [49] Though the Body be Mortal, and subject to Death. ¶ [50] Ch. 5. 12. & 6. 23. Adam's Sin, whereby he expos'd himself, and all his Posterity, to Death, and the remainders of Corruption in you Believers, which you can be freed from only by Death. ¶ [51] Viz. Of God, (as appears by the next Verse.) ¶ [52] Will raise up your Bodies again (as v. 11.) to an Immortal Life. ¶ [53] By reason of that Righteousness and Holiness that Christ by his Spirit, works in you, (which is the way to Life, and entitles to it, Rev. 22. 14.)

11 [54] But if the Spirit of him that [55] raised up Jesus from the dead, [45] dwell in you; * [56] he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also [57] quicken your mortal bodies, ‖ by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

* Chap. 6. 4, 5. 1 Cor. 6. 14.

‖ Or, because of his Spirit.

[54] q. d. For, if you are sanctified by the Spirit, you shall be raised up by the Spirit also, as Christ was. Here he only enlarges what he said v. 10. ¶ [55] Acts 3. 15. See there, n. 23. ¶ [56] God's raising Christ, assures us that he'll raise us too, as being Members of him. ¶ [57] 2 Cor. 4. 14. Eph. 2. 5. Col. 2. 13. Raise them from a State of Mortality, and all the Attendants thereof, to a Glorious, Immortal Life, 1 Cor. 15. 42–44. Phil. 3. 21.

12 [58] Therefore, brethren, we are [59] debters, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

[58] q. d. Since we have received such Benefits, and expect more, therefore— ¶ [59] Or, [We are not debters to the flesh,] We owe our Natural Corruption no Service; we ought not to follow its Desires and Inclinations; but we are engaged to be more and more holy.

13 For [60] if ye live after the flesh, ye shall [61] die: but if ye [62] through the Spirit do [63] mortifie the [64] deeds of the body, ye shall [65] live.

[60] Gal. 6. 8. ¶ [61] Viz. Eternally, and never partake of that glorious Resurrection, which otherwise you might do. ¶ [62] By his Grace and Assistance. ¶ [63] Eph. 4. 22. & 5. 3. Col. 3. 5, 6. Resist, subdue, and destroy the Power and Strength of Sin more and more. ¶ [64] Carnal Affections, whence all the corrupt Deeds wherein the Body is instrumental, do arise. ¶ [65] Lead a comfortable, vigorous, spiritual Life here, and obtain eternal Life hereafter.

14 For as many as are [66] led by the Spirit of God, they [67] are the sons of God.

[66] Gal. 5. 18. Guided and acted in their Wills, Affections, Inclinations, Words, and Actions, by his Conduct, Motions, and Impulses, Gal. 5. 16, 25. ¶ [67] Shew themselves to be like unto God, (and therefore shall live, v. 13.)

15 For * ye have not received the [68] spirit of bondage [69] again [70] to fear; but ye have received [71] the * Spirit of adoption, whereby we [72] cry, Abba, Father.

* 1 Cor. 2. 12. * Isa. 56. 5.

[68] 2 Tim. 1. 7. Heb. 12. 18, 19. A Legal frame and temper of Spirit, (such as is wrought by the Law, Gal. 4.–24. See there, n. 68.) whereby the Spirit convinces you (John 16. 8.) that you are in a State of Sin and Wrath, that thereby he may drive you to Christ, as Mediator. ¶ [69] Such as you had formerly, before your Conversion: The Spirit of God never causes such Fears in you any more, as were formerly, (though such Fears may be in God's People again, through the Devil's Malice, and their own Corruption.) ¶ [70] So that you should lie under a servile Fear of Wrath and Condemnation. ¶ [71] Gal. 4. 6. A comfortable Sense and Assurance of your State of Reconciliation, and Filial Relation to God, wrought also by the Spirit. ¶ [72] Mar. 14. 36. Gal. 4.–6. See there, n. 17. Are enabled and encouraged to go to God with an humble confidence, affectionateness, and earnestness, as to a reconciled Father.

16 The Spirit it self [73] beareth witness with [74] our spirit, that we are the [75] children of God.

[73] 2 Cor. 1. 12, 22. & 5. 5. Eph. 1.–13. & 5. 30. Speaks the same things, gives the same evidence concerning the Truth of Grace and our Sonship, (1 Cor. 2. 12.) and so ratifies what our Spirits say. ¶ [74] Our inlightned, renewed Conscience. ¶ [75] Viz. By special Adoption, and Regeneration.

17 And [76] if children, then [77] heirs; heirs of God, and joynt-heirs [78] with Christ: [79] if so be that we suffer [80] with him, [81] that we may be also glorified together.

[76] Gal. 4.–7. ¶ [77] To whom the Everlasting Inheritance belongs. ¶ [78] Both of Glory, (Phil. 3. 21.) and Dominion, Rev. 3. 21. 1 Cor. 6. 2. Luke 22. 29. (only he is Heir by Nature, we by Grace. ¶ [79] Acts 14. 22. 2 Tim. 2. 11, 12. 1 Pet. 4. 13. If we are willing to suffer, when called to it. Here he lays down Grounds of Comfort against Sufferings. ¶ [80] For the Truth, and Righteousness sake, as he did. ¶ [81] q. d. This is the way to obtain the same Glory that Christ has: He was glorified in this way, (Luke 24. 26.) and so must we.

Chap. 8. 4063.

18 For [82] I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be [83] revealed in us.

[82] a Cor. 4. 17. ¶ [83] Which we shall then partake of, both in Soul and Body, and shall fully understand the Nature of, and shall be made manifest to us, (which at present it is not, 1 John 3. 2.)

19 [84] For * the [85] earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the [86] manifestation of the sons of God.

* 2 Pet. 3. 13.

[84] q. d. And so great is this Glory, that even the senseless Creatures wait for that time, (much more then should we.) ¶ [85] The whole Frame of this lower World, and all visible Creatures in it, earnestly wait. ¶ [86] The time (viz. at the day of Judgment) when the Children of God shall be fully manifested to be so, (1 John 3. 2.) by being re-established'd in a State of perfect Grace and Glory.

20 [87] For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, [88] but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:

[87] q. d. For their present Condition of Vanity (whereby they are subject to Disorder and Destruction for Man's use, and to be made Fuel for his Lusts) shall not always continue, because it was not from themselves, or according to that Order which God first established in the Creation. ¶ [88] But it was laid upon them by God for Man's Sin; who yet has put into them a kind of Instinct to expect Deliverance; or, at least, has ordain'd that it shall be so.

21 Because the creature it self also shall be delivered from the [89] bondage of corruption, into the [90] glorious liberty [91] of the children of God.

[89] Misery, Slavery, Frailty, and Corruption, which it is obliged to undergo at present. ¶ [90] A perfect and happy Freedom from the Curse, and all the Effects thereof. ¶ [91] Which the Children of God shall primarily and more eminently partake of, and other Creatures in their measure, and according to every ones Nature and Capacity. When the Children of God shall be perfectly freed from Sin, and fully re-established'd in Grace and Glory, then the Curse that followed on Sin shall be taken off from the Creature, and it shall be restor'd to that excellent primitive State of its Creation again, 2 Pet. 3. 13.

22 For we [92] know that ‖ the [85] whole creation [93] groaneth, and [94] travaileth in pain [95] together [96] until now:

‖ Or, every creature.

[92] Viz. By Observation, and the Word of God. ¶ [93] Complains of, and is affected with, the Burden of Sin and Misery. ¶ [94] Struggles to be delivered from this Condition. ¶ [95] One with another. ¶ [96] To this very moment, (and so on, till the time of delivery.)

23 And [97] not only they, but our selves also, which have the [98] first-fruits of the spirit, even we our selves [99] groan within our selves, waiting for the [1] adoption, to wit, the [2] redemption of our body.

[97] q. d. And what they do by a secret Inclination, we do through spiritual Understanding. ¶ [98] Such a measure of the Spirit, in the work of Sanctification, as is a Pledge of that Perfection which shall be in Heaven, (Eph. 1. 14.) and which is a Principle to incline us to desire it. ¶ [99] 2 Cor. 5. 2, 4. Are exceedingly grieved for the remainders of Sin, and earnestly desire a Release. ¶ [1] The full Manifestation of our Sonship, (v. 19.) and the actual Possession of the Inheritance. Adoption is founded in Election, (Eph. 1. 5.) actually bestowed (in part) in Sanctification, (Gal. 4. 5.) and perfected in Glorification; as here. ¶ [2] Luke 21.–28. Eph. 4. 30. See there. Its Freedom from the Power of Death, (which is the last Enemy) and the removal of that Dulness and Weakness which came upon it by the Fall; and so, the total and final abolition of all the cursed Tracts and Marks of Sin.

24 [3] For we are saved by hope: but * [4] hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

* 2 Cor. 5. 7. Heb. 11. 1.

[3] q. d. We do and must wait for these things, because we have 'em not in present possession: for all the Salvation and

Chap. 8. 4063.

and Redemption we have at present, is but in hope. ¶ 4 The thing hoped for, if it be actually enjoyed, is not matter of hope.

25 5 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

5 Tit. 2. 13. Jam. 5. 7. q. d. And if our Hope of the Heavenly Inheritance be strong and lively, it will produce a patient waiting till God's time be come to possess us of it, and in the mean while, to bear our intervening Troubles contentedly.

26 6 Likewise the Spirit also 7 helpeth our infirmities: for * 8 we know not 9 what we should pray for as we ought: but * the Spirit it self 10 maketh intercession for us with 11 groanings which cannot be uttered.

* Matt. 20. 22. Jam. 4. 3. * Zech. 12. 10. Eph. 6. 18.

6 Zech. 12. 10. q. d. And as the Spirit works such Desires and Expectations in us, to support us in Suffering; so, for the same end, he helps in Prayer, (which is the surest Refuge in Trouble.) ¶ 7 2 Cor. 3. 5. viz. By administring sufficient Grace and Assistance against whatsoever disables us to pray in a due manner. ¶ 8 Viz. Of our selves, without his help. ¶ 9 What may be most for God's Glory, and our own Good. ¶ 10 Matt. 10. 20. Suggests Matter to us, and stirs us up to make Intercession our selves, (Gal. 4. 16. compar'd with Rom. 8. 15.) Christ intercedes for us [without] us, and the Spirit [within] us. ¶ 11 Such Pangs of Affection, such Ardor of Spirit, and such inward Labouring and Working of the Heart towards God, as cannot be expreſt by Words.

27 12 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the 13 mind of the Spirit, ‖ because he 14 maketh intercession for the saints 15 according to the will of God.

[Or, that.

28 16 And we know that 17 all things work 18 together 19 for good, to them that 20 love God, to them who are the 21 called according to his 22 purpose.

16 q. d. And we may further comfort our selves under our Sufferings, by this Consideration, That—— ¶ 17 All Providential Dispensations, even Afflictions and Sufferings themselves. ¶ 18 Among themselves, (like the several Ingredients in a Medicine) and with God's over-ruling Providence; and so—— ¶ 19 Gen. 50. 20. Jer. 24. 5. 30 Moreover, whom he did 28 predestinate, them he also 29 called: and whom he called, them he also 30 justified: and whom he justified, them he also * 31 glorified.

* Eph. 2. 6.

31 32 What shall we then say to these things? * 33 If God be for us, who can be against us?

Chap. 8. 4063.

32 q. d. Since these things are so, what cause of fear, doubt, or trouble can there be to the People of God? Nay, what cause of Comfort and Rejoycing have they? ¶ 33 Psal. 56. 12. & 118. 6. Since God has manifested so much Love to us, as to chuse, call, justifie, glorifie, what real hurt can the World, Devil, or all his Instruments, do us by all our Sufferings from them? We that were Predestinated when we were not, called when we were averse, justified when guilty, sanctified when unholy, and shall be glorified, though now miserable; what Cause have we to fear? Thy Poſterity by Iſaac only ſhall be accounted the People of God, and partakers of the Promiſes made to thee. q. d. As Iſmael, though Abraham's natural Seed, was caſt out, and therein was a Type of thoſe who are born only according to the fleſh; ſo Iſaac, who was born by Faith in the Promiſe, is a Type of Abraham's ſpiritual Seed, who are born, not by the power of Nature, but by virtue of the Promiſe and free Grace of God.

8 That is, They which are the [26] children of the fleſh, theſe are [27] not the [28] children of God: but the [29] children of the promiſe are counted for the ſeed.

[26] Only the carnal Seed of Abraham, naturally deſcended from him. ¶ [27] Not purely upon that account. ¶ [28] Viz. Inwardly and really. ¶ [29] Acts 3. 25. Gal. 4. 28. (See there, n. 86.) Such who are born again by the ſupernatural power of God's Spirit, and by virtue of the Promiſe, (as Iſaac was, contrary to the courſe of Nature) and by Faith lay hold upon the Promiſe of Salvation made in Chriſt, theſe are they who are intended in the Covenant, [I'll be thy God, and the God of thy Seed] and to whom the ſpiritual Bleſſings, and the Inheritance do belong.

9 For this is the word [31] of promiſe, [32] At this time will I [33] come, and Sara ſhall have a ſon.

[31] Of that Promiſe, by the power and virtue whereof Iſaac was conceived and born, (and not by the power of Nature) and ſo is a Type of God's electing Grace. ¶ [32] Gen. 18. 10. q. d. Even now (though thy Body and Sarah's are dead, yet) ſhe ſhall conceive, and, at the uſual time, ſhall have a Son, 2 Kings 4. 16, 17. ¶ [33] Manifeſt my Power, in fulfilling my Promiſe of giving thee a Child.

* Gen. 25. 24.

10 [34] And not only this, but when * Rebecca alſo had conceived by one, even by our father Iſaac,

[34] q. d. And there was not only this difference (that one was rejected, the other accepted) between them that had divers Mothers, (as in the caſe of Iſmael and Iſaac) the one a lawful Wife, the other a Concubine; and alſo, in that Iſmael, when come to years, had ſhew'd ſome perverſeneſs; but between thoſe that were born of the ſame Mother, at the ſame time, and in the ſame condition in themſelves, as to the doing good or evil: yet there was a difference made.

* Chap. 4. 17.

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any [35] good or evil, that the [36] purpoſe of God [37] according to election might [38] ſtand, not [39] of works, but of * him that [40] calleth)

Upon account of any thing in us, that we ſhould do. ¶ [40] Works Faith by the free and effectual power of his Spirit; that ſo they may aſcribe their Juſtification and Salvation to his free Grace in Chriſt only, and not to their own Merits or Works, (which the carnal Jews depended ſo much upon.)

‖ Or, greater. ‖ Or, leſſer.

12 It was ſaid unto her, [41] The ‖ elder ſhall [42] ſerve the ‖ younger.

[41] Gen. 25. 23. ¶ [42] Viz. In a ſpiritual ſenſe; that is, ſhall loſe the Birthright, and conſequently the Bleſſing and Inheritance, and be rejected of God, (and ſo be a Type of the rejection of the carnal Jews.)

13 [43] As it is written, [44] Jacob have I [45] loved, but Eſau have I [46] hated.

[43] q. d. And it appears from that paſſage of Malachi, that this [ſerving] muſt be thus expounded, viz. for his [being rejected of God.] ¶ [44] Mal. 1. 2, 3. ¶ [45] Viz. With an eternal, electing Love. ¶ [46] Excluded him from the inward Benefits of the Covenant, and given him no part in my Grace, but left him, as a Sinner, under my Wrath and Judgment.

* 2 Chron. 19. 7. Pſal. 92. 15.

14 [47] What ſhall we ſay then? * [47] Is there unrighteouſneſs with God? God forbid.

[47] Ch. 3.-5. & 4. 1. & 6. 1. Deut. 32. 4. Job 8. 3. & 34. 10. q. d. Yet far be it from us to conclude from hence, that God is unjuſt, to put ſuch a difference between Perſons in themſelves equal and alike, becauſe he is free to diſpence his Favours where he pleaſes.

15 [48] For

Chap. 9. 4063.

15 [48] For he ſaith to Moſes, [49] I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compaſſion on whom I will have compaſſion.

[48] q. d. And it appears, that God is not unjuſt therein, becauſe 'tis an act of Mercy and Compaſſion to chuſe any, (and conſequently, an act of his Sovereign Will and Pleaſure) according to that Speech of his to Moſes. ¶ [49] Exod. 33.-19. q. d. My ſhewing Mercy is an act of my own Will (and therefore a free, undeſerved, unchangeable act.)

16 So then [50] it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but [51] of God that ſheweth mercy.

[50] God's Purpoſe according to Election, (v. 11.) not to be aſcribed to Man's Free-will, nor to any Endeavours that he can uſe. ¶ [51] i. e. The only Cauſe of Man's Election is in God himſelf.

*See Gal. 3. 8, 22.

17 [54] For * the [55] ſcripture ſaith unto Pharaoh, [56] Even for this ſame purpoſe have I [57] raiſed thee up, [58] that I might ſhew my [59] power in thee, and that [60] my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

[54] q. d. And as God is not unjuſt in reſpect of thoſe he chuſes, and prefers before others; ſo neither in reſpect of thoſe whom he rejects: becauſe it is for his Glory; as appears in the Inſtance of Pharaoh. ¶ [55] God in Scripture. ¶ [56] Exod. 9. 16. ¶ [57] Deſigned thee for this end, (as Acts 3. 22, 26.) ¶ [58] That, thou abuſing my Patience by thy deſperate obſtinacy, I might thereupon—— ¶ [59] Exod. 10.-1. Viz. In executing ſo many Judgments on thee, and at laſt deſtroying thee thereby. ¶ [60] Pſal. 83. 18. The Glory of my Power, Juſtice, and Severity might be made more illuſtrious before all the world. (And herein Pharaoh was an Example and Pattern of God's Dealing with all other Reprobates.)

18 [61] Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will, he [62] hardeneth.

[61] q. d. So then, upon the whole, we may conclude, that both Election and Reprobation, or, ſhewing Mercy on the Elect, and hardning the Reprobate, depend on God's Free-will alone, without conſideration of any thing in us. ¶ [62] See on Exod. 4. 21. Gives 'em up to their own natural Hardneſs, (See Exod. 8. 15. 33.) whence it comes to paſs, that all means uſed to reduce them, are perverted by them to the increaſe of their Hardneſs; and alſo gives 'em up to Satan, (1 Chron. 21. 1. with 2 Sam. 24. 1. 1 Kings 22. 21, 22.) and their own Luſts, ch. 1. 24. See there, n. 98.

19 [63] Thou wilt ſay then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For [64] who hath reſiſted his will?

[63] q. d. Some will hence object, If God thus (juſtly) leave Sinners to their own Hardneſs for his own Pleaſure, then why is he ſo offended at it, complains of it ſo by his Prophets, and ſo ſeverely puniſhes it? ¶ [64] Who can help himſelf againſt God's Will?

‖ Or, anſwerest again, or diſputeſt with God.

20 [65] Nay but, O man, who art thou that ‖ replieſt againſt God? [66] Shall the thing formed ſay to him that formed it, Why haſt thou made me thus?

[65] Job 40. 4, 5. q. d. How dareſt thou, who art but a Man, his Creature, and a guilty Creature, chop Logick with God, and object againſt his Proceedings, which are always Juſt, and Holy, and agreeable to Reaſon, (though he be not bound to give it?) ¶ [66] Iſa. 45. 9.

*Wiſd. 15. 7.

21 Hath not the * [67] potter power over the clay, of the [68] ſame lump to [69] make [70] one veſſel unto [71] honour, and another unto [72] diſhonour?

[67] Jer. 18. 6. Iſa.-64. 8. ¶ [68] Acts 7. 26. ¶ [69] And that without being taxed with Injuſtice. ¶ [70] 2 Tim. 2. 20. ¶ [71] For an honourable uſe. ¶ [72] For a more vile and contemptible uſe. So, much more may God juſtly appoint ſome to Glory, others to everlaſting Shame for their Sins.

‖ Or, made up. *1 Pet. 2. 8.

22 [73] What if God, willing to ſhew his [74] wrath, and to make his [75] power known, [76] endured with much long-ſuffering [77] the veſſels of wrath ‖ * [78] fitted to deſtruction:

[73] q. d. What haſt thou to ſay againſt it, if God do ſo and ſo? Who can charge him with Injuſtice, who has ſuch excellent Ends therein? ¶ [74] Righteous Severity. ¶ [75] In inflicting ſuch dreadful Puniſhments on them for their Stubbornneſs. ¶ [76] Bore with 'em in their Wickedneſs and Obſtinacy. ¶ [77] Thoſe Perſons on whom he'll ſhew his juſt Wrath. ¶ [78] Prov. 16. 4. Jude 4. Viz. Partly by themſelves, and their own ſenſual Courſes, (Hoſ. 13. 9.) and partly by God's righteous Judgment, who gives 'em up thereunto, (n. 62.) and to the Judgment they have deſerved. (And thus the caſe ſtands with the unbelieving Jews, whom God rejected not, till they had ſhewed themſelves obſtinate Contemners of Chriſt and his Goſpel.)

24 [83] Even us whom he hath [84] called, not of the [85] Jews only, but alſo of the [86] Gentiles.

[83] q. d. And we that are called, of what Nation ſoever, are theſe Elect Veſſels of Mercy, and true Children of the Promiſe. ¶ [84] Brought to know, believe, and obey the Goſpel. ¶ [85] Who have hitherto been the peculiar People of God. ¶ [86] Who are now taken for the People of God, as well as the Jews, (though formerly ſhut out.)

25 [87] As he ſaith alſo in Oſee, [88] I will [89] call them my people which were not my people; and her, beloved, which was not beloved.

[87] This Prophecy relates properly and directly to the Jews, (as appears by Hoſ. 1. 10.) and to their Reſtauration to God's Favour in the latter days, after their National Rejection for their Unbelief and Oppoſition againſt Chriſt; but is accommodated here by Paul to the Gentiles. ¶ [88] Hoſ. 2. 23. 1 Pet. 2. 10. Only a ſmall company ſhall be left remaining, out of the great multitude that periſh: Which, though it were ſpoken directly and immediately of the Remnant ſaved from the Deſtruction by Sennacherib, yet the Apoſtle conſiders thoſe few as a Type of God's Elect among that People, to be ſaved by Believing in Chriſt.

28 For he will [97] finiſh the ‖ work, and [98] cut it ſhort in righteouſneſs: becauſe [99] a ſhort work will the Lord make upon the earth.

‖ Or, account.

30 [7] What ſhall we ſay then? That the Gentiles which [8] followed not after righteouſneſs, have attained to righteouſneſs, [9] even the righteouſneſs which is of faith:

Chap. 10. 4063.

7 What may be the Reason of this contrary Dispensation to the Gentiles and Jews? ¶ 8 Isa. 65. 1. Gave themselves over to all Unrighteousness, (ch. 1. 18.) and were ignorant of the Law, and so could not think to be justified by their Works, or Obedience to the Law. ¶ 9 Viz. Gospel-righteousness, which is by Faith in Christ, Phil. 3.-9.

31 10 But Israel, which 11 followed after the law of righteousness, hath 12 not attained to the law of righteousness.

10 The unbelieving Jews. ¶ 11 Ch. 10. 3. Were very careful in the outward Observation of the Law, and of that external Righteousness which the Law requires. ¶ 12 Came short of that Righteousness which is prescribed by the Law, and is not to be attained by Works, but by Faith, (as it follows, v. 32. & ch. 8. 4. & 10. 4.)

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it, not by faith, but as it were by the 13 works of the law: 14 for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

13 The Merit of their own Works. See on ch. 3. 28. n. 92. ¶ 14 q. d. Yea, so far were they from seeking righteousness by Christ, that, on the contrary, they took offence at him, (to their own Destruction) by reason of his mean outward condition and Cross, Mark 6. 3. 1 Cor. 1. 23.

33 As it is written, 15 Behold, 16 I lay in Sion 17 a stumbling-stone, and 18 rock of offence: 19 and * whosoever believeth on him, shall not be ‖ 20 ashamed.

CHAP. X.

5 The difference of the righteousness of the law and that of faith. 11 No believer shall be confounded, whether Jew or Gentile.

1 BRethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

1 Here he shews the cause of the Jews Rejection, viz. their rejecting God's way of Righteousness. And lest they should think he spake out of ill will, he professes his hearty desire of their Salvation.

2 For I bear them record, that 2 they have 3 a zeal 4 of God, but 5 not according to knowledge.

2 Many of them. ¶ 3 Acts 21.-20. & 22.-3. Gal. 1. 14. & 4. 18. An earnest desire to maintain the Law and Worship of God instituted by Moses. ¶ 4 Thereby to promote the glory of God. ¶ 5 Not guided by a right understanding of the way of God's Righteousness, (v. 3.) nor of the design of the Law, v. 4. (like theirs, John 16. 2. Phil. 3.-6.)

3 For they being 6 ignorant of 7 God's righteousness, and 8 going about to establish their own righteousness, 9 have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

6 Unsatisfied about, and neglectful of. ¶ 7 See on ch. 1. 17. n. 66. ¶ 8 Luke 18. 11. Striving to maintain the Dignity of their own Works, performed by the strength of Nature, without supernatural Aid, and to set them up in the room of God's Righteousness. ¶ 9 Have not complied with, but rejected and withdrawn themselves from that way of Righteousness, which even the Law, truly understood, holds forth.

4 10 For 11 Christ is the end of the law 12 for righteousness 13 to every one that believeth.

10 q. d. And it appears, that they have not submitted to God's way of becoming Righteous, because they reject Christ, by whom alone it is to be obtained: For—— ¶ 11 Matt. 5. 17. Acts 13. 38. Gal. 3. 24. q. d. The Design of the Law is to send Men to Christ for Righteousness, (Gal. 3. 24.) which it does by convincing of Sin, (ch. 3.-20.) and of its heinousness, (ch. 5. 20.) and that therefore they cannot be justified by the Law, (ch. 3. 20.—) but must seek to Christ for it. ¶ 12 For the obtaining of Righteousness, that we may become righteous in a Gospel-sense. ¶ 13 q. d. And by believing in him, every one, whether Jew or Gentile, does become righteous.

Chap. 10. 4063.

5 For 14 Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the 15 man which 16 doth those things, shall 17 live 18 by them.

14 q. d. Moses, by shewing that the Law requires exact and perfect Obedience for Righteousness, (which is impossible for us to perform) would thereby convince us, that Righteousness is not to be had in our selves, and by our own Works, but by Faith in Christ. ¶ 15 Lev. 18. 5. Deut. 27. 26. Ezek. 20. 11. Gal. 3. 10, 12. ¶ 16 Perfectly and punctually observes whatsoever the Law requires, without failing in any one point or particular, Jam. 2. 20. ¶ 17 Be rewarded by God with Life, and all the comforts of Life. ¶ 18 For the worth and merit of his Works.

6 19 But the righteousness which is of faith, 20 speaketh on this wise, * 21 Say not in thine heart, Who shall 22 ascend into heaven? (23 that is to bring Christ down from above).

* Deut. 30. 12, 13.

19 Ch. 3. 22. q. d. But now the Nature of Gospel-righteousness, is not to put us upon any thing that is impossible for us to do, but only to believe and confess, v. 9. ¶ 20 May be conceived to speak thus, according to what Moses said, Deut. 30. 12.—14. (who there speaks of Gospel-times, (as appears by the beginning of the Chapter) and of a Gospel-frame of Spirit, wrought in them by Gospel-grace, (v. 6.) the Nature whereof he describes in these words here quoted.) ¶ 21 Don't entertain such vile thoughts, as if God requir'd any thing of you in order to your Justification, that you could not perform, though never so desirous to do it. ¶ 22 Viz. To learn the will of God there, concerning our Righteousness and Salvation, and then teach it to us. ¶ 23 This is in effect to deny that Christ has already come down from Heaven to reveal it to us, but that he must now come to do it.

7 Or, Who shall 24 descend into the deep? (25 that is to bring up Christ again from the dead)

24 Viz. To learn how we may be redeemed from thence, and may escape coming thither. ¶ 25 This is in effect to deny that Christ has already died for our Sins, and to wish that he might die, and rise again to redeem us.

8 But what saith 26 it? 27 The word is 28 nigh thee, even 29 in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is 30 the word of faith which 31 we preach,

26 The Gospel-rule of Righteousness. ¶ 27 Deut. 30. 14. The Matter requir'd of thee in order to Life and Salvation. ¶ 28 No impossible thing, but that which may be done with ease, (Matt. 11. 30.) through the Assistance of Grace, (which God by Moses promises there, v. 6.) ¶ 29 Something to be done by thy Mouth and Heart. ¶ 30 The Doctrine of the Gospel, (which teaches to believe in Christ for Salvation, ch. 1. 16, 17.) ¶ 31 We the Apostles and Ministers of the Gospel declare to you, and exhort you to embrace.

9 That * if thou shalt 32 confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt 33 believe in thine heart, that God hath 34 raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

* Matt. 10. 32.

32 1 John 4. 15. Make an open Profession of Christ, his Truths, and Ways, (in these times of danger) both by words and deeds; and particularly, by calling on him, v. 13. ¶ 33 1 John 5. 1. ¶ 34 And thereby declared him to be the Messiah, (ch. 1. 4.) together with a belief of the other Articles of the Christian Faith.

10 For with the heart man believeth 35 unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made 36 unto salvation.

35 See n. 12. ¶ 36 Whereby we attain Salvation, Matt. 10. 32. 1 John 4. 15.

11 For the scripture saith, * 37 Whosoever believeth on him, shall not be 38 ashamed.

* Jer. 17. 7. Chap. 9. 33.

37 Isa. 28. 16. Whether Jew or Gentile, v. 12. ¶ 38 Disappointed of his Expectation of Salvation.

12 For there is no 39 difference between the Jew and the Greek: for * the same 40 Lord over all, * is 41 rich unto all that 42 call upon him.

* 1 Tim. 2. 5. * Eph. 1. 7. & 2. 4, 7.

39 Ch. 3. 22. See there, n. 68. Acts 10. 34, 35. & 15. 9. ¶ 40 Ch. 3. 29, 30. Acts 10.-36. i. e. Christ, who is the Head of the Elect in all Nations, to distribute the Graces of his Spirit to them. ¶ 41 Full of Mercy. ¶ 42 Do truly worship him, (which implies believing on him, v. 14)

13 For 43 whosoever shall 42 call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

43 Joel

Chap. 10. 4063.

[43] Joel 2. 32. Not only of the Jews, but Gentiles. (as appears by Acts 2. 21. See there.)

14 [44] How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear [45] without a preacher?

[44] q. d. If the Promises of Salvation belong to the Gentiles, then must also the Gospel be preach'd, and the several Means of Grace be dispenc'd to them, (and therefore the Apostles, in so doing, did nothing but what was agreeable to God's Will.) ¶ [45] Except God reveal the Gospel some way or other to them.

15 And how shall they [46] preach, except they be [47] sent? [48] as it is written, [49] How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of [50] peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

[46] Viz. By Christ's Authority, and in his Name. ¶ [47] Viz. Either immediately, or mediately, by him, whose word they publish. ¶ [48] Isa. 52. 7. Nah. 1. 15. i. e. According to what was spoken of the welcome Entertainment of those that brought the News of Deliverance out of the Babylonish Captivity; which holds much more true of those that should publish Gospel-tidings of Deliverance from the Slavery of Sin and Satan, by Christ; of which the other was but a Type. ¶ [49] i. e. Their Persons (though under some outward Prejudices, like dirty and sweaty Feet) yet are acceptable for their Message sake. ¶ [50] Which shews the way how to make Peace between God and Man.

16 [51] But * they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaias saith, Lord, [52] who hath believed † our ‖ report?

*Heb. 4. 2.
† Gr. the hearing of us.
‖ Or, preaching.

[51] q. d. But though Faith come by Hearing, yet there may be Hearing without Faith. ¶ [52] Isa. 53. 1. John 12. 38. i. e. But very few have been perswaded and wrought upon by our preaching.

17 So then, [53] faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the [54] word of God.

[53] 1 Cor. 1.-21. Eph. 1. 13. i. e. The Faith of the Gentiles could not, in an ordinary way, be otherwise wrought, than by hearing the Gospel preach'd: (And generally, in all Persons, it is usually wrought by Hearing especially; not excluding Reading, private Instruction, &c.) ¶ [54] i. e. By God's Command. q. d. The Gospel could not be lawfully preach'd to them, for them to hear, but by God's command; (and therefore the Apostles and Preachers of the Gospel to the Gentiles had good Authority for what they did.)

18 [55] But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, * [56] their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the [57] ends of the world.

*Matt. 24. 14.

[55] q. d. And this word of the Gospel is preach'd to all, both Jews and Gentiles, so that none can pretend Ignorance for an Excuse. ¶ [56] i. e. According to what was spoken directly and immediately of the preaching of the Heavens, (Psal. 19. 4.) and may be applied to the preaching of the Apostles and Evangelists. ¶ [57] To the utmost parts of the known world, ch. 1. 8. & 15. 19. Col. 1. 6, 23. Acts 2. 5.

19 But I say, Did not Israel [58] know? [59] First, Moses saith, [60] I will provoke you to [61] jealousie by them that are [62] no people, and by a [63] foolish nation I will anger you.

[58] Viz. That the Gospel should be preached to the Gentiles, and they thereby made Members of the Church? ¶ [59] q. d. They might have known it; for, first Moses, and then Isaiah foretold it. ¶ [60] Deut. 32. 21. ¶ [61] i. e. To the highest degree of Displeasure and Exasperation; viz. by bestowing your Priviledges on the Gentiles, and taking them to be my People, in the Times of the Gospel; (which they could not endure to hear of, Acts 22. 21, 22.) ¶ [62] Hos. 1. 10. 1 Pet. 2. 10. Matt. 21. 43. At present are not my People, and of no account with me. ¶ [63] Destitute of the Knowledge of the True God, and shew'd themselves to be fools by their Idolatry, Jerem. 10. 8. 1 Cor. 12. 2.

20 But Esaias is very [64] bold, and saith, [65] I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

[64] Speaks more freely (for all the Jews displeasure) of the Calling of the Gentiles. ¶ [65] Isa. 65. 1. i. e. I'll call the Gentiles, and bring them to the Knowledge of my self, by the preaching of the Gospel, who formerly neither knew nor regarded me.

21 But [66] to Israel he saith, [67] All day long I have [68] stretched forth my hands unto [69] a disobedient and gainsaying people. Chap. 11. 4063.

[66] Viz. Concerning their Rebellion, and consequently their Rejection. ¶ [67] Isa. 65. 2. ¶ [68] Invited them by my Prophets and Apostles, and used all means to allure them to my self. ¶ [69] (And therefore they are justly rejected, and the Gentiles received into their room.)

CHAP. XI.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel: 7 some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them.

1 I Say then, Hath God [2] cast away his people? God forbid. For * I also am an [3] Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

* 2 Cor. 11. 22, Phil. 3. 5.

[1] q. d. Though I say the Jews are cast off from being God's People, yet 'tis neither totally, nor finally: not all, nor for ever. ¶ [2] Psal. 94. 14. Jer. 31. 37. ¶ [3] (Yet not cast off.)

2 God hath not cast away his people which he [4] foreknew. [5] Wot ye not what the scripture saith † of Elias? how he [6] maketh intercession to God † Gr. in Elias. against [7] Israel, saying,

[4] John 10. 14. Chose and fore-ordained from Everlasting to Salvation, ch. 8. 29. ¶ [5] q. d. And this appears from the Answer given to Elias. ¶ [6] Complains in Prayer. ¶ [7] The Ten Tribes, who were generally revolted to Idolatry.

3 [8] Lord, they have [9] killed thy prophets, and [10] digged down thine [11] altars; and I am left [12] alone, and they seek my life.

[8] 1 Kings 19. 10, 14. ¶ [9] 1 Kings 18. 4. ¶ [10] 1 Kings 18.-30. ¶ [11] Built upon extraordinary Occasions, by special Dispensation; (as Judges 6. 24. & 21. 4. 1 Sam. 7.-17. & 11. 15. & 16. 2, 5. 2 Sam. 24. 18, 25. 1 Kings 18.-30. which seems to be allowed (Exod. 20. 24. Deut. 27. 6.) till the Temple was built, and ceremonial Worship fixed there.) Or by some pious persons of the Ten Tribes, who would not joyn in their Worship at Dan and Bethel: (which the Idolatrous Israelites did demolish.) ¶ [12] So it was, for ought he knew: for none did publickly own the true Worship of God, but himself.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have [13] reserved [14] to my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

[13] 1 Kings 19. 18. Of my own Free-grace kept a great number from Apostasie. ¶ [14] To maintain my Honour and true Worship.

5 [15] Even so then at this present time also there is a [16] remnant [17] according to the election of grace.

[15] q. d. And as it was then, so it is now. ¶ [16] A small number of Jews, who embrace the Gospel, (though the generality reject it.) [17] Acts 13.-48. ch. 9.-27. Even such as God, of his Free-grace, has chosen to Life.

6 And if [18] by grace, then is it no more [19] of works: [20] otherwise [21] grace is no more grace. But if it be [22] of works, then is it no more grace: [23] otherwise [24] work is no more work.

[18] Ch. 4. 4. Deut. 9. 4. viz. That some are elected, and secured from Apostasie. ¶ [19] i. e. Upon foresight and consideration of the merit of their own Works, (as some believing Jews held, Gal. 5. 2, 4.) ¶ [20] i. e. If there be any thing of Works. ¶ [21] Such a Mixture would destroy the Nature of Grace, which is, to be perfectly free in all respects. ¶ [22] Of meritorious Works, to which the Reward belongs of due Debt, ch. 4. 4. ¶ [23] If there be any thing of Grace in it. ¶ [24] Such a Mixture would destroy the Nature of Works, which is, to be Meritorious.

7 [25] What then? [26] Israel hath not obtained [27] that which he [28] seeketh for; but [29] the election hath obtained [30] it, and the [31] rest [32] were ‖ blinded:

[25] q. d. It is not absurd (though some may think so) to say, that Israel—— ¶ [26] The Body of the Jewish Nation, ch. 9. 31. ¶ [27] Viz. Righteousness and Life. ¶ [28] Endeavours to obtain by his own Works, ch. 10. 3. ¶ [29] Those few of 'em that are Elect, and so brought to believe in Christ. ¶ [30] Righteousness. ¶ [31] Viz. Who are not Elect. ¶ [32] Are left, by God's just Judgment, to their own Ignorance and Obstinacy, to shut their Eyes against the clear Light of the Gospel; and also to Satan, to increase it in 'em, 2 Cor. 4. 4.

8 [33] According as it is written, God hath [34] given them the [35] spirit of ‖ slumber, * [36] eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, [37] unto this day.

‖ Or, remorse. * Ezek. 12. 2. Matt. 13. 14.

[33] q. d. So that in them is accomplish'd what Isaiah foretold. ¶ [34] Isa. 29. 10. Matt. 13. 15. John 12. 40. Acts 28. 26. 2 Thess. 2. 11. i. e. Given 'em up for their wilful Obstinacy, to a further degree of Blindness. See on ch. 1. 24. n. 98. ¶ [35] A stupid, senseless temper of Mind, whereby they are drowsily careless of their Salvation. ¶ [36] Isa. 6. 9. i. e. He has not given 'em Eyes to see; as it is Deut. 29. 4. (from whence these words seem to be taken) and so, being forsaken of God, they are like to a Man in a deep Sleep, bereft of their Senses; or, he has given them up to such a sottishness of Spirit, that though they have Eyes, yet they should not see. ¶ [37] q. d. So it was then, and so it is still.

9 And David [38] saith, Let their [39] table be made [40] a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and [41] a recompense unto them.

[38] Viz. Prophetically, as a Type of Christ, Psal. 69. 22, 23. ¶ [39] That which in its own nature tends to their good, as the Preaching of the Gospel does.) ¶ [40] An Occasion of Mischief, (by reason of their Corruption.) ¶ [41] For their eternal Destruction, as a Recompence of their Wickedness.

10 Let their [42] eyes be darkned, that they may [44] not see, and [45] bow down their back alway.

[42] Their Understandings be left to their own wilful Ignorance and Errour. ¶ [44] Discern nothing of Heavenly things. ¶ [45] Let 'em savour nothing but Earthly things, and be unable to lift up their Heads and Spirits to thee and thy Gospel.

11 I say then, [46] Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: [47] but rather [48] through their fall [49] salvation is come unto the Gentiles, [50] for to provoke them to jealousie.

[46] q. d. Though they have taken such Offence at Christ and the Gospel, that they are rejected by God at present, yet they are not fallen irrecoverably into a final Apostasie. ¶ [47] q. d. This is not God's End in this Dispensation, but rather—— ¶ [48] Upon this Occasion, Acts 13. 45, 46. ¶ [49] The Gospel, which is the Means of Salvation, is preach'd to the Gentiles, Acts 13. 42, 46. ¶ [50] Ch. 10. 19. which God in his infinite Wisdom will make use of to stir the Jews up to a holy Indignation, and Emulation, to see themselves so far out-stript by those whom they despised, and thereupon to embrace the Gospel, and become the People of God again. Thus, as God appointed that the casting off of the Jews should be an Occasion of the calling of the Gentiles; so again, that this calling of the Gentiles may be an Occasion to restore the Jews.

12 Now if the [51] fall of them be the [52] riches of the world, and the ‖ [53] diminishing of them the [52] riches of the Gentiles: [54] how much more their fulness?

13 For [55] I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the apostle of the [56] Gentiles, I [57] magnifie mine office:

15 [63] For if the casting away of them be the [64] reconciling of the world; what shall the [66] receiving of them be, but [67] life from the dead?

[63] q. d. Their general Conversion ought to be desired, because of the admirable Benefit which will come thereby. ¶ [64] An Occasion of sending the Gospel to the Gentiles, all the world over, and so bringing them to Faith in Christ, whereby they obtain Pardon of their Sins, and Reconciliation with God, 2 Cor. 5. 19, 20. ¶ [66] Viz. Into the Church, and God's Favour again, (upon their general Conversion.) ¶ [67] Dan. 12. 2. Ezek. 37. 16. Rev. 11. 11. 1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 6 Every man must attend his calling. 9 Love, and other duties required. 19 Revenge forbidden.

* I Beseech you [1] therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye [2] present your bodies a [4] living [5] sacrifice, [6] holy, [7] acceptable unto God, which is your [8] reasonable service. * 2 Cor. 10. 1.

[1] q. d. Since you Gentiles have received so great Mercies from God, as to be taken into the Number of his People, and have been elected, called, justified, &c. and as you value these Mercies, so let the consideration of them engage you to all manner of Holiness and Obedience. ¶ [2] Dedicate and offer, (as spiritual Priests, 1 Pet. 2. 9.) Your whole Man, ch. 6. 12, 13. 1 Cor. 6.-20. ¶ [4] Not dead, as the Legal Sacrifices were; but endued with spiritual Life, by Regeneration. ¶ [5] Slaying and mortifying your Lusts, (1 Cor. 9. 27.) and devoting your selves to God's service, 1 Cor. 6.-20. ¶ [6] Both inwardly in your affections, and outwardly in your conversation, (as the Sacrifices were to be without blemish.) ¶ [7] That so he may be well-pleased with, and accept of you, through Christ our great High-Priest, 1 Pet. 2. 5. ¶ [8] i. e. Your spiritual Worship, consisting in the offering up of reasonable Creatures, (viz. your selves, endued with reasonable Souls) in stead of bruit Beasts under the Law, 1 Pet. 2. 5.

2 And [9] be not conformed to [10] this world: but be ye [11] transformed [12] by the renewing of your mind; [13] that ye may * prove what is that [14] good, and [15] acceptable, and [16] perfect will of God. * 1 Thess. 4. 3.

[41] 1 Thess. 5. 4–6. The time of Heathenish Ignorance and Profaneness. ¶ [42] The time of Gospel-light, and saving Knowledge, is begun among us. ¶ [43] All manner of wickedness, (John 3. 20. Eph. 5. 11.) which is wont to be done in the Night, (Job 24. 14–17. John 3. 20. 1 Thess. 5. 7.) and in times of Ignorance and Unregeneracy. ¶ [44] 2 Cor. 6. 7. Col. 3. 8. All manner of Christian Vertues and Graces, (1 Thess. 5. 8. Eph. 6. 11, &c.) whereby we may be enabled to combate with our spiritual Enemies. ¶ [45] Glittering, and shining, to the Glory of God, Matt. 5. 16.

13 Let us [46] walk ‖ honestly as in the day; not in [47] rioting and drunkenness, * not in [48] chambering and [49] wantonness, * not in strife and envying.

‖ Or, decently. * 1 Cor. 6. 9. * James 3. 14.

[45] Eph. 5. 15. Phil. 4. 8. 1 Thess. 4. 12. Behave our selves as becomes those to whom the glorious Light of the Gospel has appeared. ¶ [47] Luke 21. 34. Gal. 5. 21. 1 Pet. 4. 3. CHAP. XIV.

3 Men may not contemn nor condemn one another for things indifferent, 13 but take heed of giving no offence in them.

1 HIM that is * [2] weak in the faith [3] receive you, but ‖ [4] not to doubtful disputations.

* 1 Cor. 8. 9. & 9. 22. ‖ Or, not to judge his doubtfull thoughts.

[1] Any one of the believing Jews. ¶ [2] Ch. 15. 1. Wavering, doubtful, unsatisfied in, or not well acquainted with the Principles of Christian Religion; particularly, that of Christian Liberty, and Freedom from the ceremonial Law. ¶ [3] Viz. Into your Communion, with all kindness, bearing with his Weakness. ¶ [4] Don't entertain him with disputes about these Points, whereby, in stead of convincing, you'll but puzzle, perplex, and intangle him the more.

2 For [5] one believeth that he may eat all things: [8] another who is weak, eateth [9] herbs.

[5] A converted Gentile, who rightly understands his Christian Liberty, is firmly perswaded, and satisfied in his Judgment, that he may eat any kind of Food indifferently, (though forbidden by the ceremonial Law) without Sin. ¶ [8] A believing Jew, not throughly informed of his Christian Liberty. ¶ [9] Viz. For fear lest he should offend, by eating any thing forbidden by the Law, (as Dan. 1. 12.) or, at least, which was not killed in a Legal manner, Lev. 17. 10–14. (Upon which account, the Jews at this day eat no Meat, but what is of their own dressing.)

3 * Let not him that [10] eateth, [11] despise him that [12] eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, [13] judge him that eateth: for God hath [14] received him.

* Col. 2. 16.

[10] Makes use of his Liberty, to eat any thing indifferently. ¶ [11] viz. As a Novice, or over-scrupulous, or superstitious. ¶ [12] Forbears the use of such kind of Food as is forbidden by the Law. ¶ [13] Col. 2. 16. Censure him as profane, and one that uses a Liberty which the Law forbids. ¶ [14] Owns both the one and the other for his Servants, for their common Belief of the Essential Points.

4 Who art [15] thou that judgest [16] another mans servant? [17] to his own master he standeth or falleth:

Chap. 14. leth: yea, [18] he shall be holden up: for God is [19] able to make him stand.

[15] James 4.-12. Whether weak or strong. ¶ [16] Him over whom thou hast no power. ¶ [17] 1 Cor. 4. 4. He must abide by Christ's Judgment only, to whom it belongs either to acquit or condemn him. ¶ [18] Each of them shall be secured from those Miscarriages the other is apt to suspect he'll become guilty of. ¶ [19] Will certainly do it, (as ch. 4. 21. & 11. 23. Heb. 2. 18. See there) having received him, v. 3.

5 One man [20] esteemeth one day above another: another [21] esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [22] fully ‖ perswaded in his own mind.

‖ Or, assured.

[20] Gal. 4. 10. Col. 2. 16. Thinks that the Jewish Festivals are holier than other Days, and still to be observed. ¶ [21] Holds that that Difference of Days is now ceased. ¶ [22] Ver. 23. Well satisfied, as to the Grounds of his Practice; that so he may not wittingly offend God.

‖ Or, observeth.

6 He that ‖ [23] regardeth the day, [24] regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, [25] to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that

* 1 Tim. 4. 3.

[26] eateth, eateth to the Lord, for * he [27] giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, [28] to the Lord he eateth not, and [29] giveth God thanks.

[23] Observes those Festivals. ¶ [24] Aims at God's Honour therein. ¶ [25] 1 Cor. 10. 31. Aims also at God's Glory in not keeping it, and thinks he does that which is agreeable to his Will. ¶ [26] Indifferently of all Meats. ¶ [27] Viz. For the free use of his Creatures, and his Christian Liberty about 'em, 1 Cor. 10. 26. ¶ [28] Forbears to eat of such Meats as were forbidden by the Law, out of respect to God's Commands: (So that both aiming at the same End, ought not to censure one the other.) ¶ [29] Because he has Meat enough besides, which was not forbidden; as 1 Cor. 10.-28.

* 1 Cor. 6. 19, 20. Gal. 2. 20.

7 For * [30] none of us [31] liveth to himself, and no man [32] dieth to himself.

[30] 2 Cor. 5. 15. No Believer, whether weak or strong. ¶ [31] 1 Thess. 5. 10. 1 Pet. 4. 2. Is his own Lord, and at his own disposal, to govern himself according to his own Will. ¶ [32] Phil. 1. 21. Only for his own Advantage, and according to his own Pleasure, when he will.

8 For whether we live, we [33] live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we [34] die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore or die, we are [35] the Lords.

[33] Spend our Lives in his Service, according to his Will. ¶ [34] Must be ready to lay down our Lives at his Appointment, to bring Glory to him thereby. ¶ [35] The Servants of Christ; (and so must aim at his Glory in the use of these Indifferent things, and must not be censured by our fellow-servants.)

* 2 Cor. 5. 15.

9 For * to this end Christ both [36] died, and [37] rose, and [38] revived, that he might be Lord both of the [39] dead and living.

[36] To pay the Price of our Ransom and Redemption. ¶ [37] To receive his Purchase and Dominion. ¶ [38] Still lives to exercise his Dominion over us. ¶ [39] Acts 10.-42. Of all his Redeemed ones, both such as are yet alive, and those that are dead.

10 But why dost thou [40] judge thy brother? or why dost thou [41] set at nought thy brother? for [42] we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

[40] See n. 11, 15, 16. ¶ [41] See n. 13. ¶ [42] 2 Cor. 5. 10. See on John 5. 22.

11 For it is written, [43] As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall [44] bowe to me, and every tongue shall [45] confess to God.

[43] Isa. 45. 23. Phil. 2. 10. Rev. 5. 13. ¶ [44] Stoop to my Dominion, and yield Reverence and Obedience to me as their Lord. ¶ [45] Acknowledge my Soveraignty; (which shall be done most fully and perfectly at the Day of Judgment.)

* Gal. 6. 5.

12 So then * every one of us shall [46] give account [47] of himself to [48] God.

[46] Matt. 12. 36. Luke 16. 2. Heb. 13. 17. 1 Pet. 4. 5. ¶ [47] Of his own Carriage, and not of the Weaknesses of others: (and therefore we should not trouble our selves about them, but look to our selves.) ¶ [48] To Christ.

13 Let us not [49] therefore judge one another any more; but [50] judge this rather, that no man [51] put a stumbling-block, or an occasion [52] to fall in his brothers way.

Chap. 14. 4063.

[49] Seeing Judgment belongs to Christ. ¶ [50] In stead of judging others, take notice of this as a great Truth, and Rule for our own Deportment. ¶ [51] 1 Cor. 8. 9. & 10. 32. 2 Cor. 6. 3. Hinder his Brother in his Way to Heaven, or induce him to act with a doubting Conscience, by an unseasonable use of Christian Liberty. ¶ [52] Viz. Into Sin.

14 I know, and am perswaded [53] by the Lord Jesus, that there is [54] nothing † unclean of it self: but * to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is [55] unclean.

† Gr. common. * 1 Cor. 8. 7, 10.

[53] By the Light of his Word and Spirit. ¶ [54] Gen. 1. 31. Matt. 15. 11. 1 Tim. 4. 4. Tit. 1. 15. No kind of Meat is unlawful to be used now under the Gospel, (as it is such a kind of Meat, viz. which was unclean by the Law. ¶ [55] Unlawful to be eaten; (because nothing must be done against Conscience.)

15 But if thy [56] brother be [57] grieved [58] with thy meat, now walkest thou not † [59] charitably. [60] Destroy not him with thy meat, [61] for whom Christ died.

† Gr. according to charity.

¶ [56] Thy weak Fellow-Believer. ¶ [57] Drawn to Sin, (as the following word [destroy] implies) by being prevailed with, by thy Example, to do that which he doubts of, (and so is grieved for it afterwards.) ¶ [58] At thy eating of things forbidden by the Law, which he thinks are still unlawful. ¶ [59] Tenderly, and condescendingly to his Infirmity, as Charity requires. ¶ [60] Ver. 20. 1 Cor. 8. 11. Do not that which may tend to his Destruction, by drawing him to act against his Conscience, (1 Cor. 8. 10.) or by giving him so great an Offence as may alienate his Mind from the Christian Profession. ¶ [61] 2 Tim. 2. 6. Heb. 2. 9. 2 Pet. 2. 1. 1 John 2. 2. (and therefore his Salvation should not be so slighted by thee.)

16 [62] Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

[62] 1 Cor. 10.-29, 30. Use not your Christian Liberty unduely, whereby it should come to be reproached, as if it were only profane Licentiousness, and Matter of Contention.

17 [64] For the [65] kingdom of God [66] is not meat and drink, but [67] righteousness, and [68] peace, and [69] joy in the holy Ghost.

[64] q. d. 'Tis not necessary that you should always make use of your Christian Liberty, in eating all kind of Meats; for— [65] 1 Cor. 4. 20. Gal. 5. 6. 1 Tim. 4. 8. True Religion, and the Work of Grace, whereby Christ rules in his People. ¶ [66] Ch. 2. 28. Gal. 5. 6. 1 Cor. 8. 8. Consists not in, and is not promoted by, the using or forbearing of these Indifferent things; (and therefore we may well abstain from 'em, when our Brother is like to be hurt thereby. ¶ [67] Matt. 6. 33. Holiness of Life. ¶ [68] That satisfaction of Mind which our own Consciences afford us in the Sense of our Sincerity, 2 Cor. 1. 12. ¶ [69] That Comfort and Delight which is imprinted upon the Soul by the Spirit of God, Rom. 8. 16.

18 For he that [70] in these things [71] serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and [72] approved of men.

[70] In the Exercise of Righteousness, &c. ¶ [71] Obeys his Commands, and shews himself his Servant. ¶ [72] Does that which will gain him the Approbation of all good Men.

19 [73] Let us therefore follow after the things which [74] make for peace, and things wherewith one may [75] edifie another.

[73] Ch. 12. 18. & 15. 2. Psal. 34.-14. Phil. 3. 16. Heb. 12. 14. ¶ [74] Tend to procure, promote, and preserve Peace among the Faithful. ¶ [75] Help to increase Grace in another.

See n. 54. Tit. 1. 15. q. d. True, all Meats are in themselves lawful. ¶ [80] Sinful and hurtful.

21 It is [81] good neither to eat [82] flesh, nor to [83] drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother [84] stumbleth, or is [85] offended, or is made [86] weak.

[81] Both pleasing to God, and profitable for Edification, (and therefore thy Duty.) ¶ [82] 1 Cor. 8. 13. ¶ [83] Not only to abstain from what was forbidden, but any other thing that gives offence. ¶ [84] Is drawn to do something against his Conscience, or with a doubting Conscience. ¶ [85] Discouraged in his Christian Course. ¶ [86] Wavering in his Judgment, whether it may be done or no.

22 Hast thou [87] faith? [88] have it to thy self before God. Happy is he that [89] condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

[87] Ver. 2, 14. ‖ Or, discerneth and putteth a difference between meats. * Tit. 1. 15.

23 And he [91] that ‖ doubteth, is [92] damned [93] if he eat, because he eateth not [94] of faith: for * whatsoever is not of faith, is [95] sin.

[91] Viz. Whether it be lawful for him to eat or no. ¶ [92] Wounds his Conscience, and makes himself liable to Damnation. ¶ [93] Viz. That which he doubts of. ¶ [94] With a Perswasion of its Lawfulness. ¶ [95] Heb. 11. 6.

CHAP. XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please our selves, 7 but receive one another, as Christ did us all.

* Gal. 6. 1.

* WE then that are [1] strong ought to [2] bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to [3] please our selves.

[1] That have attained to a greater measure of Knowledge and Judgment in the Christian Faith, than others. ¶ [2] 1 Cor. 9. 22. Gal. 6. 2. To comply with their Weakness so far as not to use our Liberty to their Offences; and also to bear with 'em in their Failings through Ignorance or Weakness, and not to condemn or contemn 'em. ¶ [3] 1 Cor. 10. 33. To act wholly according to our own Judgments, without any regard to others.

2 Let every one of us [4] please his neighbour for his good to edification.

[4] Ch. 14. 19. 1 Cor. 9. 19. & 10. 24, 33. Phil. 2. 4. Comply with his Opinion in these Indifferencies, so far as may tend to his increase in Holiness.

3 For even Christ [5] pleased not himself; [6] but as it is written, [7] The reproaches of them that reproached thee, fell on me.

[5] Had respect to our Benefit, more than to his own. ¶ [6] q. d. But he so carried himself, that that may truly be applied to him. ¶ [7] Psal. 69. 9. The Sins of Men, (which are things that cast reproach upon God,) I have taken 'em upon my self, Isa. 53. 4. (and therefore we ought also to seek the Good of our Neighbour, and do that which may tend to promote his Salvation.)

4 [9] For [10] whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning; that we [11] through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

[9] q. d. And though this may seem to concern David or Christ only; yet it belongs to us also, that we may learn from thence to bear the Infirmities of others. ¶ [10] Ch. 4. 23, 24. 2 Tim. 3. 16. This Passage, and all others, whether Promises, (Heb. 13. 5.) Threatnings, (Acts 13. 40, 41.) Rewards, (ch. 4. 24.) or Punishments, (1 Cor. 10. 11.) are useful to us now, as well as to them then. ¶ [11] By learning and exercising such Patience as the Scripture prescribes, especially in bearing with the Infirmities of others; and obtaining those Comforts the Scripture holds forth to us, might be confirmed in our expectation of Eternal Life.

5 Now the God of [14] patience and consolation, [15] grant you to be [16] like-minded one towards another, ‖ according to [17] Christ Jesus:

‖ Or, after the example of.

[14] 1 Cor. 1. 10. ¶ [15] Give you the Grace of Unity and Charity. ¶ [16] Ch. 12. 16. See there, n. 61. ¶ [17] His Doctrine, Command, and Example, and so far forth as is for his Honour.

6 [18] That ye may with [19] one mind and one mouth glorifie God, even [20] the father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[18] That you may agree together both in your Judgments, Wills, Words, and Actions, in those things that tend to God's Glory. ¶ [19] Acts 4. 32. ¶ [20] 2 Cor. 1. 3. See there.

Chap. 15. 4063.

7 Wherefore [21] receive ye one another, [22] as Christ also [23] received [24] us, [25] to the glory of God.

[21] Ch. 14. 11. viz. Into Communion, with mutual Kindness, without despising or judging one another. ¶ [22] John 13. 34. ¶ [23] Viz. To be Members of his Church. ¶ [24] Both Jews and Gentiles. ¶ [25] To manifest the Glory of God's Truth to the Jews, and Mercy to the Gentiles; as v. 8, 9.

8 [26] Now I say, that * Jesus Christ was a [27] minister of the circumcision [28] for the truth of God, to confirm the [29] promises made unto the fathers:

* Matt. 15. 24.

[26] q. d. When I say, Christ received us, my meaning more fully is this. ¶ [27] Acts 3. 26. He vouchsafed to be a Servant (Matt. 20. 28. Luke 22. 27.) of the Jews, to preach the Gospel among them only, Matt. 15. 24. (and therefore the believing Jews, though weak, should not be despised by the believing Gentiles, though stronger.) ¶ [28] To demonstrate his Faithfulness in thus fulfilling the Promises. ¶ [29] Viz. Of sending the Messiah to them.

9 [30] And that the Gentiles might glorifie God for his [31] mercy, [32] as it is written, [33] For this cause [34] I will [35] confess to thee among the [36] Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.

[30] q. d. And the Gentiles also are received to Mercy, that they might praise, honour, and serve God. ¶ [31] Viz. In bringing them to the Knowledge of Christ, notwithstanding their Unworthiness; (and therefore the believing Jews should not reject them, though they make use of their lawful Liberty.) ¶ [32] According to those Prophesies which speak of their calling to be Members of the Church. ¶ [33] Psal. 18. 49. For the Advancement of the Kingdom of Christ among the Gentiles. ¶ [34] (David speaks this in the Person of Christ.) ¶ [35] Enable the Gentiles, by my Spirit, to offer up Praise for so great a Mercy. ¶ [36] (Therefore they should sometime be called.)

10 And again he saith, [37] Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people.

[37] Deut. 32. 43. q. d. The time will come when you Gentiles shall become the People of God, as well as the Jews, and shall joyn with them in the Worship of God, and rejoyce in the sense of his Goodness to you.

11 And again, [38] Praise the Lord all ye Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.

[38] Psal. 117. 1. viz. For the Mercy vouchsafed to you; (therefore they shall know God, and obtain Mercy.)

12 And again Esaias saith, [39] There shall be a [40] root of Jesse, and he that shall [41] rise to [42] reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles [43] trust.

[39] Isa. 11. 10. ¶ [40] i. e. Christ, as a Sprig or Shoot, sprouting out from Jesse, as a Root. See Isa. 11. 1. ¶ [41] Viz. Out of this Root. ¶ [42] Viz. By the Power of his Grace and Spirit. ¶ [43] Believe in him; (and therefore he shall save them.)

13 Now the God [44] of hope fill you with [45] all joy and [46] peace [47] in believing, that ye may abound in [48] hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

[44] In whom we must hope, (Jer. 17. 7. 1 Tim. 6. 17.) and who works it in us, 1 Pet. 1. 3. ¶ [45] True Spiritual Joy, at all times, (Phil. 4. 4.) and in all things, 1 Thess. 5. 16, 18. [46] ¶ Of all sorts. ¶ [47] In or by the exercise of your Faith. ¶ [48] Assurance of Eternal Salvation, and all other things needful.

14 And * I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that [49] ye also are full of [50] goodness, filled with [51] all knowledge, able also to [52] admonish one another.

* 2 Pet. 1. 12. 1 John 2. 21.

[49] Some among you. ¶ [50] Kindness, so as to forbear scandalizing and censuring one another. ¶ [51] A large measure of Knowledge in all needful Points. ¶ [52] Inform and instruct another in any thing he is ignorant of, or failing in.

15 [53] Nevertheless, brethren, I have [54] written the more boldly unto you, in some sort, as [55] putting you in mind, because of the [56] grace that is given to me of God,

[53] Notwithstanding your Grace and Knowledge. ¶ [54] Dealt the more freely and plainly with you in writing. ¶ [55] 1 Tim. 4. 6. 2 Tim. 1. 6. & 2 14. 2 Pet. 1. 12, 13, 15.

[64] I'll not glory of more than is true, and has been really done by me. ¶ [65] To convert them, and bring 'em to the Faith. ¶ [66] Acts 7.-22. By Preaching and Miracles.

19 Through mighty [67] signs and [68] wonders, by the power of the [69] Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem and round about unto Illyricum, I have [70] fully preached the gospel of Christ.

17 For Chriſt [53] ſent me not to baptize, but to [54] preach the goſpel: not with [55] wiſdom of ‖ words, leſt the [56] croſs of Chriſt ſhould be made of none effect.

‖ Or, ſpeech.

[53] Did not call me after ſuch a wonderful manner, and endue me with ſuch extraordinary Gifts, to employ me about that only, which might be done as well by an ordinary Miniſter. ¶ [54] To plant Churches, by preaching the Goſpel to thoſe that never heard it afore, Acts 26. 17, 18. Rom. 15. 20. ¶ [55] Ch. 2. 1. 2 Pet. 1. 16. Diſcourſes ſtuff with Humane Wiſdom, and Philoſophical Notions; reducing the chief Points of Chriſtianity to Philoſophical Principles, (wherein the Corinthians were much verſt) that it might appear to have ſomething of humane Wiſdom in it. ¶ [56] The bare, naked preaching of Chriſt crucified (v. 18, 23.) as the Foundation of all Chriſtianity, ſhould be thought unavailable to beget Faith, and ſo bring Men to Salvation.

18 For the [57] preaching of the croſs is to * them that [58] periſh [59] fooliſhneſs: but unto us which are [60] ſaved, it is the [61] power of God.

* 1 Cor. 2. 15.

[57] The Doctrine of Chriſt crucified, to purchaſe eternal Salvation for Believers. ¶ [58] Unbelievers, that judge only according to carnal Reaſon and Senſe. ¶ [59] Accounted an abſurd, ridiculous, impoſſible thing, (according to the Principles of their Philoſophy) and which none in their Wits will believe. See ch. 2. n. 50. ¶ [60] i. e. Believe, in order to Salvation, as v. 24. ¶ [61] Rom. 1. 16. Such a Work wherein we own and feel the mighty Power of God.

19 [62] For it is written, [63] I will deſtroy the wiſdom of the wiſe, and will bring to nothing the underſtanding of the prudent.

[62] q. d. It appears that this is the only means of Salvation, becauſe all other ways of Man's own Invention are ineffectual. ¶ [62] Iſa. 29. 14. Job 5. 12. i. e. That worldly carnal Wiſdom which they ſo much boaſt of, ſo as to deſpiſe the Doctrine of Salvation by a crucified Chriſt, ſhall be of no advantage to 'em for their Souls.

20 [64] Where is the [65] wiſe? where is the [66] ſcribe? where is the [67] diſputer of this world? hath not God [68] made fooliſh the wiſdom of this world?

[64] Iſa. 33. 18. q. d. All their Wiſdom, Learning, &c. could not prolong their Lives; but now they are no where to be found in this World, and are periſht eternally in their Sins, without any hope of Salvation. ¶ [65] The great Stateſman and Politician. ¶ [66] One that employs himſelf wholly in reading of Books, to get Wiſdom. ¶ [67] One that ſearches into ſubtile Queſtions, and ſuch natural Wiſdom as a carnal Man can attain unto by his own Abilities. ¶ [68] Job 12. 17. Manifeſted it to be ſtark Folly, in that they are unable to obtain Happineſs and Salvation thereby.
